FIVE PERSONS BURNED TO DEATH IN EARLY FIRE IN KANSAS CITY HOUSE

Four of Five Caught by Flames While in Bed.

The Other Fell Down Stairs Into a Seething Furnace.

House Was a Firetrap Without Any Means of Escape.

Kansas City, Feb. 1.—Five persons were burned to death and five others were injured in a fire in a three story rooming house at 1115 Wyandotte street near the business section this morning. The dead:

MRS. JENNIE BERTH, aged 23, Garrisonville, Mo., waitress.
MABLE PORTER, aged 18, waitress.
NINA GRAVES, aged 18, waitress.
PETER ROONEY, aged 24, cook.
CHARLES JOHNSON, aged 28, cook.

The injured received slight burns and cuts and none is believed to be in a dangerous condition. All of the dead except Mrs. Borth lived in this city. They were taken to the Emergency hospital. A partial list of them is:

Joe Nagensens, aged 20, bell boy.
Claude Polver, aged 20, bell boy.

REMOVAL OF DUNSMUIR

As Lieut. Governor of British Columbia to be Demanded.

Liberals and Socialists Join in Movement to Oust Him.

Vancouver, B. C., Feb. 1.—Important steps will be taken within the next few days in the effort to cause the removal from office of Lieut.-Governor Dunsmuir. The Liberals joined the Socialists in the provincial legislature and on Monday will ask the house at Victoria to petition the Dominion government to remove him. The Victoria Colonist, the oldest newspaper in British Columbia, formerly owned by Dunsmuir, is demanding that the lieutenant governor step down.

In a speech in the house, Representative Hawthorne Thwaite declared that if the legislature of the Dominion government does not exclude the Orientals, laborers will arm themselves, as the Japanese have done at Vancouver, and that a great conflict may ensue. Hawthorne Thwaite has drafted a bill providing that no mill or factory in the province shall hire Orientals unless they can pass an educational test similar to that provided in the national act, so that in any event admission to the province would do them no good.

WOMAN GETS FOURTEEN YEARS FOR ARSON.

New York, Feb. 1.—Mrs. Annie Ackery, the first woman ever convicted of arson in Brooklyn, has been sentenced to serve fourteen years in prison. According to the evidence in the case, she, in order to collect on a $1,000 fire insurance policy, set fire to the contents of her apartment in a crowded Brooklyn tenement house, endangering the lives of scores of people living in the same building.

SMALL BANK CLOSES.

New York, Feb. 1.—The Home bank of Brooklyn, a state institution, on which a run was started yesterday, did not open for business today. The Home bank is a small institution, located in South Brooklyn. It has a capital stock of $100,000 and a surplus and undivided profits amounting to $53,670. Its closing is without bearing upon the general financial situation. The deposits, which formerly averaged about $500,000, have been reduced greatly since the October panic.

TO SEARCH FOR MISSING GIRL. Fremont, Neb., Feb. 1.—Sheriff Bauman left last night for St. Joseph, Mo., where he will search for Lillie Olson, the 5-year-old girl, who mysteriously disappeared from her father's farm near Rosalia more than a month ago. Sheriff Bauman declares he has a good clue and will investigate in St. Joseph.

1, Charles E. Gremmels; 2, Arthur A. Naething; 3, George W. Cary; 4, George C. Rupprecht; 5, John C. Holbert; 6, David A. Arrowsmith, Jr.; 7, William F. Doolittle; 8, William H. McHue; 9, Frank J. Howell; 10, William Burck; 11, Francis Doveale; 12, James A. Hooper.

SEVERE COLD IN NORTHWEST

Temperature Expected to Fall Steadily Until Sunday Night.

St. Paul, Feb. 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—A cold, cutting wind from the Northwest, which has been blowing all night, is bringing extreme cold down into this section, and it will pass to the eastward tonight and tomorrow, is the statement given out by the weather bureau. The temperature here this morning is 3 below, with a steady drop. This cold is coming from Regina, N. W. T., where the mercury registered 20 below today. The coldest spot in the United States today is at Devils Lake, N. D., where the mercury registered 26 degrees below; at Moorhead, Minn., it is 20 below; at Ellensburg, N. D., it is 20 below; and at Winnipeg, Man., it is 24 below. This cold will continue until late Sunday night when it will pass on to Chicago and the South and East. Heavy snow accompanied this spell of winter and the territory to the south and east of here was covered in some places to the depth of ten inches.

Lincoln, Neb. Feb. 1.—Intense cold and drifting snow this morning delayed all trains on the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad in Southern and South-

UNIVERSITY HAS A BIG SURPLUS

The Trustees of Stanford Loaning Much Money on Frisco Mortgages.

Stanford University has an endowment in the way of securities and property amounting to between $35,000,000 and $40,000,000. It is said that about $3,000,000 is invested in first class interest bearing securities in San Francisco, Chicago, New York and London. The interest derived from these securities is more than enough to meet all the current expenses of the institution. In this way the trustees are accumulating a surplus and from this surplus have already made a loan of $400,000 on first class mortgage securities in San Francisco.

At a meeting of the trustees yesterday it was decided as this surplus increased, the board would loan it on first class mortgage securities in San Francisco as a means of helping the re-building of the city. It is thought that within the next eight or ten months, the trustees may have available for loans of this character about $1,000,000.

MISSISSIPPI IN COMMISSION.

Philadelphia, Feb. 1.—The battleship Mississippi, which was recently turned over to the government by the ship-building company, was placed in the commission at the League Island navy yard today. Capt. J. C. Monnet has been named as the commander of the new war ship. The Mississippi will be ready for sea service within a few weeks.

HAVEN'S DILEMMA.

Haven's policy of trying to cover all sides at the same time is causing him some worry.

WAS INSANE AT TIME OF COMMITTING THE CRIME

Both Sides Seem to be Satisfied With the Verdict Rendered by Jury.

Thaw Must Stay in Asylum Until He Can Show He Has Recovered Reason.

New York, Feb. 1.—Acquitted today of the murder of Stanford White, on the ground that he was insane at the time of the commission of the homicide, Harry K. Thaw was ordered by Justice Dowling to be committed to the Matteawan asylum for the criminal insane, until such time as he can convince the state lunacy commission that his being at large will not endanger the public safety. Thaw was led back to the Tombs, across the bridge of sighs, and will remain there until the sheriff can plan for his transfer to the up-state asylum. Both Thaw and his wife, the latter being the only member of the family in court when the jury unexpectedly returned its verdict after a deliberation of twenty-five hours, seemed pleased and satisfied with the outcome of the case. Thaw stood and smilingly bowed his acknowledgments to the jurors as they filed one by one out of the box. District Attorney Jerome also seemed satisfied, as he has contended ever since the crime was committed, that Thaw was medically, if not legally, insane. Thaw's counsel thanked the jurors with a hearty handshake for each of the twelve. Attorney Littleton also filed an exception to Justice Dowling's decision in retaining Thaw in custody and committing him to the asylum.

HARRY THAW.

Only a few spectators were allowed to enter the court room when the jury reported. Justice Dowling warned them against any demonstration whatsoever, but despite this warning one man broke into applause as the foreman uttered the first words of the verdict, "not guilty." He was immediately arrested, arraigned before Justice Dowling, after the jury had been discharged, and fined $25 for contempt of court.

It was just 12:30 o'clock this afternoon, just twenty-five hours after the jury had retired, that the first word came from their council room. An officer was dispatched to Justice Dowling, in his chambers, that the twelve men were ready to report. District Attorney Jerome and counsel for the defense quickly assembled, and young Mrs. Thaw rushed to her accustomed chair in the court room. Justice Dowling took his seat on the bench at 12:42 p. m., and it was about five minutes later that the verdict was announced. The jurors as they took their places in the box gave no indication of their conclusion, and it was anticipated that a disagreement would come forth. Up to the time Justice Dowling warned the spectators against making a demonstration, Thaw was not prepared for the climax of his case, and there was a considerable delay in summoning him to the bar. When he had reached his chair at counsel table, the call of the jury was begun by Clerk Penny. Thaw had a smile of greeting for his wife, but looked extremely pale. The man arrested for applauding in the court room was Theodore Fell, the noted tennis player. All the doors of the court room were (Continued on page 4, third column.)

SUPERIOR NEWS

Injured Farmer May Die.

Word received from Ashland by Sheriff Bird indicates that Alexander Savella, a resident of Brule, who was injured in a drunken brawl several days ago, is likely to die from his injuries. John Grayson, who was arrested on the charge of assaulting Savella, has been released on a $500 bond, pending trial. It is said that the charge is likely to be made a more serious one. Both men are farmers, and have been neighbors many years. The fight is claimed to be the outcome of a friendly scuffle in a saloon, and took place near Grayson's home.

Democrats Will Meet.

A meeting of the Democrats of Douglas county will be held at the office of E. P. M. Anderson, in the Hammond block, the evening of Feb. 12, to select five delegates to attend the Democratic state convention at Milwaukee, Feb. 13. The call has been signed by William Stone, chairman of the Democratic county committee. It is understood that steps will be taken at the meeting to reorganize the Democratic party in the county of Superior.

Pastor Accepts Call.

Rev. E. H. Shepley of Waverly, Ill., who has been elected pastor of the Pilgrim Congregational church, will assume his duties March 1. The new pastor is a graduate of the Chicago Theological seminary, and has spent a term at the divinity school of the Chicago university. He is 29 years of age.

YACHT DESIGNER HURT.

Glasgow, Feb. 1.—William E. Fife, of his yacht, the Great, was seriously injured at his shipyard at Fairley yesterday. While superintending the construction of the Great, Fife fell from the deck into the hold, struck his head and was rendered unconscious. He was carried to his home where he is still unconscious this morning.

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN

LYDIA E. PINKHAM

No other medicine has been so successful in relieving the suffering of women or received so many genuine testimonials as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. In every community you will find women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Almost every one you meet has either been benefited by it, or has friends who have. In the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., any woman any day may see the files containing over one million one hundred thousand letters from women seeking health, and here are the letters in which they openly state over their own signatures that they were cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has saved many women from surgical operations.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is made from roots and herbs, without drugs, and is wholesome and harmless.

The reason why Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so successful is because it contains ingredients which act directly upon the feminine organism, restoring it to a healthy normal condition.

Women who are suffering from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

LAST HANDFULS OF MUD THROWN BY HAVEN FORCES

Coterie of Republican Politicians Apparently Facing Defeat.

Summary of Dirtiest Campaign in History of Duluth.

THE CAMPAIGN IN A NUTSHELL

WHAT MR. HAVEN STANDS FOR.

With the labor men—Union labor.
With the builders' exchange—The open shop.
With the temperance people—A tight lid.
With the saloon men—"Reasonably strict enforcement of the law."

HIS RECORD.

That of a persistent office-seeker, whose occupation for five years has been either seeking soft political snags or building them, and who at present has no business occupation.

HIS CAMPAIGN METHODS.

Scoundrelous attacks on the record of Mr. Tessonman, who is known as a clean business man. Insinuations and attempts to connect Mr. Tessonman's name with illegal voting.

Appalling to the temperance people.

Appalling to the temperance people, for support, secretly inviting the saloon men to come to his aid.

Stunning to the Builders' exchange.

Stunning to the Builders' exchange, while roasting to the labor unions and trying to win them over.

WHAT MR. TESSONMAN STANDS FOR.

A fair deal to every man. Rigid enforcement of the law. Public ownership of public utilities.

A clean, businesslike administration.

HIS RECORD.

That of a business man who has made a success of business, and who has never sought political office outside of that of alderman from his ward.

HIS CAMPAIGN METHODS.

A straight statement of his platform, and a refusal to indulge in personalities even when attacked by unfair means and in an unbecoming way.

Standing amid the shattered fragments of his campaign armor.

Standing amid the shattered fragments of his campaign armor, stripped of his gear as the Great, Mr. Knight, with his emblem of law enforcement, torn, stained and dragging in the dust, Alderman R. D. Haven is rallying his little band of camp followers around him for one last grim stand, in the face of what now looks like certain defeat.

The last reserves have been called out.

The last reserves have been called out; the last handfuls of mud have been scraped from the bottoms of the barrels which were opened early in the campaign; the last volleys of insinuations and innuendoes have been fired, and the last campaign lies are being told and refuted.

Mr. Haven's efforts to be all things to all men have had the inevitable result.

Mr. Haven's efforts to be all things to all men have had the inevitable result, and if the campaign progressed another week or two he would probably be in the position of being nothing to any man.

Alldon has such a campaign of trimming.

Alldon has such a campaign of trimming been conducted in Duluth, and Duluth has probably never had a majority candidate with so little left to recommend him to the voters on the eve of election as Mr. Haven.

"What is Mr. Haven's good quality?"

"What is Mr. Haven's good quality?" are two questions which have never been answered in the present campaign. Nobody knows what Mr. Haven's business is, or what his occupation is as president of the Builders' exchange, yet he claims that he left his job as alderman on Dec. 1. His only other occupation is that of alderman. His record, while containing nothing dishonorable, shows that he has done little to recommend himself to the voters in office during the last ten years. He has never been considered of sufficient importance by the Republican politicians to secure an office of any importance which lay within his gift, and he has had to content himself with clerkships and small plum.

He entered the campaign with a grand flourish of trumpets.

He entered the campaign with a grand flourish of trumpets, heralded as the candidate of law enforcement and civic righteousness, but his balloon has been punctured, and the campaign has settled into a series of petty squabbles and innuendoes. Mr. Tessonman, Mr. Haven's opponent, has been a straw man—and his official organ, the News Tribune, whose influence was secured by a promise to help it knife doors by this self-appointed committee.

The campaign conducted in his behalf.

The campaign conducted in his behalf has been one of the vilest, most contemptible political fights ever seen in Duluth or any city. Mr. Haven's backers—for Mr. Haven himself is but a straw man—and his official organ, the News Tribune, whose influence was secured by a promise to help it knife doors by this self-appointed committee.

In spite of his close connection with the exchange, however, Mr. Haven has been making desperate effort to capture the labor vote and has been trucking to members of organized labor during the last week. He has apparently turned his back on the good graces of organized labor. He is making little headway, however, and he is losing his good friends in the exchange by his actions.

His attitude on the liquor question has been equally uncertain. In the West end, where the temperance sentiment is strong, he has posed as a temperance man and a strong "lid" advocate, raising the lid issue in spite of the fact that there were no such issue, and performing the feat of putting up straw targets and knocking them down again.

Michael Morrissey wouldn't plead guilty to the vagrancy charge, but John Miller, Anton Volok, Harry Underwood, William Bede and Old Lundberg, entered a plea of guilty. Morrissey put up a strong argument on his inability to get work and he was discharged on condition that he leave the city. The police report says that he left the city, but drew $5 or thirty days, the other four each getting ten days.

To the Ambitious Young Men and Women.

The city and country is full of young people who could if they would, prepare themselves to be successful salesmen, office managers, expert accountants, private secretaries, stenographers, bookkeepers, etc. They are full of opportunities at hand, few feel the importance of having the courage to get the training and preparation for the future. Hosts of boys and girls are working in shops, factories, business houses, stores, and on the farm as wage-earners, who are able and willing to take a course at the Duluth Business University and get a business education, and receive rapid promotion would be sure to follow.

Young Men, Young Women. Are you

Young Men, Young Women. Are you clerking? Are you in the shops? Are you working as a wage-earner? Are you just making a living? Are you just out of the common school? Are you looking out of high school? Are you just out of a job?

What Can You Do? Are you versed in the art of bookkeeping? Are you a calculator? Can you write a good business letter? Can you compose a business letter that means something? Are you acquainted with the ordinary business customs? Can you conduct ordinary business transactions in a proper and efficient manner? If you cannot answer the above in the affirmative, then you have no chance in competition with young men who can do all these things. You can succeed as others are doing, if you will prepare yourself. You have the same chances as they, same talents, same early education, same opportunities, and you need the will to do it.

Gust and Christ are Bowery hangers-on, who traveled together and never had a word in quarrel. But last night, the two conspired to take the upper hand and there were no words. It is said Gust playfully let a glass of beer fly at Christ, who in turn threw the beer and striking a mirror. The result, a shattered glass on the wall. Before Gust had time to follow the first strike with a second, Christ had closed with him and they were struggling around the place, with Gust's head through the door and there was another man on the door.

Michael Morrissey wouldn't plead guilty to the vagrancy charge, but John Miller, Anton Volok, Harry Underwood, William Bede and Old Lundberg, entered a plea of guilty. To the Ambitious Young Men and Women.

The city and country is full of young people who could if they would, prepare themselves to be successful salesmen, office managers, expert accountants, private secretaries, stenographers, bookkeepers, etc. They are full of opportunities at hand, few feel the importance of having the courage to get the training and preparation for the future. TAWNEY GOT JOLT

When He Asked for Thirty-Four

Policemen for New Building.

Washington, Feb. 1.—Congressman Tawney, chairman of the committee on appropriation, was given a severe jolt in the house when he undertook to secure thirty-four special policemen to look after the new congressional building, where the members have their offices. The number proposed is more than half the number of police in the city of Duluth and about one-eighth of the police force of St. Paul. The proposition to designate thirty-four special guardians of the law to keep order in the house of representatives building fairly took the breath away from several members, who are economically inclined, and Mr. Tawney's proposition went to the wall on a point of order. In justice to Congressman Tawney, it is stated that he was not aware of the fact that the plan for thirty-four policemen because it would afford many fat positions, and many members would have voted for it. It is quite probable that there will be six officers finally proposed for.

News of the Theater

AT THE LYCEUM

"Dream City," "The Lion and the Mouse" and "Strongheart" Will be the Attractions Offered Next Week.

Joe Weber's latest and most successful production, "Dream City" will be at the Lyceum Thursday.

Of all the much talked of Weber productions there has never been one that has met with the universal success as "Dream City" which packed Weber's little theater at every performance all last season in New York.

This story in brief is that of one of those self-satisfied Long Island German farmers, who through a smooth talking real estate broker, is lured into a comfortable home which carries him into a dream of the future greatness of his farming property and the surrounding territory. The clever author and librettist, Edgar Smith has worked this theme out with the aid of Victor Herbert's catchy music.

Mr. Weber himself has announced his retirement from the stage, but he has secured, as his successor, that clever comedian, Little Chip, Little Chip is well known through his work the past few seasons with "Babes in Toyland" and "Wonderland".

Another particularly attractive feature with the "Dream City" party is the presence of that versatile little comedian, Miss Mary Marble, who plays the part of Nancy, the old German's daughter. The company presenting "Dream City" embraces many other Broadway favorites, to say nothing of the celebrated body of female beauties comprising the chorus, for which a Weber show has always been famous.

In unfolding the story of "Dream City" the author is carried from the beauties and atmosphere of the pretty Long Island farm to the gorgeous settings and trappings and stage glories and accessories of the imaginary "Dream City" which has pictured itself in the simple old German's mind. Here are found everything modern and ahead of the time that the mind could picture, from female messenger service in electric, female policeman, ditto, golden streets ablaze with multi-colored electric lights, and for service of any kind a ready-to-hand nickel-tyro-slat machine prepared for instant action.

In fact, Mr. Smith's interesting story carries one into the wonderful possibilities of a few years from now, when air ships will be the recognized mode of traffic and electricity do the work of many individuals.

The entire production of "Dream City" is carried out as produced during its all seasons' run in New York city, with all the original scenery, stage effects, and elaborate costumes, making it one of the most showy and attractive traveling organizations on tour this season.

MISS DONNELLY ON SHOW.

Member of "Lion and Mouse" Company Talks of Englishman.

Miss Dorothy Donnelly, who is to play the mouse in "The Lion and the Mouse" at the Lyceum, Monday and Tuesday, and who was the original Candida in this country, is naturally a great admirer of George Bernard Shaw. In London Miss Donnelly has frequently been the guest of the Shaw home, and the intimate picture she gives of the playwright's home life casts an altogether new light upon the Shaw personality.

In this country, where he never has been, Shaw is known largely through his vagaries—or at least to vagaries attributed to him. This, according to Miss Donnelly, has resulted in a misconception of the man.

"Mr. Shaw," she says, "is not a poseur. He is tremendously earnest. His chief interest is politics. He is a Socialist. Of course, in 'Candida' he was popularly supposed to write a satire on Socialism, though what he really did write was a remarkable study of love."

"His home life," she continues, "is beautiful. Mrs. Shaw adores him and he her. They work together, even in his political activities, and Mrs. Shaw is no less enthusiastic a Socialist than her husband."

Shaw's wit is no less keen and cutting in his conversation than in his writings. Occasionally he directs it against himself. In one talk we had I referred to "Major Barbara," which did not meet with much success upon the stage, and asked him why it was.

"He replied that the third act of 'Major Barbara' was 'real good melodrama.' But the fourth act," he continued, "you should have seen the British public leaving the theater before the fourth act was finished; then followed a highly humorous account of the grand finale which spelled failure for his latest play."

"When I was in London last summer Mr. Shaw was at work on his autobiography and was preparing 'Major Barbara' for publication. He is a methodical worker, devoting the morning hours to writing and the afternoons to other pursuits, in which his wife always has a part.

"Shaw, of course, has had his troubles with the censor, who is now very much in the public eye. Mrs. Warren's 'Professor' never has been produced in London and this has long been a sore spot with the playwright. However, he told me one afternoon, with great gloom, that two companies were then presenting the play elsewhere and that it had made a great success."

Miss Donnelly's plans for the future contemplate no further Shaw roles. She is under contract to Henry B. Harris, and will soon be started in a new comedy dealing with phase of American social life, which has heretofore escaped the playwright. But Miss Donnelly is looking forward, with lively anticipation to renewing her acquaintance with Mr. Shaw and his wife when she returns to London next summer to visit them.

AT THE METROPOLITAN

Star Show Girls in an Entertainment Called "Dopey Dan in Turkey" and a Strong Vaudeville Bill Will be the Coming Week's Attraction.

Upon the Star Show Girls develops the responsibility for the entertainment next week at the Metropolitan. This organization comes fresh from triumphs on the eastern division of the Empire circuit and is said to have a fresh new act in the wings.

A two-act musical comedy, with jingling music, pretty girls, clever comedians, unique scenery and electrical effects and other things which go to make up such a frolic, is the piece-de-resistance of the Show Girls.

The skit is called "Dopey Dan in Turkey" and is in four scenes. It was produced under the personal supervision of the author who is said to have gone in fervently for new effects and situations.

The scenes shift from New York to Turkey and the equipment was built and painted especially for this company. The story concerns the sudden advent of "Dopey Dan" in the palace of the sultan. He is mistaken for the real ruler and he keeps up the deception as long as he can.

There are a dozen musical numbers, all of which are said to be good. The ones most talked about are "The Physical Culture Girls" and "What We See on the Stage."

Prominent in the company are Charles Nichols whose "dope" fend characterizations have made thousands laugh, Marie Croix, James Dixon, John Cody, women and Port Mackey and the La Salle trio of acrobats.

The usual matinees will be given during the week.

According to his own statement, and he can be trusted to make the most of it. It can thus be safely prophesied that with a comedy star of the ability of Mr. Perkins, with a sketch by writers so famous as Will Cressy and Ira Dodge, and a supporting company of more than average excellence, the engagement of "The Man From Macy's" over the Sullivan-Conscience circuit should prove an event of more than ordinary interest.

Mr. Perkins has but recently recovered from the disastrous effects of the San Francisco earthquake, where he received special mention and honors for his heroism and self sacrifice. He was one of the very first to volunteer in the rescue committee, although he had lost everything he owned, theatrical manuscripts and papers that were priceless. For his work during the earthquake, he was made a major on the governor's staff. "The Man From Macy's" will be the first of his productions to play the Sullivan-Conscience circuit shows in itself the confidence he has in it.

Apart from this, Mr. Perkins will be the highest salaried artist on the circuit and his sketch will be a feature of every bill. It is some time since he has had a vehicle of this excellence, of heavy weight lifting is said to be marvelous. One of his feats is that of lifting sixteen to twenty men, which is known as the bridge lift. Part of his act is devoted to statue posing, which shows the perfect muscular development obtained by the practice of physical culture exercise.

A clever comedy stunt will be Joe Edmunds' "The How-De-Do Man." His original songs, stories and clever dancing are among the best single comedy acts before the public.

A musical offering of much note will be Lopez and Lovell's Spanish instrumentalists, who have an act in which much musical talent is required. Their electrical stage setting is said to be a prominent and pretty feature of their act.

Cantor and Curtis, who style themselves as the "Two Little Dancers," come highly recommended as one of the best acts on the circuit. They are expert dancers, good singers and the comedy they introduce is refined and wholesome. "When the Winter Days Are Over," a new song success which is illustrated with colored views.

The moving pictures will be "Ninette, the Model," one of Edison's latest spectacular films, and also the laughable comedy film entitled, "The Bell Boys' Revenge." Matinees are given daily at 2:45, and evening performances at 8 and 9:30. Seats may be reserved by either telephone or in person at the Lyceum. Special school children's matinee will be given Saturday afternoon, at 2:30, and performances Sunday afternoon.

GOSSIP OF THE RIALTO

Viola Allen Returns to the Modern Drama—Paul Armstrong's Effort Misses Fire—Another French Farce Arouses Much Merriment.

New York, Feb. 1.—If I were a critic and could say what I liked about plays and players, instead of a correspondent, whose principal function it is to tell what is going on in the play world, I should describe "Irene Wycherley" as one of the sensations of the season.

"Irene Wycherley" is the new play by a new author, in which Lena Ashwell played the success of "The Tiger" in London. This is the play which Viola Allen secured during her recent visit abroad, and in which she signaled her return to the theater fold. It was presented for the first time in New York at the Astor theater last week. Anthony P. Wharton, its author, is a young Irishman. It was on the strength of a powerful little one-act piece which he submitted to her that Miss Ashwell commissioned him to write a longer play for her use. The result was "Irene Wycherley." It divided honors with the success of the London season, "The Tiger."

Here it is admirably presented. Miss Allen sweetens the part of the heroine with her appealing personality and touches of a finished technique that show her under better advantages than anything I have seen her do in domestic drama. She has no hysterical moments, but the impersonation is penetrated by power and sympathy. It enabled her to stand out as a self-reliant figure amid a cumulative series of events of powerful interest, working consistently to a climax of intense power. Briefly told, this is the story of the play:

Irene Wycherley has for some time lived apart from her husband, Philip, son of Sir Peter Wycherley. Philip is a reprobate. He has had a score of mistresses, including a Mrs. Kane. The woman's husband committed suicide on learning of his dishonor. Philip has personally abused his wife. Once he struck her across the face with a riding whip. Irene left him, but being a Catholic she does not get a divorce. But an attachment has sprung up between her and Harry Chesterton. It is a clean, platonic love on both sides.

Sir Peter respects Irene. His name is about to die out, and he appeals to her to return to Philip and try it once more. But she refuses. She would rather be one of the women with whom his name is linked in scandalous relations, she says, than his wife.

At this juncture Sir Peter receives a dispatch that Philip has been seriously injured at his hunting lodge in the country while on a hunt with some friends, including Charles Sumner, who, with his wife, has been Philip's guest. His condition is serious, and Irene is persuaded by Sir Peter to accompany him to the bedside of the injured man.

Six weeks have elapsed. Philip is hor-ribly disfigured for life and blind. But his evil instincts have not been subdued, and his repellent attitude toward his dutiful wife, who tries to fill her place in spite of what has transpired, is maintained. The scene is the Wycherley country home in the winter. The Summers, who remained with the injured man until the arrival of father, wife and sister, are invited back by Irene at the solicitation of Philip, and in the next act have just arrived and are being entertained at an evening family party at which all, including Harry Chesterton, are present.

Sumner has spent his life in Australia and Africa amid dangers of all kinds and with all sorts of men. He met his wife at Cape Town and married her. He is a blunt, honest sort. His wife is a polished creature of society. During a moment in which they are alone Harry Chesterton approaches Mrs. Sumner and tells her that he knows her past, and warns her to leave the house within twelve hours or he will inform Sir Peter who and what she is. She defies him.

It develops that Philip and she have a secret. His advances are amorous. She reminds him that he is no longer a thing of beauty and advises him to turn to his wife for consolation. Her husband has seen him kiss her, and Chesterton has just warned her to leave the house. By and by we learn that Mrs. Sumner is Mrs. Kane, on whose account her husband committed suicide.

The revelation strikes Irene dumb at first. Then, with sudden energy, she rises against the condition imposed upon her by this woman's presence. She tells Sir Peter that the woman must leave the house or she will go. Before any further steps can be taken Mrs. Sumner enters. Irene sends Sir Peter for the railway time tables, and then reveals to Mrs. Sumner her knowledge of her past relations with Philip. "Make some excuse to your husband that will satisfy him," she says, "but you must leave this house tomorrow morning."

At first the woman shows fight. She accuses Irene of being Harry Chesterton's mistress. But the blow glances off Irene's consciousness of innocence. The woman finally submits that Sumner has had something to do with the inexpressible accident that destroyed Philip.

Philip himself has denoted his mistrust of the quiet husband. When Sumner enters and demands an explanation why he and his wife are practically turned out of doors, after being cordially invited to come to the house, the wretched blind man, made crazy by drink, huris himself upon Sumner. Thus Sumner has had something to do with the inexpressible accident that destroyed Philip.

That is the story of the tragedy, worked out in a masterly fashion with constantly increasing interest. Strangely enough, the happy ending is brought about through the device of a woman's method of a tragic course of events. It releases Irene from her self-

SPORTS OF THE WEEK

NO ROWDIES AT EVELETH

Manager of Fight Club Denies Mauritz Harris' Charges.

Says Knives and Guns Were Not Seen in the Hall.

The good sportsman of Eveleth are very much wrought up over a story, which appeared in the morning paper during the week, in which Mauritz Harris, the Superior wrestler, who has been getting draws wrestled on him with great frequency lately, said he was handled shabbily at the range town. He said the crowd was made up entirely of Finns and when he threatened to throw the Finn, with whom he was wrestling, knives and guns were flashed and he was forced to handle his opponent as he would an egg, which was a very good excuse for the draw, which Harris suffered at the hands of an unknown.

C. R. Lind, president of the Eveleth Athletic club, called yesterday and he was boiling over with indignation, in voicing his own sentiments and those of Chief of Police Nick Kent and the referee of the match, Mr. Finacum, he said:

"I don't know who is responsible for that story, which appeared in the morning paper, but it was a base libel on the sportsman of Eveleth, and they are not few in number. We do not blame this sporting editor of the paper. He was merely stringing somebody, and we naturally presume it was Harris. The match was strictly on the square. Harris needed the fairest kind of treatment and because he could only get a draw, he was sore. The flying flag was not agreed upon and there was no foul counted. Everything was explained to the crowd before the match and Harris understood it as well as anybody else. The hall was crowded and I never saw a more orderly gathering. The charge that knives and guns were used is an insult to Marshal Kent and Mayor Maxwell, who were present. It is an insult to Referee Finacum, who knows a wrestling match when he sees one, and it is an insult to myself, who arranged the match."

"The audience was quiet and orderly throughout the match and during the dancing, which followed. There were some Finns present and they were as orderly as the rest. The bulk of the audience was made up of representative businessmen and good citizens of Eveleth and to accuse them of conduct unbecoming of frontier barbarism is ridiculous, to say the least."

"We don't want any more of Harris at Eveleth. We treated him as sportsman should and then he came down here and gave out an interview, which showed the spirit of a poor loser. He couldn't throw Gronlund under the rules agreed and that's the basis for the whole affair."

COVER HALF MILE TRACK

M. W. Savage Has Expensive Training Quarters for Horses.

Dan Patch, Cresceus and Other Horses Race Through Winter.

Minneapolis, Feb. 1.—Grim winter, with its storms, no longer has the power to interfere with the contentment or the regular training of Dan Patch, Cresceus and the other world-famous stallions and the scores of promising youngsters owned by M. W. Savage.

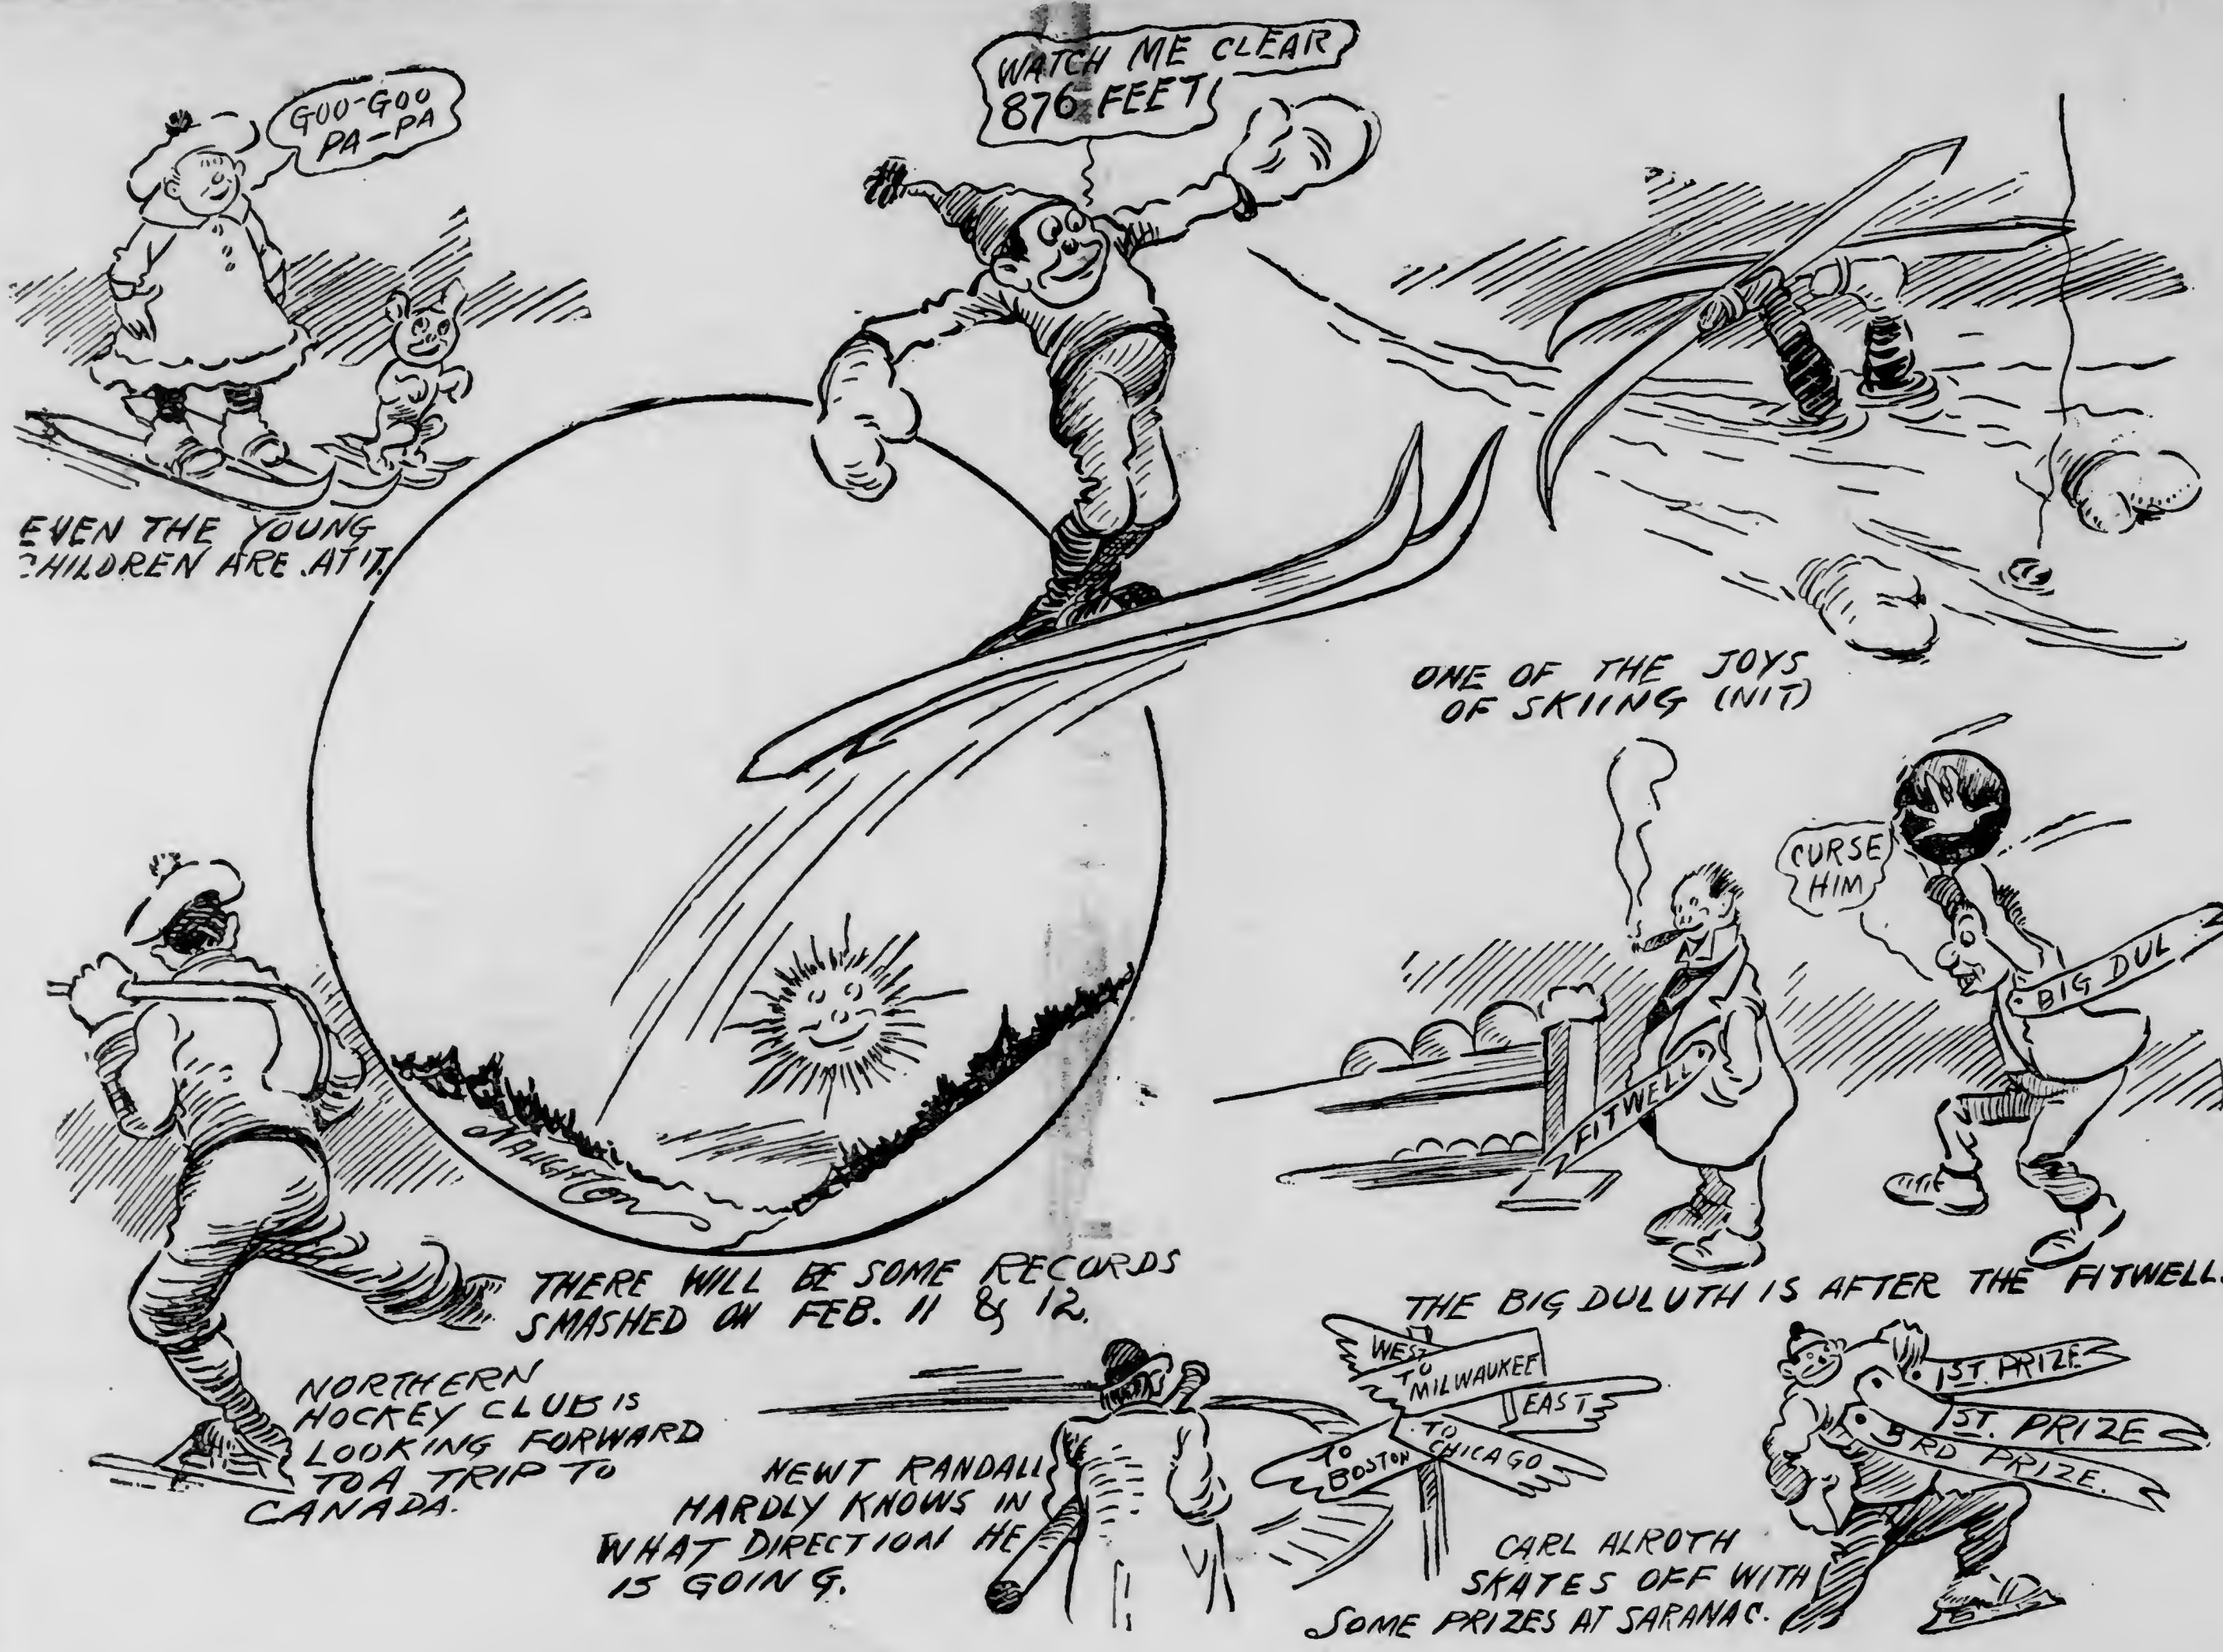

With the completion last month of a completely covered half-mile track on his international stock farm, Mr. Savage has provided training quarters for his horses prior to none in the world, and the lucky inmates of the big barn at Savage can laugh with impunity at the rigors of a Minnesota winter as well as the dangers of late and wet springs.

The new track, which is connected by a covered driveway with the barn and directly with the paddocks, is the only half-mile regulation covered track in the world. The track is thirty feet wide and is scientifically built for speeding, the turns being laid out and banked with the greatest care.

The back team of the Minnesota river valley, which is especially well adapted for retrace purposes, is used, but is surfaced with tan bark and salt, which prevents freezing and keeps the track soft through the coldest winter months. The covering consists of a continuous and complete building over the entire track, and light is furnished by a continuous row of large windows on either side. The roof and sides are so arranged as to reflect the light and make the interior as bright as day and night.

H. C. Hersey, who is in charge of the stock farm, and well known as the driver and trainer of Dan Patch and other of Mr. Savage's horses, is delighted with his new equipment as a 7-year-old boy who has just been given a toy which he has long desired.

Speaking of the track the other day, Mr. Hersey said: "We are in shape now not only to properly condition the old horses, but to thoroughly work and try out the many promising youngsters we have on hand. The completion of this track makes our training almost ideal, and we will no longer have to worry about winter work. The track will be especially valuable in the spring, when we are getting the horses ready for their summer campaigns. Under the old conditions this was extremely difficult on account of rain and cold weather, and was sometimes thought impossible. In his horsemen in the Northwest appreciate the value of this plant into the horse industry, and hardly a day passes but what some member of the fraternity is a visitor at the stock farm, where Mr. Hersey is always glad to show his new plant.

Ed Smith has a hunch that there's something wrong with the wheels of Charlie Rankin's thinking machinery. In his first letter challenging Smith, Rankin said he couldn't possibly skate in Duluth, as he was a business man. Rankin, however, couldn't break away under any circumstances.

Now Rankin goes back on his first statement. He and the manager of the Calumet and Hecla mine, who are the only two men in the world who have been paid by some inexplicable means Rankin, and due to come to Duluth, providing somebody pays his railroad fare. Rankin knows that there is a rink in Duluth in which a skating race can be pulled off, and Smith has just said that it looks very much to me as if Rankin were trying to slide out of the match. Rankin is something wrong somewhere. Perhaps Smith is willing to wait until Feb. 2, and then they can get together in Calumet and settle it all.

Harry Pulliam, president of the National league, who rushes into print with dire threats to resign and do other things, has submitted into peaceful quietude and is not enquiring even a chirp. Probably the statement of the chairman of the National commission that he would support Pulliam in his "undignified" attacks on the officials of the National association may have had something to do with Pulliam's sudden recession into silence.

In the meantime Pat Powers, at whom Pulliam's attack was aimed, is letting loose a few warpoons, and nobody would be surprised if the sea of baseball witnessed a few storms before the next season is fairly launched.

Jim Corbett hasn't any need of a press agent now. He's out of the fighting game and his reputation as an "actor" is established. But his latest scheme for the government of pugilism in all its forms smacks of the clever work of the pipe and the dream of the rarebit gourmand.

He thinks a national commission for the government of pugilism would be just the thing. He would have fighters sign contracts just like ball players, be subject to orders from the national commission, draw such purses as the governing board might decide to blacklisted if they jumped contracts.

Hard enough to manage ball players and jockeys, but pugilists! Wow! If Bat Nelson were disciplined, he'd be very likely to talk the office of the chairman of the national commission and seek that gentleman one on his headpiece. While Bat were doing the trick, Jack Johnson might hurt him.

Tommy Burns might accidentally appoint the some to get a few wallops at the unfortunate victim. The man with the nerve to take the chairman's job would have a loaded gun, with the trigger cocked, pointing at him all the time, and he couldn't stop it going off.

A fight commission to supervise boxing would certainly be a grand thing for those not on the commission.

A message was received in Duluth yesterday from Fred Beal. He wanted to know what day next week he was billed to meet Billy Maynard here. Fred is away off. So is Maynard—in Iowa or thereabouts. Nothing doing on the head-spinning game between Beal and Maynard in Duluth, and there will not be until Maynard appears in Duluth and puts up a good-sized chunk of money to guarantee his appearance on the agreed time. That will not be next week, for a certainty.

LEAGUE REORGANIZED.

O. & P. Will Have Six or Eight Clubs This Year.

Youngstown, Ohio, Feb. 1.—Reorganization of the Ohio and Pennsylvania baseball league was practically accomplished at a meeting here yesterday of managers representing Youngstown, Akron, Sharon and Canton. Erie had no delegation. Six or eight clubs will comprise the Ohio and Pennsylvania league this season. No definite action was taken as to a new circuit. Other prospective candidates are Beaver Falls, East Liverpool and Steubenville. The salary limit was placed at $500.

President Charles H. Morton was re-elected and the original Ohio and Pennsylvania constitution adopted.

ATTELL PUTS IT OVER NEIL

Sponge Thrown Up by Frankie's Seconds in Thirteenth Round.

San Francisco, Feb. 1.—Abe Attell, champion featherweight of America, last night gave Frankie Neil of this city such an unmerciful beating that the latter, seconded by a man named Beaver, entered the ring in the sixteenth round and threw up the sponge as a token of defeat.

In the first six rounds Neil scarcely landed a blow on his clever and nimble opponent, while, on the other hand, Attell peppered Neil's face with left and right jabs and uppercuts. Only in the seventh and eighth rounds did Neil bring the fight to Attell. Neil protested against the action of his seconds in throwing up the sponge.

Johnny Murphy gained a decision over Kid Seiler in a ten-round preliminary.

SCHRECK GETS DRAW.

Cincinnati German and Ross Fight at New Orleans.

New Orleans, Feb. 1.—Mike Schreck of Cincinnati and Tony Ross of Philadelphia, heavyweight, fought ten rounds to a draw here last night before the Southern Athletic club.

Marietta Defeated.

Pittsburgh, Feb. 1.—Western University of Pennsylvania's basketball team won from Marietta, Ohio, college team, last night in a fast game at Duquesne Gardens amphitheatre by a score of 40 to 23.

BROWN AND MAPP IN CLOSE CONTEST FOR Y. M. C. A. GYMNASIUM HONORS

ARCHIE BROWN.

ED. MAPP.

Ed Mapp and Archie Brown are poked as favorite in the three indoor meets, to decide the athletic supremacy of the gymnasium of the Duluth Y. M. C. A.

In the last meet, held Dec. 5, Mapp and Brown between them garnered a tidy percentage of the points handed out, and then split even on the percentage.

The tie is a criterion of their athletic ability. Both are finished athletes—among the best the Duluth Y. M. C. A. has turned out. In all departments they shine. Mapp is probably more finished on the apparatus, but Brown makes it up on jumping ability and prowess with the weights. But neither has very much on the other in any event, and they keep pretty close together.

There are other contestants who will figure in the standings before the third meet is over. Mapp and Brown haven't everything to themselves. But their victory in the first meet of the series gives them a good start for the final honors, and the others are running under a handicap.

The second meet of the series will show a varied program. The object of the series is to make them a test of all-around athletic ability. Every contestant must enter in all events in all three meets to be eligible for the prizes. At the end of the third meet, the contestant, who has complied with all conditions, and holds the highest number of points, will be rewarded a gold medal, and the man standing next to him will receive a silver medal.

There is warm rivalry between the different athletes who have entered, and the two meets yet to be held promise to bring out some pretty competition. Mapp and Brown have some strong contenders for honors against them, and some surprises may yet develop.

At the same time, Mapp and Brown have each other to fear. Both have shown such ability that neither can even hope to walk away with the honors. There will be a contest at all the way, and the last points will count immensely.

FOUR RIDERS TO COMPETE

Feiring, Evenson, Manseth and Bye Go to Red Wing.

Duluth Riders Expect to Capture Some of Prizes.

Duluth ski riders expect to carry away some of the prizes at the tournaments to be held at Red Wing, Feb. 6, and Coleraine, Feb. 9. Ole Feiring, the champion ski jumper of America, who made 117 feet in a practice jump at the big hill on Chester creek, Thursday, will make the trip, and he expects to smash some hill records at both places.

Feiring will be accompanied by Evenson, Mangseth and Gustave Bye, and to defeat the quartet, both towns will be forced to produce some wonderful riders.

The hills at Red Wing and Coleraine are both reported to be in good shape. There are enthusiastic ski riders in both places, and the sport has flourished.

The Duluth riders will encounter Olaf Junnum, who equalled Feiring's American record of 114 feet at Jolapenning, Washington's birthday last year.

This afternoon and tomorrow the hill on Chester creek will be swarmed with enthusiastic ski riders. The professionals have been out every day this week, but the amateurs have not been able to break away from their duties and they will have their innings today and tomorrow.

The first day of the big national tournament will be given over to them and they are anxious to make a good showing in comparison with the records of the professionals.

The snow of the past few days has brought cheer to the hearts of members of the ski club and riders alike. The entire length of the big slide on Chester creek is now in shape for use, and the professional riders, who have been practicing this week, have been using the full 300 feet. The slide is undoubtedly the biggest and best in the United States and if all American records are not smashed, there must be something wrong.

Posters have been prepared, advertising the National Ski tournament in connection with the hockey game between the Northern team of Duluth and the Houghton team. The game will be played the evening of Feb. 11. The posters have been sent out all through the Northwest in conjunction with other advertising matter, will put the big tournament well before the public, and the largest crowd ever to attend a ski tournament is expected for the national in Duluth.

CLUBS OFF IN A MONTH

Fans Look Forward to Opening of the Training Season.

Boston Americans Will Show Greatest Degree of Improvement.

Chicago, Feb. 1.—One month more to wait. One month till the clubs assemble at the railroad stations and hike away on the long journey that means so much to the performers and the fans. The spring training trip means that a lot of fine young players, new to the patrons of the big league circuits, will get the O. K. of official approval placed upon their necks and will be regularly enlisted for the coming campaign. It also means that a host of other youngsters will get the stamp of T. T. W. (to the woods) on their wrists and will retire from the maddening whirl of big league ball to try again among the minors.

Some of the sturdy old players will also find that the past winter has been the last straw and that they are no longer fitted to go the pace in the swiftest company, while the hot springs and the balmy air will rejuvenate other veterans and put them in shape for "the game of their lives." Just a few more weeks after the start of the training trip—and then every sport writer in the land, after writing about 677 heads and tearing them up with a snarl, will turn forth from his brain one massive thought and scrawl this heading: "Play Ball."

As far as the teams of the American league have gone with their rebuilding and ante-season shaping it is quite evident that Boston has stolen a march (vulgarily known as copping a sneak) upon the rest and has prepared a team that blazes with strength and beauty. Of course, this is all on paper and the team may prove a sad frost when the delivery of the seasoned pitchers is thrown to the crack minor leaguers assembled under the Boston banner. Most of these minor leaguers, however, are those who tried their skill before in the National or American and merely went out for further seasoning. Such players as Thomey, Carrigan, for instance, can be relied on to show good quality in any company.

It is also apparent that Joe Cantillon has gathered some great and dangerous batters and has built up his Washingtons, both in hitting and catching. Fastest and uncertain fielding, caused by the fact that the men have not yet built up a team system of play, will keep the Senators out of the first division, but they will make an awful lot of trouble for the other fellows.

The Sox look better simply because Davis and Tammhill will be right, and also better because Parent and the pitching staff cannot be worse than last season, as the good men are still there and as good as sure to stay. It may be much better, as Owen and Alcock are likely to come back to 1906 conditions.

New York and St. Louis, having done lots of mutual trading, may make things hump, and both clubs really look more dangerous than before. The Detroit and Cleveland clubs look just about as good as last year, but the Tigers will have harder times ahead. While Cleveland will, as usual, find some excuse for not winning, Connie Mack has his team on hand with a few reinforcements, but in the main the same old club, good enough for a tag if the luck breaks right, and always well up in the running.

Not much can be said for the National league race excepting that the Cubs look just as good as ever and safe for another year. New York, Pittsburgh and Philadelphia all grade up closely for the second position and will rip one another to pieces while the Cubs gambol on in ecstasy. The other clubs, despite what efforts they have made to improve, seem just as good as strong, relatively, as last season, and the order of procession will hardly be altered to any great degree.

BIG CARNIVAL ON HOLIDAY

Curling Club to Have Festivities on Washington's Birthday.

The Duluth Curling club is making plans for a grand carnival at the rink Washington's birthday, Feb. 22. The strongest rinks in the club will be matched and the most interesting games for the spectators played. For the skaters there will be music in the evening, and the club will have a number of fancy costumes on hand for the use of the members.

Both the curlers and skaters are active at the rink again. There will be music tonight for the skaters. The ice is in fine condition on account of the recent exceptionally cold weather.

AGREEMENT RATIFIED.

International Skating Association Bands With A. A. U.

Montreal, Que., Feb. 1.—At the annual meeting of the International Skating union here, last night, the recent agreement between the A. A. U. and the International was formally ratified and officers were elected.

Fighters to Meet.

Kid Mitchell and Scrape Costello, two local fighters, who have done a lot of talking of late, will get together in a 15-round fight before the Eagles at Boxey, tonight. Nothing much is known of either boy, but they have won favorable opinion of their own ability and may make a good scrap.

NORTHERN HOCKEY

TEAM CHAMPIONS OF THE NORTHWEST

RIGHT WING

The Northern Hockey team looks like a winner in the race for the hockey championship of the Northwest. With but one team ahead, which might do damage to their record, the boys have a clean sheet thus far this season and they have high hopes of staying off black marks to the end of the season.

Thus far, the Northerners have won two games from the Mic-Macs of St. Paul, one from the Lake Shores of Minneapolis, one from the Columbus of Superior and have also played one tie game with the latter team, it being forfeited to the Northerners on account of the refusal of the Superior seven to go on with play to a decision.

Playing as they have thus far this season, the Northerners should win the championship of the Northwest without a skip. Slips are as liable to happen in hockey as in any game, where a bad break in luck may send a team flying downward, but, on the form shown in contests to date, the Northerners have the start on their opponents from over the bay. With all allowances for breaks in fortune, the Northerners should have little to fear from the Columbus.

The Northerners will play the Houghton team of the Copper Country Amateur Hockey league here Feb. 11, and that will be the crucial game of the season. Counting out the Copper country as a part of the Northwest, the Northerners now have a clear title. But a defeat at the hands of the Houghton seven would smother their record more than they are willing to allow. A victory will give them just that much more prestige and their friends are placing their faith in the Duluth boys.

The Northerners were put on the ice last winter and they made it a go from the start. They easily won the championship of the Head of the Lakes and defeated the Houghton team two games of three played.

They played some good contests with St. Paul and Minneapolis teams and finished the season with a creditable record.

They disposed of St. Paul and Minneapolis contenders for championship honors early this season by defeating the Lake Shores and Mic-Macs, the strongest teams of the Twin Cities, with ease. They have practically disposed of Superior, and if they do like with Houghton, all will be well.

Hockey has taken a firm hold on Duluth this year. Those who have seen the game, have fallen in with the spirit of it immediately. It is the fastest sport played in the world today, without exception. To some, it is doing good work in introducing it to Duluth people, and the hockey enthusiasts of the city are with them to the man, anxious to support them and interested in their success.

welcome innovations, hockey takes a place side by side with baseball. Given baseball in summer and hockey in winter, the lover of good, clean, wholesome sport may have it nearly all the year around, and other sports are merely side lines for diversion.

The Northerners are the best exponents of hockey in Duluth. With one or two exceptions, they are home boys, who learned the game on the bay and the local ponds. They play for love of the game and put their whole heart into it.

members of the league. Duluth and Winnipeg form the backbone of the organization, and at a meeting to be called soon some action will be taken toward having out the circuit.

The hope of getting into St. Paul and Minneapolis is still very much alive. At a meeting to be held in Chicago shortly, efforts will be made to drum Bryce, the obstinate man, into line. On the score that they have the power cut him out from thousands of dollars of money gained from exhibition games with big-league teams, the St. Paul and Minneapolis clubs have delivered an ultimatum to Bryce, and he will probably be brought around to see the great white light in the baseball ring.

With St. Paul and Minneapolis in the Northwest will have a great league, and the fans of Duluth are satisfied that they will not hunger for baseball about the middle of May, when the surface of the heather seats takes on an inviting appearance.

SOLD

Dr. John McKay has sold his pacer, Belle Patch, to Charles Larson of the West end, who will probably start her in the Henderson cup race, Tuesday. Belle Patch was purchased by Dr. McKay at a sale in Chicago during the fall.

Easy for Danielson.

William Beaulieu was easy for Andrew Danielson, the West end wrestler, at the Metropolitan last evening. Danielson won the match in two straight falls in 3 and 4 minutes. Beaulieu was a little lighter and considerably weaker than his opponent and didn't have a show from the start. The winner will meet Emil Peterson, champion of the city.

Superior Wins.

In a fiercely played game at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium, last night, the Superior Normals defeated the Y. M. C. A. team by a score of 31 to 25. The first half ended with the score standing 20 to 12 in favor of the Normals. Both teams played a fast hard game, and it was marked by considerable rough play, which called frequent fouls.

Manager A. W. Kuehnow of the Duluth Baseball team of the Northern league has in his office in the Torrey building, the signed contracts of twenty-one prospective wearers of the blue and white of Duluth in the pennant race of 1908. Contracts will be sent to five veterans of last year, Krick, Tracey, Williams, Leighty and Monroe, making a squad of twenty-six men and at least that number will report to Manager W. E. Morrow at Aurora, Ill., April 25, for the training trip preparatory to the opening of the league season here, May 1. Lines are out for several other men, whom Kuehnow and his associates have been signing. If those fully thirty men will be out to try for positions in the preliminary workout, they will be needed as fast as possible and fifteen or sixteen men will be brought to Duluth to open the season.

Young blood will go to make up the team. There are no big league records in the record books of the Duluth White Sox, but every boy signed has a professional or semi-professional reputation which makes him a promising candidate for the team. Otherwise he would not have been signed. If those who have been signed, will not give Duluth the team the fans want, other men will be secured to take their places.

Manager Kuehnow has fixed up a work-out agreement with several managers in leagues higher up and having their preliminary work-outs and windings before those of Duluth. Men not quite strong enough for the higher leagues will be handed down and Duluth will treat it as a little better than a go in the Northern circuit.

An Early Start.

The management of the Duluth team has started early this year and started right. The first step was the securing of a manager. In Morrow, Mr. Kuehnow believes he has a prize. An old big-leaguer, who since going to the minors has played in several leagues throughout the country, he has a wide acquaintance among ball players and is able to pick up promising youngsters with a knowledge of their ability. He has owned a franchise in the Texas and the Western Pennsylvania leagues. He managed a team in the Northwestern league for one season and last year played for a time in the Wisconsin State league. He is a catcher and outfielder, but is not chosen for his playing ability so much as his managerial talents. He has shown his hand already by picking up several players, after whom were other managers, and his records leads one to believe that he will make good.

Doc' Voss, a versatile Winnipeg player, has been secured. Voss can play anywhere on the team, but catches his forte and for that he is signed. He made good as a pitcher at Winnipeg and his ability both in the infield and outfield, John Beard is a Waterloo, Ind., boy, for whom several Central league managers made bids, but Duluth had already snapped him up. If either of the other bidders for Beard, he will be on hand to take up the work.

Krick and Hauey are the only pitchers who are known in Duluth. Both are safe. "Papa" Hauey had some hard luck last year, but his old whip is good for a few seasons more and his spirit and good will are assets to the team. Josie Krick is a good, steady pitcher, not ripe for the bigger leagues, perhaps, but able to hold his own in the Northern without danger of being displaced. Frank DeLong comes from Waterloo, Ind., where he has been a pitcher in the Northern circuit. Harry Wright hails from Indiana and has a record in the O. & N. league. He finished the season of 1907 in the

FROM THE MINES AND THE SMELTERS

LAKE SUPERIOR IRON MINES

Ore Struck in Michigamme Valley By W. G. LaRue of Duluth--Discovery of Ore in Pickands-Mather's Red Rock Property.

It is interesting and significant information that comes from the Western Menominee range, to the effect that iron ore has been encountered in the Michigamme valley, at a point twelve miles northwest of Crystal Falls, W. G. LaRue of Duluth is exploring the field, and it is the understanding that he has out ore at an approximate depth of seventy feet. It has long been extremely probable that there is a southerly continuation of ore measures running from the Republic district, Marquette range, to a junction with the Menominee range, and it has been considered to be only a question of time when producing properties would be opened in the territory, more particularly, perhaps, in and adjacent to the valley of the Michigamme. This river is the outlet of Lake Michigamme, at one end of which is the Steel corporation's Champion mine, and at the other the Michigamme group of properties. The stream runs in a southerly direction, and after passing through Republic, and traversing a portion of the Crystal Falls district, it forms a junction with the Menominee range, in proximity to which are the mines of the Menominee range. With this as the course, the valley of the Michigamme has been held to possess much of the promise to the explorer. It has not been given the attention merited, however, for the reason that the country is very difficult to prospect, there being a heavy drift overburden above the rock ledge. But it has been believed that eventually the ore would be located and mines would be opened, just as is now the case in the Iron River district, Western Menominee range, where the geological conditions are quite similar. Mr. LaRue is a pioneer in the field, and there will be great interest in his discoveries, especially since in other portions of the Lake Superior region, as well as in the Republic district of Wisconsin, his explorations have been attended with much success.

THE MONICA GROUP OF MINES

Now Owned by Morgan Tillinghast of Philadelphia, Having Paid Last Installment of $150,000--Promising Gold Property in Arizona.

Philadelphia, Feb. 1.—Final payment on the purchase price of the Monica group of mines in Arizona has been made by Morgan Tillinghast of Philadelphia, and the deed conveying full title to the group to Mr. Tillinghast was placed on record in the county recorder's office.

Mr. Tillinghast, who has been a recent visitor declared the Monica mine to be the equal in value of any of the largest gold mines in Nevada. He is known to have visited and examined many of the large producers of the Sage Brush state. He closed the deal for the purchase of the Monica after making a thorough personal examination of it. The mine passed to him under bond, Dec. 31, 1905. He started a force of men developing the property the following day, and in a short time later, there is now in the mine, according to the statement of a conservative mining man, a fair tonnage of ore in any other gold mine in the territory.

It is the opinion of all mining engineers who have examined the property that it will equal, if not surpass, in production any gold property in the county when the 40-ton mill and cyanide plant, the plans of which are now under consideration, are installed and in operation. A new 10-stamp mill is now almost finished, and the additional stamps will be installed immediately, providing the test run of the 10-stamp mill proves satisfactory.

The total purchase price of the fourteen claims in the group was $150,000, payable in installments covering a period of two years. The last installment was paid on time, in spite of the recent financial stringency.

The Monica vein, the principal one of the series included in the group, runs in an easterly under bond direction. A crosscut tunnel 1,300 feet in length taps it at a depth of 150 feet, and the mine is located below the level of the crosscut tunnel, so that the product of the mine will reach the mill by the gravity system. The mine is located on the northern slope of the Weaver mountains, fourteen miles southeast of Kirkland, the nearest railroad station.

There will be practically no customer for ore handled by the Copper Queen smelters until the situation is materially improved, by a decrease in the price of the metal.

Development work continues to enlarge a great extent, and the completion of the installation of machinery in the powerhouse the next work will be that of removing the conveyor system, and the plans to the south side of the smelter building, thus giving room for the two new furnaces which are to be constructed.

There is nothing hardly worthy of mention for the week at the Copper Queen smelter. Seven furnaces are in operation, and the production of the first of the month and the experiments are still going on with the reverberatory furnace, the extensive work of the month ago. So far as known this furnace yet remains in an experimental state. The Queen has, during the time of idle furnaces, added greatly to the reserve supply of by-products to the new addition to the powerhouse a force was engaged this week putting in position the great machinery for which it was built to accommodate.

On Friday of last week the night shift at the Shattuck-Arizona mine working in the south drift at the 700-foot level, broke through the body of low grade sulphide ore encountered early in the week. This ore was first broken into at a distance of 812 feet from the shaft and twenty-four feet of it was gone through. The east drift on the 600 is now in about 1,200 feet, but there are no new developments of interest. The Shattuck is not taking out any ore because of the smelter area situation.

A new diamond drill hole on the 1,100 level of the Denn-Arizona property was started this week, and the old drift will be changed in direction, and driven to the southeast. The drift is now in 650 feet from the shaft, and the new hole is being driven to the southeast. What was found in the fourth hole which was put down from the 1,100 during the past few weeks the management of the company were not so sure. Fourteen men are at work on the property.

At the annual stockholders' meeting of both the Shattuck-Arizona and Denn-Arizona companies will take place in Duluth on Feb. 15, at which time the matter of constructing the smelter, and the time of commencing work will be settled definitely. The appointment of a successor to E. M. Patterson, the present superintendent, who has resigned, will be taken up.

That the Boston Consolidated must have built a facility in addition to its big Garfield plant, about ready to go into commission, is indicated in the annual report of President Samuel Newhouse, given out in London. In the report Mr. Newhouse asserts that the company is prepared to begin mining in the near future, and that the amount of ore needed to keep busy the present milling facilities, and the mine will be in full operation, intended to handle 6,000 tons of ore daily. It is believed that the company's intention to double the mill capacity is also indicated by the issuance of debenture bonds to the amount of $252,000. During the Rapid City, S. D., Feb. 1.—Some of the most important mining work being done in the Black Hills today is that under the direction of Col. James A. Clark, the veteran mining man of this city. Col. Clark during his long residence in the Hills has acquired large interests and today he and his associates control over 200 acres of the best mining ground in the Southern and Central hills. Part of this is being operated on a large scale and part with lesser development. Around Keystone, where most of Col. Clark's energies are directed, he has recently built a new plant to work his Dorothy and Pettigrew tunnels, situated between the town of Keystone and the old Harney city camp. The Dorothy tunnel will be run a distance of 1,200 feet through the mountain west, while the Pettigrew tunnel will be pushed 900 feet east, thus opening up a wide range of country which is highly mineralized, and shows some important ledges that must be developed.

The Harney City group comprises

BIG WORK IN THE COALITION

New and Rich Ore Body is Opened in the Rarus and Another in the Minnie Healy—Edith May Vein in the North Butte Most Remarkable.

Butte, Mont., Feb. 1.—During the general suspension of mining operations the Butte Coalition company is doing some good development work in the Rarus, Minnie Healy and Tramway mines, and some splendid ore bodies are being opened in the Rarus and Minnie Healy. On the 1,000-foot level of the Rarus the vein has been crosscut and a drift is now being run on the ore body, which is from eight to twenty feet wide in the 200 feet of drift so far opened. The ore is first-class and assays up to 12 per cent copper, but the average, however, being considerably lower than that. The ore body is improving as the drift progresses. A crosscut is also being driven from the 1,700-foot level, but the vein has not yet been reached. The shaft is down 1,300 feet and seventy-five feet more will be added before a station is cut at the 1,800. Drifting is being done on the 1,800, 1,400 and 1,300 feet levels of the Rarus into the Minnie Healy ground and toward the new Tramway shaft, with which the levels will be connected. On the 300 a body of ore has been opened in the Minnie Healy ground. The vein there is 100 feet wide. The 1,100-foot level is the lowest workings in the Minnie Healy mine at present and recently opened the vein at that depth by a long crosscut from the Speculator shaft. The vein is not so large as the Edith May vein, but it is said to be fully as rich, and that is saying a great deal when it is known that the Edith May Montana company tried to open the old Minnie Healy shaft for the purpose of using it in connection with the campaign being made against the fire in the old Boston & Montana workings, but the shaft caved in again and it has been abandoned. The fire is now under perfect control, but it is not light to extinguish it. A very limited area will be continued until the purpose is accomplished.

In the course of the development work in the Butte Coalition company is taking out daily about 100 tons of first and second-class ore, but none of it is being shipped to smelters. It is piled on the ground near the railroad track, where it will remain and accumulate until there is a bigger demand for ore and copper again.

The Tramway shaft has reached a depth of 1,250 feet, and will be sunk at least 300 feet more. All the mines of the Coalition company, however, are in excellent and constantly improving condition, and when the metal situation becomes normal again the output of the fifth furnace and maximum production for economical operations at all the properties. Most of the mining will be done through the new Tramway shaft.

The North Butte Mining company is pushing development work on the 1,800-foot level and recently opened the vein at that depth by a long crosscut from the Speculator shaft. The vein is not so large as the Edith May vein, but it is said to be fully as rich, and that is saying a great deal when it is known that the Edith May on the 1,800 is about 90 per cent first-class ore. Drifting for a distance of 1,000 feet has been done east and west on the Edith May on the 1,800, and old miners who are familiar with all the rich veins in the Butte district declare that nothing like the Edith May has ever been known in Butte, not even in the great old days of the Anaconda. It is understood that the vein is from eight to twenty-five feet wide so far as drifted on. As the vein is larger and the ore is better on the 1,800 than on the next level above, it is taken as a sure indication that they will be found correspondingly better at still greater depths. Shaft sinking is being pushed and the shaft is now 2,100 feet deep. In the course of the work several hundred tons of ore are taken out daily and shipped to the Clark reduction works for treatment.

Operating its means and smelter more economically and successfully than ever before in its history, the Pittsburgh & Montana Copper company is now producing at the rate of nearly 70,000 pounds of blister copper a month. The company is now treating about 110 tons a day from its own mines daily and about forty tons of custom ore. Having no concentrator, however, only the first-class ore is handled, the average being from 6 to 8 per cent copper. The silver values in the company's ores run from eight to ten ounces to the ton. The company is now prepared to handle custom ores of high-grade in greater quantity than at present received, and with the copper metal situation

BRIGHTER BSBBEE CAMP

Expected That the Mines Will Soon Be Employing More Men Than Ever Before—Development Work Continues to Uncover New Ore Bodies of Considerable Dimensions.

Bisbee, Ariz., Feb. 1.—The local copper situation continues to grow brighter in response to the improvement in general conditions throughout the country. Although only a few assay men have been put to work in the district during the past week it is very probable that if the slight improvement in the price of the metal which was witnessed last week continues, it will not be very long before the local mines are operating with more men than ever. Already preparations have been made for increasing the capacity of the gravity system. The Arizona, Las, and the Copper Queen company is handling nearly as much of its output as ever, and the Arizona ton or chandled amounts to very little.

There will be practically no customer for ore handled by the Copper Queen smelters until the situation is materially improved, by a decrease in the price of the metal.

Development work continues to enlarge a great extent, and the completion of the installation of machinery in the powerhouse the next work will be that of removing the conveyor system, and the plans to the south side of the smelter building, thus giving room for the two new furnaces which are to be constructed.

There is nothing hardly worthy of mention for the week at the Copper Queen smelter. Seven furnaces are in operation, and the production of the first of the month and the experiments are still going on with the reverberatory furnace, the extensive work of the month ago. So far as known this furnace yet remains in an experimental Quincy Expansion Northward in the Mesnard and Pontiac Tracts—Rhode Island is Penetrating Most Encouraging Stretch of Copper Ground Found During Its Career.

Houghton, Mich., Feb. 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Quincy expansion northward in the Mesnard and Pontiac tracts is rapidly taking shape. This portion is separated from old Quincy on surface by Franklin, but they have underground connections below Franklin's boundary corner. No. 4, or Mesnard shaft, has reached upwards of 4,000 feet in depth, and the ledge there is looking as good as in any part of the mine.

Diamond drilling last fall located the outcrop and dip of the ledge northward, and the site was selected for No. 5, or Pontiac shaft, 2,600 feet north of No. 4. In the machine shops the boilers, engine and other equipment are being prepared to install there, and sinking will start as soon as spring weather permits. The shaft will be opened full size for working and not for exploration. There is no overburden.

The installation of the air compressor new in the ground will complete No. 5's permanent equipment. The concrete foundation, twelve feet deep, was finished this week. The compressor is a rolling-mill type, with continuous frame, and base extending under all the cylinders, giving an unusual strength. It is cross-compound and two-stage, with a capacity to actuate sixty-five drills. Three boilers, of 250-horse power each, will be installed for the compressor, giving No. 8 an equipment of ten boilers.

Additional economy has been secured by consolidating the steam supply for No. 2 and No. 6 compressors in one boiler house, and raising the pressure to 150 pounds. The same boiler will be used at No. 8 compressor. The new equipment will give Quincy air capacity for considerably over 300 drills. Quincy No. 7 shaft rockhouse has had its interior remodeled, because the number of men and increasing the bin capacity to 700 tons of rock, from 150 tons. Previous to 1905 it required twenty-eight men to handle the rock output of twenty-four hours at No. 7. Improvements in 1905 reduced this to sixteen men. With the system just finished, the output of twenty-four hours is handled by five men. The rock is dumped into an immense steel hopper, from the throat of which it is fed to two giant crushers. One man at each crusher controls the pneumatic gate and picks out the mass copper. The masses are cleaned of gangue rock by a steam hammer. Either crusher is capable of handling the entire output for a limited time, and thus repairs can be made without interrupting the hoist.

Quincy No. 2 shaft is to have a steel rockhouse in place of the frame one now in use. It will be of the most modern type. The mine has twenty electric locomotives in service underground, largely for hauling hand tramming. Arcadian is sinking in the rock after penetrating 75 feet of overburden in street level. It is exploring the eastern part of the property. The shaft recently discontinued drove a crosscut eastward for 1,000 feet and the new shaft is about midway between the limit of ground reached by the crosscut and the eastern boundary. From an undetermined depth a crosscut will be driven east and west to explore the remainder of the tract. A number of fairly extensive ledges containing copper were opened by the former crosscut, but it is planned to map all of the ledges by crosscutting before development is centered upon any one. Rhode Island is penetrating the most encouraging stretch of copper ground found during its career, driving southward at a depth of 1,275 feet on the Pewabic ledge, thus approaching the Franklin Junior's good showing on the same ledge. The drift was started last April and has been carried 225 feet throughout a large part of which good stopping ground has been opened. No stopes have been cut, but the object being to gain distance as rapidly as possible. A drift north at the same level is 1,000 feet, when the ground is not so good in rock, but the character of the rock is encouraging. Two drills are in service. The ledge varies from six to fourteen feet wide.

Rhode Island has discontinued all diamond drilling. It had a drill under way on the Pewabic ledge, but the face to determine the extension and dip of the Keersarske ledge, which had been previously located. It was then moved to the Quincy, where it located the ledge for opening No. 9 or Pontiac shaft. It may be brought back to Rhode Island for underground service. The Rhode Island's Keersarske ledge does not reveal copper values considered worthy of development. If the LaSalle, to the north, develops good ground with depth Rhode Island may be encouraged to open shafts on the ledge, but not otherwise.

Electric hoisting will be given a preliminary trial. It was then moved to the Quincy, where it located the ledge for opening No. 9 or Pontiac shaft. It may be brought back to Rhode Island for underground service. The Rhode Island's Keersarske ledge does not reveal copper values considered worthy of development. If the LaSalle, to the north, develops good ground with depth Rhode Island may be encouraged to open shafts on the ledge, but not otherwise.

REMODELING ITS SMELTERS

Greene-Cananea Making Improvements That Will Decrease the Cost of Operations Very Materially When Work is Finally Resumed.

New York, Feb. 1.—Dr. L. D. Ricketts, general manager of the Greene-Cananea Copper company, is now in New York on business connected with this company, and was in consultation this week with the John D. Ryan and Thomas F. Cole interests, which now control the properties. Dr. Ricketts is enthusiastic over the mines and of the situation to make extensive repairs, alterations and extensions to the furnaces and plant generally. It is pointed out that as much work in this line can be accomplished for one dollar, while the works are closed down, as can be done when the works are in operation. The furnaces have been almost totally rebuilt, and the improvements made will decrease the cost of operations very materially when work is finally resumed. The shaft is now being sunk to the third level, with every expectation that the ore body will continue, not only to that point, but far below. If calculations prove correct, it will ultimately be a most valuable contributor to the metal output of the Greene-Cananea company.

Dr. Ricketts says that while the mines and smelters are closed down, so far as producing ore or metal is concerned, advantage has been taken of the situation to make extensive repairs, alterations and extensions to the furnaces and plant generally. It is pointed out that as much work in this line can be accomplished for one dollar, while the works are closed down, as can be done when the works are in operation. The furnaces have been almost totally rebuilt, and the improvements made will decrease the cost of operations very materially when work is finally resumed. SILVER-LEAD OF HIGH GRADE Opened Up By William Meagher on His Claims Near Galena, Nev.--Rich Strike at the Pittsburg Silver Peak.

Galena, Nev., Feb. 1.—William Meagher has opened up some high grade silver-lead ore on his claims near here. A shaft has been sunk ninety feet, from the bottom of which a level is run on a ledge forty feet, connecting with a tunnel 300 feet in length, which runs out to the surface. A ledge of good ore has been encountered in the tunnel. From the level a winze has been sunk fifty feet, showing a good vein. This vein has been stored for some distance and shipments of ore made running 190 to 220 ounces silver, 27 to 32 per cent lead and $6 to $8 gold.

On the Summit group also high grade ore is being opened. A 700-foot tunnel intersects two stope ledges, which run parallel, about 400 feet apart. The first is about fifteen feet wide and carries a good deal of silver. The second is about 150 feet from the surface and is twenty feet wide. The ledge was drifted on for some distance, and a winze sunk into twenty-five feet ore, carrying stephanite and steel galena, that runs 400 ounces silver and 60 per cent lead.

Tonopah, Nev., Feb. 1.—A rich strike is reported in the workings of the Pittsburg Silver Peak. In the lower tunnel a two and a half-foot ledge of gold sulphide was uncovered, which assays $140 to the ton. The discovery was made in a part of the mine that is being developed and is regarded as important as indicating an increase of the known ore bearing territory. Sixty stamps of the new mill on the property dropped this week for the first time, and it is expected that by Feb. 1, the entire hundred stamps will be in operation.

Virginia City, Nev., Feb. 1.—The public is beginning to find out why the Yellow Jacket company erected the 100-stamp mill at Gold Hill. One reason is given in the weekly report of Supt. Slosson of the Yellow Jacket: "On the 1,100-foot level of the mine to the south we find a gold ledge lying year ended Sept. 30, the Boston Consolidated shipped 34,305 tons of sulphide ore to the smelter and realized a profit of $24,488. In the same period there was expended $1,702,608 in development, of which $822,000 was on mill construction, and $345,000 on steam shovel development of the porphyry ore body. At the end of the year the company's stocks of gold, silver and copper worth $310,368, which have since been sold.

The rumor is persistent both here and in the East, that Utah Consolidated is about to resume production on a large scale and that the ore is included in a streak one-sixth of the way across. The tunnel is in sixty-five feet. The Lucky Boy adjoins the Midland on the east. The directors of the Colorado Mining company have declared a dividend of $50,000. The payment will be made from the surplus of $100,000 on hand, as the mine is shut down.

about 400 acres of ground, with Battle Creek running through it from end to end. The Eagle Mountain and King Oscar camps, north and east of Keystone, two new plants are being erected and work is being started. It is expected by May. The Eagle Mountain group of claims lies in the copper belt that has been somewhat developed on the Blue Lead and other properties of the company. Harman and some well known Colorado mining men at one time did some extensive work on the Eagle Mountain group there is a three-compartment shaft now down fifty feet, and on the King Oscar a two-compartment shaft, both of which will open up a large territory, where both gold and copper prospects are plentiful, and give splendid promise. The output of the company for these claims have run as high as 40 per cent, but the general average is much less, while gold assays have returned over $50 to the ton. The ore ledges on these two groups contain low grade ore that are amenable to treatment and are of such size as to insure permanency for the operators.

VERY RICH STRIKE IS MADE

In the Open Mine in Tintic--Milling Facilities of the Boston Consolidated Must be Increased, Says President Newhouse.

Salt Lake, Utah, Feb. 1.—News of a sensational rich strike in the Opek mine in Tintic leaked out this week. A crosscut from the 1,325 level has cut three fissures and in the last one there is exposed a full breast of high grade silver-lead ore. The Opek company was formed a year and a half ago by a number of wealthy mining men to operate on ground adjoining the Centennial Eureka. It was intended to sink the three compartment shaft to the 2,000 foot mark before prospecting, but the plan was changed and a drift was run at 1,325 feet, when the financial stringency reached Utah. The ore found is only a few hundred feet from the Centennial Eureka. The mine is being followed in both directions.

That the Boston Consolidated must have built a facility in addition to its big Garfield plant, about ready to go into commission, is indicated in the annual report of President Samuel Newhouse, given out in London. In the report Mr. Newhouse asserts that the company is prepared to begin mining in the near future, and that the amount of ore needed to keep busy the present milling facilities, and the mine will be in full operation, intended to handle 6,000 tons of ore daily. It is believed that the company's intention to double the mill capacity is also indicated by the issuance of debenture bonds to the amount of $252,000. During the

MINING IN THE BLACK HILLS

New and Important Development Work Being Carried on Near Keystone by Col. James A. Clark ---Dorothy and Pettigrew Tunnels.

Rapid City, S. D., Feb. 1.—Some of the most important mining work being done in the Black Hills today is that under the direction of Col. James A. Clark, the veteran mining man of this city. Col. Clark during his long residence in the Hills has acquired large interests and today he and his associates control over 200 acres of the best mining ground in the Southern and Central hills. Part of this is being operated on a large scale and part with lesser development. Around Keystone, where most of Col. Clark's energies are directed, he has recently built a new plant to work his Dorothy and Pettigrew tunnels, situated between the town of Keystone and the old Harney city camp. The Dorothy tunnel will be run a distance of 1,200 feet through the mountain west, while the Pettigrew tunnel will be pushed 900 feet east, thus opening up a wide range of country which is highly mineralized, and shows some important ledges that must be developed.

Society

The wedding ceremony, Thursday, at 8 o'clock, at which Miss Maude White, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William White, became the bride of Wardwell Ames, Jr., was preceded by a series of beautiful entertainments, and the ceremony itself was most elegant in all its appointments. The church was beautifully decorated. The altar was draped in white hangings, over which were tracings of Southern amylax. Palms and ferns were banded before the altar, with clusters of white flowers relieving the green and tall cathedral candelsticks, bearing gleaming lighted candles, added to the beauty of the altar. At each pew a tall white wand held aloft a bouquet of white hyacinths and narcissus.

While the guests were being seated a program of organ music was played by Miss Isabel Pearson and Miss Bradshaw sang, "Calm as the Night," with violin obligato. At 2 o'clock the wedding music from "Lohengrin" was played and the wedding party entered the church. The ushers, Messrs. William Dalrymple, Clarence Shepard of Winnipeg, Richard Grant and William White, Jr., came first, and were followed by the bridesmaids, Misses White, and then the bride, Miss White, and then the bridegroom, Mr. Ames, and then the bride's father, Mr. William White, walking alone. Next came the maid of honor, Miss White, and then the bridesmaids, Misses O'Brien of Chicago and Miss Bishop of Bay City, Mich., walking together. The bride came last with her father, Mr. Ames, and then the bridegroom, Mr. Ames, walking alone. The bride's father, Mr. Ames, was accompanied by his groomsmen, John Dalrymple, of St. Paul. The service was read by Rev. Campbell Coyle, pastor of the church.

The bride wore a beautiful satin gown of an emerald green, garnished with old rose point lace, and embroidery of orchids and seed pearls. In her heavy tulle veil was fastened a cluster of orchids and she carried a shiver bouquet of the same flowers. Mrs. Dalrymple wore a gown of white satin with gold lace and a large picture hat of American beauty shade, and she carried American beauty roses. Mrs. White wore an empire gown of Chantilly lace, with a white hat with a plume of American beauty shade, and she carried American beauty roses. The bridesmaids wore empire gowns of pale blue satin, with blue hats, in which appeared a touch of American beauty color, and they carried the American beauty roses.

Mrs. White, mother of the bride, wore a gown of pearl gray satin with silver embroidery, with a gray hat, and Miss McKay wore a lavender satin gown and hat.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the White home on East Superior street, at which the guests of the bride and groom were entertained. The reception room was beautiful in decorations of American beauty roses, in the music room daffodils and tulips in yellow shades were the decorations, and in the dining room American beauty roses again were featured. Assisting during the receiving hours were Mrs. William Dalrymple, Mrs. J. B. Cotton, Mrs. W. Andrews, Mrs. E. T. Hanson and Mrs. John Fenton.

Mr. and Mrs. Ames left on the 5 o'clock train for Duluth. The bride's going away gown was of two-toned blue cloth, with hat to match. They will go south with the bride, and later to Naesau, and after April 1 will be at home in this city.

One of the most delightful of the affairs given in honor of Miss Maude White and Ward Ames, Jr., was the bridge reception and dancing party at which Mr. and Mrs. John Fenton were hosts, Monday evening at their home. The game was played at ten tables, and the favors were won by Miss Winifred Barton of Superior and Miss Maude White and the men's favors went to George Robson and Frank Ferguson Leach. After the game the ball room was thrown open and a beautiful program of an informal dance. Forty-five guests were entertained.

Ward Ames, Jr., entertained at his bachelor dinner Tuesday evening at the Kitchi Gammi club, and the favors were the decorations and the guests were:

Messrs. John Dalrymple, Wm. Dalrymple, St. Paul, E. Alexander, Clarence Shepard, E. M. Peyton, Jr., of Winnipeg, Richard Grant, W. L. McLennan, A. W. Taussig, Herbert Spencer, E. P. Towne, D. G. Cutler, Jr., Wm. White, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Blanchard of the Bellevue Apartments have as their guests, Mrs. Pascal Ware and little son of Omaha.

Mrs. Carroll Grant entertained at an informal afternoon Tuesday in honor of her guest, Miss Betty Knight of Chicago.

Mrs. Florence Ames Draper entertained at luncheon at the Kitchi Gammi club Monday in honor of Miss Maude White and her attendants. White hy-acanthus were the table decorations and covers were laid for six.

Mrs. George P. Stillman entertained at cards Wednesday and Thursday afternoons at her home, 222 East Third street. The rooms were simply decorated in red and yellow tulips and the game was played at seven tables. Wednesday afternoon, the favors were won by Mrs. C. H. Farmer and Mrs. E. P. Burg and upon Thursday afternoon the prize winners were Mrs. J. W. Comstock and Mrs. A. M. Prime.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Williams of Cleveland were the guests during the week of Mrs. Williams' parents, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Ross of 1428 East First street.

Mrs. R. F. Fitzgerald of East Superior street was the guest of friends at St. Paul during the week. Mrs. LeRoy Salsich returned the first of the week from a short visit to Minneapolis and is now with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Frazer of East Superior street.

The wedding in Chicago, Wednesday evening of next week, of Miss Grace Lillian Hinckley to Dr. Ernest Linwood Cheney of this city will be of much interest to many Duluthians. The wedding will take place from the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Richardson, uncle and aunt of the bride. The ceremony will take place at the Church of the Epiphany, and will be followed by a large reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richardson. The bride will be attended by her cousin, Miss Edna Richardson as maid of honor, and Miss Richardson as matron of honor. The bridesmaids will be the bridesmaids. The groomsmen will be W. W. Kitchell of Duluth, and the ushers will be Harold Pierce and Harry Pierce of this city and George Pratt of Chicago.

Dr. Cheney and his bride will leave for a wedding trip, and after April 1 they will be at home at 1222 East Second street, in this city. A number of affairs were given during the week in Chicago in compliment to Miss Hinckley and her attendants. Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Richardson was hostess at a large reception in honor of her niece.

The last of the affairs in honor of Miss Maude White and Ward Ames, Jr., was the bridal dinner, Wednesday evening, at which Mr. and Mrs. William White entertained at the Kitchi Gammi club. American beauty roses and ferns formed the centerpiece, and besides the hosts and guests of honor, covers were laid for:

Messrs. John Dalrymple, Herbert Spencer, of St. Paul, Richard Grant, William White, Jr., of Winnipeg, Richard Grant, W. L. McLennan, A. W. Taussig, Herbert Spencer, E. P. Towne, D. G. Cutler, Jr., Wm. White, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McConaghe of Huron's Park had as their guests a few days during the week Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Sargent of Fairbanks, Alaska, who were en route to the East.

One of the most interesting of the social events of next week will be the annual Primrose banquet of the Young Women's Christian association, which will take place Wednesday evening at her home, 224 West Fifth street. Cards were the amusements of the evening and the prizes were won by Mrs. Frank Fix and Mr. R. Hoch. Those present were:

Messrs. Toben, Kieran, Nolan, Kremer, Fie, Michan, O'Neill, Kieran, Nolan, Kremer, Fie, Michan, O'Neill, Kieran, Nolan, Kremer, Fie, Michan, O'Neill.

Miss Clara Meyer of 2422 West Fourth street returned during the week from a visit with friends at Spooner, Wis.

Mrs. Carl Anderson was the guest of honor at a pleasant surprise party Tuesday afternoon at her home at honor of Miss Swendby. She was presented with gifts of tin and china.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Walczak were pleasantly surprised Thursday evening at their home, at 2418 West Sixth street. An informal evening was enjoyed by the following guests:

Messrs. Anna Adamiak, Tena Kramiec, Lizzie Wladzin, Mary Wykon, Josie Dinkowski, Mary Slinkow, Francis Walczak, Marie Slinkow, Victoria Walczak, Marie Slinkow, Mary Nowakowski, Rycha Perkon, Messrs. John Kurecki, Steve Hostewski, Frank Kurecki, Stanley Sobczyk, Thomas Hienat, Joseph Walczak, Felix Kramiec, John Gierat, Philip Lamore, Joseph Adamiak, George Ryan.

The wedding of Miss Lillian Beck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Beck, and W. J. Springstead took place Thursday evening at the parsonage of the St. Anthony de Padua church at 222 East Second street. The service was read at 8 o'clock by Rev. Francis Hufnagel. The bride was attended by Miss Abbie Power and the groomsmen was Carl A. Johnson of Hibbing. A wedding supper followed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Beck, and Mrs. Springstead left for a wedding trip and after March 1 they will be at home at Hibbing.

Judge and Mrs. James T. Hale and little son and nurse left Thursday for Towanda, Pa., called there by the death of Miss Jane Hale, who is known in this city, where she had visited.

Miss Mildred Hale, who was the guest of Miss Ethel McLean of Sixteenth avenue east, returned Sunday to her home at Houghton.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Smith of 2319 East First street returned the first of the week from a trip to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Madden of 2218 East Superior street have as their guest Miss Belle Barton of Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Williamson will leave tomorrow for a month's Eastern and Southern trip.

The social committee of Zenith chapter of the Eastern Star will receive Friday afternoon of next week in the parlors of the Masonic Temple.

Mrs. Werner Dreesentien is visiting friends at Milwaukee.

Miss Burhoe arrived in the city during the week to assume a position as a member of the high school faculty.

Mrs. A. L. McLennan of 1614 East Third street returned during the week from a six weeks' visit with friends at Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. George P. Stillman of 222 East Third street had as their guest during the week, Mrs. Frank Maas of St. Paul.

MADE TRIP TO CHINA WITH SECRETARY TAFT

MR. AND MRS. HARRY JONES.

During the week several of the missionary societies of the Baptist churches of the city listened with great pleasure to Mrs. Harry W. Jones of Minneapolis in her account of her visits to the many of the mission stations of the old world. Mrs. Jones was the guest during the week of Mrs. E. A. Gooch of 709 1/2 East Fourth street. Mr. and Mrs. Jones are both well known in this city, having visited here in the past, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Steele, who formerly lived here.

The short trip around the world, which Mr. and Mrs. Jones enjoyed, was of peculiar interest and charm. They left Minneapolis early in September and sailed from Seattle the same month on the Minnesota, the ship which carried Secretary and Mrs. Taft and their party on their famous trip around the world. Because of the distinguished passenger which the ship carried, longer stops were made in the various ports until the secretary and his party left the ship at Hongkong. Among the most delightful of the reminiscences of their trip is the association with the secretary. Both Mr. and Mrs. Jones are interested in missionary study, and their visits to the various stations, although necessarily short, were delightful. At Singapore they were entertained by Bishop and Mrs. Oldham. At Rangoon they were the guests of Mrs. Jones' uncle, Dr. D. A. W. Smith, a missionary there. Dr. Smith is a son of S. P. Smith, author of "My Country 'Tis of Thee." At Kendaia, Burmah, they visited Miss Anna Gooch, a daughter of Mrs. E. A. Gooch of this city, who is a missionary there. They were in Ceylon a week and were most enthusiastic over its beauty. They sailed from there to Italy and from there home, arriving in Boston Jan. 5 of this year.

The Duluth women who were fortunate enough to hear Mrs. Jones this week were delightfully entertained. Mrs. Jones returned Thursday evening to her home in Minneapolis.

Miss Florence Swendby became the guest of George W. Brown of Hibbing, formerly of this city. The service was read at 8 o'clock by Rev. J. L. Murphree of St. John's English Lutheran church. The bridesmaid was Miss Eleanor Swendby and the groomsmen was William Thompson. The bride wore a gown of white chiffon over silk and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. The maid of honor was also gowned in white. The ceremony was followed by a wedding breakfast. Mr. Brown and his bride will be at home at Hibbing where they will be at home. Among the out of town guests at the wedding was Mrs. E. A. Gooch of 709 1/2 East Fourth street, a sister of the bride.

The wedding of Miss Edith O'Donnell of Joliet, Ill., and Harry A. Hooker of this city took place Tuesday at the home of the bride in Joliet. Mr. and Mrs. Hooker's home at Joliet, Ill., is at 449 London Road.

Mrs. August L. Velle entertained informally this afternoon at her home in compliment to Miss Mary Paine.

Mr. and Mrs. William Prindle entertained at a collation last evening at their home on Branch street. The bride's going away gown was led by Clarence Shepard of Winnipeg and the last half was led by Howard T. Abbott.

A surprise party was given Monday afternoon in honor of Mrs. L. Cato at her home, 311 East Third street. A pleasant afternoon was enjoyed by the following guests:

Messrs. J. A. Johnson, A. Anderson, C. Olson, C. Peterson, C. F. Erickson, E. Sandberg, J. Bodich, A. Erlson, J. Sletzer, E. Johnson, A. Morton.

Miss Lillian Franson, Freda Stenberg, Esther Olson, Ruth Stenberg, Alice Erickson, Amy Erickson, Messrs. Carl Cato, Carl Morton, Milton Peterson, Leonard Cato.

Miss Nellie Harrie entertained Thursday evening at her home, 704 West Third street, in honor of Miss Mae King and Thomas Sharp, whose wedding will take place in Evelyn, Feb. 20. The rooms were prettily decorated in red and green, and progressive chess was played. The favors were won by Miss Edmond and F. M. Harris. Those present were:

Messrs. Wallace Rock, D. Melroe, Joseph Harrie, R. McDermott, Joseph Gutman, R. McDermott, Misses. Marie Olson, Della Edenloff, Lillian Nelson, Marguerite Hayes, Louise Olson.

Messrs. J. Peterson, Frank Hawkins, F. G. Harrie, F. M. Harrie, F. C. McDonald, N. Torsouille.

Mrs. D. J. Whalen, who was the guest of Mrs. P. L. Whalen, returned the first of the week to her home at Mankato.

The wedding of Miss Vesta Randall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Randall, to John C. Shimonek of Jamestown, N. D., took place Tuesday, at the home of the bride's parents, on Piedmont avenue. The wedding service was read by Rev. J. R. Davies of Grace Methodist church. Mr. and Mrs. Shimonek left for a wedding trip, and after March 1 they will be at home in Jamestown.

The Elks' charity ball at the armory last evening was one of the most delightful of the midwinter affairs and the object of the ball was brought keenly before the minds of Duluth's people by the recent season of cold weather and the necessity for help being extended to many of the less fortunate of the city and the response to the Elks' appeal was prompt and hearty. Beside the financial help which the proceeds will bring to many needy ones, the fair was a delightful success in a social sense. The Armory, the largeness and barmness of which rather daunts a decorating committee was transformed with banners and streamers of the royal purple and white. The galleries were hung with many of the bunting red, white and blue. The background for the purple streamers. From the rafters and chandeliers were strung many yards of the bunting red, white and blue. A screen of palms and ferns hid the orchestra stationed at one end of the hall. The decorations of the Hughes consisted of Vern R. Culbertson, W. W. Seckins, A. H. Bure, E. G. Mason, Jas. Crawford, C. A. Naughton, R. D. Handy.

The reception committee consisted of Messrs. R. M. Edwards, J. L. Fuller, H. W. Andridge, Rev. H. J. Mooney, W. A. Eden, J. T. Armstrong, M. B. Culum, C. J. Birch, Dr. J. H. Bued, W. W. Turner, J. A. Ashok, C. E. Ely, Charles Goodrich, E. A. Tassman, John Cox, E. R. Pritch, W. S. McCormick, W. H. Alexander, J. G. Harris, Alexander Marsault, Fred Reynolds, A. C. Le Richeux, John F. Cogswell, Dr. C. G. Shipman.

The floor committee was composed of Messrs. F. M. Anderson, F. J. O'Donnell, J. H. Bail, J. T. Pugh, J. W. Kretter, Dr. H. Costello, D. H. Lawrence, F. G. Bradbury, and the executive committee was Messrs. DeC. F. Niles, C. W. Benson and W. A. Ashley.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Gauld of 621 West Seventh street left this afternoon for a visit in Florida.

Dr. E. L. Cheney left yesterday for Chicago, where his wedding to Miss Grace Hinckley will take place next week.

Several hundred guests were present, and the program of music was played (Continued on page 20, first column.)

The Young Artist.

Perhaps you'd call me just a girl;
But I'm an artist, too,
And if you don't believe me, why,
I certainly will show you.
Just look upon my little slate;
I've drawn a great big bear,
And also a long-necked giraffe,
With spots all in his hair.
And I can draw your picture, too;
Just wait and you shall see.
But where's my pencil—long and sharp?
I've lost it—goodness me!

Game for Children's Party.

The game called "Autograph" is very amusing and jolly, and requires only a few minutes to play. Give to each boy and girl present a small pencil pad, with pencil attached. Let the hostess of the party call time. When the signal "One, two, three, write!" is given the guests mingle, all laughing and talking at once in their eagerness to obtain the greatest number of autographs on their pads. When the five or seven minutes that have been allowed for the game have expired the hostess—who has held her watch in hand since "time!"—Then the guests wait themselves and pass up their pads for the counting of autographs. Either a committee may be appointed for this purpose or the hostess, with the volunteered assistance of two or more of the guests, may attend to the counting. The boy or girl procuring the greatest number of autographs in the given time is presented with little prizes—something very simple, of course. To the girl may be given a bouquet of daisies or a dainty glass cushion. The prize for the boy may be a pocket pencilholder or a pocket match-case. The prizes should never be expensive or large.

Peeps into Places of Interest in Foreign Lands.

IN A CORNER IN LONDON.

Many are the interesting stories of the past that cluster round the ancient palace of Savoy, a palace that has not one stone standing now to tell a tale of its former magnificence. After its destruction it was never restored as a residence, but Henry VII. had it rebuilt in the form of a hospital, in honor of John the Baptist, and so endowed it in his will. But with the new session of Edward VI. to the throne the hospital was suppressed. But again it was re-founded by Mary, to be finally dissolved by Elizabeth while she was in power. In 1595 the following inscription might be read over its gates:

"Hospitium hoc inopi turbe
Savoyi vacatum.
Septimus Henricus fundavit
ab imo aedificavit."

During the building of Waterloo Bridge the last remaining fragments of the palace walls were demolished, but these remain standing relics of it in the form of the little chapel and burial ground which belonged to the palace. The church is of quaint architecture, having a low square bell-tower. A handsome tree in 1899 caused much of the interior of the edifice to be rebuilt, but in general appearance the chapel remains much the same as it was during the time of the first Savoy residents, who worshipped within its walls.

It was during the residence of John of Gaunt at the Savoy palace that the poet Chaucer was married there to Philippa de Roet.

JACK, THE REAL CULPRIT.

BY MAUD WALKER.

Jack was his name, Jack Bennett. He was red of hair, freckled of face and determined of mind. Also, Jack had a generous disposition and a deeply sympathetic heart. Jack was only 10 years old, but Jack was as capable in many ways as a boy several years his senior.

One day as Jack was on his way from school he decided to make a short cut home, going through an alley a part of the way. He was fond of finding new roads to and from school, and knew that part of the city lying between his home and the schoolhouse pretty well. But in this alley he found new adventures. The dingy window of a dingier old house was the sweetest face he had ever seen. A little girl's face framed in soft, fair hair, smiling at him, a smile such as one innocent child will give another innocent child with Jack stopped and nodded his head, a smile such as a little girl would give to a boy who had just come from school that evening he made it a point to go by the old house in the alley; and this time he saw the little girl at the window. She nodded and smiled in recognition, and Jack's face became radiant. "Ah, now I'll just go right up and knock at the door and ask if there is anything I can do for them," he said to himself. And he did. The little girl opened the door and asked him to come in. "Granny is upstairs," she explained. "But I know Granny likes you, for she said you had a fine honest face."

Jack entered and sat down beside the stove. "Say, little girl," he asked, "do you and your granny live alone all the time? Where's your mother and father?" "My mamma is—in heaven," whispered the child, while a great tear gleamed on her eyelash. "And my papa is sick in the big place they call a—"

"Hospital?" asked Jack, supplying the word that was too much for the little one. "Yes, that's the place," she said. "He was took sick a long, long time ago and was took to that place. We had some nice things, then, but it took all the money papa gave Granny to pay the rent. So we had to move into this place—for it's cheaper. Then papa got up too soon and went to work. He was taken much sicker again, and went to the—place again. Then we had no more money and Granny had to sell our best chairs and door rug. Then she sold her nice Sunday dress and my best frock and my little muff what Santa Claus gave me Christmas."

"But why did she sell all those things?" asked Jack innocently.

"For money to pay our rent and to buy coal and things for dinner and breakfast and supper," explained the little girl, wondering at Jack's question.

Jack made no reply to this, but sat thinking very hard. Then he turned suddenly to the little girl and asked, "Do you believe in fairies?"

"Not much," confessed the child. "If there were really and truly fairies they'd bring things for us to eat when we get so hungry. You see, Granny looked sick the other day and she hasn't been out to sell any more furniture or clothes. So we get very hungry on fast tea and bread. You know most of the people living round us here in this alley are very wicked people, and Granny wouldn't dare to give them a piece of furniture to sell for her. They'd run off with the money. And Granny's afraid to let me go out, too, because there're so many wicked boys and girls about here playing in the gutter."

"Well, your Granny is right," declared Jack. "And you just always mind her. But I am going to tell you a secret. There are fairies, really and truly fairies. And, what is more, one will bring you something tonight. You just keep listening and listening, and when you hear a little tap, tap, tap on the window pane you sit just as still as you can and don't say a word. Count 10, and then go to the door and see what there is on the step. A fairy always leaves goodies on the step, you know. And now, I must go. Tell your Granny that I was here for her. And that I'll stop tomorrow to see if there's anything she wants me to do for her. But I'd advise you to say nothing—mind you, nothing—to Granny about the fairies till you see whether they come or not. Sometimes if too many people talk about them it frightens them away. So, it would be better for you and me to keep it a secret—that is, a secret for a while."

"Oh, I'll never say a word about the fairies coming," cried the little girl, happy in anticipation. "I do hope they'll come, though, and bring some goodies to eat. We are very hungry, Granny and me."

That evening Jack ran into the sitting-room in quest of his mother. He had something to say to her very privately, but to his sorrow he was not by.

So, it would be better for you and me to keep it a secret—that is, a secret for a while."

"Oh, I'll never say a word about the fairies coming," cried the little girl, happy in anticipation. "I do hope they'll come, though, and bring some goodies to eat. We are very hungry, Granny and me."

That evening Jack ran into the sitting-room in quest of his mother. He had something to say to her very privately, but to his sorrow he was not by.

Little tap, tap, tap on the window pane you sit just as still as you can and don't say a word. Count 10, and then go to the door and see what there is on the step. A fairy always leaves goodies on the step, you know. And now, I must go. Tell your Granny that I was here for her. And that I'll stop tomorrow to see if there's anything she wants me to do for her. But I'd advise you to say nothing—mind you, nothing—to Granny about the fairies till you see whether they come or not. Sometimes if too many people talk about them it frightens them away. So, it would be better for you and me to keep it a secret—that is, a secret for a while."

denly to the little girl and asked, "Do you believe in fairies?"

"Not much," confessed the child. "If there were really and truly fairies they'd bring things for us to eat when we get so hungry. You see, Granny looked sick the other day and she hasn't been out to sell any more furniture or clothes. So we get very hungry on fast tea and bread. You know most of the people living round us here in this alley are very wicked people, and Granny wouldn't dare to give them a piece of furniture to sell for her. They'd run off with the money. And Granny's afraid to let me go out, too, because there're so many wicked boys and girls about here playing in the gutter."

"Well, your Granny is right," declared Jack. "And you just always mind her. But I am going to tell you a secret. There are fairies, really and truly fairies. NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

MINNESOTA

GAY TIME IS ENDED

For Miss Taylor of Minneapolis Who Has Been Making Quite a Splurge in Lively Social Circles at Evanston, Ill.

Minneapolis, Minn., Feb. 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—The arrest of Estelle Taylor, on a charge of passing bad checks, has put an end to a Minneapolis girl's gay plunge into the society of the Northwestern university at Evanston, Ill. Miss Taylor is a graduate of the Minneapolis Central high school and a former student in the law department of the University of Minnesota.

No little mystery surrounds the case of the girl, who is now in a cell in Chicago, declaring that a wealthy relative from St. Paul is coming to her rescue.

Miss Taylor, who is about 25 years old, lived for fifteen years with Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Cassel, 1621 Linden avenue. Mrs. Cassel is her mother's sister. Mrs. Cassel is assistant manager of the Plumbing & Steamfitter Supplies company, 212-214 First street northeast.

Miss Taylor is remembered in university circles as a beautiful and intelligent young woman. She was secretary of her class and extremely popular. She attended the university for two years—1903 and 1904. Last spring she suffered from a protracted case of melancholia and left Minneapolis to visit relatives in Iowa and Illinois.

Miss Taylor was very popular with the students at Northwestern, being the guest of honor at a number of times. She said she was a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma society, which had no chapter at Northwestern.

She had excellent recommendations when she arrived in Galesburg last fall, and proved a capable assistant in the law office and was entirely in the confidence of the firm.

Mr. Cassel was notified of the arrest last night by telephone. He was told that the law firm by which Miss Taylor was employed will stand the cost of her transportation to Chicago.

He said that he would probably not go to Chicago.

Local Talent at Staples Will Give Military Drama.

Staples, Minn., Feb. 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Preparations are going forward for the military comedy drama to be put on by local talent at Batchelder's opera house, Feb. 24 and 25. Regular practices are being held and one or two rehearsals will be held in the open house before it is presented to the public.

"Arizona" has been on the road for several months. It is the best of the best characters in the forthcoming production will be taken to the city of Chicago, where it is expected to be a success, so that something very creditable may be expected.

JUDGE LOVELY'S FUNERAL.

Many Well Known Citizens Join in Tribute to Dead Jurist.

Albert Lea, Minn., Feb. 1.—With flags at half mast and business houses and offices closed, the funeral of Judge John A. Lovely was held Thursday afternoon in the courtroom of the county building. Judge Brown and Lewis of the state supreme court, former Judge Quinn of Fairmont, Kingsley of Austin and many attorneys from Minnesota and other states were present.

Rev. G. H. Mueller, rector of Christ the Redeemer church, officiated at the services and pronounced an eloquent eulogy upon the dead jurist. Attorneys and laymen alike were moved to tears by the funeral oration.

Many telegrams of condolence and floral tributes were numerous and beautiful.

ST. PAUL BANK EXPECTS TO Open Again for Business Monday, Feb. 10.

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—The State Bank of St. Paul is to open its doors for business Monday, Feb. 10. This information was conveyed to Public Examiner Schaffer today, and he says he has every reason to believe it will be done.

The bank, together with its savings department, has been in the process of reorganization, and so far everything has progressed satisfactorily. The bank officials are daily in communication with Mr. Schaffer and what is being done toward the resumption of business is under his sanction and approval.

MUNN IS PLEASED.

Once Condemned to Die, Laughs as He Starts for Penitentiary.

Benjamin, Minn., Feb. 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Morton S. Munn, whose sentence of death for the killing of August Franklin at Baudette, last June, was recently commuted to life imprisonment, was removed from his cell in the county jail Friday and taken by Sheriff Bailey and Deputy Andrew Johnson to Sullivan to begin the life of a convict.

Munn was cheerful and laughed and joked with those about him, especially the local officers, as he was taken to the penitentiary. He has been a tower of strength to Munn during the trying ordeal which he passed while in suspense awaiting the final action of the state pardoning board.

SANDSTONE WEDDING.

Miss Celia Parish is Married to Rolly Russell.

Sandstone, Minn., Feb. 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—A very pretty home wedding was celebrated Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Parish when their youngest daughter, Celia, was married to Rolly Russell, one of the firm of D. H. Russell & Son. The rooms were prettily decorated and a large number of guests were present.

Rev. Long performed the ceremony. The young couple received many handsome wedding presents. They left on the night train for a short visit in the Twin Cities. They took the train at the depot but a party of young people were not to be outdone, so took the train to Hinkle.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Dow of Duluth were here to attend the Parish-Russell wedding.

TWIN LAKES IS THERE.

Freeborn County Town Still on Map of Minnesota.

Albert Lea, Minn., Feb. 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—The lurid tale scattered broadcast over the Northwest about the town of Twin Lakes, in this county, having been wiped out by fire, and 200 people rendered homeless, was all a dream. The town is still on the map of the state.

It appears some dried grass of a marsh near town had been set on fire by a boy, and the fire, lighting up the sky for miles around and giving rise to the story Twin Lakes had gone on an angry fire, starting at the little town are naturally pretty mad that such a story should have been published.

NEARLY HALF MILLION PUPILS IN MINNESOTA.

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—According to figures collected by Superintendent Olsen of the state educational department, the enrollment in the public schools of Minnesota at the close of July 31, 1907, was 429,012. Of this number 374,833 are enrolled in the regular schools, 54,179 in the night schools and 9,000 in the industrial schools.

To receive this state aid children must be enrolled continuously for forty days or more. The number who did not attend the required time was 54,179.

Of the total enrollment Ramsey county is credited with 29,227 school children and Hennepin county, 31,136.

WISCONSIN

SEEKS SAFETY IN POLICE STATION

Italian Named Caruso Attacks Girl, Then Flees to Jail.

Beaver Dam, Wis., Feb. 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Breathless and in an excited state of mind, Joseph Caruso, an Italian, aged 32 years, rushed into the police station and gave himself up to the officers, saying that he was afraid he would be killed. It was found that he had attacked Maria Amato, aged 11 years, a Spanish girl.

Caruso was taken to the police station and held in the morning. The Amato home they found the girl's father armed with a revolver and a long knife, starting after Caruso, but the daughter's assailant. He was disarmed and told that Caruso was in jail, but he still maintained that he would kill him on sight.

Caruso lives just across the street from his victim and enticed the girl and her brother to his house and then sent the boy home.

Feeling among the Italians and Spanish is bitter.

TWO INCHES OF DIRT Causes Law Suit Costing Large Amount of Money.

Appleton, Wis., Feb. 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Nearly $1,000 is being spent in circuit court here in litigation over two inches of land on West College avenue. While making a general survey of the city last summer to secure data for a new city map, Engineer F. N. Stewart discovered that Andrew Christ's saloon building encroached on the city property owned by Joseph Kuehn, also occupied by a saloon. The neighbors recently became involved in an altercation over trade matters and the litigation now being fought out before Judge John Goodrich is the result.

The suit will be many times the value of the property in dispute.

CONFESSES TO MURDER.

Startling Admission Made by an Inmate of Workhouse.

Appleton, Wis., Feb. 1.—Charles Kraut of Detroit, Mich., now serving four months in the Outagamie county workhouse for hurling a rock through a $40 plate glass window, has written a letter in which he confesses to having murdered a man on a lonely road near Trempealeau, Wis., Oct. 27, last year. He says he asked the man for money, was refused and shot him.

He said he was not afraid of the law and would not commit any crime to attain his end.

Kraut is believed to be insane. He was a convict in the Michigan state prison, having served two years for the same offense.

LEWIS NOW HEAD OF
THE UNITED MINERSTHOMAS L. LEWIS.
Formerly Declared as President of the United Mine Workers.ADVERSE
TO LABORIs Decision of Supreme Court on Anti-Trust Law.Holds Triple Damage Clause Against Boycott Valid.

Washington, Feb. 3.—That Section 7 of the anti-trust act, awarding to the complainant three times the amount of damage sustained by a combination in restraint of interstate trade, can be invoked to prevent a boycott by organized labor was held today in a decision by the supreme court of the United States, in the case of Jovoe & Co., hat manufacturers of Danbury, Conn., vs. Martin Lawlor and 200 other members of the United Hatters union of that city. The decision of the court was announced by Chief Justice Fuller, and reversed the holding of the United States circuit court appeals for the Second circuit.

The opinion of the court was unanimous, and no dissenting view was presented. "We think," said Chief Justice Fuller in conclusion, "that a case within the statute was set up, and that the demurrer should have been overruled."

The decision, therefore, reversed the ruling of the lower court and the case was remanded with direction to proceed accordingly.

Chief Justice Fuller said:

In our opinion the combination described in the declaration is a combination in restraint of interstate trade, and in which those words are used in the act, and the action can be maintained accordingly, and that conclusion rests on many judgments of this court, to the effect that the act prohibits any ill will with the inflammatory "I" which essentially obstructs the free flow of commerce between the states, or restricts, in that regard, the liberty of a trade to engage in business.

"The combination charged falls within the class of restraints of trade aimed at compelling third parties and strangers involuntarily to engage in the course of trade except on conditions that the combination imposes, and there is no doubt that to quote from the well known work of Chief Justice Erie on trade unions, at common law every person has individually, and the public has also collectively, a right to require that the course of trade should be kept free from unreasonable obstruction whatever to secure action, structure. But the objection here is to the jurisdiction, because even conceding that the declaration states the case good at common law, it is contended that it does not state one within the statute. Thus, it is said that the restraint alleged would operate to entirely destroy the defendant's business and thereby include interstate trade as well; that physical obstruction is not alleged as contemplated, and that defendants are not themselves engaged in interstate trade.

"We think none of the objections are tenable and that they are disposed of by previous decisions of this court."

WILL NOT REINTRODUCE
THE IRISH COUNCIL BILL.

London, Feb. 3.—All doubt that the government is planning the introduction of legislation making it compulsory for Ireland in the present session of parliament was set at rest this afternoon when Herbert H. Asquith, chancellor of the exchequer, declared on behalf of the premier, that the government had no intention of reintroducing the Irish council bill.

WRECK OF WABASH TRAIN, KILLING TWO PASSENGERSThirty-Four Injured, But Only Two of Them
Seriously.All But One Car Stood Shock Without Overturning.Injured Taken to Detroit and Placed in Hospitals.

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 3.—Wabash passenger train, No. 4, east bound, a consolidated Chicago & St. Louis train, due here at 8:20 p. m., was wrecked two miles west of Britton station, 47 miles from Detroit about 9 o'clock last night, probably by a broken rail. Two women passengers were killed and thirty-four people were injured. The dead:

MRS. FRANCES VARGO, Budapest, Hungary.

MRS. JOHN SMITH, 182 Sixth street, Milwaukee, Wis.

The injured: Mrs. O. W. Metz, Detroit, several ribs broken; Mrs. A. J. McKay, Detroit, several ribs cracked. The remaining injured were reported to have sustained only sprains and bruises.

The train consisted of seven cars, all but one of which stood the shock of the wreck without overturning. It was in the coach, directly behind the combination baggage and express car and the regular baggage car that the two deaths and the most serious injuries occurred. The baggage cars remained upright, as did also the three sleeping cars and the diner, but the coach was overturned and badly crushed. Among the injured were a number of theatrical people who were registered as being from the Belasco theater, New York.

Most of the injured were reported to be suffering from bruises and sprains. They were brought to Detroit on a relief train and sent to hospitals and hotels here.

LEWIS DECLARED
THE PRESIDENTOf United Mine Workers
Receiving Majority of 2,082 Votes.

Indianapolis, Feb. 3.—Thomas L. Lewis of Bridgeport, Ohio, was declared elected president of the United Mine Workers of America at today's session of the annual convention.

The report of the tellers showed that 127,235 votes were cast for president, of which Mr. Lewis received 64,553 and W. B. Wilson of Blossburg, Pa., received 62,427. Lewis majority was 2,082.

John P. White of Iowa was elected national vice president, having no opposition. He received 116,078 votes.

For secretary-treasurer, W. D. Ryan of Illinois received 82,345 votes, John Fahy receiving 40,935.

COL. LAWLER PASSES AWAYWas a Former Commander-in-Chief of the G. A. R.

Rockford, Ill., Feb. 3.—Col. T. G. Lawler, postmaster of Rockford, and former commander-in-chief of the G. A. R., died today.

Arterial pneumonia was the cause of death. Col. Lawler was commissioned postmaster of Rockford by President Hayes, and had held the office in every Republican administration.

Col. Lawler's name appears in the roll of honor established by Gen. Rosenkrantz, of soldiers who had distinguished themselves by bravery and soldierly conduct. Col. Lawler was born in Liverpool, Eng., April 7, 1844. He leaves a widow.

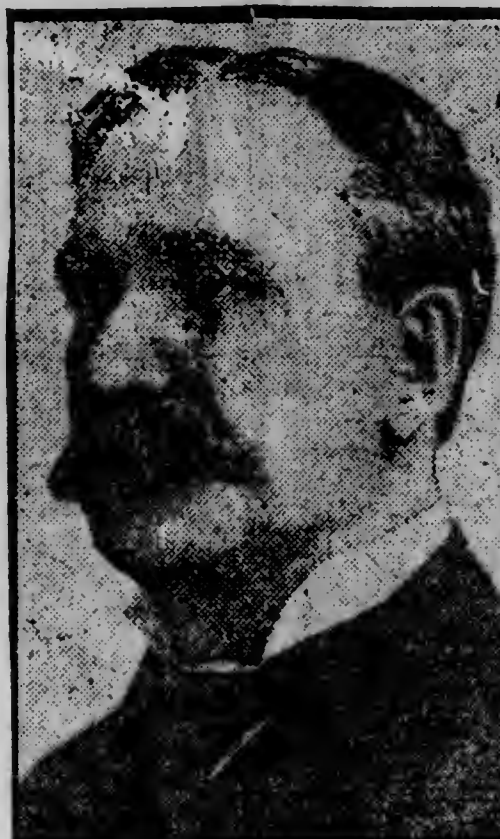

Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon. His winding sheet will be a flag given him by citizens of Louisville in 1895, when he and Gen. Buckner, Confederate soldier, were guests of honor at a banquet in that city.

MESSAGE FROM MAJOR IS NOT UNDERSTOOD.

Akron, Ohio, Feb. 3.—Capt. Yoniz and the Eleventh regiment, Ohio National guard, have received telegrams from Maj. Stanford M. Swartz of the Fifth battalion of the regiment, asking how many men the command had for mobilization notice. They replied 50 per cent. The officers do not understand fully the meaning of the message and will communicate with Swartz asking for further information.

Washington, Feb. 3.—In its twenty-fourth annual report, made public today, the United States civil service commission places the number of officers and employees of the executive civil service, on June 30, 1907, at approximately 337,000. Of this number, 196,918 were subject to examination, an increase of 12,709 as compared with the number for the previous year. Of the 196,918 persons not subject to examination, 8,147 were presidential appointees, 6,314 of whom were postmasters; 10,046 were clerks at postoffices having no free delivery service; 22,704 were minor employees on the Transimian canal work, and 30,000 were unskilled laborers. During the year 136,108 persons were examined, of whom 89,261 passed and 46,887 were appointed.

THREE FOREIGNERS ARE KILLED BY EXPLOSION.

Monaca, Pa., Feb. 3.—Three foreigners were killed and six others seriously injured today when the boilers in the Welch brick plant exploded. It is supposed frozen water pipes caused the accident. The damage is estimated at $7,000.

RAPID CHANGES OCCUR IN THE GOVERNMENT OF
KINGDOM OF PORTUGALKing Carlos and Crown
Prince Luiz Philippe Assassinated.Dictator Franco, the "Man
Office.New Cabinet is Formed and Manuel II is King.

Lisbon, Feb. 3.—Portugal today saw the establishment of a new regime. Premier Franco has resigned office and within forty-eight hours of the assassination of King Carlos his dictatorship is at an end, at least for the present. Franco resigned for fear that his continuance in office would plunge the country into rebellion. The premier has been considered directly responsible for the political turmoil which resulted in the assassination of the king and his withdrawal from power is regarded as holding a promise of political tranquility.

A new cabinet has been formed under the presidency of Rear Admiral Do Amaral, a member of the Progressist-Democratic party. Some of the new ministers have been notably opposed to the rule of Franco, but on the whole the present cabinet is liberal, with monarchist tendencies.

Arrests By the Wholesale.
Arrests are being made by the wholesale in Lisbon and all suspicious persons still at liberty are under police surveillance.

Up to 4,300 this afternoon there had been no recurrence of disorders in Lisbon. The Portuguese frontier is being closely guarded to prevent the escape of suspects.

The authorities are maintaining a strict censorship on all outgoing telegraphic messages.

The general opinion here is that there will be a modification in the ministerial program after the funerals of the late king and the crown prince. These probably will take place Feb. 10.

Premier Relinquishes Power.
Lisbon, Feb. 3.—Premier Franco has relinquished power and a new cabinet has been formed with Admiral Perreira do Amaral as its president, in the place of the late dictator, Franco.

This step signified the practical withdrawal of Franco from power. He agreed to this measure as one calculated to pacify hostile public opinion at a time when only a spark was needed to inflame the whole country and hurl it headlong to revolution. It is nevertheless believed that Franco will still be the "man of power," but his political pretensions are at least shorn of real authority.

The opening session of the new council was held today. King Manuel II.

NO HURRY IN
THAW CASEApplication for Release

at Once.Attorney Littleton Has Succeeded in So Convincing Family.

New York, Feb. 3.—According to announcements made yesterday it is not likely that any action will be taken looking toward the release of Harry K. Thaw from the Matteawan asylum, at least for a month. It is said that Martin W. Littleton, Thaw's chief counsel will leave the latter part of the week for a vacation and will probably be gone at least two or three weeks. In the meantime no move will be made to secure Thaw's release on habeas corpus proceedings. Mr. Littleton underwent a heavy strain during the trial of the case and is said to be in need of rest. It is said that Mr. Littleton is opposed to any immediate attempt to secure Thaw's release from the asylum and it is not unlikely that no move will be made until some time after he returns from his vacation. While Thaw is anxious that a writ be sought immediately Mr. Littleton is said to have succeeded in convincing the members of his family that such a move at this time would be ill-advised.

CORPORATE SUPERVISIONBy Federal Laws Recommended by Commissioner Smith.In Annual Report of the Bureau of Corporations.

Washington, Feb. 3.—Public opinion has been prompt and efficient in the correction of commercial evils when those evils are stated specifically. This is one of the conclusions reached by Herbert Knox Smith, commissioner of corporations, and expressed in the annual report of the operations of the bureau of corporations, made public today. Naturally, under present conditions, the real power of public opinion reaches only such cases as may be "specifically stated."

"Thus," says Commissioner Smith, "the experience of the bureau seems to point logically to the need for an extension of such results by the creation of a general administrative system of supervision of interstate corporations which shall give, in substantially the same form as is furnished now for a few corporations, the essential facts relating to all the great interstate corporations. Whether the system takes the form of a federal license plan or a simple requirement that interstate corporations shall make reports and submit their books to a federal bureau is of little consequence so long as the information necessary for publicity is obtained. The thing that is important is to arrive at a system which will accomplish the result, which will enable the government to deal with such corporations in the main by administrative supervision rather than by judicial procedure, whose methods will be preventive rather than penal, and most important of all, a system which will afford a permanent, practical ground for contract and co-operation between the

EARTHQUAKES
ARE RECORDEDWeather Bureau Reports
Tremors Distant About
3,800 Miles.

Washington, Feb. 3.—The weather bureau today issued the following earthquake bulletin:

An earthquake of slight intensity from a distant origin was recorded on the seismographs at the weather bureau on the afternoon of Feb. 1, beginning at 6 h., 16 min., 11 sec. p. m., 57th Meridian time.

The second preliminary tremors appeared to have begun at 6 h., 23 min., 15 sec., but the beginnings are not sharply defined in any of the records. Clearly defined motion was recorded in the east and west direction from 6:25 to 6:40 p. m., with a marked absence of maximum motion, except one slightly larger wave at 6:32:40 p. m., at which time the amplitude of the actual motion of the grounds was only three-tenths of a millimeter.

In the record of north and south motion, however, several large waves were recorded between 6:31 and 6:32:30, with a marked absence of noticeable motion at other times. The maximum north and south motion of the ground amounted to one and one-tenth millimeters. Perceptible tremors were recorded for nearly an hour.

The distance of the origin from Washington is estimated to be about 3,800 miles and the marked dissimilarity between the east and west and the north and south components of motion suggest that the line of propagation at Washington was nearly or about east and west.

CORPORATE SUPERVISION

government officials charged with this work on the one hand and corporate managers on the other.

Time is Now Ripe. It is believed that the time is ripe for such a system. The bureau has had the assistance of the voluntary co-operation and assistance of most of the large corporations involved in the subject matter of the bureau's investigations. This assistance given by the leaders of industry has been very encouraging, especially in its indications of the attitude of the public at large toward the fundamental objects for which this bureau was created.

There is no need that such federal supervision should derogate from the proper powers of the states. The business of today are transacted under conditions which, from a commercial standpoint, are purely national, with no reference to state lines, but the legal status of these businesses is still delimited almost wholly by state statutes, a discrepancy which has been the cause of many existing evils. Corporate combinations, as carried on by these great companies, whose operations substantially constitute the whole problem before us, is national, and has been deliberately made national; the control over them should, to some extent at least, be also national.

It is with such information as the bureau of corporations is able, under the law, to collect and publish, that the great corrective force of public opinion can be intelligently and efficiently directed at those industrial evils that constitute the most important of our present problems.

Corporate Combination. "Corporate combination, as such, appears to be not only an economic necessity, but also largely an accomplished fact. It is not the existence of industrial power, but rather its misuse, that is the real problem. The government should direct its attention toward preventing unfair methods, and toward keeping open the opportunities for competition in industry."

Little idea of the accomplishments of the bureau of corporations during the fiscal year, ended June 30 last, is afforded by the report, for the reason that under the law the results achieved may be made public only by the president or through his express authority. Commissioner Smith points out, however, that the chief legal work of the bureau during the year consisted in aiding the law officers of the government in preparing and prosecuting indictments against the oil trust for alleged offenses against the Elkins law (discriminations in railway rates). The report says:

"The offenses upon which these indictments were brought were not mere technical breaches of law, but were, in most cases, wilful, long-continued and dangerous violations of the entire spirit and letter of the legislation forbidding railway discriminations."

Commissioner Smith says he is continuing the investigations already begun into the industries of petroleum, tobacco and steel. Under resolutions adopted by the last congress, the bureau also is making investigations into the operations of the International Harvester company into the cause of the high price of lumber with a view to developing any combination that may exist, into the causes of fluctuations and differences in the price of cotton; and into patents granted to officers and employees of the United States. An inquiry also is being conducted into water transportation, both coastwise and internal.

RAPID CHANGES OCCUR IN THE GOVERNMENT OF PORTUGAL

who succeeds to the throne, appeared before his ministers, and with a voice vibrant with emotion, said: "I am yet without experience either in science or in politics. I place myself entirely in your hands, needing and believing in your patriotism and wisdom."

The New Cabinet. The new cabinet is made up of coalition elements, in the hope of reconciling the many disturbing elements. Some of the new ministers have been notably opposed to Franco's iron rule. Not one of the Franco ministers remain, so that his regime disappears with him. The complete cabinet as now formed is as follows: President—Admiral Ferreira do Amaral, succeeding Franco.

Minister of war—Mathias Menez, succeeding V. Porto.

Minister of justice—Jose V. Alpoim, succeeding Dr. Abreu.

Minister of finance—Telera de Sousa, succeeding A. de Carvalho.

Minister of the interior—Senor Beira, succeeding Franco, who held this portfolio in addition to the presidency of the council.

Minister of foreign affairs—Wenceslau de Lima, succeeding L. Monteiro.

Minister of public works—Jose Azevedo, succeeding M. Beirao.

The ministry is thus entirely reconstructed. The most notable changes are those of the president and of minister of justice. The latter, Senor Alpoim, has been foremost in opposition to the Franco regime.

City in Throes of Excitement. The city is still in the throes of intense excitement, and the authorities continue to follow unceasingly the details of the plot which culminated in the assassination of the king and his heir.

It was established today that Bulcao, one of the regicides, is a widower, with a daughter aged 7 and a son only a few months old.

The newspaper Noticias says one of the regicides who was killed was a Spaniard, who was taken into custody recently in connection with the discovery of a depot of bombs, but who was later released.

One of the men now under arrest is an Italian, who played in the orchestra of a theater in Lisbon. This man is in an extreme condition of hysteria. His food in the prison is served him without knives or forks, for fear that he will kill himself.

The Assassination. King Carlos and the crown prince, Luiz Philippe were assassinated Saturday evening, while driving in an open carriage.

The king's second son, the Prince Manuel was slightly injured, but Queen Amelia, who strove to save the crown prince's life by throwing herself upon him, was unhurt.

A band of men waiting at the corner of the Praca De Commercio and the Rua De Arsenal, suddenly sprang to ward the open carriage in which the royal family were driving to the palace and, leveling carbines which they had concealed upon them, fired.

The king and the crown prince, upon whom the attack was directed, were each shot three times and they lived only long enough to be carried to the marine arsenal nearby, where they expired.

Almost at the first shot, the king fell back on the cushions in the carriage and at the same moment, the crown prince was seen to half rise and then sink back on the seat.

Queen jumps in front of son.

Queen Amelia jumped up and threw herself toward the crown prince, in an apparent effort to save his life at the cost of her own, but the prince already had received his death wound. The police guard fired upon the assassins and killed three of them.

The royal family were returning from Villa Vicosa, where they had been sojourning, and were on their way from the railroad station to the palace.

A strong guard was in attendance because of the recent uprising. But the band of murderers had selected the most advantageous spot for the commission of their crime, for they were concealed from the eyes of the police until the carriage had wheeled into the Praca De Commercio, a large square.

Before any of the guards were aware of what was happening, the assassins leaped to the carriage and instantly a fusillade of shots rang out. In a moment all was terrible confusion, the king and crown prince being shot down without the slightest chance to save themselves.

Guards Kill Two. Police guards sprang upon the regicides, the number of whom is somewhat uncertain, and killed two of them and captured another who committed suicide after being placed in prison. It is charged that one of the murderers was a Spaniard named Cordova.

The bodies of the king and crown prince were removed from the marine arsenal in two closed carriages to the royal palace, the Praca Das Necessidades, the late residence of the king, escorted by municipal guards. The news of the assassination swept through the city like fire through gunpowder and Saturday night half the populace was panic stricken, not knowing where the next blow might fall.

King's Decree. King Carlos' last gazetted decree is the most sweeping public document ever promulgated in Portugal. It was made retroactive to Jan. 21, suspended parliamentary immunity, compared all persons convicted of political agitation to criminals and deprives them of civil rights.

The king, in signing it, justified it by declaring it necessary to remove the leaders and instigators of agitation against public order before the country was deluged with blood.

Portugal, and especially Lisbon, has been in a great state of frightful confusion for months. There have been repeated rumors that the king was about to be deposed, scores of magazines of arms and ammunition have been seized throughout the capital, hundreds of arrests have been made and repeated plots have been unearthed to public gatherings of any kind and giving magistrates the fullest power to deal with political offenders and at the same time characterizing as high treason anti-monarchical activity, was the death warrant for the king and crown prince. His majesty signed it at Villa Vicosa, and it was quickly circulated.

This aroused the anti-dynasty adherents to a state of frenzy, and it was publicly proclaimed that all of the members of the royal house and the present ministry had been marked for death.

By seizing the leaders of the uprising that was scheduled to have taken place on Tuesday, it was believed the government had secured control of the situation. This, however, seems to have been a wholly false impression.

Premier in Danger. The wholesale arrests of the last few days added to the general complex situation. For weeks Premier Franco has not slept twice in the same house, and each night he has been guarded by a cavalry troop, which has patrolled the particular residence in which he took refuge.

But it was hoped the king would be safe in Villa Vicosa. It is admitted that for months, arms, ammunition and bombs have been smuggled across the border, and the charges has been made that certain leading Portuguese merchants had pooled their fortunes to finance the revolution. Following the arrest of the plotters in the national library last Tuesday, the police of Lisbon got possession of the plans for the insurrection. It had been intended to swing a lantern from the tower of the national library and armed bands were then to have seized the city, aided by a ship in the harbor, on which was to have been mounted a cannon to demolish the government palace.

King's Last Decree. King Carlos' last gazetted decree is the most sweeping public document ever promulgated in Portugal. It was made retroactive to Jan. 21, suspended parliamentary immunity, compared all persons convicted of political agitation to criminals and deprives them of civil rights.

The king, in signing it, justified it by declaring it necessary to remove the leaders and instigators of agitation against public order before the country was deluged with blood.

Portugal, and especially Lisbon, has been in a great state of frightful confusion for months. There have been repeated rumors that the king was about to be deposed, scores of magazines of arms and ammunition have been seized throughout the capital, hundreds of arrests have been made and repeated plots have been unearthed to murder the king and his premier. The Crown Prince Luiz, the duke of Braganza, has generally been classed as having liberal tendencies. It was reported a few weeks ago that he had been banished to one of the king's country estates, 100 miles from Lisbon for countenancing a plot to depose his father and seat himself on the throne.

Whether true or not that he was actually exiled, it is certain he disappeared for some time from court, and was known to be in disfavor and under surveillance on his return to the capital a short time later.

Warships for Portugal. Gibraltar, Feb. 3.—The British cruiser fleet sailed from here early this morning for Lisbon.

Madrid, Feb. 3.—The government has ordered the cruiser Princesa de Asturias to proceed to Lisbon. The despatch of the cruiser to Lisbon, it is explained by the newspapers, is to put the warship at the disposition of the Spanish minister.

The Lisbon correspondent of the Imperial says that when the Dowager Queen Maria Pia arrived at the arsenal the doctors were bathing the faces of the king and the crown prince. The queen threw herself upon the body of her son, the king, and the doctors were obliged to remove her by force. When the queen arose her robe was crimsoned with blood; then she swooned.

All travelers crossing the Portuguese frontier are being subjected to a rigorous examination. On the evening of the assassinations no bugles were sounded in the barracks of Lisbon for fear that their notes would be taken as a signal that the government had been overthrown.

Advises received here from Huayra say that Portuguese families are taking refuge in great numbers on the island of Cristina and at Ayamonte, a Spanish town on the Portuguese frontier. According to advices received here from Vigo, public opinion in Oporto holds Franco responsible for the assassinations. The Spanish residents of Oporto have asked that a warship be sent there.

New King Popular. Berlin, Feb. 3.—The Darmstetter bank has received the following private dispatch from Lisbon: "The new king of Portugal is universally popular. The army is thoroughly loyal. All alarming rumors about the king have been refuted with the greatest caution. A coalition ministry of all the monarchical parties will be organized today or tomorrow, and will receive the support of the entire country."

The Portuguese legation here has informed the German foreign office that the government is still firmly supported by the army and the responsible classes. In addition to the suspension of the crown prince of Portugal, various balls and evening receptions by persons attached to the court have been postponed.

Securities Affected. London, Feb. 3.—The tragedy at Lisbon had a depressing effect upon several national securities, Spanish and Russian shares weakening as well as Portuguese. Portuguese 5 per cent which were quoted Saturday at 98, declined this morning to 96, but later, on reassuring telegrams from Lisbon, they advanced to 97.

A telegram received this morning from Lisbon by the London and Brazilian bank declares the general situation to be tranquil, that everything is quiet, and that business is proceeding.

The President's Sympathy. Washington, Feb. 3.—The following cablegram of sympathy for the king of Portugal was today dispatched from the White House:

White House, Washington, Feb. 3, 1908.—His majesty, Manuel II, king of Portugal, Lisbon: I hasten to express to you and to your betrayed queen mother my heartfelt condolence by reason of the tragic death of your royal father and brother. The American people feel a peculiar bond of sympathy with the royal family and the people of Portugal in their great affliction and have been inexhaustibly shocked and grieved at the dreadful tragedy.

The Wrong Way.

Many Physicians Try to Cure Dyspepsia by Having Their Patients Starve Out the Disease.

This Method May Ruin the Stomach.

To become a physician one must study medical literature for a long time and attend several years at a medical college, dissect at least one human body, pass many quizzes and examinations, and at last receive his diploma, which entitles him to the M. D. degree.

Yet all this does not necessarily make a doctor.

We have known many graduates, with their sheepskins, who could not apply the knowledge they had acquired to relieving and curing a patient of dyspepsia.

They were floored by their first attempt to cure such a patient.

They were not to blame for this, for all the knowledge they acquired from medical works was chiefly experimental. They were told to try the following:

Aromatic Ammonia.
Aromatic of Soda.
Bicarbonate of Potash.
Blue Mass.
Camphor Water.
Catechu.
Chloroform.
Crescote.
Hot Water.
Lime Water.
Magnesia.
Mineral Water.
Nitric Acid.
Nitro-Muriatic Acid.
Nux Vomica.
Oil of Amber.
Oil of Cajuput.
Rhubarb.
Senna.
Spirits of Lavender.
Starvation.
Strychnia.
Sulphur.
Sulphate of Lime.
Tincture of Cardamom.
Tincture of Ginger.
Tincture of Iron.
Tonics.
Vegetable Bitters.

In the list hot water is the only remedy that will not do more harm than good, and its use is still an unaltered principle.

If the professor who coaches the graduate would hand him a package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and tell him that it was a specific for dyspepsia, indigestion, all stomach ailments, and should be his mainstay in such cases, that one grain of the principle would digest 3,000 grains of food in the stomach, and that aided by this remedy the stomach would soon regain its normal condition, he would do the student more good than sending him forth with a lot of uncertain knowledge about the cure of these diseased conditions.

The young doctor would gain a reputation by curing his first case of dyspepsia.

The patient cured would send his praises far and near, and so thousands upon thousands who praise Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Instead of experimenting with the use of medicine in the above list, and doing his patients more harm than good, he would always be gaining reputation by always curing his patients.

When he met any indication of a diseased organ, he should discover what hundreds of other doctors have that the whole trouble started with imperfect digestion and assimilation, then take out of his pocket medicine, a few of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and tell the patient how to use them.

The result would be considered by the patient almost miraculous, and success after success would be achieved by him.

Many blood diseases, skin eruptions and heart troubles yield readily to Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, because they cure the incubating cause—dyspepsia. If the stomach is wrong, you are wrong all over.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold everywhere at drug stores—50 cents per package.

Send us your name and address today and we will at once send you by mail a sample package, free. Address F. A. Stuart & Co., 150 Street Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

ON THE IRON RANGES

LARGE MEETING OF UNEMPLOYED

State and County to be Asked to Lend Aid.

Virginia, Minn., Feb. 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—The meeting held Sunday afternoon of the unemployed at Socialist hall drew a large crowd, so large that there was hardly room for all who attended. Whether they were all men out of work or whether many attended out of curiosity, is unknown. Several speeches were made, the most notable was that of the county and state governments should do something to furnish employment for the idle miners on the range.

A committee was appointed to go to St. Paul and wait upon Governor Johnson to try to induce him to use his influence with the state drainage board to start some state ditches so that the idle men could be put to work. The committee was also appointed to see the county commissioners and try to induce them to start some road work.

A prominent member of the Finnish nationalities, who has no connection with the Socialist movement, informs our correspondent that in the recent reduction of forces, the mining companies let out the known trouble breeders and the men too lazy to do a day's work, and that he has seen a large number of these men in the streets of Duluth. He says that during the last five years a large number of these men have been run out of the old country for the good of the country, and that most of them came to America, where they have continued their trouble breeding and Socialist talk.

While some of the speeches made yesterday were quite bitter, there was no talk of violence, although the sentiment was quite general that the state and county governments should either furnish work or the means of sustenance.

POOR LUMBERJACKS

Are Strictly Up Against It This Winter on Range.

Aurora, Minn., Feb. 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—This winter has the lumberjacks who are working on the range a job early in the fall, hardly a day passes in Aurora that from one to five do not apply for permission to spend the winter in Aurora, that from one to five others, who have the coin, hunt up a cheap lodging house. Conditions are said to be the same all over the range in so far as the man-of-the-woods is concerned.

The lumber camps secured their full quota of men early in the fall and the lumberjacks who are looking for a job now are up against it. He tramps from camp to camp getting only his food, and then he has to sleep and a hunch to move on in the morning.

ROSA BOTTA RELEASED

From Itasca County Jail Where She Was Being Held.

Grand Rapids, Minn., Feb. 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—After a hearing on the charge of being implicated with her husband in the blowing up of a shack at the Canisteo mine at Coleraine, which resulted in the death of three men, Rosa Botta, who was being held here on a first degree murder charge, has been discharged from custody. There was no evidence to connect her with the crime.

LOGGER KILLED

Within Fifteen Minutes After He Started to Work.

Grand Rapids, Minn., Feb. 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—George Tealey, aged 32 years, went to work for the Swan River Logging company a few mornings ago, and the landing just below town. He had worked only about fifteen minutes when a log struck him on the chest, breaking the jaw bone and causing a severe scalp wound on the back of the head. He was brought to St. Benedict's hospital in an unconscious condition in which state he has remained since. His mother, Mrs. Tealey, arrived from Hastings, Minn., Thursday. When she saw the body of the unfortunate man extended his hand in a manner that indicated recognition.

HIBBING ELKS CLEARED

NICE SUM BY THEIR BALL.

Hibbing, Minn., Feb. 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—The members of the Hibbing lodge of Elks are cleared of the result of the second annual charity ball given Friday evening in Coe hall. It was a success in every way, a substantial sum being realized when all expenses have been defrayed. Everything passed off as planned, the music furnished by La Roca orchestra of Duluth being especially fine.

BRAY IS RELEASED.

Grand Rapids, Minn., Feb. 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Court Commissioner Pratt has released a young man, who was on $250 bail after he had been detained in the county jail on a charge of grand larceny, having corpus proceeding brought about his release. The county attorney resisted the release of the accused and will appeal the case.

ENDS LIFE OF SHAME

Hazel Rogers Commits Suicide in a Disreputable Resort.

Former Friends Leave Body Unidentified at the Undertaker's.

Treated as if it were carbon, the body of Hazel Rogers, the young girl who committed suicide in the disreputable resort run by Lucille Wells at 147 St. Croix avenue, lies at Durkan & Crawford's, unclaimed and unidentified by any of her former companions.

THE JOHNNY WAS STUNG

Waited for Woman With Red Roses at Depot.

Travelers and others at the Omaha depot yesterday afternoon were startled by a young man with his hat stuck on his head at a jaunty angle, a red carnation in his button hole and an expectant smile upon his countenance. He was looking for a lady and thereby waiting for the telephone call.

About noon yesterday a married lady answered the sharp ring of the telephone. "No," she said, "I am not waiting for a lady from my husband. It may have been the reason why his voice seemed eager and anxious."

"Is this you, Laura?" came the interrogation over the wire.

No, this is not Laura," came the response.

"Say, but you're all right," came back over the wire. "I like your voice."

"I am not Laura," came the response. "I am not waiting for a lady from my husband. It may have been the reason why his voice seemed eager and anxious."

FRISCO WILL CELEBRATE

Returning Naval Heroes Will be Given Monster Reception.

Next May San Francisco will celebrate her rehabilitation and the return of the United States navy in one of the biggest feasts ever staged on the Pacific coast or in any city, says T. E. Callahan, who lives in the city by the Golden Gate, and is registered at the Ledges.

Preparations are under way to give the returning officers and crews the biggest reception ever tendered to either army or navy. The 1,000 sailors will be met in a "red" manner and the officers will be banqueted and dined like the royal ones of fabled times. San Francisco will make this an occasion to show to the world that she has fully recovered from the blow that came near ending her existence, says Mr. Callahan.

Every club, from the ward club to the big clubs of the city, will be asked to co-operate to make the celebration one long to be remembered. They want to show the visitors, who will flock from every part of the country, that they have fully recovered, and they also intend to give the men under training "Boys' Excess" a reception that will make the native land seem like no other country.

SIMPLE LIFE FOR H. K. THAW

Famous Murderer Now Regular Inmate at Matteawan.

Matteawan, N. Y., Feb. 3.—Harry K. Thaw began yesterday the routine of a simple life which the authorities at the state hospital for the criminal insane say will make his long stay in the Tombs prison in New York seem like the height of gaiety in comparison. The new patient in the observation ward slept soundly, the presence of the fifty other men in the dormitory not giving him the slightest concern. He arose yesterday morning at 6 o'clock and ate a hearty breakfast at the "knife and fork table."

Why Suffer?

If you suffer pain from any cause, Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills will relieve it—and leave no bad after-effects. That's the important thing. Neither do they create a habit. More often the attacks become less frequent, or disappear altogether. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills have no other effect except to relieve pain and quiet nervous irritation.

My husband and son, aged 15 were always subject to sick headache until we began using these Pills, and they have broken them up entirely. Don't think they have had to use them for six months. I recommend them. A few weeks ago I heard an old lady friend was sick. I went to see her. She was down with La Grippe, and nearly crazy with awful backache. I gave her one of these Pills and left another for her to take in a short time. They helped her right away, and she says she will never be without them again. Last winter my husband was taken on both sides, and I know he would have died if it hadn't been for the Pills. In less than half an hour he was sweating, and went to bed and slept.

him the slightest concern. He arose yesterday morning at 6 o'clock and ate a hearty breakfast at the "knife and fork table."

Only fifty-four men out of the more than 700 in the institution are allowed this privilege, the others being restricted to spoons. About 600 men were in the main dining room when Thaw reached the breakfast table and he was the center of attention. At 3 p. m., Thaw attended divine services in the hospital auditorium.

Will Not Remain Long. During the day Thaw declared to one of the attendants that he probably would not be in the hospital more than one week. He said his lawyers would sue out a writ of habeas corpus in his behalf and was sure he would be allowed his liberty.

Thaw's picture and measurements for the hospital records will be made during the early part of the week. He already has given his age to the authorities and was sure he would be allowed his liberty.

Reports have reached Duluth that the same "box-car" dealers from St. Paul, who are said to have been selling a house to house canvass to sell "fancy" hams and bacon at "wholesale" prices, made a pretty thorough canvass of some of the range towns and that their trail is marked by numerous complaints from people who bought beef sides and quarters on the agents' representations, only to find that they could buy the same grade of stuff from their own retail dealers at a much lower price.

The range meat dealers have been much put out by the fact that the "box-car" dealers are coming into their territory and they are viewing with some satisfaction the complaints that the people who bought of the outsiders are now making.

There is a rumor current that the outside dealers represent a small livestock commission firm at St. Paul, and the grade of fancy stuff they have been selling from the car here and on the ranges represents the best grade of "clean-up" at St. Paul, or meats that were bought at bargain prices by the packing houses to clean out certain lines of stock and which the buyers could resell at a figure that would net them a good commission.

The local dealers and the dealers on the range claim that they could and do sell the same grade of meats cheaper than the outsiders.

TESTIFIES AGAINST GIRL Thereby Getting Himself Into Peek of Trouble.

Grafton, N. D., Feb. 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—A sensation was created in the district court here when Judge W. J. Kneeshaw ordered the arrest of a witness, Charles Chevalier, of Lankin, in connection with the recent murder of a girl, Miss Swartz, in which Miss Swartz claimed that she had been wronged by Coulter.

Coulter swore that he was not guilty of the charge preferred by Miss Swartz. In his behalf, Chevalier, who was married three months ago, was called. He testified that he had relations with Miss Swartz, May 16 and 17, of last year.

Miss Swartz had already testified that she was under 18 years of age and when Chevalier finished his testimony, Judge Kneeshaw told him to sit down and await further proceedings. The attorneys for Miss Swartz and Coulter got together and settled the case. When the case was disposed of, Judge Kneeshaw told Coulter to stand up. The judge called him a contemptible cur and reprobate, and scored him unmercifully. He then ordered the sheriff to take charge of Chevalier, and the state's attorney to file information charging the defendant with perjury and criminal assault.

INSURANCE DEPARTMENT

Of New York Severely Criticised by Special Commissioner.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 3.—The administration of the state insurance department by its present superintendent, Otis Kelsey, who was appointed by the late Governor Higgins, is severely criticised in the report of Matthew C. Fleming, the special commissioner appointed by Governor Hughes to investigate the department. Additional criticism is made in the report because of the senate's refusal last spring to remove Supt. Kelsey on the ground of incompetency. Charges originally filed against Supt. Kelsey by a New York newspaper, matters which Mr. Fleming virtually dismissed as not sufficient to warrant removal, are also mentioned in the report. Mr. Fleming calls special attention to a number of alleged lapses.

The failure of the actuary's bureau to detect the Washington Life's fraudulent practices in 1907 to detect or report investments which, on the face of the reports filed in February, are illegal. There is no systematic verification of the policy valuation registers and sheets which give the data from which by far the greater portion of the liabilities of any company are calculated. The superintendent not only does not attempt to verify the market value of the securities reported each year but also refuses to check the assets of the company's supervised, and he was never instructed to do so.

In conclusion, Mr. Fleming says: "New York has become the headquarters of the world, and it is imperative that the department of insurance shall be not only effective in checking abuses, but also capable of doing intelligent constructive work wherever it is called upon to do so."

Under the heading "Incompetency," Mr. Fleming calls special attention to a number of alleged lapses.

YEAR'S WORK OF POLICE

Annual Report Shows Increase in Number of Arrests.

Few Serious Crimes in Duluth During the Year 1907.

The police department of the city of Duluth, during the year 1907, arrested 4,608 people for all causes, of whom 4,215 were men and 393 women, according to a report made by the chief of police, compiled by Secretary G. F. Lahti. Fines amounting to $23,082.44 were collected from those convicted, the sum of $2,644.50 was suspended and $3,664 was forfeited in bail. Prisoners were sentenced to work on the street 17,314 days.

There were 120 charges preferred against the different prisoners on arrest, drunks being the most numerous. There were 2,631 drunks and 233 were charged with disorderly conduct. There were 160 arrests for assault in the third degree, thirty-one for beating on the streets, sixteen for carrying concealed weapons, ninety-nine for gambling, 130 for trespass, 145 for vagrancy, ninety-two for drunk and disorderly.

In the list of serious crimes, for which arrests were made, one murder, one case of manslaughter had one of homicide loon up. The murder was that of Mrs. Patterson, a colored woman, who was killed in a rooming house on Fifth avenue west. John Johnson, a colored man, was charged with the crime, but he was later discharged. Barney Jones, a white man, was charged with manslaughter in the killing of Mike Mahar by a blow of his fist in front of a saloon on West end on labor day. A group of boys were charged with homicide in causing the death of a young Austrian named Mike. The murder was committed by a young man named Mike Mahar. He was killed by running against a hay-wire strung across a path and connected with an electric wire.

There were two arrests for assault in the first degree and twelve for assault in the second degree, nineteen for burglary, seven for bigamy, seventeen for forgery, fifty-three fugitives from justice, forty-seven for grand larceny, 106 for petit larceny, four for robbery, 104 as suspicious characters, eight for violation of law.

The "lid" agitation is reflected in the number of arrests for violation of the liquor laws. There were two arrests for keeping saloon open after hours, thirteen for keeping saloon open on Sunday, one for selling liquor on Sunday, one for selling liquor on election day, nine for selling liquor on Sunday, eleven for selling liquor after hours, sixteen for grand larceny, one to a license, two for selling liquor on Memorial day and one for selling liquor on Sunday.

In the matter of occupation of those arrested the laborers lead with 2,513. There were 55 woodmen and 106 teamsters. There were 347 with no avowed occupation.

There were more native Americans arrested than of any foreign nationality. The Americans numbered 1,375 men and 171 women. Swedes, 359 men and 171 women. Finns, 281 men and 171 women. Canadians, 403 men and 171 women. Norwegians, 374 men and 171 women. Irish, 281 men and 171 women. Austrians, 137 men and 171 women. Other countries contributed as follows: Argentina, one male; Austria, two males; Australia, five males; Belgium, four males; Bohemia, seven males; China, one male; Cuba, one male; Denmark, eight males, one female; England, fifty-five males, four females; France, thirty-five males, thirty-five females; Germany, thirty-four males, thirty-four females; Greece, four males; Holland, two males; Hungary, two males, one female; Iceland, one male; Italy, thirty-four males, one female; Montenegro, one male; Poland, eighty-five males, forty-one females; Scotland, seventy-five males, one female; Switzerland, five males, one female; Turkey, one male; Indians, twelve males, fifteen females; Negroes, fifty-six males, fifty-eight females.

There were three arrests of children under 10 years of age and five of people over 80 years. Of those arrested in 1907, 1,375 were married and 3,227 men and 393 women unmarried.

There were 1,069 lodgers accommodated at the police station during the year and 1,832 males were furnished prisoners and lodgers. The police ordered 160 suspicious people out of the city. Complaints received by the department were 172 of grand larceny, 373 of petty larceny, 120 of assault, 120 of burglary, 4,200 miscellaneous, 160 of violation of law, 120 of disorderly conduct, 120 of Generous Values in Winter Wearables

Which the Ground Hog Says Will be Needed for Six Weeks Yet.

Notice!

Last Thursday afternoon we sustained a heavy loss on our fur department, caused by the bursting of one of the pipes connected with our sprinkling system. The greatest damage was done in our Silk and Dress Goods departments, but many handsome Suits, Skirts and Coats, as well as a large quantity of Cotton Goods, which were on display in our west windows, were more or less badly soaked before the flood of water could be shut off. We were compelled to keep closed all day Friday in order to houseclean after the surprise party.

As soon as the insurance adjuster (who is expected to arrive here from Chicago tomorrow) gets through with us, you may expect to hear some interesting news regarding the disposition of whatever goods were in any way damaged. Watch for the announcement of the sale.

CLEAR OUT A SALOON

Tony Ovari Caused Grand Rush by Drawing Knife.

Six Montenegrins Are Charged With Beating Up Their Host.

Tony Ovari, just arrived from Canada, tried to tackle Bowery booze just as he had been hitting the good stuff on the other side of the border. The "bug juice" did him up in short order and the booze was cutting great figures in his system by about 5:30 Saturday afternoon. He cut loose in a Bowery saloon, drawing a rusty stiletto with a blade six inches long. With a whoop, he brandished the weapon and there was a grand rush for the door. Nobody was too drunk to catch the gleam in Tony's eye and a cyclone wouldn't have sent the scent out in shorter time. Even the bartender disappeared, joining the general rush.

With the place all to himself, Tony was calmly surveying the array of glasses and bottles behind the bar and studying numerous poses in the mirror over the back of the bar. Officer Connor entered. He walked up to Tony and the man from Canada meekly relinquished the knife. But he made a suspicious move toward a rear pocket and the officer grabbed his hand. Drawing it out, he found it held a revolver, which was also taken from the now cowering belligerent. A search was taken to the station, where a half of cartridges and about $10 in Canadian money was taken from him.

Tony was neck-deep in himself this morning. The effects of the booze had passed away and in a mild voice, he pleaded guilty to carrying concealed weapons. He drew $30 and costs of sixty days, and the clerk of court made a run on the employe bank, which Tony had conducted before his brief sojourn.

"That's gratitude," some gratitude," softly said the driver of the patrol wagon last night as he drove to the station with the six Montenegrins, guarded by a squad of policemen. The song was appropriate. Alfred Meyers, 219 West Railroad street, had entertained the crowd all day. He had furnished beer and good times, and with a bountiful hand and there was no modesty about consuming it. When the stock ran low and all were loaded to the guards, it is said they cut loose on Meyers and soon had his face hammered into a pulp.

Just how the affair started isn't clear. At any rate, Meyers' brother had come on a visit from Canada, and the celebration was in his honor. When the row started, neighbors thought a murder was being committed. An officer was notified and Officers Schenkel, Sass, Olsen and Mike Mason made a raid. When they entered the house, there was a rush for the doors and windows, but six of the men were gathered in. They gave their names as Rene Sornavice, Alexz Duford, Emil Cooper, Scharf, Albert, Albert, and Victor Vantenekskis. They were arraigned in court this morning, pleaded not guilty and will be given a hearing this afternoon.

Orne Hill, a driver for the Morris Harley Bottling works, drew $25 and costs or sixty days in jail, on being convicted of petit larceny, in the municipal court this morning. Hill was arrested Saturday on complaint of his employer, who said the man had freely admitted the charge, but in the proceedings, the specific charge was the theft of five cases of beer last Friday. Hill denied the charge, but the evidence was against him and he was found guilty.

John O'Brien pleaded guilty to vagrancy and appeared to be pleased with the prospect of a short term in jail. He got the term, but it will not be short. Sixty days was the sentence.

OFFERS REWARD.

Sheriff Will Pay for Information on Brutal Murder.

Sheriff Bird has offered a reward of $200 for the murderers of John Esmond, who was found, last week, brutally butchered in a deserted shack in East Superior.

The county board will probably take action on this matter next week if no clue is found by that time. It is believed that they will offer another and larger reward.

LUCK IN WHITE HEATHER.

Pall Mall Gazette: Only within the last few years has the florist realized that the white heather of the moors is a plant worth cultivating. But the result of it today is that half the people who wear buttonholes at all may be seen with a sprig of this flower, which from time immemorial has been associated with good luck.

It is much more lucky, of course, to find white heather than simply to wear it, but the wearer is always supposed to share the good fortune of the finder. Whether it is equally lucky to wear a heather that has been grown artificially for sale is of course, quite another matter, but the Londoner evidently finds something especially attractive even in the cultivated article or he would not have made it the most fashionable flower of the moment. Certainly it makes a most attractive buttonhole, but one fancies that sentiment has a good deal to do with the white heather's universal popularity.

TROUBLES COME FAST

Office of Polish Weekly Nearly Destroyed by Fire.

To the ill-feeling that is said to exist between the St. Mary's Roman Catholic Polish church and the St. Joseph's Catholic Polish church, J. J. Ambroski, manager of the Polish weekly paper, Nowiny Duluckie, ascribes the fire in his establishment yesterday morning, and the breaking of his front window by means of a thrown brick last week.

Yesterday morning Ambroski entered his printing shop on Second avenue west, between First and Second streets, and found the place full of smoke and the back part of the room ablaze. After some difficulty, he managed to put the fire out.

Last week a building brick was thrown through the shop's front window. Mr. Ambroski claims it is the work of some fanatics in the parishioners of the rival St. Mary's church. He states that Father Telek, pastor of St. Mary's church, denounced him from the pulpit, and Mr. Ambroski believes it is by the rival church members that his window was broken and an attempt made to burn up his place.

"Left ear?" said the young lady from the telephone exchange.

"Yes, left ear. The same as left-handed. That is to say, is your left ear better at its work than your right one?"

"No, not know, so he tested her, finding, sure enough, that her left ear was a little the better of the two."

"It is a natural thing," he said. "You girls use the left ear exclusively all day long in your telephone work and the right ear has nothing to do. Hence the left, like a muscle, develops; the right atrophies."

"Indeed," he ended, "if the telephone comes into much greater use, we shall have not merely left-handed exchange girls, but we shall become a left-handed nation."

COOK'S HARD JOB. Leslie's Weekly: A well known clubman of Boston was married during the early days of the last winter to a charming Wellesley girl, who of her many accomplishments is proudest of her cooking.

Her husband returned late one afternoon to his home in Brookline to discover that his wife was "all tired out."

"You look dreadfully fatigued," little one, came from hubby in a sympathetic tone.

"I am," was the reply. "You see, dear, I heard you say that you liked rabbit. So early this morning I went to the market to get you one. I meant to surprise you with a broiled rabbit for dinner, but I'm afraid you'll have to take something else. I've been hard at work on the rabbit all day, and I haven't got it more than half picked."

W. E. McEwen Addresses Meeting of Ministers

Warmly Received and Much Interest Shown in Remarks.

Gives Able Talk on Cause of Organized Labor.

W. E. McEwen, secretary of the Minnesota State Federation of Labor, spoke for nearly an hour and one-half at the meeting of the Duluth Ministerial association this morning, giving union labor's side in the present open shop controversy. His address, delivered in a forceful, interesting and convincing manner, was listened to with the closest attention from beginning to end, and so great was the interest of the ministers in the subject that it was voted to extend the usual time limit of the gathering, in order that a further discussion of the matter in hand might be engaged in.

Organized labor can have no possible criticism to offer on the manner in which their champion was received, or in the manner in which such other representatives of organized labor as were on hand were treated. All were most cordially received, and several of the ministers, following the lead of Rev. M. S. Rice of the First M. E. church, extended words of welcome. It was explained during the course of the meeting that the reason outsiders were excluded at the last monthly meeting of the association, on the occasion when Dwight E. Woodbridge, secretary of the civic committee, delivered an address, was that the speaker had consented to talk only on condition that no one should be in the room. Rev. Rice said it was left with the speakers whether the meeting should be open or not, and that they had chosen that this particular meeting should be open. Members of the organization were agreeable, either way, he said.

Discussion followed. Not the least interesting part of the meeting was the discussion which followed the remarks of the speaker of the day. Mr. McEwen was closely questioned on points regarding the union shop, and his answers showed a thorough knowledge of the subject. Without hesitation or evasion, he answered all the questions put to him, for the most part in a clear and comprehensive manner. The ministers showed an earnest desire to get all possible information on the subject, and one of them went so far as to deplore what he was pleased to term the "stinginess" of the press in devoting space to the present great struggle between organized labor and capital. He spoke enthusiastically of the big labor meeting held at the Armory recently, and roared the National Labor union, and only half a column of space to the affair the following morning, sticking the article on an inside page, while the labor trial was given unlimited space and big head lines on the front page. The Herald gave the meeting nearly the whole of a page, and the deserved big head lines.

Mr. McEwen started off by saying that the subject was such a big one that it was difficult for him to handle it in the limited amount of time allotted him. He said the union labor was as bold as any in the cause of righteousness; reviewed his own experience as a member of the Plymouth union, and spoke of the advancement thus far made by union labor, and of its objects. In many respects his address was similar to the one which he recently delivered at the Armory meeting, but he also brought out several new points.

He said labor and safety appliance laws he gave to union labor. Explaining the necessity of union dues and admission fees, he told of the sick strike, lock out and other benefits paid by the unions to their members.

Edified Battle Now On. Mr. McEwen spoke of the fights for religious and political freedom, that have been waged in the past, and said that a fight for industrial freedom, such as is being carried on by the labor union, was the next step. The ethical battle is now on, he said. The speaker briefly reviewed the history of Duluth unions, of the best of the labor movement in such unions, and told of the country-wide

FRANK SCHAFFER

Candidate for Alderman in the Seventh Ward.

Alderman Schaffer represented the Sixth ward for six years. The taxpayers of the Sixth ward have been so satisfied that they recommended him for election in the Seventh ward. It is admitted that the affairs of the Sixth ward have been conducted in a square and businesslike manner, and the taxpayers of the Seventh ward are certain of the same good treatment, and that their best interests will be protected. It is advisable that as many as possible vote early in the morning, as the polls open at 8 a. m. Taxpayers of the Seventh ward will make no mistake by voting tomorrow for

NOTICE OF AN APPEAL

Assessment for Trunk Sewer in West Duluth Protested.

Property Owners Claim Amount Was Not Properly Apportioned.

Notice was filed with the board of public works today of four separate appeals from the assessment of the board for the construction of a trunk sewer on Ellnor street, Grand avenue and Forty-ninth avenue west, from Central avenue to the bay. George L. Raymond, George W. Norton and John W. Barr, Jr., executors of the estate of William F. Norton, deceased; George W. Norton, executor of the estate of George W. Norton, deceased; and Charles Downer, John C. De Witt, L. Mendonhall, Western Land association, by Alford & Hunt, attorneys, and J. W. Hunt, are the appellants.

The appeal and the grounds for it were anticipated some time ago, it being understood that the owners of property in the sewer district, who thought they had been wronged by the assessment of the board, would go to the courts to have their rights and obligations defined.

The appellants charge that the lots owned by them are not directly benefited by the sewer to the extent for which they are assessed. They claim the board did not act on its own knowledge of conditions nor on its judgment in apportioning the cost of the improvement, but substituted an arbitrary and inflexible rule; that the amount assessed against the different pieces of property was determined in an unauthorized and illegal manner and upon erroneous basis or rule of law, and that the assessment was unfairly and unevenly and unequally assessed against the property to be benefited.

In support of their contention that the assessment was unequal, they claim that the plans for the sewer call for the use as it is designed to be a direct sewer for ninety-four lots directly connected with it; the lots so situated are benefited in excess of any other lots or land within the assessment district to the amount of the estimated and normal cost of a sanitary sewer, which would be ordinarily needed; that the lots so directly benefited are not assessed for such direct benefits, but are assessed at the same rate, based on area, as all other lots and lands in the assessment district.

The appellants claim that as a result of the system of assessment, they are forced to pay from 15 to 20 per cent of what they would, had the lots so benefited been assessed for direct benefits.

When the board of public works levied the assessment, there was some question of assessing the lots adjoining the trunk sewer on a basis of direct benefits, but the board's right to take such procedure was questioned, and the assessment was then made on the basis of quiet benefits without regard for direct benefits.

VIRGIN OIL OF PINE

WILL BREAK UP A COLD IN 24 HOURS AND CURE ANY COUGH THAT IS CURABLE.

It is the only preparation of pine compounded from the active principles of forest trees that is intended for internal use. It permeates the whole system with the wholesome, healthful atmosphere of the pine woods, healing any irritation of the mucous surface that may be present. Its action on the kidneys is most beneficial, affording speedy relief in cases of rheumatism due to uric acid in the system.

Put up for dispensing through druggists only in ½ oz. vials, each vial securely sealed in a round wooden case. Be sure to get the genuine Virgin Oil of Pine compound pure, prepared only by Leach Chemical Co., Cincinnati, O.

PRICES ARE IRREGULAR

But Wheat Closes Firm in the Duluth Market.

Other Markets Are Weak Flax Higher at Close.

Duluth Board of Trade, Feb. 3.—Wheat prices were rather irregular during the session of the market today. The closing was firm in Duluth, but weaker in most of the other markets, except Winnipeg.

Argentine shipments of wheat were larger than expected and this was a bearish factor.

Budget was weaker, but the other foreign markets were stronger. Liverpool closed 1/2¢ higher, Berlin 1/4¢ higher and Budapest 1/2¢ lower.

The May option closed unchanged in Duluth, a shade lower in Chicago, 1/4¢ lower in Minneapolis, 1/2¢ higher in New York and 1/4¢ higher in Winnipeg.

The July option closed unchanged in Duluth, 1/4¢ higher in Chicago, 1/2¢ lower in Minneapolis and New York, and 1/4¢ higher in Winnipeg.

May corn closed 1/4¢ higher in Chicago and unchanged to 1/2¢ lower in Liverpool. May oats closed 1/4¢ higher in Chicago.

World's shipments of wheat and corn last week and week previous and their corresponding week last year are shown as follows:

	WHEAT.	CORN.
Week.	Previous	Last
America	4,552,000	4,444,000

Brooklyn closed from Liverpool. "Wheat" was firm at the start, with values showing a gain of 1/2¢ and further advanced 1/4¢ during the morning session.

Buying resulted from the firm American cables on Saturday, and a slight rise in local stocks and a generally better demand.

The fact of the large shipments to the United Kingdom checked the advance and caused a quiet feeling during the afternoon.

The market at Duluth was steady with values 1/4¢ higher than Saturday.

"Corn" was firm at the start and 1/4¢ higher and during the morning further gained 1/2¢. Support resulted from the strength in wheat and the light American shipments.

"Wheat" cargoes were firmer, owing to a better inquiry. Corn steady but quiet.

Corn receipts at Duluth were 28 against 16 last week and 100 against 38 against 16 last week. Shipments 38 against 16 last week and 100 against 38 against 16 last week.

Chicago received 180 against 120 last week. Shipments 180 against 120 last week.

Primary receipts of wheat were 70,000 bus. last week against 48,000 bus. Shipments 28,000 bus. last week against 16,000 bus.

The visible supply of wheat decreased 60,000 bus. receipts of corn were 1,000,000 bus. last week against 1,100,000 bus. Shipments 1,000,000 bus. last week against 1,100,000 bus.

The visible supply of corn increased 1,100,000 bus.

Trading was light during the session of the Duluth market. May wheat opened 1/4¢ higher at $1.04 1/2, declined to $1.04, rallied to $1.04 1/2, declined to $1.04 and closed at $1.04 1/2.

Saturday, July wheat closed unchanged from Saturday at $1.04 1/2.

Durum wheat closed unchanged and cash spring wheat was selling at $1.04 1/2.

May rice for No. 1, 100 lbs. was 1/4¢ higher. Flax was only active during the session, but closed 1/4¢ higher.

Higher. May flax opened unchanged at $1.18 1/2, declined to $1.18, rallied to $1.18 1/2, declined to $1.18 and closed at $1.18 1/2.

Saturday, July flax opened unchanged at $1.20, went to $1.20 1/2, then to $1.20 1/2, a gain of 1/4¢ over Saturday.

Coarse grains were unchanged.

Following were the closing prices: Wheat—No. 1 hard on track, $1.04 1/2. To arrive, No. 1 hard on track, $1.04 1/2.

Wheat—No. 1 hard on track, $1.04 1/2. To arrive, No. 1 hard on track, $1.04 1/2.

Durum, 2,000 bus. No. 1 to arrive, $1.04 1/2.

Durum, 1 car No. 2, $1.04 1/2.

Durum, 1 car No. 3, $1.04 1/2.

Durum, 1 car No. 4, $1.04 1/2.

Durum, 1 car No. 5, $1.04 1/2.

Durum, 1 car No. 6, $1.04 1/2.

Durum, 1 car No. 7, $1.04 1/2.

against 441 cars last week and 202 cars one year ago.

Wheat became firm in the last half of the session on good buying by shorts. The close was steady with May a shade higher at 96¢.

Active selling by longs because of liberal local receipts caused a weak market in corn. May soon opened a shade higher at 96 1/2¢ and closed at 96 1/2¢.

DULLNESS IN STOCKS

Feature of Quiet Session Was Selling of Rock Island.

Early Declines Recovered Near the Close, Which Was Firm.

New York, Feb. 3.—There was a sprinkling of small gains mingled with the prevailing losses registered by the opening prices of stocks. The declines were on a light scale. Reading declined a point and Union Pacific, Great Northern preferred, Baltimore & Ohio, Rock Island preferred and Distillers' Securities large fractions. American Sugar preferred sold at a decline of 1/4¢.

Heavy liquidation of the Rock Island securities started a general decline, many of the prominent stocks were unhappily affected. The Rock Island stock dropped 1/4¢ to 44 1/2¢. The decline in the Rock Island stock was the feature of the session. The Rock Island stock was the feature of the session.

HEARING ON AT LAND OFFICE

Valuable Iron Ore Lands Involved in the Contest.

A hearing on the conflicting claims of John Shea, Michael Cronin, Malinda Tanner, widow of A. Tanner, and F. W. Henshaw, in regard to certain tracts of land in the Cedar Island Lake district is on in the local United States land office today. It may continue for a week.

While some of the same people are involved, the case is separate and distinct from the Cedar Island lake cases now being heard by Judge J. G. Morris in federal court.

Lot 5 and 6, Section 3, Township 57-N, and Lot 3, Section 34, township 57-N are the tracts in question. The hearing is on the application of the guardians of John Shea for the cancellation

COUNT BONI TELLS COURT HE HAS DOCUMENTS WHICH CAUSE HATRED OF PRINCE

Will Show Clearly Reason of His Animosity Toward Cousin.

Their Intimate Character Prevents Him Making Them Public.

Prince Helie Says That the Papers Are Forgeries.

Paris, Feb. 4.—The Sagan-Castellane case came up in the correctional court today, having been adjourned from Jan. 14. Count Boni and Count Jean de Castellane, his brother, are charged with assault by Prince Helie de Sagan, early in January.

Answering a question of the court, Count Boni declared that he could explain clearly the motives of his animosity towards Prince Helie by certain documents which he intended to hand over to the court, but that the intimate character of these papers prevented their being made public. At this statement, Prince Helie interrupted the proceedings by crying in a loud voice: "Those documents are forgeries."

Count Boni admitted that he had spent in Prince Helie's face, and explained that he had not sent second to his cousin to arrange a duel, as he knew that the prince could not find anybody who would be willing to represent him on the field of honor.

ACTION ON BRIDGE BILL POSTPONED

By the House Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce.

Washington, Feb. 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—The house committee on interstate and foreign commerce took up the United States Steel corporation's Duluth-Superior bridge bill today, but postponed action because the war department's report had not been received. His report will probably be on hand when the committee meets on Friday.

THAW NERVOUS AND EXCITABLE Does Not Like the Architecture of Matteawan Asylum.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 4.—Dr. Allen Ferris, president of the state lunacy commission, who visited Harry K. Thaw yesterday at Matteawan, said today that Thaw appeared very nervous and excited, but that on such a short notice it would be impossible to come to any conclusion as to his permanent mental condition.

"The prisoner was very cordial and friendly to me," said Dr. Ferris, "and he seemed to be in conversation with his wife. He was excited for me to pursue any line of questioning, but was consistent in his answers. He talked about the architecture of the asylum, saying he thought it was rather crude and said that better provision ought to be made for protection against the wind. He also said he remembered at the trial and that he had intended having an expert of his experts, apparently forgetting that I had testified for the state and against him at the first trial."

Dr. Ferris said that Thaw did not appear to be despondent and that he was being treated the same as any other prisoner.

THICK ICE IMPEDES NAVIGATION AT N. Y.

New York, Feb. 4.—For the first time this year ice interfered with navigation yesterday. Hudson river ferries had considerable trouble with floating ice, and their trips were considerably lengthened on account of it. The liner Minneapolis, which arrived last night, was two hours getting into her slip, which had not been occupied for several days, and in which the ice was packed. It took six tugs to force the steamer where she could put a gang plank ashore.

TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE OF MEN ON BURNING STEAMER

Nine Stowaways Burn to Death on the St. Cuthbert and Fifteen of Crew Drown.

New York, Feb. 4.—A wireless dispatch gives details of the burning of the steamer St. Cuthbert. Soon after the Cymric sighted the burning vessel the steamer Cambrian also came up, and the two ships lay by for several hours awaiting a chance to safely lower a boat. The terrific wind which was blowing at the time making it impossible for a boat to live. Finally, at 2 o'clock, the Cymric got a boat away in command of First Officer Stacey, and with a crew of six men. After a hard fight with the waves, the boat, which was brilliantly handled, succeeded, aided by the quantities of oil, which had been spread on the water, in reaching the side of the ship. For ten minutes they lay by before a heavy figure was lowered into the boat, followed by a

WHOLE FAMILY FEAR THEY HAVE HYDROPHOBIA

Chicago, Feb. 4.—A family of twelve persons arrived in Chicago today to undergo medical treatment designed to prevent hydrophobia. They believe that they have contracted it by drinking milk from a cow which was suffering with the disease, and which was killed one week ago.

The family is that of James Gellatly of Hamilton county, Neb., and included besides Gellatly and his wife nine children and the mother of Mrs. Gellatly.

The cow was bitten three weeks ago by a dog, which was suffering from rabies. A few days later a mule and a horse owned by Gellatly were found to be suffering from hydrophobia and were killed. The family used the milk for several days before they knew that the cow also had the disease. As soon as Gellatly became aware of the situation he brought his entire family to Chicago. None of them have as yet developed symptoms of hydrophobia.

THE CALMNESS OF A WOMAN

Averts a Terrible Panic in a Church at Detroit.

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 4.—Choking with smoke from a fire that cracked in the rafters directly above and in front of her in Kerecheval Avenue M. E. church last night, Miss Eva Ludgate, a young woman evangelist from Chicago, sang through the lines of "Gloria for Me" while her audience fled out to safety. Her calmness averted a serious panic.

Miss Ludgate has been assisting the pastor of the Kerecheval Avenue church at a series of revival services. The fire, which started from defective wiring, was controlled when it had done $500 damage.

ALL HOPE ABANDONED FOR THE BLUEFIELDS.

Philadelphia, Feb. 4.—All hope for the steamship Bluefields, which sailed from Jacksonville on Jan. 21 for Philadelphia, has practically been abandoned, and the best that is hoped for now is that Capt. Higgins and his crew may have been picked up by some foreign-bound vessel. It is feared the vessel foundered on the night of Jan. 23, when one of the greatest storms that have been known for years swept the North Atlantic coast. The Bluefields was laden with lumber and carried a crew of eighteen men.

Lisbon, Feb. 4.—The condition of King Manuel, who was shot in the arm and face at the time his father and brother were killed, last Saturday, is improving.

The official organ, in its issue of today, declares that the funeral of the late king and crown prince will be held on Feb. 8, at 10 o'clock in the morning, at the Royal Pantheon of St. Vincent de Lisbon, with all the solemnity possible.

The Marquis de Soveral, the Portuguese minister to Great Britain, has left here for London.

Material changes in the new cabinet have been made. Only three members of the first ministry, as announced yesterday, are retained in the cabinet gazetted today. They are Rear Admiral Francisco Joaquim Ferreira de Amaral, Jose Mathias Nunes and Dr. Venesiano de S. Pereira Lima. Rear Admiral Pereira de Amaral becomes minister of the interior and retains the post of premier. Dr. Lima is still minister of foreign affairs. Manuel Antonio Morreira, Jr., is minister of justice and worship; Jose Mathias Nunes retains the portfolio of minister of war; Vice Admiral Augusto de Castilho is minister of marine and colonies, and the count of Bertiandos is minister of public works, industry and commerce.

Senhor Henriquez was minister of justice in the Roberto cabinet of 1906, and Senhor Morreira was minister of marine in 1906.

DARING RESCUE OF CREW OF WRECKED SHIP AT SEA

Boat's Crew From Steamship Bermudian Take Off Men From Bath Vessel in Gale.

Hamilton, Bermuda, Feb. 4.—Details of the abandonment at sea of the four-masted schooner Mary L. Newhall of Bath, Me., were brought here today by the steamship Bermudian from New York.

The schooner left Tampa for Norfolk on Jan. 24 and met with a succession of gales. On the fifth day out she lost her rudder, and all her sails having been blown away, the vessel became unmanageable. When 240 miles northwest of Bermuda on Sunday afternoon the schooner sighted the Bermudian, and the steamer stood by the distressed schooner until the next morning.

At midnight Sunday, in a tempest-

DASHED CHILD'S BRAINS OUT

Awful Deed of Insane Woman at Moncton, N. B.

Moncton, N. B., Feb. 4.—In an insane frenzy, Mrs. Thomas V. Fouchette snatched her 2-year-old child from bed early today, carried it out doors and dashed its brains out on the icy ground. Rushing back into the house she picked up another of her children and started out with it, but was discovered and restrained before she reached the door. The woman was at one time an inmate of an insane asylum, but was supposed to have recovered from her mania. Besides the child whom she killed today, she has seven other children.

COUNTY JAIL FOR ICE MEN

Three Prominent Toledo Citizens Must Serve Six Months.

Toledo, Ohio, Feb. 4.—Roland Beard and Compton Leamon of the Hygia Ice company and Joseph Miller, manager of the Toledo Ice & Coal company, were today sentenced to six months in the county jail and to pay costs of prosecution by Judge Kinkade for conspiracy in restraint of trade. These men were found guilty last July and at that time Judge Kinkade sentenced each of them to six months in the workhouse and $2,500 fine.

The case was appealed and a few days ago the supreme court handed down a decision declaring the convicted could be sent to jail, but not to the workhouse. They were remanded to the common pleas court for re-sentence and while the fine was not assessed, the workhouse sentence was changed to the county jail. No further effort will be made in behalf of the defendants and they began their term of sentence.

All the men are of prominent Toledo families.

MICHIGAN TRAIN IS SNOWBOUND 48 HOURS

Flint, Mich., Feb. 4.—The Pere Marquette passenger train, which left here on Saturday afternoon for Postoria and intermediate points on the Flint River division of the road, was snowbound for forty-eight hours two miles this side of Otter Lake.

The twenty passengers on the train tramped through the deep snow to neighboring farmhouses, where they were given shelter and food over Sunday.

GUERIN WAS A GAMBLER

Also a Blackmailer, So Witness Testifies in McDonald Case.

He Received Considerable Money From Woman Who Killed Him.

Chicago, Feb. 4.—Homer J. Smith of St. Paul, Ark., a former business partner of Webster S. Guerin, testified today in the murder trial of Mrs. McDonald that Guerin was a gambler and a blackmailer.

He declared that upon one occasion he had acted as intermediary between Mrs. McDonald and Guerin, by obtaining $15 from Mrs. McDonald with which to send Guerin to New York. Mrs. McDonald declined, according to the witness, that she wanted to get Guerin out of town. Guerin went away, but returned, and Mrs. McDonald again furnished the funds for him to leave. This time he went to Sandusky and Cleveland.

Smith testified that Mrs. McDonald had given $50 to Guerin which he was to invest in the business, but that he did not do so. He told Mrs. McDonald that Guerin had gambled it away, on another occasion he said Guerin tried to extort $100 from Mrs. McDonald in return for letters from her which he claimed to have. The money was not paid. Smith said Mrs. McDonald had told him that Guerin was troubling her all the time, and that once they went to the Holy Name church together and there Guerin made a vow to cease causing her further annoyance.

On Jan. 2, 1906, Smith said he came to Chicago at the request of friends of Mrs. McDonald to make an effort to have Guerin cease his persecution of the woman. He was unable to make any definite arrangement, he said, and his trip proved fruitless.

Cause of Excess Fat

The doctors claim the liver is at fault when one's fat becomes excessive. Excess fat is a disease, and is usually prescribed, but both are dangerous. The simple home remedy is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Extract Casarea Aromatica, 35¢ per bottle. It is a powerful purgative, and after meals and at bedtime, is far more satisfactory and safer. It takes effect very quickly without ill effects and costs but a small sum at any drug store.

TWO GOLDEN WEDDINGS

Two Aged Couples Help Each Other Celebrate Event.

Each Dance at Wedding Jubilee of the Other.

This is golden wedding week in the West end.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Rowan had the pleasure of dancing at the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John Whalen of 222 Twenty-second avenue west, Sunday evening, and last evening the last named couple returned the compliment by dancing at the fifty-year jubilee of the Rowans.

The celebration was held at the home of their daughter, Mrs. W. S. Granger of 128 Fir avenue.

Non was the dancing on either side a tame affair, for both couples carry their years well and have not yet reached that stage in life where they must sit back and fold their hands.

Mr. and Mrs. John Whalen, who celebrated their fiftieth year of wedded life Sunday, were married in Kennebec, Me., and came to Duluth from that place about two years ago. They have three children, four girls and five boys.

Those children who were present at their parents' celebration were Mrs. James Donnelly of Wausau, Wis., Mrs. P. W. Gallagher, 2413 West Fifth street, Mrs. Anthony Mosch, 2245 West Second street, William Whalen and Andrew Whalen. The other children are Mrs. Elizabeth Campbell of Portland, Or., Thomas Whalen of Winnipeg and Edward and Daniel Whalen, who are living on their parents' old farm in Canada.

About fifty guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Rowan, were present at the Whalen home Sunday. The happy couple received gifts and congratulations from all sides. Mr. Whalen is nearly eighty years of age, and his wife is twelve years his junior.

Yesterday marked the fiftieth year of wedded life for Mr. and Mrs. Rowan, and they were happily surprised last evening at the home of their daughter. About thirty-eight guests were present, and Mr. and Mrs. Rowan were themselves the life of the party. They received many gifts and showers of congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Rowan were married fifty years ago in Ireland, and came to the United States in 1844. For the past twenty-six years they resided at Wilmet, South Dakota, coming to Duluth last spring.

Their children are Mrs. M. E. Wright of 1901 West Third street, Mrs. W. S. Granger of 128 Fir avenue, John Rowan of Virginia, Mrs. D. F. Whitney of White Plains, N. Y., Mrs. C. E. Moore and Miss Margaret Rowan, now in Florida, and T. J. and M. H. Rowan, who are in Washington.

Mr. Rowan is 75 years old and Mrs. Rowan 72 years.

Insane Patient Dies.
John Eberg, aged 48 years, who was found insane at an examination in the probate court about a week ago, died of typhoid fever in the county jail yesterday. The contributing cause to his death is said to be alcoholism. Little is known of the deceased's relatives. He was brought here from Virginia and did not talk much about himself. An order was made for his commitment to the asylum he grew worse so rapidly that he could not be taken to Fennell's. He will probably be buried at the county's expense.

The Civil Service.

The balance was divided as follows: Certificates, $156.20; civil cases, $10.00; criminal cases, $10.00; marriage licenses, $34.35; and jury fees, $12.

Railroad Not to Blame.
The jury in the case of John S. McManus against the Northern Pacific railway company returned a verdict yesterday in favor of the defendant company, holding that McManus had no cause of action. The suit is one in which McManus, a 40-year-old man, claimed that the company, by grading operations, had caused an overflow and prevented the natural drainage of some property he owns in the city. He claimed that the lack of drainage had resulted in great damage to the property. Austin Lathers was his attorney. The verdict was returned about 4 o'clock.

The Ridance Sale.
Starts out with a good list of bargains—and new ones will be added daily. Come tomorrow. Gray-Tallent Co.

Trial Put Over One Day.
The trial of the damage case of Mrs. Campbell against the Duluth & Northeastern Railway company, in Judge Dill's room, was adjourned until tomorrow, as John Jensen, Jr., attorney for Mrs. Campbell, had to attend the supreme court at St. Paul today. The action was brought to recover damages claimed to have been received while the plaintiff was riding in the caboose at the rear end of a train between Cloquet and Rush Lake.

THE TUOLUMNE A PROVEN MINE

Located in the Very Center of World-Renowned Copper District.

The block of treasury stock of the Tuolumne Mining company, which was placed on sale yesterday morning, has nearly all been disposed of.

The proposition is looked upon by shrewd investors as a most attractive one. The directorate is composed of the following influential mining men, who have a world-wide reputation as able, successful promoters of copper and precious metal properties: D. J. Hennessy; F. Augustus Heinze; N. J. Belenbergh; J. W. Pratt.

The Tuolumne Copper Mining company was organized a year ago last summer. The capitalization being $800,000 shares, par value $1.00. The original owners took 400,000 shares, deeding the property to the company.

BLIND PIGS ARE RAIDED

County Attorney's Office Makes Another Round-up in Indictments.

Officer is on Range With Several Bench Warrants.

Deputy Sheriff Owen Gately is on the range with a number of bench warrants for persons indicted by the last grand jury for running blind pigs. Quite a number of persons have already been arrested on the charge and First Assistant County Attorney Stevenson will begin today or tomorrow the trial of seven of the alleged blind-piggers arrested at Virginia a few weeks ago.

Not all the persons indicted were arrested on the first haul made by the county authorities. It is understood that the warrants were withheld for a time in order that the evidence as to a new offense might be secured as to other alleged violators of the liquor laws before making the arrests and, perhaps, saving away the other people that it was desired to have brought into court on a similar charge.

It is learned on reliable authority that one person had been made up to last evening. This occurred at a mining location near Sparks. The alleged blind-pigger arrested was a woman who runs a boarding house and who is claimed to have been furnishing liquor right along to the boarders for pay, without a license to do that business. The woman is said to have a husband and several children. It is understood that the family wanted to arrange matters so that the husband could come to Duluth plead guilty to the charge, pay a fine and go home. As the indictment is said to be returned against the woman, it is hardly probable that the husband can be substituted as the alleged guilty party.

Deputy Sheriff Gately did not return to Duluth this morning, but it is understood that he will come down from the range this afternoon and that he will have several alleged blind-piggers in custody. Possibly some of the people charged will appear voluntarily before the court as did the people of Virginia who were accused of selling liquor without a license.

When the grand jury was discharged it was understood that there were about thirty persons in secret. In documents returned against persons on the range accused of selling liquor without a license. So far only ten or a dozen persons have been arranged.

The Sheriff's office at Duluth at 10:30 a. m. today is said to have received a party of Montana men are claimed to have been carrying and the celebration held in the city. The party was with several men, some being wounded, one of the men being killed having struck him in the breast and passed through to the shoulder. A ransom amounting to $10,000 was a result of a drinking bout is said to have taken place at the same location several days ago.

The roundup of blind piggers that has already been in the making for the past several months of the County Attorney's office, is now being carried out in earnest. Some time ago, investigations were in progress at the time some of the cases against the blind piggers were published in advance when and where they expected to make a raid on blind pigs, the results of the raid would be very disappointing from the authorities standpoint.

A Real Airship.

In the rivalry for the production of airships for military purposes, Great Britain seems to have taken a step in advance of all other nations. A successful test was made recently during which the balloon traveled fifty miles in three hours and was able to carry a considerable weight. If you want a machine that has been able to stand the severe test of public approval for a year, see a bottle of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It has proven itself to be a perfectly successful remedy for such ailments as sick headache, bloating, heartburn, flatulency, cramps, dyspepsia, indigestion, constipation, female ill, general debility, colds, grip, malaria, fever and ague. Take our advice and don't delay any longer and you'll be thankful afterwards. The genuine with our Private Stamp over the neck of bottle was guarantee absolutely pure. Always insist on having Hostetter's.

DESPONDENT MAN TAKES HIS LIFE

William Andrews, Trapper, Kills Himself at Allen Junction.

Aurora, Minn., Feb. 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—William Andrews, aged about 55, of German descent, who has lived in the vicinity of Allen Junction for eight years, committed suicide there some time yesterday by shooting himself in the head with a 32-caliber rifle. Part of his head was blown away by the shot. His body was found about 2 p. m. yesterday by B. Steele, Deputy Coroner Steele took the remains to Winabik, where an inquest will be held.

Andrews is survived by a sister and a daughter, living at Saginaw, Mich. He had been in a despondent mood for a long time, and had threatened to kill himself several times during the last four years. He was a heavy drinker, and it is presumed that he killed himself while under the influence of drink.

CONCERNING A WOMAN.

To men and nations the opportunity to dole may come but once, but woman, alas and alack must decide and decide many times and then the last word has not been said. Everybody buys books which they do not want at some period in their lives. They do not reason "I do not want these books therefore I will write my name along this dotted line while this dapper young man stands pleased and expectant by my side," but the result is just the same. If it is not a dapper young man who stands by, it is a soulful eyed young woman, but for the publisher's purpose the result is just as good.

After many weary months of heart tearing remittances one comforts one's self. "I have learned my lesson," one says, "a first edition of the original edition from the Garden of Eden wouldn't tempt me," and then before one has quite become accustomed to the shelf full of green books, the deed and title and right which one now holds exclusively, there is a dapper young man at one's elbow.

"Good morning," he says very cordially.

"Good morning," you say back, all smiles before you are really aware of it. What a nice young man! You puzzle your brains to remember him. You surely must have known him very well whenever it was that you did know him, for he is so very cordial and so glad to see you.

"I have heard that you are interested in Shakespeare," begins the young man.

"I never heard of him," you say as you steel your heart against his well tailored shoulders. ("Shoulders" refers to the dapper young man and not to Shakespeare.)

And he goes on "I know how it is. Those of us who are fond of Shakespeare—"

"I never heard of him," you say with an accent on the heard that must penetrate even his obtuseness.

"Feel that we must have the very best edition that can be found. This one in the beautiful hand tooled leather, morocco bound, gilt edged, gold lettered, linen paper, clear print, original text along side of the modern and revised edition, annotated and commented and—"

"I never heard of him," you say again although meantime you blink in confusion at the way he turns the pages and points out the good points.

"It is absolutely the finest thing in the way of Shakespeare printing that has been done this or any other year. If you do not feel able to get it at this time we are offering terms—but perhaps I could interest you in Riley's Love Lyrics. This little edition—"

"I hate love," you say.

"Ah! But this is different," he says. "Who but Riley would have thought of writing love lyrics without mentioning love!"

"Did he?" you say.

"He did," he says.

"Well, I'm sure I wouldn't care for that kind," you say.

"The exquisite poetry of them," he says, "illustrated as they are, with these charming engravings by—"

"I hate reading," you say. "I think it a most pernicious habit, one which ought to be rooted out and stamped down. I think all authors should be held for an accessory before the fact, or something of that kind. I think that the libraries should be burned, and that education should be stopped, and I never heard of Shakespeare, and I never want to. I don't believe in women's rights, nor equal suffrage. I think taxation without representation is the highest form of government. I don't think anybody should be entitled to life, liberty or the pursuit of happiness. I don't think that—"

"Good morning," says the young man, and you feel that the inevitable has been turned astray, and all day you have a feeling of incompleteness that is most trying, for you know that that seldom avoided thing, a logical conclusion, has been circumvented. You should, you know it yourself, having written your name along the dotted line and become the possessor of twenty-seven volumes of Shakespeare, when you are in fact just crazy about George McCutcheon and "The Best Man."

After the lot is cut down to a certain point the price will be withdrawn—and back the rest of them will go to 50c and 59c a yard!

PRE-LENTEN BALL.

Members of Assembly to Dance February 21.

The pre-Lenten Assembly ball will be danced at the Spaulding, Feb. 21. The affair will undoubtedly be one of the most delightful of the late winter season, and preceding so shortly as it does the forty days of Lent, this party is always enjoyed with a certain zest that many of the others lack. The invitations will be issued the first of next week.

FEBRUARY SOCIAL.

Twentieth Century Club Members Enjoy Delightful Evening.

A most delightful meeting of the Twentieth Century club was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. C. Marshall of 2302 East Fifth street. The afternoon was planned at the regular February social, and a program of much interest was arranged by Miss Kathleen Waterworth. A reading from Lessing's play, "Nathan the Wise," was given by Mrs. Mary Nelson, and the second part of the program was devoted to the singing of a group of Shakespeare's songs, in some of the numbers the music to which the songs were first placed being Fleur. Men will be admitted as members of this class.

Following the program, an informal social hour was enjoyed by the members.

Leap Year Party.

"Yourself and gentlemen" has come to be a quite common occurrence at the top of invitations and the various printing establishments of the city are becoming apt at engraving this leap year phrase. Innumerable leap year parties have already been planned and enjoyed. Another will be given Monday evening of next week at Flaaten's hall by a group of young women. Flaaten's orchestra will play and a delightful time is being anticipated.

Men May Come.

The annual banquet of the Young Women's Christian association is one of the social affairs during the year at which men are welcomed. The banquet for 1908 will be given Wednesday evening of this week. Three of the speakers will be men, E. P. Towne to preside as toastmaster and the responses to be given by Albert Baldwin and Rev. S. L. Mitchell. The only woman to appear upon the list of speakers will be Mrs. John Macdonald. It is expected that the banquet will be one of the most largely attended in the history of the association.

Church Meetings.

The Missionary society of the First Methodist church will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the church parlors. Both the Home and Foreign societies will meet during the afternoon.

The Ladies' Aid society of St. John's English Lutheran church will meet tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. A. K. Franklin of 4311 East Superior street.

Elect Officers.

The annual meeting of the Altar Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church was held this morning at the home of Miss May Wylie of 1531 East Superior street. The election of officers took place and those who will serve during the coming year will be: President, Miss Berenice Crowley; vice president, Miss Martha Peyton, and secretary, Miss Annie Hugo.

Personal Mention.

Miss Carrie B. Russell, office secretary of the Y. W. C. A., has been called to Minneapolis by the death of a friend.

Mrs. M. Ettinger of 308 Eighteenth avenue west has gone to Milwaukee for a visit. She will also visit at Sheboygan Falls, Wis., and Houghton, Mich., before her return.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Volk of this city are at the Hotel Alexandria, Los Angeles, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Laybourn have returned from a short visit at Hibbing.

Mrs. William Gomborg of Jefferson street has received a cablegram from Mr. and Mrs. E. Roos, telling of their safe arrival at Sydney, Australia, after their trip around the world. Mr. and Mrs. Roos visited in this city.

Special Announcement Regarding the National Pure Food and Drug Law.

We are pleased to announce that Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung troubles is not affected by the National Pure Food and Drug law as it contains no opiates or other harmful drugs, and we recommend it as a safe remedy for children and adults. Sold by all druggists.

CONFIDENT OF VICTORY

Tessman Workers See Rosy Prospects on Election Day.

Campaign is Brought to Close in Two Big Meetings.

Emil Tessman promises to sweep the city, from the western boundaries of the First ward to Fond du Lac.

Never have conditions looked better for his election than they did this morning, and never was the confidence among the Tessman workers, and at Tessman headquarters, so strong as it was today.

Election day broke clear and bright, and there is every reason to believe that a record-breaking vote will be cast.

Early this morning, long before the polls were open, the ward workers were busy, and they will be at it until the polls close at 7 o'clock tonight.

In spite of the extravagant claims put forward by the News Tribune this morning, there is a decided feeling of nervousness in the ranks of the Haven supporters, and they are far from having the confidence they express.

A desperate effort was made by the Haven supporters to "throw a scare" into the Tessman ranks, similar to the one pulled off at the primaries, which probably cost the Tessman party 500 votes, but the effort was unsuccessful.

Fake bets were made between Haven supporters, in which odds were offered on the Republican candidate, and vast sums in mind bets were wagered on Mr. Haven, in an effort to spread the feeling that Mr. Haven's election is a certainty. But all the real money that was offered was snapped up by the Tessman supporters, and last night along Superior street, there was more confidence expressed among Mr. Tessman's followers than at any time during the campaign. This confidence had increased this morning, and the bluff which the Haven workers have been putting up during the last two weeks is beginning to assume a sorry appearance.

This morning only one Haven bet was offered along Superior street, so far as could be found by a Herald reporter. This was for $20, and odds were asked. The bet was later placed at even money.

In the biggest, noisiest and by long odds the most enthusiastic meeting of the campaign, Mr. Tessman and his friends brought their speech-making to an end last evening at the Polish school on Fourth avenue east and Fourth street last evening.

The hall filled from 400 to 500 people, and it was packed to the doors, every available inch of space being taken. Many were unable to get into the hall to listen to the speeches, and were turned at the door after struggling to reach a position where they could see the platform and hear the speakers.

When Mr. Tessman stepped forward to the platform he was greeted by an outburst of cheering that lasted several minutes. His address was a brief one, as all of his campaign speeches have been. He did not attack his opponent in any way, but confined himself to a plain straightforward statement of his platform and the policies for which he stands.

George J. Riedel, Democratic candidate in the Second ward, followed Mr. Tessman, asking the support of those present for himself as alderman and Mr. Tessman as mayor. Mr. S. Dunin followed with a speech in the Polish language. There were a number of Polish people present from the hillside district, and the remarks of the speaker seemed to be most apt, as the applause and laughter which greeted them was loud and prolonged. At several points during his remarks Mr.

Tessman's name was loudly cheered. The other speakers of the evening were W. E. McEwen, Joseph E. Reynolds and M. H. McMahon.

Mr. Haven also wound up his campaign last evening in the West end, in spite of the fact that the meeting had been largely advertised, that it was the windup of the campaign, and that it was supposed to be in Mr. Haven's stronghold, the attendance was no larger than at the Tessman meeting in the same hall last week. Many who were unable to get into the Tessman meeting on the hillside took the cars to the West end and helped fill Columbia hall. The list of Haven speakers included A. G. McKnight, Warren E. Greene, James A. Wharton, R. D. Haven, W. E. Calkin, Peter Olson and J. J. Moe.

SAYS CARLSON STOLE CLOTHES

Lee Keiser Finds Defendant With His Missing Overcoat.

The trial of William Carlson of Chisholm, who is charged with grand larceny in the second degree, was begun in Judge Cant's room yesterday afternoon.

Carlson is charged with stealing two suit cases containing clothing valued at $60 from Lee Keiser at Great Scott, Minn., July 31, last.

According to the testimony of Mr. Keiser he left the train at Great Scott and was on his way to one of the mines. The station was locked up so he had to carry his suit cases with him. During the journey he ran across Carlson who is said to have represented himself as a business man of the village. Carlson is claimed to have offered to help carry the suit cases. The night was dark and roads poor so Mr. Keiser suggested the idea of hiding the suit cases in the woods until the next day. This was done. When Mr. Keiser went after his property early the next morning it was missing.

Sometime after he ran across Carlson at Buhl wearing. It is claimed, one of the overcoats that Keiser had in his suit case. A warrant was sworn out for Carlson's arrest on the charge of stealing the clothing.

Carlson is defended by C. B. Miller, First Assistant County Attorney. W. J. Stevenson is prosecuting the case in the absence from the city of County Attorney Norton.

JURY ACQUITS HENRY RENO

A Hermantown Farmer Found Not Guilty of Larceny Charge.

Henry Reno of Hermantown was acquitted, yesterday afternoon, of the charge of grand larceny in the second degree.

Reno was accused of stealing Northern Pacific pay checks to the value of $60 from Camille Shamro of the West end, with whom Reno had been drinking in some West end saloons.

The trial lasted two days. The evidence showed that Reno had a habit of drinking heavily whenever he came to town, and his wife, realizing his weakness, looked after the money he earned. Reno managed, by holding out a little now and then, to save up $48, which he kept concealed in an old can hidden away at home. His wife found a $5 bill he had tucked away, but she never discovered his big "plant."

According to the testimony he took the $48 one day and came to Duluth, where he started on a prolonged celebration and fell in with Shamro, with whom he found lodging. Shamro missed his pay checks and suspected Reno, who happened to have some pockets of the same denomination that

I Cured My Rupture

I Will Show You How To Cure Yours FREE!

I was practically helpless and bed-ridden for many years from a double rupture. I wore innumerable different kinds of trusses and appliances. Some of them were tortures, some positively dangerous, and none would hold the rupture in its place. The doctors told me I could not expect to have it entirely healed unless I would consent to a surgical operation. I looked them all over, however, and cured myself completely and permanently by a simple method which I discovered. Any one can use it, and I will gladly send the cure free to anyone who writes for it. Fill out the coupon below and mail it to me today. I will send the cure by return mail, postpaid.

he claims he got from a relative. Reno and his wife told a pretty straight story, and it made a favorable impression on the jury. Shamro's testimony was somewhat inconsistent, and tended to show that he was so drunk at the time the supposed larceny occurred that he did not remember much about it.

PRECIPITATION WAS VERY LIGHT

Only .33 Inches in January—Month Was Unusually Warm.

According to the monthly meteorological summary, as issued by H. W. Richardson, forecaster at the local government weather bureau, the temperature of the month just closed had an average temperature of 15 degrees above zero, which is somewhat higher than usual, although there have been several Januarys in the past thirty years that have had a higher average.

The highest temperature recorded last month was 46 degrees above zero on the 25th, and the lowest was 29 below on the 26th. The greatest daily range was 30 degrees on the 18th. The total precipitation for the month was only .33, which is the lowest on record, except for January, 1904, which was .20. There were six rainy days, one partly cloudy and six cloudy. The prevailing direction of the wind was from the southwest.

MAKES ANSWER TO HUGHES

The Jockey Club Issues Pamphlet in Defense of Horse Racing.

New York, Feb. 4.—The Jockey club has issued a pamphlet entitled "The Truth About Racing," which is intended as an answer to the various criticisms against the sport which have been used by Governor Hughes and others who advocate the abolition of betting at race tracks in New York state. The pamphlet defends racing as a sport, and calls attention to the fact that it has caused a great advance in horse breeding and has greatly increased the value of American horses. It says that the sport is one that is enjoyed by hundreds of thousands of people, as high as 30,000 attending races on special days. Of those who go to the tracks 90 per cent, the pamphlet says, do not go for betting but for the sport. The Jockey club, it is claimed, has done more than any other agency to close the pool rooms in the city of New York, and for that reason, the pamphlet says, the pool rooms are anxious to have local race tracks closed.

"The question of betting on horse racing is one of morals," continues the publication, "yet the amendments asked for aim at an act which is not sought to be prevented in other fields. There is no more element of immorality in betting upon a thoroughbred test of speed than in betting upon the race and fall in the price of stocks. To confiscate the vast investment of the various racing associations and terminate the important industries allied thereto would be akin to the abolition of the card-manufacturers because wagers are frequently coupled with the use of their product."

BEMIDJI IN MILITIA.

Northern Minnesota Town Will Proceed to Organize Company.

Bemidji, Minn., Feb. 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Bemidji has been selected for the placing of one of the new companies of state militia.

For some time past A. Otto and other local militia enthusiasts have been working with Fred E. Wood, adjutant general of Minnesota, with the intention of getting a company for Bemidji, and there has been more or less correspondence on the subject. The matter was presented to the council and that body declared heartily in favor of the proposition, and was desirous of lending all possible aid toward securing and maintaining a company for this city.

While P. J. Russell was in St. Paul, Saturday, he held a consultation with Attorney General Wood, and presented Bemidji's claims so strongly that Mr. Wood consented and at Mr. Russell's request at once prepared the necessary enlistment papers, instructions, and other blanks, and subsequently announced that the company would be organized in the number of cities that will be given militia companies was decided in favor of Bemidji, for the north part of the state.

FOUND FAVORABLE SENTIMENT.
Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—E. Vandercook, private secretary to Mayor Becker, returned from his trip through the northern and western part of the state where he went to sound sentiment regarding the gubernatorial chance of Mayor Becker. He went to Superior, La Crosse and other cities, where he says that he met with considerable sentiment favorable to the mayor.

BREAD LINE IS POPULAR

Nearly 100 Unemployed Men Are Fed at the Bethel.

Hot Coffee and Sandwiches Handed Out to Many.

Between seventy-five and one hundred lined up for the first free breakfast at the Lake Avenue Bethel this morning.

During the past two or three weeks, the Bethel authorities have had so many calls for food and lodging, that it was decided to institute a free breakfast.

Hot coffee and ham sandwiches are handed out every morning at 6:30 o'clock to all who apply for them, and this morning there was a line of nearly seventy-five men waiting when the doors opened. Others came later, and the total was close to 100.

The majority of the men were woodmen out of a job. There were also some human derelicts in the line—men who make a practice of getting their living from free lunch counters and charitable organizations, but the majority of the men were those unfortunate enough to be out of work and unable to find employment. Each applicant was given all the coffee and sandwiches he could consume.

MOORE MAKES A RETRACTION

Tessman Voted Right on Tar Macadam Plant Question.

To the Editor of The Herald:

At West Duluth, Saturday night, in my remarks, I intimated that Mr. Tessman was, in a measure, responsible for the city losing the tar macadam plant to Mr. McDonnell. While this is still my recollection, the record does not so indicate. We had a hard time getting that plant back into the possession of the city, and it is difficult to say who was responsible for losing it in the first place. But according to the record, I was not justified in laying the responsibility on Mr. Tessman, as the council proceedings show that he voted right on that proposition. I hasten to correct the statement, as I have no desire to do Mr. Tessman any injustice. I regret that the matter was not called to my attention in time so that this statement might have been published in your last evening's issue, so that no injury to Mr. Tessman could come of the original statement. I have sent a copy of this letter to the News Tribune, with the request that it be published in tomorrow morning's issue. Yours truly,
WATSON MOORE.

MET TRAGIC DEATH.

Former Minnesotan Slain by Wolves in Canadian Northwest.

Mankato, Minn., Feb. 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—John M. Burgess, a former resident of Eagle Lake, this Blue Earth county, who moved to Spearfish, S. D., where he engaged in the real estate business, recently met a tragic end in the Canadian Northwest, where he went to take up land. His relatives have received the harrowing news of his being killed by wild beasts. Burgess, while hunting for

RARE OLD TAPESTRIES

Flemish and Aubusson Handwork in Hotel St. Regis, New York.

A BRIEF DESCRIPTION.

In the series of sketches appearing in this paper descriptive of New York's far-famed hotel, the St. Regis, we have dwelt largely upon the utilitarian features which make that hostelry pre-eminent. The St. Regis, however much it exceeds all other hotels in the matter of safety, healthfulness, cuisine and provisions for general comfort, has no equal from an artistic and decorative standpoint. To beautify its interiors Mr. Haan, the proprietor, ransacked the art centers of the Old World. Each room, public or private, contains something in the way of decoration, furniture, hangings or bric-a-brac that is interesting and distinctive. Among these numerous art objects, none, perhaps, is more worthy of mention than the rare old Flemish and Aubusson tapestries of the sixteenth century which adorn many of the most frequented rooms. Art galleries contain no finer specimens of this highly prized handicraft. Four of these tapestries, by Von Zeumen of Brussels, which are unusually large and most elaborately patterned, represent scenes in the life of Solomon. A fine set of Aubusson's, illustrating La Fontaine's fables, are especially pleasing. Other pieces of tapestry scarcely less valuable and beautiful and other art objects of great value and interest are displayed here.

And yet at the St. Regis, with all its so happily with those things which minister more directly to one's comfort, the restaurant charges are no higher than at other hotels of the first class. Large, well-furnished outside rooms (there are no others) cost but $4 a day. If bath in connection is desired, the charge is $1 additional. A parlor, bedroom and bath may be had for $12 and upward.

HELPFUL ADVICE

You won't tell your family doctor the whole story about your private illness—you are too modest. You need not be afraid to tell Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., the things you could not explain to the doctor. Your letter will be held in the strictest confidence. From her vast correspondence with sick women during the past thirty years she may have gained the very knowledge that will help you. Such letters as the following, from grateful women, establish beyond a doubt the power of

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND to conquer all female diseases. Mrs. Norman R. Barnet, of Allentown, Pa., writes:

"Ever since I was sixteen years of age I had suffered from an organic derangement and female weakness; in consequence I had dreadful headaches and was extremely nervous. My physician said I must go through an operation to get well. A friend told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I took it and wrote you for advice, following your directions carefully, and thanks to you I am today a well woman, and I am telling all my friends of my experience."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, nervous prostration.

land, became separated from the other members of his party.

They made a thorough search for him and finally found his partly devoured remains. Only the well-gnawed bone and torn clothing, shoes, rifle and a few trinkets were left, the flesh having been eaten by wolves.

From the indications, Burgess must have made a desperate fight for his life, for several dead wolves were found in the brush near by. A note book in a pocket of the clothing identified the man.

Pure Food

No Food Commissioner of any State has ever attacked the absolute purity of GRAPE-NUTS

Every analysis undertaken shows this food to be made strictly of Wheat and Barley, treated by our processes to partially transform the starch parts into a form of Sugar, and therefore much easier to digest.

Our claim that it is a "Food for Brain and Nerve Centers" is based upon the fact that certain parts of Wheat and Barley (which we use) contain Nature's brain-making and nerve-building ingredients, viz., Phosphate of Potash, and the way we prepare the food makes it easy to digest and assimilate.

Dr. Geo. W. Carey in his book on "The Biochemic System of Medicine" says:

"When the medical profession fully understands the nature and range of the phosphate of potassium, insane asylums will no longer be needed.

"The gray matter of the brain is controlled entirely by the inorganic cell-salt potassium phosphate. This salt unites with albumen, and by the addition of oxygen creates nerve-fluid or the gray matter of the brain.

"Of course, there is a trace of other salts and other organic matter in nerve-fluid, but potassium phosphate is the chief factor, and has the power within itself to attract by its own law of affinity, all things needed to manufacture the elixir of life. Therefore, when nervous symptoms arise, due to the fact that the nerve-fluid has been exhausted from any cause, the phosphate of potassium is the only true remedy, because nothing else can possibly supply the deficiency.

"The ill arising from too rapidly consuming the gray matter of the brain cannot be overestimated.

"Phosphate of Potash is, to my mind, the most wonderful curative agent ever discovered by man, and the blessings it has already conferred on the race are many. But 'what shall the harvest be' when physicians everywhere fully understand the part this wonderful salt plays in the processes of life? It will do as much as can be done through physiology to make a heaven on earth.

"Let the overworked business man take it and go home good-tempered. Let the weary wife, nerves unstrung from attending to sick children or entertaining company, take it and note how quickly the equilibrium will be restored and calm and reason assert her throne. No 'proving' are required here. We find this potassium salt largely predominates in nerve-fluid, and that a deficiency produces well-defined symptoms. The beginning and end of the matter is to supply the lacking principle, and in molecular form, exactly as nature furnishes it in vegetables, fruits and grain. To supply deficiencies—this is the only law of cure."

BRAIN POWER Increased by Proper Feeding.

A lady writes who not only has done good literary work, but reared a family, found in Grape-Nuts the ideal food for brain work and to develop healthy children. She writes: "I am an enthusiastic proclaimer of Grape-Nuts as a regular diet. I formerly had no appetite in the morning and for 8 years while nursing my four children, had insufficient nourishment for them. "Unable to eat breakfast I felt faint later, and would go to the pantry and eat cold chops, sausage, cookies, doughnuts or anything that happened to find. Being a writer, at times my head felt heavy and my brain asleep.

"When I read of Grape-Nuts I began eating it every morning, also gave it to the children, including my 10 months old baby, who soon grew as fat as a little pig, good natured and contented.

"I wrote evenings, and feeling the need of sustained brain power, began eating a small saucer of Grape-Nuts with milk, instead of my usual indigestible hot pudding, rice or cake for dessert at night.

"I grew plump, nerves strong, and when I wrote my brain was active and clear; indeed, the dull head pain never returned."

Please observe that Phosphate of Potash is not properly of the drug shop variety but is best prepared by "Old Mother Nature" and stored in the grains ready for use by mankind. Those who have been helped to better health by the use of Grape-Nuts are legion.

"There's a Reason"

Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., Battle Creek, Mich.

WISE CLERK Quits Sandwiches and Coffee for Lunch.

The noon-day lunch for the Department clerks at Washington, is often a most serious question.

"For fifteen years," writes one of these clerks, "I have been working in one of the Gov't Departments. About two years ago I found myself every afternoon, with a very tired feeling in my head, trying to get the day's work off my desk.

"I had heard of Grape-Nuts as a food for brain and nerve centers, so I began to eat it instead of my usual heavy breakfast, then for my lunch instead of sandwiches and coffee.

"In a very short time the tired feeling in the head left me, and also since then the afternoon's work has been done with as much ease and pleasure as the morning's work.

"Grape-Nuts for two meals a day has worked, in my case, just as advertised, producing that reserve force and supply of energy that does not permit one to tire easily—so essential to the successful prosecution of one's life work." "There's a reason."

ON THE IRON RANGES

TWO CROATIANS
ARE FIRED UPONBoth Wounded and Two Suspects Have Been Arrested.

Eveleth, Minn., Feb. 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Considerable excitement was caused by the shooting of two Croats Sunday night between 6 and 7 o'clock. The shooting occurred on the Virginia road near shaft No. 1 of the Adams mine.

One of the men was shot through the back, while the other was hit in the arm. The names of the two wounded men are John Medved and Nick Poruchich. They are not able to say who shot them, as the shots were fired from behind.

Three brothers, Mat, John and Joe Medved, have been arrested, charged with doing the shooting. The men will be brought before Judge Prince when he arrives from Duluth.

MRS. EITHER'S CONDITION.

Virginia Woman Reported Very Ill
in St. Paul.

Virginia, Minn., Feb. 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Word was received here yesterday from Frank Eitner, who is now in St. Paul, at the bedside of his wife, that Mrs. Eitner is very low and that the physicians have given up hope of her recovery. Mrs. Eitner was recently afflicted with an abscess in the breast region and went to St. Paul about three weeks ago for treatment. The abscess had progressed so far, however, and her many friends here learn with deep regret that her recovery is improbable.

A large number of Virginians have been afflicted with the disease the past winter, these generally following attacks of the grip.

CHISHOLM FIRE.

One of Oldest Buildings Used by Cigar Concern, Burns.

Chisholm, Minn., Feb. 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—The one-story frame building on Main street occupied by the Equivocal Cigar company, took fire early yesterday morning, and although the department responded promptly the building was gutted. The fire started in the kitchen, where the proprietors were at the time. The building was one of the landmarks of the town. An overhauled stove is supposed to have started the fire.

CHISHOLM BANK ELECTIONS

Officers and Passes Large Sum to Surplus Fund.

Chisholm, Minn., Feb. 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—At the annual meeting of the First National bank of this place the following directors were chosen: A. M. Chisholm, J. F. Killion, E. H. Neuman, James J. Clark, Martin Hughes, Edward Freeman, Matt Marzani, J. H. McNeill, and J. W. Train. Officers were elected as follows: A. M. Chisholm, president; J. F. Killion, second vice president; Martin Hughes, third vice president; G. L. Train, cashier; E. W. Hunt, assistant cashier.

The stockholders were pleased with the business of the past year, and the profits were passed up to the surplus fund, which is now $25,000.

BIG TIME IN CHISHOLM

At Grand Opening of New O'Neil
Hotel Tuesday Night.

Chisholm, Minn., Feb. 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—There will be a big time around the new O'Neil hotel this evening when that hostelry will be formally opened to the public. A large number of invitations have been issued, and there is expected to be a large attendance of people from various parts of the state and from Duluth. The hotel is a new and comfortable one, and the management will be rendered with a sumptuous banquet and the selection of the best of the city.

AFTER BOND MONEY.

Suit Has Been Commenced Against Judge Prince and Clerk.

Eveleth, Minn., Feb. 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Papers have been served in a suit against Judge Prince and his clerk, Sully Murphy, in which the Western Federation of Miners is suing for $15,000. This action is to recover money put up as bail some time ago for the appearance of three strikers in the district court.

The suit was caused by the fact that the court because the men did not appear in district court, after being bound over in appeal was taken and never perfected, and this is given as the reason for forfeiture of the bail money.

Capital and Surplus—One Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars.

SOON TO RESUMEEverything Indicates Big Mill Will Soon be Sawing Again.

Virginia, Minn., Feb. 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—While nothing definite is yet known by local representatives of the Virginia Lumber company, indications all point to an early resumption of operations at the company's sawmills in this city. Instructions were received Saturday by Supt. Alverson to fix up a pond for the new mill and the work was started yesterday morning.

Logs began arriving here the last of the week, the first that have been placed in the lake this winter. The logs are from the Not Lake Indian reservation. At first it was intended to bring only the dead and down timber to this point, but these plans have been changed and the entire cut will be brought here, and from this time forward about 500,000 feet will be landed at Virginia daily.

The Herald correspondent is informed that a special meeting of the company's officers and directors was held in Duluth last Saturday at which time an announcement was made that W. H. Cook had succeeded in floating a loan of $500,000, sufficient to pay off the company's entire indebtedness, and that as a result Messrs. Cook and O'Brien will remain in control and proceed to carry out their previously arranged plans.

From the same source comes the information that at the time the recent annual stamp arrived the company was making net earnings sufficient to pay off its entire indebtedness within a year.

Quite a number of men are now employed around the company's plant building the crib work for the hot pond and unloading the logs as they arrive, and these signs of activity have stimulated a feeling of hope among the citizens generally that resumption of operations at the mills will not be long delayed.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT IS DESIRED IN EVELETH.

Eveleth, Minn., Feb. 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—After listening to several addresses the Business Men's association at the regular meeting last night decided to ask the council to adopt the municipal court act of the 1906 code, which gives the attorneys a definite plan under which to operate in the municipal court. The attorneys also spoke on the question of putting the municipal court judge on a regular salary. This question was not acted upon, but there seemed to be a strong feeling in favor of the measure.

The motion was carried to have the banquet on Feb. 12, a "dry" one. There was no dissenting vote. There will probably be one out of town speaker invited to make the principal talk of that evening. Among those mentioned are Mr. Hugo and Mr. Miller of Duluth.

Through the efforts of Secretary Sax when he was lately in St. Paul, the adjutant general of the state sent the bond necessary to be signed before a National guard company could be established in Eveleth. It makes the city responsible for the erection and maintenance of a suitable armory. It was decided to lay this matter before the council at the next meeting.

The committee sent to Duluth to confer with the adjutant general, who was sent from Attorney South. This claim the local saloonkeepers are partly responsible for the blind pigging now going on, in the outskirts of the city, but also that the players can easily be prosecuted under the law.

The report of the treasurer showed $100 in the treasury Jan. 29.

The meeting was adjourned until Thursday evening, when the question of municipal fighting will probably be taken up.

WOMAN'S QUEER ACTION
RESULTS IN HER ARREST.

Chisholm, Minn., Feb. 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Annie Vuksitch, who was found wandering about at the Clark location Saturday evening, was taken to Duluth that she may be examined as to her mind. She was taken to Duluth a few months ago and examined, but her condition then was not considered bad enough to warrant sending her to the asylum.

IN NEW SCHOOL.

Two Harbors, Minn., Feb. 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—The new school building on Tenth avenue is being occupied this week for the first time. About 200 pupils formed in line at the Fourth avenue building and marched to the new building, where eight rooms are at present being used.

ous sea, a boat's crew of five men under J. F. Welsh, second mate, put off from the Bermudian to endeavor to effect the rescue of the Newchall's crew. The boat was thrown by the high seas against the schooner and partly smashed and had to give up the attempt for the moment. Welsh succeeded in getting back to the Bermudian without loss of life. At daylight of Monday Welsh made another effort to take off the schooner's crew, but the seas were still too high to allow of a close approach. The men on the schooner were directed to plunge into the sea and they were rescued from the water with life lines thrown out by Welsh and his men.

breathless interest by the 200 passengers on board the Bermudian who testified their appreciation of the gallantry of the men by subscribing $500 for them. Of this amount $250 goes to Welsh, a young Nova Scotian, who was hidden in the crew's nest into the flames, which had by this time burned through the forward deck. There were nine stowaways on the ship and all were caught in the forward holds and burned to death without chance of rescue. second. Then ten men made their way down the ladder and into the boat. All were frightened by the flames. The boat returned safely to the Cymric, and the rescued men were hoisted aboard. The same crew then made a second and a third trip back to the burning steamer. A rescuing thirty-seven men in all. On the last trip the boat was stove in by a wave and barely reached the Cymric in safety.

Tell a Terrible Story.

The officers and crew of the St. Cuthbert have a terrible story to tell. At midday Saturday the fire was discovered, smoke being seen emerging from a ventilator. The first officer rushed to the bridge, where the captain was, to tell him of the fire when almost immediately a terrible explosion occurred, blowing off the hatches in the forward part of the ship and destroying half the bridge. The captain was thrown to the deck badly injured and blinded by the flames. The wheelman was driven away from his post. A boat was immediately lowered, but was smashed and its crew of fifteen including the third officer, were drowned. For thirty-six hours the crew fought the flames but with little success. The foremast melted and fell, throwing a stowaway, who was hidden in the crew's nest into the flames, which had by this time burned through the forward deck. There were nine stowaways on the ship and all were caught in the forward holds and burned to death without chance of rescue. After the fall of the mast the fire was partially checked, but the poisonous fumes of fuel oil made fighting the fire almost impossible. freed, that the exiles be permitted to return to Portugal and their political rights be restored, and that all existing autocratic measures contrary to liberty be repealed.

The royal pantheon of St. Vincent, where the obsequies of the late King Manuel were being held, was a massive structure in what is called the Oriental section of Lisbon. In the cloisters of the venerable and crumbling building were the coffins of Portuguese monarchs who have ruled during the last 250 years, from John IV to Louis I. Here also the niches contain the remains of many of the famous statesmen, warriors, poets, crown princes and explorers of past generations. For many years the main office was used as a monastery by the Augustinian monks. It is now the official residence of the cardinal patriarch of Portugal, and the residential quarter being connected by galleries and vaulted corridors with the huge pantheon proper, in which the bodies of the monarchs and grandees of Portugal repose.

The minister of war issued a statement today declaring the rumors that a revolution had broken out in Oporto or elsewhere in the country to be absolutely untrue. "There is no disturbance in either military or civil circles," the statement says. "Money is being generally furnished in spite of the assassinations of Saturday and the political difficulties of the country."

IS YOUR LIVER WORKING?

How to Tell When This Important Organ is Ailing. What to Do for a Torpid Liver.

Indications of liver trouble should be carefully watched for, as the work of this organ is very important to the health of the body. Symptoms do not always show themselves in the same way, but any one of these conditions is good evidence that the liver is not active—dull headache, sickish liver, spots, biliousness, coated tongue, offensive breath, bad taste in the mouth, constipation, sluggish mind or a feeling of lassitude.

When you have reason to believe that your liver needs attention, resort to Becham's Pills. They promptly remove the cause and free you of all the disagreeable symptoms. Becham's Pills regulate the bile, move the bowels and act on the kidneys without violent purging or causing pain. They are not only a safe liver pill, but exert a tonic effect on the entire system and bring health to every part of the body. There is no liver medicine in all the world so reliable as Becham's Pills.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

STRIKE IS CALLED OFF

Boilermakers Give Up Fight With Railroads of Northwest.

Men Find Odds Too Heavy and Decide to Quit.

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—The boilermakers' union, compelled by circumstances to give up the fight, has called off the strike which was begun against the railroads of the Northwest last September. The men are said to have found the odds too heavy for them and decided to give up a losing battle.

Notices were sent out last week asking the men for an expression of views regarding the continuation of the strike, and a vote was taken by local unions in the Northwest.

It is announced from the strike headquarters at the Hotel Foley in this city that as a result of the vote, the strike is at an end. The men have announced their willingness to return to work on the terms offered by the various railroads.

Several weeks ago an agreement was reached with the railroads to take back all the old employees among the strikers as fast as vacancies occurred, and to pay them the rate offered before the strike, 40c to 45c an hour.

This was the only deal with which the men were able to make an agreement. At the office of the strike, however, and Great Northern it was stated that the men would be taken back as individuals when they were needed, but that the roads would not treat with the union.

It is understood that those returning will receive 40c to 45c an hour, the schedule offered them before the strike, and shop conditions will be determined by the companies.

Public Hurt Them.

In discussing the result of the strike, Vice President Gallivan said: "We chose what seemed to be a good time for the strike, but we could not foresee the financial panic, which has reduced business on the railroads so they do not require so much equipment."

Weather conditions, too, have been against us. This time of year it took two engines to haul ten cars, but this winter railroad men have had to haul four cars. If we get some wintry weather the roads will need more engines. Then they will need more men.

"The roads themselves did not anticipate the conditions which have prevailed for they ordered the quantities of new equipment from car foundries. Much of this has been delivered recently, so that they have more than they need."

Mr. Gallivan said that about 20 per cent of the strikers were not at work for railroads or other concerns.

MAY HAVE BEEN MUNISING MAN

By Name of George McBath Who Was Fatally Frozen.

Marquette, Mich., Feb. 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—It is now believed that the name of the man who was found frozen to death near the South Shore tracks at Sand River is George McBath, a lumberman, who made his headquarters at Munising, and who has been missing for several days. The body is still being kept at the Hager undertaking establishment.

The name McBath, which was found written in a little memorandum book in one of the man's pockets, was the only thing that gave any indication of his identity. Saturday a message concerning the man was received at the Hager store from a man by the name of McLaughlin of Munising, a tailor.

McLaughlin stated that from what he had read about the finding of the man's body, he believed that he knew him. He verified the man's details as to whether McBath had any relatives on intimate friends at Munising, but said that he would make an investigation.

He stated that he thought that McBath had relatives somewhere in the East.

THEIR TIME INCREASED.

Good News for Employees of Car-shops at Hudson.

Hudson, Wis., Feb. 4.—The Hudson car shop employees in this city will be given forty hours' work per week, beginning today, and it is probable that full time will be in force again in a few weeks.

For the past month the employees of the car shops have been cut down to twenty hours a week. Master Car Builder J. W. Muey had authority to reduce the force and place a smaller number of men on full time, but he decided to give them an equal chance by keeping all employ-

BECOMING A MOTHER

The thought of the suffering and pain in store for her, robs the expectant mother of all pleasant anticipations of the coming event, and casts over her a shadow of gloom which cannot be shaken off. Thousands of women have found that the use of Mother's Friend during pregnancy robs confinement of all pain and danger, and insures safety to life of mother and child. This scientific liniment is a god-send to all women at the time of their most critical trial. Not only does Mother's Friend carry women safely through the perils of child-birth, but its use gently prepares the system for the coming event, prevents "morning sickness," and other discomforts of this period.

VETERAN IS BURIED.

Many Pay Tribute to Late John C. Fisher of Houghton.

Houghton, Mich., Feb. 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—The funeral of John C. Fisher, an honored veteran of the Civil war was held from the home, 11 Jasper street, East Houghton, Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock and was largely attended. Rev. J. B. Curzon, rector of Trinity Episcopal church conducted the service. Many members of Stiles post G. A. R. of Hancock, of which the deceased was a member attended the funeral while a squad of Houghton Light Infantry acted as a body guard.

The pall bearers were: Edward Lee, Louis Wilcox, Thomas Carney, and James Campbell of Hancock; William Langdon of Ripley and Thomas Daly, Ernest Smith and Martin Foley of Houghton.

MET VIOLENT ENDS.

Fate of Men Accused of North Dakota Killing.

Grand Forks, N. D., Feb. 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Tom Burns, who died as the result of a fall at Devils Lake Saturday is one of the last five of the gang of twenty accused of killing Charles and Fred Wind who were acquitted and have since met violent deaths, said Judge Phil McLoughlin. "One of the crowd, Pat McQuinn, was shot dead in a row and ill-luck has followed nearly all the men. It is a remarkable record."

HE WANTS NO MONEY.

One Man Who is Bound to be Satisfied.

Appleton, Wis., Feb. 4.—"Jesus had neither money nor valuables, and so I don't want any, either."

With those words Yasevich, a young Russian who came to Appleton some time ago, and has been an employee of the traction company, walked to the bank of the Fox river yesterday and hurled his watch, valued at $25, about six in cash, into the water. He then turned himself off as much clothing as possible without losing his person, and was about to remove his shoes when he was stopped by a man in one of the mills, who notified the police. Yasevich is believed to be insane on religious grounds.

He declares that he has had plenty of money all of his life, but has never had any comfort. He believes that he would be happier without the care of cash or valuables, and avowing himself as close a follower of Christ, as it is possible for a human being to be, he declared to this truth this morning that he would never again allow himself to possess money.

CALGARY IS BOOMING.

Former North Dakotan Lauds the Canadian Town.

Grand Forks, N. D., Feb. 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Like Ruttle of Calgary, who has been spending a few days at his home, Inkster is very enthusiastic over the prospects of Calgary, where he is in the livery business. The city has a monthly payroll of $30,000 from factories and other industries and this means a good deal to a place of 25,000 inhabitants. In three years the population of the city has doubled. The Canadian Pacific has big shops there and two big packing plants, a soap factory, box factory, two great flour mills and other industries keep the city lively. The people are prosperous and the outlook for the city is very bright.

FATHER USES SHOTGUN

In Dispute With His Son, Seriously Wounding Him.

Iron Mountain, Mich., Feb. 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Enrico Stanker is at St. George's hospital with a part of his arm shot away as the result of being shot by his own father during a difference.

The quarrel which led to the shooting was brought about by a question from the father as to whether his son, Enrico, had paid a saloon bill. The man claimed it had been paid, while his wife said that the saloonkeeper denied it. The debt was settled. The older Stanker then threatened to go down and do violence to the saloonkeeper. At this point the son, Enrico, intervened in the quarrel, but not the father, who had been struck by her husband.

After the two men confabulated the quarrel with the result that the son was injured as stated.

The father was immediately arrested and told the authorities that he was sorry for what he had done and that he did not know that the son was loaded or that his son was in front of it. He claims to have been anxious to frighten the boy, but not to hurt him.

FIREMEN ARE TO MEET

AT CASS LAKE FEB. 13.

Cass Lake, Minn., Feb. 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Thursday evening, Feb. 13, the Northern Minnesota Firemen's Tournament association, of which each department is a member, will meet at Cass Lake. The annual tournament will be held in Park Rapids this year, the date not yet determined.

NO ONE BLAMED.

FORMER GOVERNOR DYING.

Devils Lake, N. D., Feb. 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Governor E. C. Hanson is dying of cancer. He was operated on at Rochester, Minn., a few weeks ago, but it was late to be effective. He is 77 years old. All his relatives have been called to his bedside. He was elected governor from 1892 to 1894, having been elected when the Populist carried the state.

MINNESOTA IN BRIEF

Pine City.—John Underwood arrived from Duluth last week. He was compelled to leave his work on account of a severe attack of grippe combined with a slight attack of pleurisy.

Cass Lake.—Right Reverend J. D. Morrison of Duluth will hold services in St. Peter's church, Cass Lake, on Wednesday evening, Feb. 12.

Hinckley.—J. A. Owens caught another wolf in his traps last week and Saturday took the wolf to Pine City to get his bounty. Mr. Owens says that wolf will get no more of his chickens.

Hallook.—For a number of years an old pile driver adorned the triangular lot in front of the courthouse. The apparatus was sold some time ago to private parties and now there is a big sand pile taking its place on the vacant lot.

Crookston.—There were 20 marriages and nineteen divorces in Polk county in 1907, being about one divorce for every fourteen marriages. The popular marriage months were November with forty and June with thirty. There were only eight in September.

Brainerd.—The next annual gathering of the Sixth district bankers will be held in Brainerd. The exact date is not yet set, but M. T. Dunn, who is vice president of the association, states that it will be held in May or June next, probably the latter half of May or the first half of June.

Moorehead.—While unloading the steam engine between two coaches Saturday Aleck Feinder, car foreman at Barnesville, was struck in the eye by one of the connections, and seriously injured, both by the blow and by the escaping steam. He was brought to St. John's hospital upon a special, and it is feared that he will lose the eye.

Beltrami.—The teachers' examinations for Beltrami county were concluded Saturday evening, and the teachers who

SPORTS OF THE DAY

BIG TOURNEY AT BOVEY

People of Itasca County Plan Great Event for Sunday.

Hill in Excellent Shape for Exceptional Ski Jumping.

Coleraine, Minn., Feb. 4.—(Special to The Herald).—The third annual tournament of the Itasca Ski club, which has been announced for Feb. 9, promises to be one of the most successful tournaments ever held. The committee in charge have spared no energy and time in preparing for this event in their attempt to provide all present—both riders and spectators—with entertainment which will not soon be forgotten.

The new hill, which has been recently completed, far exceeds the previous one and is getting in fine form for the coming contest. The proximity of the hill to Trout Lake, on the shore of which it is located, has made it possible to provide plenty of snow for jumping even after the heaviest snowfall, and while other clubs have found it necessary to postpone their tournaments on account of lack of snow, the Itasca Ski club has to a considerable extent a more favorable time for this season. New records are being reached daily in the hill, 200 feet having been made the latter part of the week. Practicing has been continued regularly since the hill was completed, and an excellent display of jumping has been exhibited by the local riders, among whom are Riley, Shawder and Keen, made up of a highly skilled team.

The prizes which have been announced for the tournament are as follows: First prize, $25 in gold; second, $10 in gold; third, $5 in gold; fourth, $5 in gold; fifth, $5 in gold; sixth, $5 in gold; seventh, $5 in gold. Extra prizes: Twenty dollars in gold for the longest stunt jump, $10 in gold for the most successful rider.

Was recently cup, valued at $75, which was donated by G. J. Hartley, will also be competed for by local riders.

The Itasca Ski club wishes to announce that they have not relinquished their view that the ski sport is a winter sport, and while it finds it advisable to give cash prizes to the winners, the club will pay the expenses of their riders to the outside tournaments. It wishes to see the sport for sports sake only.

Amateur arrangements for the tournament, the committee is preparing for a grand ball to be given on the evening of Feb. 8, beginning at 8 o'clock. This is to be given in honor of the winter riders and guests of the club and will be open to the public, a cordial invitation being extended to all.

ALROTH DOES BOYS' PLAN NOT SCORE LONG TRIP

Duluth Boy Loses Out on Northern Hockey Team Will Journey From Duluth to Pittsburgh.

Saranac Lake Skater is Has Dates With Best of Amateur Teams En Route.

Montreal, Feb. 4.—The amateur speed skating contest championship of America was decided yesterday on the M. A. A. A. open air rink under very favorable conditions, with the exception of the attendance, which was small. Edmund Lamy, the speedy Saranac Lake skater, was the victor of the afternoon, carrying off the half mile and three mile titles. The other winners were: John N. B. skater, competing under the colors of the Montreal A. A. A., a close finish in the mile. There was a surprise in the 250 yards race, which went to C. B. B. of Vancouver, B. C., an outsider. Carl Alroth, the Duluth skater, was a direct disappointment. He failed to finish among the first three in any final.

250 yards final—C. B. B. of Vancouver, first; Fred Logan, Montreal A. A. A., second; Fred Logan, Montreal A. A. A., third. Time, 24.5 seconds.

500 yards backward—Russell Wheeler, Montreal A. A. A., first; Ernest Lamy, Montreal A. A. A., second; Elmer Wheeler, Montreal A. A. A., third. Time, 1:13.5.

One mile—Russell Wheeler, Montreal A. A. A., first; Ernest Lamy, Montreal A. A. A., second; Elmer Wheeler, Montreal A. A. A., third. Time, 3:14.5.

Three miles—Edmund Lamy, Saranac Lake, first; Fred Logan, Montreal A. A. A., second; J. J. Auld, Montreal A. A. A., third. Time, 9:53.

Final one mile—Fred Logan, Montreal A. A. A., first; Edmund Lamy, Saranac Lake, second; J. J. Auld, Montreal A. A. A., third. Time, 3:12.

WHAT THE COUNCIL DID.

William Mulligan, 329 Central avenue, cited to appear before the council to show cause why his license should not be revoked. Theodore Epper, 5029 Grand avenue, cited to appear before the council to show cause why his license should not be revoked.

Protest received from board of education against saloon license granted to Fred Hencke at 400 Lake avenue south, claiming the proximity of the building to the Webster school should invalidate the license. Matter referred to city attorney.

Protest received from Lakeside property owners against vacation of the lake and beach at 400 Lake avenue south, claiming the proximity of the building to the Webster school should invalidate the license. Matter referred to city attorney.

Board of water and light commissioners recommends abandonment of the lake and beach at 400 Lake avenue south, claiming the proximity of the building to the Webster school should invalidate the license. Matter referred to city attorney.

Board of public works notified to take steps for covering Broadway creek by construction of trunk sewer.

Three saloon men were promised trouble at the meeting of the council last evening. Theodore Epper was cited to appear before the council next Monday night to show cause why his license should be renewed. William Mulligan was cited to appear and show cause why his license should not be revoked, and the city attorney was instructed to consider the license granted to Fred Hencke for a saloon at 400 Lake avenue south, with a view to determining its validity.

Epper and Mulligan are the saloonkeepers concerned in the case. The council will consider the license granted to Fred Hencke for a saloon at 400 Lake avenue south, with a view to determining its validity.

Action was taken looking forward toward the covering of Broadway creek in a resolution instructing the board of public works to secure from the city owners the dedication of easements for a sewer, which it is proposed to construct in the bed of the creek. The easements are to be secured at no extra cost to the property owners, but at the cost of the sewer to be assessed on the district being benefited by it.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

After a temporary shut down, the New York Central shops at West Albany resumed operations Monday. About 1,300 men were affected.

Handcuffed and shackled, Police Judge James A. H. was carried to the workhouse at Toledo, Ohio, Monday, where he will serve a short term for the experience to be gained. The judge sentenced him to 30 days in the workhouse because he wanted to experience the punishment he was imposing upon others.

Late Monday night receivers were appointed to the estate of J. H. H. of Baltimore, Md. The assets are roughly estimated at $100,000, and the liabilities $25,000. The house did an investment business chiefly, and has been a part of the city for many years.

Fire Monday afternoon destroyed a portion of the Molsen warehouse, occupied by the Canadian Pacific Railway company at Montreal. The loss is estimated at $200,000.

During a period of mental depression, Mrs. Frances Willers, 46 years of age, of Dorchester, Mass., killed herself and two little girls, aged 9 and 11 years, respectively, by means of illuminating gas Monday night.

SETTLER WINS

In Suit for Land Damages Against M. St. P. & S. S. M. Railway Co.

Washington, Feb. 4.—The case of the Minneapolis, St. Paul & Sault Ste. Marie Railway company vs. Thomas Doughty, which was decided yesterday by the supreme court of the United States, favorably to Doughty, involved the nice question as to when the federal statute, giving the railroad free right of way over public lands, went into effect. The railroad directors approved a map of the projected road in North Dakota on the 17th of June, 1902. Doughty located a homestead across this right of way on the 25th of the same month, and in July following the road was constructed. He brought suit for damages, and the North Dakota trial court awarded him $1,000. This verdict was approved by the supreme court of that state, on the ground that

A Trip South Sounds Good

Now that the cold weather is "getting busy" it is a good time to prepare your winter trip.

Chicago & Alton

"The Only Way"

has low round-trip rates to

Hot Springs, Arkansas, CITRONELLE, ALABAMA, and GULF COAST RESORTS, TEXAS, CITY OF MEXICO and CALIFORNIA.

There are also other Southern and Western points, the rates to which the "Alton" will give you close figures. I would like to have your name and address to keep you posted. All inquiries promptly and cheerfully answered.

Eight trains a day between Chicago and St. Louis, and a train to New Air Line to Kansas City.

A petition was presented for the improvement of Twelfth avenue west, from Superior street to Fourth street, including grading and paving with macadam, grass plots to be laid out on way company expressed the willingness of the company to stop its cars on both sides of the crossing at Lake avenue and Superior street. The contractors were explained as offering obstacles on account of the grade of the intersecting avenue. It was stated that at present, the motorcars are halted by the car starter on the side of the avenue first reached, they are then turned around and discharged on the opposite side. But when a stop is made on the side of the avenue first reached, the regular side of the crossing is not carried out. The company asked that it be allowed to continue the practice on account of the peculiar conditions at that point, stating that the idea of the council will be carried out at the other two avenues, experimentally at least.

City Engineer McGilvray presented an estimate of $1,450 as the cost of the construction of a stone culvert on Thirty-seventh avenue, across Grand avenue.

A communication from the board of water and light commissioners advised the council to abandon the proceedings for the condemnation of one half of block 18, lying north of Fourteenth street, between Third and Fourth avenues east. One half of the block is already owned by the city and plans had been made for using the block as a site for a reservoir for the middle system of water supply.

The board has in contemplation the choice of another site for the reservoir, and notified the council that it will submit its choice to that body for approval as soon as it is made.

MARRIAGE OF COUNTESS OF YARMOUTH ANNULLED IN BRITISH DIVORCE COURT

Harry Thaw's Sister Secures Her Freedom From the Earl.

Only Four Witnesses Examined, Hearing Lasting But 30 Minutes.

No Defense of Action Was Made by the Earl.

London, Feb. 5.—Sir Birrell Barnes, president of the divorce court, today granted the countess of Yarmouth, who was Miss Alice Thaw of Pittsburgh, a decree annulling her marriage to the earl of Yarmouth.

The case was heard in private. At the time fixed for the commencement of the proceedings everyone not actually engaged on the case was excluded from the courtroom. The case was practically undefended and the hearing lasted for only half an hour. The countess, attired in a fashionable black gown, was present, but the earl of Yarmouth was not in court.

Only four witnesses were examined. They were the countess of Yarmouth herself, her maid, a doctor appointed by the court and an American lawyer who proved the marriage. The countess gave evidence in support of her allegation that the marriage had never been consummated and the maid testified that the earl and the countess had been living as man and wife. According to the evidence of the doctor, the earl of Yarmouth was capable of consummating the marriage, but counsel for the plaintiff contended that this did not affect the allegation that the marriage had not been consummated and he pointed out to the judge that it was within the discretion of the court to annul the marriage if it was proved that it had not been consummated.

The earl of Yarmouth did not defend the case, his lawyer satisfying himself with pointing out that the evidence of the doctor removed any stigma placed upon the earl by the existence of the marriage and that there was no ground upon which the countess could have sued for divorce.

Marriage Annulled.
The judge pronounced his decree, annulling the marriage without comment. In the ordinary course of events it will be made absolute in six months. No mention was made of a marriage settlement and it was learned from an authoritative source that, contrary to certain published statements, the question of revising the settlement has not been discussed by the countess.

WANTS PEOPLE TO VOTE ON IT

Question of a Statue for Senator Quay Causes Trouble.

Philadelphia, Feb. 5.—Because of opposition to the placing of a statue of the late Senator M. S. Quay in the rotunda of the new state capitol at Harrisburg, David H. Lane of this city, chairman of the Republic of the Quay, has suggested that the question be put to a vote of the people of the state. The legislature appropriated $10,000 for the erection of a statue of the late senator in Capitol park at Harrisburg, and there has been more or less criticism of this action of the legislature, principally by persons who were politically opposed to the late Republican leader. Mr. Lane was appointed a member of the committee to carry out the action of the legislature. He is opposed to placing the statue in Capitol park and wants it erected in the capitol rotunda.

BUSINESS IS INCREASING

One Thousand Men Return to Work at Steelton, Pa.

Philadelphia, Feb. 5.—One thousand men, formerly employed by the Pennsylvania Steel company at Steelton, Pa., have been called back to work after an enforced idleness of more than a month. Rush orders from New York for material for municipal buildings, and an order for rails from the New York City Railway company warranted the company in increasing its present force to 2,500 men, or about 46 per cent of the nominal force.

Ten thousand men have been laid off since December by the Baldwin Locomotive works of this city, because of a lack of orders for engines. Samuel M. Vaneck, a member of the firm, said: "No substantial orders have come in since December. We have received a few scattered orders, and we are working upon these now. Whereas we were formerly turning out about sixty locomotives a week, we are now turning out only twenty, and we will have finished up all our work in a short time. Then unless we receive some substantial orders in the meantime, we will have to close."

SHOOTING ACTED OUT

Witnesses Pose for Jury in Trial of Mrs. McDonald.

Defense Claims Guerin Pulled Trigger of the Revolver.

Chicago, Feb. 5.—A realistic representation of the shooting of Webster S. Guerin, according to the theory of the tragedy held by the defense, was enacted in the court room today in the trial of Mrs. Dora McDonald.

The attorneys for the prisoner were endeavoring to prove that during a struggle between Guerin and Mrs. McDonald, she carried the revolver against him, and that he pulled the trigger, firing a shot into his own chest. Dr. M. L. Harris, an expert in gunshot wounds, enacted the part of Guerin, and Dr. J. W. Hall, Mrs. McDonald's physician, filled the role said to have been enacted by his patient. The two men struggled and posed on the witness stand for the better part of two hours, during the direct and cross-examinations. The state claimed that if the revolver had been held at the angle claimed by the defense, the bullet would have entered the body of Guerin in a different direction from that it actually took.

PUBLIC PRINTER IS SUSPENDED

While Investigation of Printing Office is Going on.

Washington, Feb. 5.—President Roosevelt today temporarily suspended as public printer Charles A. Stillings and appointed William S. Rossiter temporarily to fill the duties of that office. The action was explained officially as to facilitate the investigation now being made of the government printing office by congress.

Mr. Rossiter now is chief clerk of the census office.

CIVIL GUARDS

Would Be Better for Yellowstone Park, Says Gen. Young.

Washington, Feb. 5.—Gen. Young, now on the retired list, and superintendent of the Yellowstone National Park, believes that the protection of the reservation and the game should be placed under a civil guard, in place of the army police patrol. Among other comments on the subject, Gen. Young says that the majority of the soldiers are indifferent, and appear to resent being required to subserve both the military interests and interests of the park on their small salaries. During the long and severe winters the duty is not only difficult but dangerous, and much hardship must be endured.

CONGRESSMAN COUSINS TO QUIT PUBLIC LIFE.

Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Feb. 5.—In a letter made public last night, Hon. Robert G. Cousins, now serving his eighth term in congress as representative of the Fifth district, announced that he will not again be a candidate. "My reason for withdrawing," he says, "is for having given the best part of my life to the public service and now having the opportunity, I must now do something for myself."

Portuguese Cabinet to Convoke Parliament Early as Possible.

Eye-Witness Tells Graphic Story of the Assassination.

Lisbon, Feb. 5.—There is no truth in the rumors current in Berlin yesterday that an attempt had been made upon the life of the minister of war in the first cabinet announced, Jose Matias Nunes.

The new cabinet, at its initial session, decided to order elections and to convoke parliament at the earliest possible moment. France has officially announced his retirement from politics, but his followers will attempt to continue the party he organized.

RAIN STORM AT CHICAGO

Seriously Affects Railroads and Telegraphic Communication.

Severe Cold Weather Prevails in New England Cities.

Chicago, Feb. 5.—A sleet storm during the night, which turned to rain early today, seriously affected telegraphic communication between Chicago and many outside cities, especially in the west.

St. Louis, Omaha and Kansas City were entirely cut off from the East during the early hours by a sleet storm which surrounded St. Louis and extended into Iowa.

Americans Are Given Great Time at Punta Arenas.

Receptions, Dinners and Excursion Planned by Chileans.

Punta Arenas, Strait of Magellan, Feb. 5.—Festivities in honor of the officers and men of the visiting American fleet are furnishing Punta Arenas with a degree of social activity that never before has been witnessed in this southernmost city in the world.

A reception by the American consul, given last evening, was a brilliant function. The mansion of Mr. Braun was greatly decorated for the occasion. The hall, drawing room and dining room were arranged for the reception of the guests, who numbered 400, and included the American, Chilean and British officers now here, and the entire consular corps. The uniforms of the officers, and the costumes and jewels of the ladies, made a brilliant scene. The entire first floor of the consular mansion was given over to the reception of the guests, and dancing followed. In the first quadrille, John Hicks, American minister to Chile, led out Senora Velazquez, wife of the Chilean admiral; Rear Admiral C. M. Thomas, commander of the third division of the American fleet, danced with Mrs. Braun; the governor, Vice

TOWN OF FISHER HAS LARGE FIRE

Damage of Over $20,000 to Business Part of Place.

Crookston, Minn., Feb. 5.—(Special to The Herald.)—The town of Fisher, located on the Great Northern a short distance west of here in this Polk county, experienced a disastrous fire about 11 o'clock last night, which originated in the hardware store of Ole Larson & Son, in some unknown manner.

Four of the leading business places were wiped out as follows: Gunter Kroetz, general merchandise, loss $10,000, insurance $2,500; Carl Vinj, saloon, loss on stock $2,000, insurance $1,500; Ole Larson & Son, hardware, loss $5,000, insurance $5,000; Ole Gunstinson, drugs, loss $2,000, insurance $1,000; H. Falkewsky, owner of Vinj saloon building, loss $3,000, insurance $1,000.

DRUCE CASE IS DISMISSED
Master in Chancery Ends Suit—An Appeal Allowed.

London, Feb. 5.—Almost the last prop was knocked from underneath the Druce myth yesterday, when the master in chancery dismissed G. H. Druce's suit for the possession of the estate of the late duke of Portland. The attorney for Druce appealed the case and the appeal was allowed.

Defeats Emil A. Tessman in Hard Fought Political Battle.

Heavy Vote in First and Seventh Wards for Haven.

Aldermanic Fight in the Second Results in Tie Vote.

In spite of the support of the Duluth News Tribune, Alderman Roland D. Haven won a splendid victory at the polls yesterday, and was returned a winner in the hottest political fight Duluth has seen in years, by a plurality of 665.

Considering the heavy vote cast the plurality was small. Both Mr. Haven and Mr. Tessman claimed a plurality of 1,000 yesterday, and it was generally conceded that the fight would be a very even one, and that the winner would know he had been running.

The campaign was one of the most peculiar, in many ways, that Duluth has seen in years. The platforms of the two men were almost identical. In spite of this fact, however, Mr. Tessman was credited with being the candidate of the saloon interests, and there is no question but that this story persistently hammered into the ears of the voters was responsible for his defeat. The "saloon against the home" cry was shouted from the house-tops and whirled into the ears of the voters in every part of the city. It was made the issue of the campaign. Mr. Tessman was pictured as a huge whiskey bottle, and Mr. Haven was pictured as the defender of the home. The story could not help but find many believers in such a big audience, and it made Mr. Haven enough votes to win.

The Troyer Canard.
Another campaign roortack that was used to good effect was the claim that Chief Troyer was to be deposed from the office of chief of police, and the office turned over to a political follower of Mr. Tessman's, to be run as the saloon interests indicated. John D. Brady was the man mentioned for the office, and it was claimed that he

THE DESTROYERS AT PUNTA ARENAS

American Torpedo Flotilla Joins Battleships of Admiral Evans.

Punta Arenas, Strait of Magellan, Feb. 5.—It was 3:15 yesterday afternoon, when the American torpedo flotilla, consisting of six torpedo boat destroyers, came to anchor in the roads off this port, near the battleships of Rear Admiral Evans' fleet. Their long voyage from Buenos Ayres occupied five days, and the little vessels stood the trip well. They arrived here in good condition, notwithstanding adverse weather. On two days of the trip rather rough weather was experienced, but no mishap occurred. During the remainder of the run pleasant weather made the voyage easy.

Lieut. Cone and his officers and men say that their stay in Buenos Ayres was delightful, and on the departure from that port they were given a rousing send off. A flotilla of torpedo boats of the Argentine navy accompanied the American flotilla from Buenos Ayres down the River Platte to the open sea. When the vessels parted company, cheers were given by the sailors of the Argentine vessels, and these were responded to by the Americans.

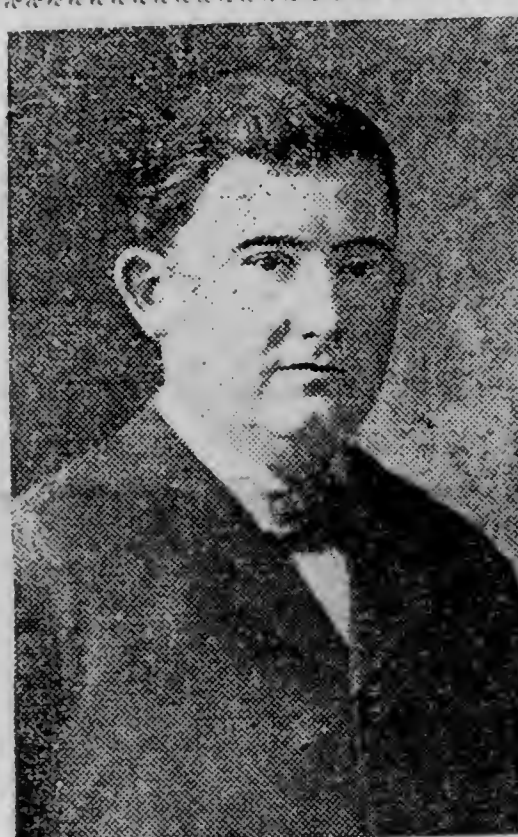

The work of coaling the destroyers for their next stop on the long voyage, which will terminate at Talcahuano, already has begun, and the little vessels will be ready to start with the battleship fleet tomorrow.

ST. PAUL TO BE SUPPLY POINT

Under New Order for Handling Quartermasters' Supplies.

Washington, Feb. 5.—A scheme of decentralization in the matter of handling quartermasters' supplies upon which Brigadier General Alshire, quartermaster general, has been working for some time, is embodied in a general order issued today. An advantage of the new system will be that it places upon the department commanders and their chief quartermasters the duty and responsibility of the proper and economical supply of their command and furnishing the assurance of suitable equipment of troops for service. It gives needed elasticity to the entire quartermaster's department. Under the new scheme, St. Paul, Minn., is to be a new supply point.

Ned Hanlon Seizes Controlling Interest in Baltimore Club.

Baltimore, Feb. 5.—The News this afternoon will say that within twenty-four hours, if plans which have been circulating for some weeks past mature, the Baltimore Eastern League baseball club will pass into the hands of Edward Hanlon, William J. Clarke and Wilbert Robinson. The assets of the present corporation have been pooled and sold to a new company, in which Mr. Hanlon will hold the majority of the stock. An option on the club has been given to Messrs. Clarke and Robinson.

This means the retirement from the club of Moses N. Frank, its president for the last five years, and Hugh Jennings, manager of the Detroit American league team.

CHURCH BURNS.

Uncompleted Christian Science Edifice at Milwaukee Gutted.

Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 5.—The Christian Science church on Prospect avenue and Kane place, which was just nearing completion, was gutted by fire today. The loss is estimated at $80,000, partly covered by insurance. The fire is believed to have started from a skunkman, which was placed in the basement for the purpose of drying the plastering.

PRAYS AND THEN ENDS LIFE.

Birmingham, Ala., Feb. 5.—After reading several chapters in the Bible and kneeling with members of his family in prayer, David Potts of East Lake, a suburb, retired to a room today and, with a shotgun, blew the top of his head off. The man was despondent for several days because of hard times.

STEALS FROM HIS PARENTS

Mike Atol Takes Money His Parents Had Saved.

Mike Atol, a Greek, 17 years of age, living with his parents in the West end, was arrested this afternoon, charged with the theft of $10 from his parents. When the boy was searched, $11.75 was found on his person, he having spent the rest of the money before his arrest. It is supposed by the police. The boy's father is sick, and the family are in destitute circumstances.

ENTRIES FRAUDULENT.

Millions of Acres of Land Stolen From the Government.

Leadville, Colo., Feb. 5.—That fully 75 per cent of the homestead entries in the Las Animas forest reserve are fraudulent was the statement made here today by Daniel E. Pitkin, of Chicago, who is in charge of the foresters of Colorado and surrounding states.

G. D. Pollock, assistant forester of the United States, in an address also asserted that millions of acres of land on the forest reserves had been stolen from the government.

Pollock said that the statements of Pitkin could be made of all the forest reserves in the country.

TRAIN WRECKED, BUT NO ONE WAS KILLED.

San Bernardino, Cal., Feb. 5.—The west bound Los Angeles limited on the San Pedro, Los Angeles and Salt Lake railroad was wrecked last night at Petty station, seven miles from Riverside and is lying in the ditch at an angle of 45 degrees. All four cars left the track. No one was killed, but a number of the passengers were injured.

Bert Barker of Elton, Wis., says: "I have only taken five doses and am done for me more than any other medicine has ever done. Mr. Barker refers to Dr. Williams' Kidney and Bladder Pills, sold by all druggists."

MEMORINEE SNOWBOUND.

Menominee, Mich., Feb. 5.—(Special to The Herald.)—The most severe snow storm in years is prevailing here today. Trains are from three to five hours late, the streets are blocked by high drifts and entrance to the city from the country is almost impossible on account of the drifts.

SLEET IN INDIANA.

South Bend, Ind., Feb. 5.—The worst sleet storm in fifteen years prevails here today. Business in South Bend, Niles, St. Joseph and Benton Harbor is practically suspended as a result.

WALKS FIVE MILES TO SCHOOL.

Philadelphia Record: While the ordinary boy is standing in line out of school hours playing, William Harris, a 9-year-old lad, who lives on Whiskey road, half a mile out of Merchantville, spends three hours every day walking to and from school. The Harris family are Catholics, and as there is no parochial school in Merchantville, he walks three miles to the city from his home and back.

There is not enough money allowed William to pay for his school and he, he would rather walk and save 50 cents a week. The lad has made many friends along the route of his daily journey, who urge him along with cheery greetings.

Work Is Progressing.

The brickwork on the addition to the auditor's office and vault at the court house is progressing rapidly. John A. Johnson, the contractor, has a large force of bricklayers at work, and with favorable weather conditions, will have the walls pretty well completed this week. The windows on the east side of the commissioners' room of which the new building will be an extension, are being bricked up, a doorway being left leading into the addition, which will be used by the county board. The prospects are that the addition will be ready for use early next month.

Judge Ousts the Devil.

Judge Cutting, special municipal judge, is called upon to do and has accomplished some wonderful things from time to time, but yesterday afternoon he capped the climax by ousting the devil from a man's head. The owner of the devil head applied to the judge for aid just as that official was about to leave his office. He complained to the court that the wicked one had entered his brain by his left ear and refused to be dislodged. Realizing that the man was suffering from hallucinations, the judge tried a ruse. He repeated a few mystic incantations and ordered the devil to depart. The trick was successful. The gentleman, with the head, smiled broadly and said that the devil was gone. He was precise in his thanks to the judge.

Belongs to County.

Itasca county is said to have a right to any ore that is discovered on the state experimental farm near Grand Rapids. The farm, comprising 40 acres, is believed to be underlain with iron ore, but this will prove of no benefit to the state, it is understood. The land was given to Minnesota on condition that it be used for state experimental farm, and should the state attempt to make use of it for other than experimental purposes it would revert to the county.

Court Sentences Blind-Picker.

Frank Shusta of Bismarck, who was arraigned this morning in the district court on the charge of running a blind pig, pleaded guilty. This afternoon Judge Shusta sentenced him to a fine of $50 and to spend 90 days in the county jail. In event Shusta fails to pay his fine the court imposed additional thirty-day jail sentence, making the term ninety days.

The body was found in a rooming house and was sent to the morgue at St. Ignace, Mich. The body will be sent to the morgue at St. Ignace, Mich. The body will be sent to the morgue at St. Ignace, Mich.

Service Was Kept Up.

The blizzard of last evening and this morning was not sufficient to the up the street railway service today. In fact, it caused but very little delay as regards the schedules of the cars. There were a few instances where the small cars on the hill runs were a little delayed by the snow, but the big cars were nearly all running right along, according to schedule. In order to prevent a crowd of ice from this morning the company had its two big snow plows running all night over all the lines making up the local system.

Damage Trial Resumed.

The trial of the personal injury case of Mrs. A. J. Campbell against the Duluth & Northwestern Railway company, which was postponed from Monday on account of the absence of one of the attorneys, was resumed in Judge Eustice's room this morning. The plaintiff claims that she was injured by a train being received while riding on a train between Cloquet and Rush City.

JEWS OF THE WORLD.

New York Sun: The "Jewish Year Book," just published in Europe, estimates the total number of Israelites in the world at about 11,851,000. Of these it locates 3,748,000 in Europe, 1,556,000 in America, 354,000 in Africa, 342,000 in Asia, and 17,000 in Australia.

The Jews of Europe are divided as follows: Russia, 5,100,000; Austria, 2,100,000; Germany, 800,000; the Balkan states, 400,000; Belgium and Holland, 105,000; France, 30,000; Italy, 40,000.

The largest Jewish populations in cities are given as: New York, 700,000; Vienna, 130,000; Berlin, 95,000; London, 80,000; and Jerusalem, 30,000.

OFFENSES AGAINST THE EYES.

Health: The first offense against the eyes is reading with a poor light. This requires the ciliary muscle to do extra work to sharpen sight. It applies to dim lights, twilight, sitting too far from the light. The second offense is one of posture—stooping or lying down congests the eyes, besides requiring unnatural work of the eye muscles.

Reading on trains is our third offense. The motion causing such frequent changes of focus and position as to tax the muscles of accommodation as well as the muscles of fixation. Reading without needed glasses or with badly fitted ones is the last. Eye strain is certainly a factor in producing disease of every part of the eye. Old age is the time of retribution for those who have sinned against their eyes.

HEALING POWER OF PINE

If you have ever taken a walk through a pine forest, you will remember how, almost unconsciously, the head was thrown back and the lungs expanded as you drew in, with long deep breaths, the glowing air, how invigorating it was—how healing!

Thousands of men and women suffering from lung and bronchial affections, but whose circumstances prevent them from seeking renewed health in the pine forests, can be relieved and cured in their own home by using Virgin Oil of Pine (pure). This preparation contains all the health-giving properties of the forest trees, and will break up a cold in 24 hours and cure any cough that is curable. It is also a perfect neutralizing agent for acid, and affords speedy relief in cases of rheumatism, lame back or other affections resulting from disordered kidneys.

Put up only in 2-ounce vials, each securely sealed in a round wooden case, the genuine always shows the name—Virgin Oil of Pine—prepared only by Leach Chemical Co., Cincinnati, O.

A GENUINE BLIZZARD

Heavy Snow Storm Will be Followed by Cold Snap.

Weather Will Clear and Some Zero Temperatures Come.

Real winter is at hand, says the weather man.

Minnesota, Iowa, Eastern Nebraska, the Dakotas and Western Canada are enjoying this beautiful fall of snow today, and the predictions are that it will be followed by a cold snap.

There has been a snow fall of from three to four inches here. North Dakota, which bore the brunt of last year's severe wintry weather, is getting the most of the snow that has been falling for the last twenty-four hours. At Moorhead, which is just across the river from North Dakota, eight inches of snow has been reported.

From one to eight inches is the amount of snow that is scheduled for the entire belt mentioned above as the recipients of the snow. It is predicted that it will keep on snowing until tonight and that as soon as it clears off, the weather will become as cold as any the Head of the Lakes has seen this winter.

This will make the hearts of the skijumpers, the coal men, the group curriers and snow shoe enthusiasts glad, but to the householders who must dig in their heels for the wherewithal to pay for the architect, this news is not quite so welcome. Still, everyone feels that a little real winter weather is to be expected after a surfeit of lukewarm days.

The present snow fall is by all odds the heaviest of the season. For the first time this winter, there are high embankments of the whiteness along the Superior street curbs.

HAVEN IN GOOD HUMOR

Has a Friendly Grin Even for Herald Reporter.

Mr. Tessman Accepts Defeat in Very Phlegmatic Manner.

A Herald reporter humbly rang the bell at Mayor-Elect Haven's home this morning, carefully scraped his feet on the door mat, and in a meek and lowly voice asked if he could see Mr. Haven.

He could.

Mr. Haven grinned. It was a friendly kind of a grin, and the reporter did not resent it. It was Mr. Haven's turn to grin.

"Well," said The Herald reporter, "And the next day it snowed," said Mr. Haven.

"Anything you want to say about election," asked the reporter.

"Nothing in particular," except to thank the boys that stood behind me. You fellows put up a great fight. We will have to concede that."

"And how about The Herald?"

"The Herald's all right," said the mayor-elect, and unceremoniously battered and ragged cigar which had survived the campaign. "The Herald isn't such a bad kind of a paper if they did buck me so hard. I haven't canceled my subscription yet, and I don't intend to."

It's all part of the game, you know. Mr. Tessman has always been a good friend of mine, and this election isn't going to put an end to that friendship. Politics often stir up bad feeling, but I bear nobody any ill will as a result of this campaign. It's not hard, you know, for a fellow who wins to be forgiving."

Mr. Tessman took his defeat in the same phlegmatic manner which he accepted his victory at the primaries. Throughout the strenuous and exciting campaign he has exuded the wonder and admiration of his fellow workers. He was looked upon as the sleepless wonder, and could apparently work ten hours a day at politics, ten hours more at his business, and show up fresh and smiling in the morning. His energy, energy, dogged persistence simply amazed his friends. He was never content, and never downcast. When he saw he was defeated last evening, he and his manager, William Smith, went over to the Haven headquarters and warmly congratulated the victor, and Mr. Smith then went home and turned in for a good night's rest. He was back at his business this morning, showing no signs of disappointment, and as cheerful as he was the day after the primaries. He had no comments to make on the outcome, except to express his regret that he had been unable to fulfill the expectations of the friends who stood behind him in the campaign, and to express his thanks to the workers who had devoted their time and energy to the fight, and to The Herald for its support of him.

He slept soundly. He must have, for the snow was initiating the blizzard scene in the pastoral drama, when he did the least into the snow bank this morning. The sudden immersion into the cold sea was discovered that you can't leave windows open in Duluth during the course of a snow storm, particularly if your window happens to face into the teeth of the wind.

Shortly before noon a force of house employees had removed the drift, and if Mr. Charles keeps his window closed until the termination of the storm, he won't have to wear rubber boots or German socks to bed.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

CLOQUET IS WIDE AWAKE

The Future of City When Lumbering is Gone is Considered.

Commercial Club is to Hustle After Other Industries.

Cloquet, Minn., Feb. 5.—(Special to The Herald.)—A very enthusiastic meeting was held in the city hall Monday evening for the purpose of organizing a new commercial club. At the meeting of a number of local business men last week, the proposition of forming a new club on the same lines as the old Commercial club was fully discussed and at Monday night's meeting officers were elected and the new club firmly set on foot. The following was the program: "Benefits of a Commercial Club," by "Cloquet," etc. etc. etc. "Advantages of a Commercial Club," by "Cloquet," etc. etc. etc. "How Can We Advance the Best Interests of the City?" by "Cloquet," etc. etc. etc.

A number addressed the assembly in a very spirited manner, and all agreed that a lively business men's organization is the only thing to produce or make known to the public the facilities of the city and county, and spoke freely for the maintenance of the new club. It is generally conceded that in a lumbering town, after the lumber has expired, the place is doomed. It is partly for the purpose of meeting this condition and inducing other manufacturers to locate here that the club has been organized.

RICH ONE SUED FOR LARGE SUM

Millionaire Paper Mill Man Charged With Causing Girl's Death.

Appleton, Wis., Feb. 5.—(Special to The Herald.)—John McNaughton, millionaire paper mill manufacturer of the Fox River valley, is being sued for $10,000 for the life of Miss Anna Stettin, killed in an accident by the McNaughton mill, driven by Roy Van Ryn, chauffeur, last summer. It is declared that the defense will be that the car was not the automobile was not the direct cause of death, but that the Stettin died of heart failure due to fright. Miss Stettin was also to board a street car when she thought the auto would strike her before she could get out of the way, so she turned and tried to reach the sidewalk, when she was knocked to the ground. She was not injured, but the car struck her and had complained of attacks, it is said, for several days before the accident. No jury sufficient to cause death was found.

FIREBUG CONFESSES

He Started Disastrous Blaze Recently in Red Wing.

Red Wing, Feb. 5.—The mystery surrounding the incendiary fire, which two or three weeks ago destroyed $50,000 worth of buildings and lumber in the yards of the Ballard-Trumble Lumber company, has been cleared up through the efforts of Detective George F. Brown of Minneapolis. Ed Carlson, aged about 22, son of Gus Carlson of this city, was taken into custody on Sunday, and later confessed to the detective that he started the fire in question. Young Carlson has been regarded somberly since that time, and in probate court yesterday he was regularly committed to the asylum at Rochester, and will take there this afternoon. It is believed he was the author of several other mysterious fires.

COURT AT BEMIDJII.

Several Matters Come Before Judge McElennan for Action.

Bemidji, Minn., Feb. 5.—(Special to The Herald.)—An adjourned term of district court convened Monday. The case of the State of Minnesota vs. Gust Ruchel charged with adultery, was dismissed on recommendation of the county attorney. The case of the State of Minnesota vs. Alex Taylor was called, and the defendant not being present, the case was dismissed on recommendation of the county attorney.

BIBLE TEACHERS MEET.

Gathering of Those of Northwest Wisconsin at Eau Claire.

Eau Claire, Wis., Feb. 5.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Northwestern Wisconsin Bible Teachers' association is in session here. A banquet was served last night and yesterday afternoon there were several addresses. Among those attending are Rev. Mr. Davis of Elk Mound, Rev. H. R. Kauten of Elk Mound, Rev. L. C. Grant of Minneapolis and Rev. H. R. Kauten of Minneapolis. Among the speakers are Rev. O. L. Robinson of Madison and Prof. W. D. Post of the University of Wisconsin. Prof. M. H. Jackson of the Grand Rapids county normal, spoke last evening.

PENINSULA BRIEFS

Houghton—While going through some of his old effects, James L. Nankervis, state commissioner of mineral statistics, discovered the plan of the village of Red Jacket which has been in his possession for almost 50 years. It is now known that Red Jacket was built by John F. Brady who was garaged by the Second National Bank of the city of March.

IS GREAT FUEL SAVER.

Internal Combustion Engine Patented by Fargo Man.

Fargo, N. D., Feb. 5.—(Special to The Herald.)—Harry W. Adams, a local inventor, has received notice from the United States patent office that he has been granted a patent upon his internal combustion engine. The invention promises to work almost a revolution in engines. It is claimed that a saving of fully 25 per cent is made in fuel and that the power of the engine is fully 10 per cent greater than that of other engines of the same weight. Philip W. Farnham of this city has been assigned a half interest in the invention. The original application for a patent was filed July 1, 1906. The patent granted is No. 873,881. Mr. Adams' friends are congratulating him upon the success of his efforts.

EDITOR'S SUDDEN CALL.

Fred Morgan of Menomonie Passes Away From the Grip.

Menomonie, Wis., Feb. 5.—Fred F. Morgan of the Dunn County News died here of the grip. The end came suddenly and the report of his death was a great shock to the community. Mr. Morgan was born at Hampton, Ill., Oct. 31, 1861, and came to Wisconsin with his wife and family in 1882, locating at Waunakee, Buffalo county. There he grew to manhood and started in newspaper work in 1884. He was editor of the Republican and Leader. In 1886 he moved to Cumberland and bought the Advocate, which he published for twelve years.

HURRAH FOR HAVEN!

Well, the election is over, and if there is anybody about the town who is sorry that the most disagreeable campaign in the history of Duluth has closed, he hasn't made himself very much in evidence this morning.

It is a clean, straight, decisive victory for Mr. Haven, for which The Herald takes pleasure in congratulating him and his campaign manager, C. E. Adams.

There isn't the slightest bit of doubt about what did it. The wave of sentiment against saloon abuses has struck Duluth, and struck it hard. It made no difference in this case that Mr. Tressman's platform was as strong on this point as it could be made; that his reputation for redeeming his pledges is the best; that he was supported by The Herald, which has always stood for good government and progress, which was the first newspaper in Duluth to denounce the saloon in politics, and which would be the last newspaper in the country to countenance turning the city over to the saloons to be used at their pleasure; all this made no difference. The people were taking no chances. They were led to believe that in some vague way there was danger of the city being dominated by the liquor interests, and even though they might admit in argument the absurdity of this fear, it was there, and, reasonably or unreasonably, it decided the election.

So far as The Herald is concerned, as it said on election day, "it will take more than a mistaken election result to stop Duluth's progress," and it will join hands with Mr. Haven and those with whom he surrounds himself in his official position in the good old den-of-elections campaign for a bigger, better and busier Duluth. It picked its candidate because it believed in him; it supported him because it believed in him, and because its faith in him was real it gave him the best support it knew how. It believes that if he had been given the chance, he would have carried out his platform of law enforcement to the letter, and the most unfortunate feature of the result is that it leaves him no way in which to prove his good faith.

The results of the aldermanic contests are particularly pleasing, but that could hardly be otherwise. Some splendid men were defeated. As a matter of fact, it has been some time since there has been, from end to end of the city, a better lot of aldermanic candidates for the people to choose from.

SUPREME COURT AND LABOR.

The decision of the United States supreme court that a boycott violates the anti-trust law is the third finding by that tribunal hostile to labor within a month. All three are important. The first defeated the employers' liability law, making railroads responsible for injuries to employees resulting from the negligence of fellow servants; the second defeated the anti-blacklist law, forbidding the discharge of employees because of their membership in unions; and now comes the decision that a boycott is in violation of the anti-trust law.

The case decided was between a firm of hatmakers in Connecticut and the members of the Hatters' union, with the American Federation of Labor practically a party through its intervention. The firm was declared unfair because it refused to employ union hatmakers, and a boycott was declared against it. This boycott, taken up by the labor forces throughout the country, affected the business of the firm materially, it is claimed.

The chief point in the defense of the union was that the boycott acts complained of were performed in the states in which they occurred, and were therefore subject to state action but not to federal action under the anti-trust law. The firm claimed that the proceeding must be taken as a whole, and the supreme court so decided, holding that while some of the means whereby the interstate traffic of the firm was injured were acts within a state and thus obviously beyond the scope of federal laws, the acts must be considered as a whole, and are thereby brought under the federal authority.

The decision cannot affect a local boycott, carried on wholly within a state, but it does apply to boycotts taken up by organized labor throughout the country and systematically exerted to injure the interstate business of an "unfair" concern.

THE VETO POWER.

The news that it is proposed in the Rhode Island legislature to give the governor of that state the veto power over legislation will be the first intimation many people have had that there is a state in the union where the governor still lacks that power.

At the beginning of the republic Massachusetts was the only state in which the governor had the veto power, but one after another followed the example set by the federal constitution, and gave the governor the veto check on legislation. A dozen years ago or so there were still four states in which the full power as to legislation rested with the legislatures; now there are but two—Rhode Island and North Carolina.

The veto power is a wholesome check. When it was first proposed, it was feared by many that it would give the executive too much power, and would disturb the proper balance between the three divisions of government. That danger was averted by the provision that while the governor may veto bills if he objects to their becoming laws, the legislature may pass these bills over the veto by a two-thirds vote, and thus make them laws whether the governor likes them or not. The veto makes it certain that the bare majority of a legislature cannot work harm without check. The provision that a two-thirds vote shall override the governor's objection makes it certain that the governor cannot work harm by abuse of the veto power.

This is not the universal rule, however. The Boston Globe has compiled statistics regarding the disposition of bills under various state constitutions, from which it appears that in sixteen states the votes of two-thirds of the members elected are necessary to override a veto, while in sixteen other states two-thirds of the members present is enough. In Minnesota the former rule applies. In seven states a majority of the members elected can repass a bill, or the same number that originally passed it, which makes the veto power practically useless. In three states, Delaware, Maryland and Nebraska, three-fifths of the members elected are necessary to repass a bill, while in Connecticut and Vermont a governor must feel very foolish when he vetoes a bill, because a mere majority of the members of the legislature present—not even a majority of the members elected—is required to override the veto. In Ohio an additional requirement is that not only must a bill have a two-thirds majority of the members elected, but that the vote shall not be less than on the first passage of the bill. In Virginia, where a two-thirds vote of the members present is required, the vote on repassage must have a majority of the members elected.

It is natural to feel that one's own state has the best method, but there are strong reasons why the states which, like Minnesota, require a two-thirds vote of all members elected, have the best way. Three-fifths is hard to get—impossible, indeed, if a party issue is involved and there is more than a feeble minority representation. To allow repassage of a bill by a majority of the members elected, or less, is to make the veto altogether useless.

A PACHYDERM PIERCED.

A dispatch to The Herald from Chicago shows that even the Pullman Palace Car company is able to sit up once in a while and take notice of what people are talking about.

While the amount involved is vastly smaller, there is no question that the thing about the Pullman company which has stirred public indignation against it more than the exorbitant dividends it has forced from travelers through unfairly high prices is the fact that it pays its employees such miserable wages that they are forced to eke out a living by contributions from the traveling public in the form of tips. The Pullman company certainly does not expect its porters to live on the picaresque pay it gives them. It knows that travelers are liberal; that most of them are willing to give a quarter or half a dollar to the porter for services which the traveler has already paid for when he bought his berth or section; and it has calmly taken advantage of this condition by cutting down the wages of its employees accordingly. That is equivalent to robbing the porter of his tips to augment already over-fat dividends; it is also equivalent to an additional charge upon the public. It is a wrong to the employees and a wrong to the public; naturally there has been much better comment upon the practice.

Apparently in response to this criticism comes the announcement that the Pullman company has distributed among its car service employees $74,850. This went to 3,770 employees who continued on the payroll without "demerits" throughout 1907. The announcement states that the gift amounts to a month's pay for each employee, which would mean $46. As this includes conductors, who get fair pay and are not dependent upon tips, it makes the average porter's wage pretty low. It also announced that the custom of granting a bonus of one month's pay each year will be continued hereafter, to all porters and conductors who make a clean record throughout the year.

This is better. It means that the Pullman company is going to divide up those tips with its porters. But it is not enough. It ought to pay every employee a living wage, and not put itself in the despicable position of sharing the profits of servility. Under the present arrangement the porter is compelled to toady for tips; the company is humiliated—or ought to be—by taking a share of this contemptible lucre, and the public is bullied into paying for its service twice. It is not fair to either company, porter or public.

TARIFF, REVENUE AND JUSTICE.

Many amazing things have been said about the tariff, but none more amazing than the recent statement of Congressman Tawney that a reduction of the tariff must inevitably reduce the government's revenues.

It is an easy thing to say, and with people that don't think, perhaps, an easy thing to believe. But the truth is that a reasonable, scientific adjustment of the tariff in the interest of the American people and of American foreign trade, would accomplish good to both of these interests, and would at the same time fully meet the nation's revenue need.

It should be remembered that a great many of the schedules in the Dingley tariff law produce no revenue because they are prohibitory. In other words, they are deliberately made so high that foreign goods cannot compete at all with American goods, the disadvantage being so great that there is no use in sending such goods to this country at all.

Therefore these schedules produce no revenues. If they are reduced so that American goods still possess an advantage equal to the difference in labor cost—which is the only fair and logical use of the protective tariff—the foreign goods may come in on terms of substantial equality, making the tariff schedules yield revenues, reducing the cost of the goods, both foreign and domestic, to the American consumer, while still leaving the American manufacturer all that he is entitled to have—a fair profit.

Again, it is well known that many of the schedules of the Dingley law cover goods which it would be to our advantage to invite into this country, because their cordial reception here would mean the equally cordial reception of our own goods of other sorts in the countries thus favored. In other words, by opening our doors to foreign goods that we do not make, we can make a trade whereby we can profitably sell our own goods that the other countries do not produce in markets now guarded against us by retaliatory tariffs.

Three things the tariff can be made to do: to protect American manufacturers by overcoming the difference in labor cost of foreign goods, thus enabling our manufacturers to meet this competition profitably; to arrange reciprocal trade arrangements profitable to both parties; and to produce the revenue the country from this source.

The present tariff, with its prohibitory schedules, enables American trusts, under the guise of "protection," to levy unfair tribute upon the American people; creates retaliatory tariffs hostile to our interests and destructive of the mutual trade arrangements necessary to worldwide prosperity; and either fails to yield as much revenue as a scientific tariff law would produce or piles up a large surplus in the treasury at the expense of the people.

It has been so long since the morning paper was on the winning side that it is small wonder that it did not know how to act under the circumstances of victory.

HOTEL GOSSIP.

"I have read somewhere the president is going to appeal directly to the people if congress refuses to make any progress with the suggestions he has embodied in his messages," said L. A. Blakely at the St. Louis yesterday. It is only in line with the general trend of the times, for politics, both municipal and national are changing from boss and corporate rule to the direct rule of the masses. Party lines in many states are being obliterated and the people are beginning to vote as they think, not according to the dictation of party or boss rule.

"It was not so many years ago when you will find the majority of men voting the way they have figured out for themselves. At the present time politics as well as our business life is undergoing a great change. From the conditions of yesterday we are passing into the time when individuality is being the dominant note that is sounded by the people and the representatives of the people. Through the magazines and books, that have taken up the question of corporate domination and other phases of the problem, we have been given at least an insight into the secret workings of the powers that in the past have kept the masses in ignorance and in the cities of the country. This campaign exposing the methods of trusts, bosses and the secret workings of both houses of congress seems to be bearing the fruit of a marked year. The people are beginning to see the light, but the exposing of methods that are being exposed to the will of the people is bound to result in time in a change in the present system. The change taken up the suggestion of corruption in politics. This widespread notoriety given to the subject has set the masses of the country to thinking. They are beginning to cast aside the slogans of party leadership and accept the belief that they have come to by their own investigation. The candidate and his principals have in many recent cases overidden party lines. This is significant. It means that the time of hard and fast party voting is slowly passing and the time of the golden age of politics, where the will of the people was to be a pretty political phrase; now it is beginning to be heard in real earnest. It is heard from the coast of Maine to the southern line of California. It represents the new era, where the people are electing men they believe are honest and are being shown united to serve the office given them by the people. President Roosevelt has appealed more directly to the people than any other president, and this is because he is serving office in their eyes, where the people are beginning to take a more interest in government, and is because he has read aright the portent of this knowledge. "I believe the time is coming when the people will be able to give a more full and explicit account to their constituents than they do at present. Slowly the people are demanding that they be served in government, and the politician must be slow in being crystallized into action, but the time is coming. SPORTS OF THE DAY

NO MEETING FOR A TIME O. F. TAKES FIFTH RACE

Northern League Mag-nates Are Holding Off for Developments.

Crookston May be Substituted for Grand Forks in Plans.

The magistrates of the proposed new Northern league are anxious to get their organization. Winnipeg is the center of activity and Lamb and Purdon are working industriously to get things in shape for starting officers, sending the towns into a circuit and getting the schedule drafted.

The Winnipeg men were anxious to hold a meeting next Monday at Fargo, but Duluth put a staying hand on the proposition. The superior plans are not completed yet, there is still possibility that the Twin Cities will be included and there is some question as to whether Grand Forks or Crookston will be a member of the league from that district. It is felt that a meeting for the organization would not be advisable at this time, and nothing will be done until the league can be formed, the district divided up and a committee appointed, all at one meeting.

A meeting of the American association will be held in Chicago next Saturday and Sunday and then the question of the Northern league entering the circuit will be definitely decided. An effort will be made by St. Paul and Minneapolis men to win the league of Champions in line and, if this can be secured, the Twin Cities will be included in the Northern league.

At a meeting of the baseball enthusiasts at Grand Forks, Minn., last night, a plan was adopted to hold a meeting at Fargo, Minn., on Monday, Feb. 10, to discuss the proposed league. It was decided that the meeting should be held at Fargo, Minn., on Monday, Feb. 10, to discuss the proposed league. Elliott & Runquist's Gelding Covers Ice Track in Fast Time.

Maggie Medium Sets Pace and Threatens the Winner.

With Maggie Medium threatening him every foot of the way during the two heats, O. F. Elliott & Runquist's gelding, won the fifth race of the Henderson cup series on the ice track at the foot of Twentieth avenue west yesterday. In the first heat, which was won by an eye-lash, he clipped 1 1/2 seconds off the track record, going the half mile in 1:04. The second heat was won almost in as fast time and the two were the fastest heats raced on the track this year.

Nearly 1,000 people saw the race and they were given a fine exhibition. After leaving the wire, Maggie Medium broke away in front, with O. F. Elliott & Runquist's gelding, won the fifth race of the Henderson cup series on the ice track at the foot of Twentieth avenue west yesterday. In the first heat, which was won by an eye-lash, he clipped 1 1/2 seconds off the track record, going the half mile in 1:04. The second heat was won almost in as fast time and the two were the fastest heats raced on the track this year.

Duluth ski enthusiasts may be forced to back up on the claim that Duluth has the longest hill in the United States. A press dispatch sent out from Hudson, Wis., naively conveys the information that Hudson has the longest hill, and that the hill has been broken in the tournament of the Hudson Ski club, Feb. 22.

It is unlikely of Hudson to thus try to divert interest to the little affair down in St. Croix county, Wis., but Hudson has some right to swell up if the statements are correct. It claims to have a hill 100 feet long, with an angle, which will send the riders far out into the air for hitherto unheard of jumps.

The Hudson enthusiasts neglect to say whether their hill is artificial or natural, and the assumption is that it is natural. The hill is 100 feet long, is still able to claim the greatest hill of its kind in the country. It is a heavy, but Duluth people must be shown that a rider can jump farther than it can be seen on the artificially constructed artificial slide on Chester hill.

Hudson has its 400-foot hill, and will have its tournament, Feb. 22. But the riders who gather here next week will find the finest hill they have ever undertaken to negotiate, and will be forced to break records to take down the money. All American records will go up in smoke next week, and if, after the national tournament, any American makes a better record, the riders will give some great performances.

BOER LOOMS UP LIKE CHAMPION One-Time Dub Has Better of Battling Nelson in Bout.

Los Angeles, Feb. 5.—Rudolph Unholz had the better of Battling Nelson in a ten-round go before the Pacific Athletic club here last night. Under the city ordinance no decision could be given, but there was no doubt about the result. The Boer had the best of every round in the matter of blows exchanged. He punished Nelson considerably and had him bleeding at the nose and mouth almost from the start. He landed a right hand down in the first round with a lightning left to the point of the jaw.

Unholz seemed to be a puzzle to Nelson, but his efforts availed him little. He hit repeatedly, but Unholz, fighting with his left shoulder high to protect his head and chin, escaped punishment almost altogether.

Going to Coleraine.

Grand Rapids, Minn., Feb. 5.—(Special to The Herald.)—A large delegation of the citizens of this village are planning upon driving to Coleraine and being the opening of Feb. 6 to be present at the third annual tournament of the Tassie Ski club, to be held on the hill overlooking the town.

If the pleasant weather continues, the liveliness of the town will do a good business on that day.

S.S.S. REMOVES BLOOD HUMORS

Itching, disfiguring eruptions, rashes, boils, etc., as well as pimples, black-heads and rough, scaly skin, show the presence of some irritating humor in the blood. These acids and humors with which the blood is infected are being constantly thrown off through the pores and glands of the skin, and the flesh is kept in an inflamed, diseased and unsightly condition. Nothing applied externally can change the condition of the blood, or prevent the outflow of these burning acids, only constitutional treatment can do this. Washes, lotions, etc., cannot reach the humor-laden blood, and are therefore useless, except for the temporary comfort and cleanliness they afford. The acid poison in the blood must be removed before a cure can be effected. S. S. S. is a real blood purifier, possessing all the requirements necessary to neutralize and remove the humors from the circulation. It completely eradicates every trace of impurity and restores the blood to its natural healthy state. S. S. S. cools the acid-heated blood so that instead of pouring out acid from the skin, it feeds and nourishes it with health-sustaining properties, and then the eruptions and diseases of the skin pass away. Book on Skin Diseases, and any medical advice free.

Manila, they introduced the game. As members of Company G, Third Minnesota volunteers, they played the game within the walls of Manila prison.

They gave as their reason for disbanding the fact that they are all prosperous business men and cannot leave Red Wing to play games. They will quit with their record untarnished, and though they do not even claim the championship of the Northwest, none will deny that the five men form the most remarkable basketball team the country has ever known.

The movement to make the afternoon of Lincoln's birthday a half holiday in Duluth, Minn., has been given up. Duluth is to celebrate the first time the National Ski association, which is making it popular in this district of snow.

The national ski tournament is an event not to be passed off as insignificant. With the stimulus of many competitors, and the necessity of greater effort to win prizes, the jumpers put their best work into the national tournament. The jumpers are more spectacular than at the little club affairs, where the competition is not as keen. With skiing taking firm hold in scores of cities and towns throughout the Northwest, Duluth may not have an opportunity to entertain the national tournament for many years to come. If the citizens show a desire to boost the game, an interest in its advancement and appreciation of the right to have the national tournament in the city, its chances of securing it again soon will be much brighter, and the merchant who falls in with the plan of closing business next Wednesday afternoon will lose nothing by it.

LONGBOAT TO APPEAL.

Indian Wants to Run in Olympian Games at London.

New York, Feb. 5.—Tom Longboat, the Indian long distance runner, who is under suspension by the Amateur Athletic union, is coming to New York. It is said, for the purpose of appealing to the committee of the union for reinstatement. Longboat has never seemed to understand the union's rule, and his action as a member of the Canadian Olympic team makes it necessary for him to be reinstated by the union before he can compete in the games in London next summer.

Indian Wants to Run in Olympian Games at London.

New York, Feb. 5.—Tom Longboat, the Indian long distance runner, who is under suspension by the Amateur Athletic union, is coming to New York. It is said, for the purpose of appealing to the committee of the union for reinstatement. Longboat has never seemed to understand the union's rule, and his action as a member of the Canadian Olympic team makes it necessary for him to be reinstated by the union before he can compete in the games in London next summer.

The Above are in Addition to Bargains Advertised in Last Night's Herald!

Great Britain, at the London Olympic games in 1908, are not true. The question of the acceptance of the American collegians' challenge has not yet been decided. A meeting of the Oxford union will be held soon to consider the question.

It is believed the challenge of the Americans will be declined owing to the fact that the British would be experienced in selecting a suitable team and the fact that the athletes from the United States would be training by Easter, and it would be difficult for them to keep it up until July, the time of the proposed meet.

HARRIS BOOKED FOR TWO BOUTS

Duluth Wrestler Will Meet Young Miller and Sutter.

Mauritz Harris has taken a big contract for this week's end. Friday night, at the Metropolitan Opera house, he will undertake to throw Young Miller, a St. Paul lightweight, who is said to have handled the other lightweights of the world as he would so many leading bas. Saturday night he will go to Frodoon, and will throw 99 on the mat to a draw at the 'Met' some weeks ago.

Harris is a native of St. Paul, and is a member of the St. Paul Police force. He is a Mongolian streak in his complexion. He's a beauty on defensive, though, and Fractor sports will see a match.

BANK BOWLERS DROP TWO MORE

Oak Halls Show Better Form in Postponed Match.

The Oak Hall and First National Bank teams of the Duluth City Bowling league met last night in a postponed match, the clothing men winning two out of three games and losing one by only one point. All of the games were close and well played. Ashley of the National Bank team got high score with 229 and high average with 20.

The score of the games follows:

BRITONS DECLINE.

Intercollegiate Meet for England Will Not Go Through.

New York, Feb. 5.—Advices received here yesterday from England indicate that the proposed international track and field meet between teams representing the colleges of Great Britain and this country, following the Olympic games in London next summer has been abandoned.

"Insurmountable difficulties," it is said to be the reason given for the Oxford and Cambridge athletic clubs in declining the challenge issued recently by the Inter-Collegiate Association of Amateur Athletics of America.

Young Ogilvy Signed.

Minneapolis, Feb. 5.—Billy Ogilvy, youngest brother of Andy Ogilvy, the Minneapolis shortstop, has signed for a year as shortstop for the Indianapolis club.

Neighborhood Favorite.

Mrs. E. D. Charles of Harbor, Maine, speaking of Electric Bitters, says: "It is a neighborhood favorite here with us. It deserves to be a favorite everywhere. It gives relief in dyspepsia, liver complaint, kidney derangement, malnutrition, nervousness, weakness and general debility. Its action on the blood, as a purifier, makes it especially useful in skin diseases. This grand alternative tonic is sold under guarantee at all drug stores, 60c.

Freshmen and Sophomores Will Meet Friday Night.

The Freshmen and Sophomores of the Interclass Basketball league will meet at the boys' department of the Y. M. C. A. in their first contest Friday night and the basketball enthusiasts of the high school are taking great interest in the game. In their match with the Juniors the sophomores showed good form, but the freshmen are

IS STRANGE, BUT TRUE

People Taking Less Doctors' Medicine—Now Treat Themselves.

How to Find Out if the Kidneys Are Affected and What to Do.

There are more cases of kidney trouble here now than ever before, while recent reports show that more people succumb each year to the form of kidney disease than any other cause.

When there is sickness, examine the urine. If it contains only a symptom of kidney trouble. It is nothing more or less than excessive uric acid in the blood, which the sluggish, inactive kidneys have failed to sift out, leaving it to decompose and settle about the joints and muscles, causing intense suffering; often reaching the heart when death ensues.

Pains across the back, frequent painful and suppressed urination and other symptoms of weak bladder are not the only signs of kidney trouble; many cases of stomach disease, headache, pain in the heart, inactive liver, etc., are but symptoms; the cause of which can be traced to feeble, clogged kidneys.

A simple test of the urine is to void a small quantity in a bottle or glass and let it stand over night; next morning, if there is a reddish brick-dust sediment or white, fleecy substance present, either consult some reputable physician or take a good vegetable treatment. The following prescription is recommended highly in these cases, and the sufferer should mix it at home. Compound Kargon, one ounce; Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well and use in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime.

Where any of the symptoms enumerated above are present, good results are sure to follow immediately the use of this simple prescription.

WASCEA'S STRENUOUS DAY. Wascega, Minn., Feb. 5.—(Special to The Herald.)—A burning chert, glowing in close proximity to several loaded tanks, caused considerable fire in the Chicago & Northwestern yards, and called out the fire department, while the 20-barrel water tank at the roundhouse broke and burst, flooding the place with water and giving the section crew a solid day of chopping. Altogether, it was a strenuous day for Wascega.

BANKER BAUMBACH DEAD.

Formerly Lived at Wadena and Interested in Several Banks.

Grand Rapids, Minn., Feb. 5.—(Special to The Herald.)—A message has been received here telling briefly of the death in Oklahoma City, Okla., of C. W. Baumbach, a well known banker of Wadena and formerly in banks in that city, Bemidji, New York Mills and here.

The deceased succeeded to heart disease with which he had been afflicted for some time. Since going south he had been connected with the bankers' trust company at Ardmore, Okla., and since that concern liquidated, moved to Oklahoma City. He was a son of Hon. W. R. Baumbach of Wadena and the body will be brought here for interment.

RECENT ARRIVAL KILLED.

Iowa Man Fatally Injured by Falling Tree Near Hibbing.

Hibbing, Minn., Feb. 5.—(Special to The Herald.)—The body of William A. Buchanan, who died at the Rood hospital Monday night, has been shipped to his former home in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Mr. Buchanan came to a farm, twelve miles from Hibbing, last fall, being a son-in-law of F. S. Berde, of Cedar Rapids, who is interested in bringing Iowa land into this section. A few days ago, while working on a tree, he was struck by the falling tree and fractured his skull. He never regained consciousness. A wife and one child survive.

Eveleth, Minn., Feb. 5.—(Special to The Herald.)—At last night's meeting of the city council, the appointment of Charles McDougall as assistant chief, and John Barton as driver, was confirmed. Their salaries were fixed at $5 per month. The salary of the janitor at the city hall was raised to $5 per month during the winter months. The petition for a raise in their salaries, but nothing was done in their favor. The communication from the Business Men's association, asking the council to adopt the municipal court act, was read. The resolution was put on the table until such time as the council could confer with the city attorney as to the advisability of the move.

A motion was passed to refer the suit now pending between Dowling Bros. and the city of Eveleth into the hands of a

MORRIS MARKOWSKI WALKS IN FRONT OF STREET CAR.

Had Just Been Refused Money to Buy Drink.

Refused aid by members of his race, because his habits no longer entitled him to their assistance, Morris Markowski, an aged Jew, committed suicide last night by jumping in front of a westbound Superior street car, near the Central police station.

Markowski had been in Duluth for some years and was known to have been addicted to the use of liquor. Last night he applied to M. Welner, a clothing merchant at a small establishment, near the city hall, on Superior street, for money.

Feeling that the old man wanted the money with which to purchase liquor, the clothing merchant refused the request. "All right," said Markowski, "you don't need to help me any more."

And with that he walked out into the street and directly in front of the fast-moving car. When it was within a few feet of him, Markowski, the old man, gave a signal, to which the pedestrian paid no attention.

In vain the motorman tried to stop the car before it struck the man, but the rails were slippery and a corner of the car hit Markowski, who fell in a heap. He was carried to the police station, where he was found to be bleeding profusely from a wound at the base of the skull. Physicians were summoned, but the old man survived but a few minutes. He did not recover consciousness after the car struck him.

While Markowski gave no intimation that he contemplated suicide except for a few moments, it is thought that he deliberately walked in front of the car, with the idea of ending his life.

The motorman whose car hit the old man, declares that he was walking very slowly and had plenty of time to get out of harm's way had he chosen to do so. Either he did not hear the repeated signals or the noise of the car or he intended that it should crush his life out.

Markowski was about sixty years of age and was a peddler. For the past seven years he had made his home in Duluth. It is said that he leaves a wife and five children in Chicago.

The body was removed to Durkan & Crawford's undertaking rooms.

the principals or their solicitors and that it is not likely to be discussed.

The brevity of the proceedings came as a surprise to everybody except those who had followed the case from the beginning. The trial should be short was arranged when the application was made last week for the trial and the counsel then undertaking not to occupy more than one hour of the government's time. The fact that at a council of the family of the Earl of Yarmouth it was decided not to defend the action of the countess, made this possible.

These charges from the previous determination to contest the case is said to have been influenced by the evidence given by the New York Herald trial of Harry K. Thaw, brother of the countess, for the murder of Stanford White, with regard to insanity in the Thaw family, as well as the verdict of the jury that Harry Thaw was insane when he committed this crime.

The papers in the case are being kept secret, and all information regarding the nature of the charges has been carefully guarded. The government was made, however, that the character of the medical evidence to be given made a public hearing inadvisable.

Domestic Life Unhappy.

It has been well known for two years past that the domestic affairs of the Yarmouths were unhappy. The Earl's companions and his manner of living, it was said, were such that he could not give his wife the place in society which she had a right to expect. He was supposed to have means of money to support her in the extravagance, and her friends say that she has conducted herself with dignity throughout the trial, and the difficulties of her brother, Harry Kendall Thaw.</

SPOILS OF THE VICTORS

List of Probable Appointments of the Mayor-Elect.

C. S. Wilson is Slated for Office of City Attorney.

PROBABLE APPOINTMENTS OF MAYOR-ELECT HAVEN.

Chief of police—C. H. Troyer.
City attorney—Coryate S. Wilson.
First assistant city attorney—C. E. Adams.
Second assistant attorney—E. M. Morgan.
Assessor—Thomas Olafson.
Health commissioner—Dr. W. H. Salter.
Private secretary—James Wharton.

The election of Roland D. Haven to the mayoralty chair brings up the question of appointments and the time between now and March 1, when he will take office and make his appointments, will be given over to speculation among those interested. It is certain the appointments of Mayor Haven's administration, now occupying the offices in the city hall, will be turned out upon the cold world, and their places filled by true and tried adherents to republican principles and the new mayor. This action is expected by the present officeholders and the speculation will take a turn, not as to who is to be displaced, but who is to be appointed.

The list given above is the most logical deduction from a survey of the situation. Every one of the probable appointments has been an energetic worker for the cause of Roland D. Haven and would probably be acceptable to the Republicans of the city. Last qualifications fit them for the offices. Mr. Haven is very friendly to them and, unless the new mayor should insert the knife into his friends' list of appointments March 1 will read just about as that given.

Chief Troyer's place seems to be assured in any event. His administration of the affairs of the police department has been such as to win public confidence and the mayor is likely to how to it.

C. S. Wilson, the retiring alderman from the First ward, will very likely supplant Bert Fesler as city attorney. Mr. Fesler has been a very capable and familiar with municipal affairs, together with his good work in the cause of R. D. Haven and the other Republican candidates in the campaign just closed, commended him to the majority and made his appointment acceptable.

D. J. McKee's place as criminal prosecutor for the city is open to Charles E. Adams. Mr. Adams' campaign manager, Mr. Haven, has been a faithful worker and it is believed the appointment will be made for the new position of assistant city attorney for civil affairs. E. M. Morgan is said to be slated.

City Engineer Thomas F. McGilvray will very likely be succeeded by W. B. Patton, city engineer under Mayor Haven's administration. Building Inspector M. Kelly will be displaced by George Miller and Assessor W. L. Jackson by Thomas Olafson.

Dr. W. H. Salter, a veteran physician of the city and a good Republican, will probably be put in charge of the health commissioner's office, succeeding Dr. D. J. Murray. Mayor Haven's private secretary, Mr. Wharton, has been Haven's leader in the First ward during the campaign and did valiant work for the cause.

The Jumping Off Place.
"Commencement had me in its grasp; and I had almost reached the jumping off place when I was asked to try Dr. King's New Discovery; and I want to say right now, it saved my life. would run it as Mr. Tesson's political backers—the same old liquor dealers—would direct. This absurd story was denied by both Mr. Tesson and Mr. Brady, but it stuck, and would not down. It doubtless cost Mr. Tesson many votes.

But, to use the expression of Contractor P. McDonnell, "she was a bumbler."

Analysis of Vote.
An analysis of the vote is interesting. Mr. Tesson carried the four central wards of the city, the Second, Third, Fourth and Fifth, while Mr. Haven carried the other four. The First and Seventh wards turned the trick for Mr. Haven. In the First ward the Tesson forces were simply snowed under. It was conceded to Haven by a big plurality, but the Tesson workers hoped to hold this plurality down to 400. It ran 550. Always a strong Republican ward, it was abnormally so this year. Mr. Haven polled the full Republican vote there, and also had the support of many friends of Mayor Cullum, who had not quite forgiven Mr. Tesson for defeating the mayor at the primaries.

Out in the Seventh ward Mr. Haven also showed his strength. He carried his own ward by 321 votes, whereas the Tesson followers hoped for about an even break there, allowing Mr. Haven at the outside 100 votes to the good. The sixth and eighth also ran just a little stronger for Mr. Haven than had been expected. The Tesson workers looked for about an even break in these two wards, and fully expected to carry one of them at least. The sixth, however, gave Mr. Tesson a plurality of 138 and the eighth gave him 140.

On the other hand the vote in the uptown wards was a disappointment. They did not roll up the plurality for Mr. Tesson that was needed to overcome the big Haven vote in the First and Seventh wards. The Fourth ward was the only one that did anywhere near what was expected of it. It gave Mr. Tesson a plurality of 230, but even this was hardly as much as was counted on. The Third, Mr. Tesson's home ward, fell down. Many who had been registered in this ward failed to get out and vote, and Mr. Tesson carried it by 136.

The Fifth ward did well. It was not counted on for a big vote, and the Tesson forces did not expect to do much more than break even. They did as well as expected.

Mr. Tesson ran just a little behind what was expected of him, and Mr. Haven was just a little stronger than was expected to be.

Mr. Tesson Speaks.
The crowd at Democratic headquarters was naturally somewhat downcast when the returns began to come in. The returns were discouraging from the first, and it was soon seen that Mr. Haven was running just enough ahead of what was expected of him to win out. Finally, when there was no longer any doubt, Mr. Tesson mounted a chair and announced that he was beaten. He thanked the workers for their support and their efforts in his behalf, and stated that he realized that they had done their best for him."

Chairman "Billy" Smith Explains.
The famous S. I. O. U. from which the News Tribune tried to make a scandal, he stated that the campaign funds were exhausted last week, and they had no money to pay the ward workers who had been hired, and who were taking their time away from their other business to help Mr. Tesson. Mr. Smith had a considerable sum wagered on the outcome of the election, and he stated that he was willing to pay out whatever he won to the workers. The notes, therefore, read, "In case of Mr. Tesson's election."

Mr. Smith explained that since Mr. Tesson was defeated the S. I. O. U. were worthless.

At Republican headquarters there was a big and well pleased crowd. Mr. Haven and his manager, C. E. Adams, went down to the city hall to hear the official returns, and as soon as it was seen that Mr. Haven was elected, he was called to the council chamber and compelled to make a speech before the big crowd assembled there. He thanked them all for their support, assured them that he would work for a bigger and better city, and said that he forgave The Herald.

The Ward Fights.
The most sensational fight in the city, and the one which divided interest with the majority race, was that between J. L. Cromwell and George Bloedel in the Second ward. The vote was a tie, each candidate getting 720 votes. Mr. Bloedel carried three of the four precincts, but Cromwell's big vote in the second precinct was sufficient to offset the other three, and the official vote shows a dead heat. It will be necessary to settle the affair by lot, and chance will decide who will be the next alderman of the Second ward. Mr. Cromwell was the so-called "lid" candidate in this ward, having the support of the Civic League.

Charles L. Rakowski, League man in the Third ward, was defeated by Frank Jordan, the present alderman from the Third after a close fight. Mr. Jordan had but forty-seven plurality, running behind Mr. Tesson's vote in this ward. In the Fourth ward Thomas Trevillion, as was expected, romped home a rather easy winner, carrying every precinct and having a plurality of 173. "You can't beat Tom Trevillion in the Fourth," is getting to be an axiom in ward politics.

In the Fifth ward John Hogan won handsily, having a plurality of 109 over Lyle S. Meader, the Civic League candidate.

In the Sixth ward Charles Mork, the Democrat, was defeated largely owing to the failure of the Civic League to stand by him. He was known as a law enforcement alderman throughout his term, but he did not get the support of the League in his campaign, and was defeated. His opponent, Peter Olson, had the endorsement of the Civic League.

In the Seventh ward J. J. Moe won out of the big plurality, although he ran somewhat behind Mr. Haven's vote in the ward, owing to the personal popularity of his opponent, Frank Schaffer. In the Eighth ward Mr. Cromwell, his former defeated Rev. W. J. Lowrie in the election of the Civic League; McKnight, Olson and Moe.

The new council will be evenly divided in politics if Mr. Cromwell wins out, and will be nine to seven Democratic.

The children's laxative—Cascarets. Candy tablets, pleasant to take, gentle in their effects. Throw out the old-time physics.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the physic that mother insisted on once in a while—castor oil, salts or cathartics. How you hated them. How you fought against taking them. How you dreaded their after-effects. That was all wrong, but then nobody knew better.

With our children it's different. They belong to the day of the gentle in medicine. The day of harsh physics is over. We don't force the bowels now; we coax them. We have no dreaded after-effects. And the dose is a candy tablet.

ACTION ON LICENSES

Is Awaited With Much Interest in West
Duluth.

One Saloon Keeper Gives His Version of the Case.

The action to be taken on the saloon license of Theodore Epper, 5629 Grand avenue, and William Mulligan, 5714 Grand avenue, is creating a great deal of interest throughout West Duluth, and a strong effort will be made to revoke both licenses.

Whether or not they will be allowed to retain their licenses will be decided by the city council Monday evening.

Jim Mulligan, had been bartender for Epper for one week only. Mr. Epper claims. He asserts that the two girls came into his saloon alone and were joined later by the two men. He sold them only two rounds of drinks, the older woman taking a drink of water and the girl two glasses of beer.

Epper says he had given Mulligan strict orders not to sell liquor to minors nor keep open after hours. He also claims that he never sold a drink to a drunken man.

Mulligan says he did not like having the two men and girls in the saloon, and so when the men said they were broke and wanted to borrow money, he lent them $1 on the condition they would leave the place.

From Epper's, it is said, they went to William Mulligan's saloon. That is Mr. Epper's version of the story, which will be told to the council Monday night.

The Epper license has expired and whether it will be renewed or not will be considered next Monday evening at the meeting of the city council. William Mulligan's license will also be considered then and it is probable that it will be revoked.

MR. LOWRIE SATISFIED.

Says He Was Defeated by the Saloon Vote.

Rev. W. J. Lowrie, who was defeated by J. E. Foubister for the aldermanic honors in the Eighth ward, said this morning in regard to his defeat, "I received a good vote, even though I did not get a majority. It showed me

PLANS FOR NEW STATION

Police Quarters in West End to be of Modern Construction.

Two-Story Brick and Stone Building is Contemplated.

The plans and specifications for the new west end police station to be erected on the south side of Superior street between Nineteenth and Twentieth avenues west, have been placed on file in the office of the board of public works for the convenience of the contractors, who wish to bid on the work. They call for a two-story brick and stone building, 45 ft. 8 in. by 25 ft. 2 in., the walls from the grade to the first story window sill to be of Bedford stone with smooth face, the superstructure to be of brick, and all copings, keystones, etc., also of Bedford stone. The interior woodwork will be of yellow pine.

The building will be divided into two parts, the front part to contain the offices and officers' quarters, and the rear part the two parts and heavy steel doors will be hung in the openings. The front part will be 10 ft. 10 in. by 25 ft. 2 in., and the back part 25 ft. 10 in. by 20 ft. 1 in., the angle to be on the east side of the building.

The front part of the first floor will be divided into a vestibule and hall at the entrance on the east side, an office, 12 ft. 8 in. by 9 ft. 2 in. The office will be provided with a concrete and steel vault.

All of the front part of the second floor will be given over to the officers' quarters with suitable lockers, etc. In the rear of the first floor will be a cell room. The women's and children's department will be on the second floor in the rear. The cell rooms will all be provided with concrete floors.

The basement will consist of so as to provide a store room, furnace room, etc. Clyde W. Kelly prepared the plans.

Bids for the new station will be opened Feb. 14, and if the lowest bid is within the council appropriation of $100,000 the building, the contract will be awarded immediately.

WITH SEAT FOR STAKE

Aldermanic Candidates
Might be Induced to Play "Smear."

Council Determines Manner of Deciding Second Ward Tie.

The tie in the Second ward, where James L. Cromwell and George J. Bloedel, the candidates for alderman, each received 720 votes, creates an interesting situation. Only once previously in the history of the city, as far as is known, did such a result come of an election and then the two candidates drew lots, and the winner took the seat in the council.

The charter provides that when two or more candidates receive an equal number of votes for the same office, the election shall be determined by the casting of lots in the presence of the common council at such a time and in such a manner as the council shall direct.

The charter provision gives the council ample leeway. They may have the two candidates pull straws, cut cards, toss coins or play any other game of chance, with the seat in the council as the stake. The fight in the Second ward was warmly waged and interest was taken in it all through the city, so that the result of the lot will be awaited with interest by thousands.

There is a possibility that a contest will come out of the affair. The customary procedure in all such cases is to hold the casting of lots before any action is taken by either candidate. Then, if the defeated candidate so chooses, he may go before the court and demand a recount of the votes. If his position is looked upon favorably, a commission is appointed by the court to go over the ballots of the ward and look for errors in the original tally. If the tally is incorrect, the elected man takes his place, regardless of the outcome of the lot before the council.

Renew Your Insurance.

GETS DAMAGES FOR KNIFE WOUND

Nick Tervola Must Pay
John Hagelberg the Sum of $250.

Because he used a knife too freely in a boarding house on St. Croix avenue early on the morning of Dec. 28, Nick Tervola, who is now serving eighty days in the county jail for assault, must also pay John Hagelberg, the victim, $250.

Hagelberg's suit against Tervola for $250, the amount of the damages of the knife wound, came up for trial in municipal court this morning. The case was not represented, and after hearing the evidence, Judge Windom entered judgment for the amount of the damages claimed.

Hagelberg was the proprietor of the boarding house, where Tervola was a boarder on the night of Dec. 27. The men in the place were drinking all evening, and shortly after midnight Hagelberg tried to have them go to bed. Tervola resented Hagelberg's action and, in support of his protest, pulled a knife and lunged at the proprietor's head, almost from the neck to the elbow.

Tervola was arrested the same morning, charged with assault in the second degree, and given a straight jail sentence of eighty days.

Hagelberg still bears the mark of the affray and exhibited it in court this morning. A deep, wide streak was evidence that he had received an injury, and the court thought the amount asked none too great for the damage sustained.

T. J. McKee represented the plaintiff.

FOREIGN OFFICE KNOWS NOTHING OF BIG BATTLE.

Paris, Feb. 5.—The foreign office is without confirmation of the statement published yesterday by London newspapers that there had been a battle between the French and the Moors near Sétif, Morocco, in which 10,000 Moors were killed or wounded, the French losses amounting to 190 men. It is believed that the report refers to the recent engagement near Kasbah der Rohid in which eight Frenchmen were killed and fifty wounded. Further reports of this fight show that no less than 600 Arabs were killed by the French.

A Hat on Haven!

If you won one, make it a Columbia Hat. Haven was strictly in it when the votes were counted, and the earth will go on revolving in the same old way with Duluth in the zenith and still rising.

And then it snowed! By special arrangement we received a large early shipment of our Knapp-Felt Hats for spring, 1908, in time for furnishing Hats on Haven.

Our new "Gordon" Hats also arrived today. And forthwith a blizzard descended upon the city—but we have warm caps and good overshoes as well as spring hats.

WANTING MONEY.

Chicago News.—"There's a cloud upon your youthful brow again, I notice, Johnny," remarked the cashier. "I'm very sorry to see it—very sorry. It grieves me more than I can tell you. I can't begin to express—"

"Oh, cut it out," said the bill clerk. "You give me a weariness."

"Alas! How little it takes to produce that effect upon you!" said the cashier. "When I was your age I hardly knew what it was to get tired."

"You didn't have a slack-jawed smart aleck shut in with you all day long, my youthful brow alone. It's nothing to you whether there's clouds or sunshine on it."

"Discontent in a young man like you is a particular bad sign," said the cashier. "Why should you be discontented? You seem to have good health and most of the necessities of life. You have all of them in fact, or you wouldn't be alive. I know what the trouble is with you, if you will allow me the freedom of telling you."

"You wouldn't take it, I suppose, if I didn't allow you," said the bill clerk. "I'll tell you: You wait till 6 o'clock and I'll see if I can't give you a written permit."

"You feel abused because you can't see what the rich in their luxurious mode of living, that's what's ailing you," said the cashier. "You want to engage a box at the theater instead of being content with orchestra seats. As a matter of fact, you can see just as much of the play from your $3 position as you could in a less humble one, and the presumption is that the young lady with you enjoyed herself just as much."

"Did you want to preserve these as souvenirs of the occasion, Johnny?" the cashier spread out two seat coupons on the desk in front of him. "I think you dropped these," he said.

"You can have them," said the bill clerk.

"Thanks," said the cashier, putting the coupons in his pocket. "I'll take them along and drop them carelessly when I go to lunch. I'd like to give my friends the impression that I can do the thing up in style if I want to. The only danger is that they might want to borrow money from me. I don't suppose you felt able to pay more than $5 for a little repeat after the show?"

"You're darned right I didn't," said the cashier. "Why feel bad about it?" Inquired the cashier. "You showed that you were willing to do the best you could and that's all a millionaire could do under the same circumstances. I suppose when a millionaire takes a young woman and her chaperon to a supper after the show all he gets for it, even after he's ordered regardless and tipped the waiter a $2 bill, is the assurance that a lovely time has been had. You got that, didn't you?"

"None of your business," answered the bill clerk.

"Why so painfully brusque?" Inquired the cashier. "I was going to ask if you had put up with a common hired carriage to take her home, but I'm half afraid to, now I take it for granted that you did, anyway. Johnny, I want to ask you what is the matter with a hired carriage, except that it isn't your own imported sixty-horse-power car? If it was slower I should consider that really an advantage.

"Johnny, my dear boy, you take it from me that the simple and inexpensive pleasures that you enjoy on your little salary are beyond anything that money could purchase for you. I can't see what a thing costs that counts, it's the thing itself. As you walk along the street smoking your little 10-cent straight razor you may envy the plutocrat who sits in his club window and puffs at a weed that costs his anywhere from $20 to $50 for a box, but his may not even draw well. You can't always tell. Try to be contented and happy, Johnny."

"I would be if you'd only shut up," said the bill clerk.

HEAVY FALLING OFF

In Value of Precious Stones Imported Into New York.

New York, Feb. 5.—The appraised value of precious stones and pearls imported at this port during the month of January, 1908, is more than $2,000,000 less than for the corresponding month of 1907. It showed a gain, however, over last December of $98,075.

The par appraised value of these imports for the month of January was $3,149,457. A year before, the value was $3,349,457. In 1906 it was $2,706,296.

There was also a falling off in value of automobiles imported in January. The figures for the month were 109 cars valued at $2,315, against 112 cars, valued at $2,719 in January, 1907, and 136 cars valued at $4,042 in 1906.

The total appraised value of merchandise for the month of December, 1907, was $7,467,316, a decrease of about $7,000,000 from the previous month. For January, 1908, the amount was $6,074,019, a decrease of more than $7,000,000 from January, 1907.

CHILD'S FALL FATAL.

Ring Entered Its Eye and Penetrated to Its Brain.

Lindsey, Neb., Feb. 5.—Tripping on a piece of carpet, the 2-year-old child of Ed Connelley pitched headlong down stairs, striking on the back of a chair and ran one of the rings into its eye. The child never recovered consciousness.

H. Meyer died here suddenly while shaving. A companion found him lying on the ground and could not revive him. A cerebral embolism was probably caused by his dental work. He leaves a wife and seven children.

STORE BLOWN UP BY BOMB.

Greensburg, Pa., Feb. 5.—A dynamite bomb was exploded today under the general store near here, demolishing the building. Recently Letsovic received threatening letters from an alleged Black Hand society.

Case Over Mining Lease on Trial in District Court.

Sum of $160,000 is Involved in the Case.

The trial of the big $160,000 damage case, for an alleged breach of contract over a mining deal, was begun this morning in Judge Dill's room in the district court.

The action is one brought by John D. Lamont, James H. Flinn, Dudley W. Freeman and John Costin, Jr., all well-to-do residents of Virginia, against Athol Morton Miller of Duluth and A. B. Coates, a prominent citizen of Virginia, and the Marquette company.

It is alleged by the plaintiffs that Messrs. Miller and Coates defrauded them out of large profits they might have gotten out of some lands in township 35-17.

The case is in brief. Short of minor details and legal technicalities the claims of the defendants are about as follows:

Messrs. Flinn and Freeman are said to have secured from the fee owners of the property an option for a lease in February, 1902. They are said to have given a sub-option for a lease in March, 1902, to Messrs. Miller and Coates, who were to make reports to the others on the exploration work.

It is alleged that on the strength of the reports made by the plaintiffs, Messrs. Miller and Coates in the latter two months to take up the exploration work under a verbal agreement to make the same reports agreed to by Lamont and Costin to the other plaintiffs.

The plaintiffs claim that Messrs. Miller and Coates did not make the reports, but did report that the deposit was small and of a low grade, and that the cost of exploration was too high to warrant further work.

It is alleged that the plaintiffs, Messrs. Flinn and Freeman, permitted the defendants, Messrs. Miller and Coates, to explore and to make reports to the effect that he is too lazy to work and has not enough money to begin with.

It was claimed that the plaintiffs, Messrs. Flinn and Freeman, were kept by the defendants, Messrs. Miller and Coates, for the purpose of making reports to the effect that he is too lazy to work and has not enough money to begin with.

FOUR FIRES BURNING ALL AT ONCE KEEP FIREMEN OF PHILADELPHIA BUSY

The Aggregate Damage is Placed at About $200,000.

Alshuler Block at Racine, Wis., Badly Gutted by Fire.

Losses Estimated at $125,000—Five Firemen More or Less Hurt.

Philadelphia, Feb. 6.—Four fires in this city, early today, all burning at the same time, caused damage estimated at $200,000. The first fire started on the freight steamer Aries, of the Merchants & Miners Transportation company, lying at Pine street wharf, Delaware river, and caused $50,000 damage to the steamer.

Before the flames on the steamer were extinguished, some of the fire companies were summoned to the true store of Jacobus Bros., Chestnut street, which was damaged about $10,000. The Macy Furniture company adjoining was damaged about $10,000.

The third fire occurred at American and Locust streets, where a large three-story building occupied by publishing firms, was completely burned out, the loss amounting to $100,000.

While firemen were battling with the flames at the other three places, a fourth fire started at Marshall and Ritten streets, in a dwelling occupied by Frank Bauer, his wife and four children. Three other dwellings were damaged, and in all twenty persons were driven from the house and forced to seek shelter elsewhere.

THEODORA SHONTS. Whose Wedding Gowns Will Escape Confiscation by the Government on the Charges of Smuggling.

HER GOWNS ARE SAVED

Government Will Not Confiscate Miss Shonts' Wedding Finery.

Father Convinces President That No Smuggling Was Intended.

New York, Feb. 6.—The treasury department, it was learned yesterday, will take no further action following the raid by customs inspectors on the home of Theodore P. Shonts for alleged undeclared gowns imported from Europe by Mrs. Shonts and her daughter, Miss Theodora Shonts, who is to marry the Duc de Chaulnes on Feb. 15.

The search of the Shonts home resulted from information placed before Col. Edward S. Fowler, the collector of the port. Many elaborate gowns and other finery were inspected by the customs men and their investigation formations were based on a report submitted to the collector. Col. Fowler in turn made a report to George B. Cortelyou, secretary of the treasury. Mr. Shonts is said to have given his version of the affair to President Roosevelt. Mr. Shonts is said to have satisfied both the president and secretary that no cause exists for the confiscation of the gowns and on the charge of smuggling. It was said on high authority that the case will be dropped.

See that fellow! Looks like the common garden variety of water, don't he? Well, he's worth a look at, for he's a watermelon. I sold him a hat on the South side the other day, and he was told that it was a joke, and would play that joke on him. When Wyatt handed him his resignation Simpson was not surprised.

Here are Wyatt's rules for gaining popularity as a watermelon:

"Treat a man just as well when he does. Learn the habits of the patrons of your table, and like two lumps of sugar and who a double portion of cream."

Be pleasant. Smile, whether you feel like it or not.

NOVEL CONTEST IN HOUSEWORK

Servant Girl and Society Woman in Iowa to Compete.

Boone, Iowa, Feb. 6.—Hanna Olson, a pretty servant girl, who declares that domestics cannot afford to work for less than $1 a day, said yesterday she would accept the challenge of Mrs. M. J. Foster, society woman, for a week's contest in housework. Mrs. Foster alleges that $1 a day is too much for servants, that most of them are incompetents, and that she will prove it by rolling up her own sleeves and going to work.

"I certainly expect to beat her at her own game," said Miss Olson. Plans for the remarkable contest are going forward, and it Miss Olson and Mrs. Foster cannot agree together on terms, there is no reason to doubt it will take place. Mrs. Foster won't back out.

The majority favor setting the two women at work in a home of the same number of rooms and about the same conditions. A committee will be named, of which the Y. M. C. A. will furnish one member, the Boone newspaper another and the third will be chosen by these two. One judge will stay in each house the entire week, while the third will alternate. Credits will be given for time consumed and for condition of kitchen, bedroom and living rooms at noon.

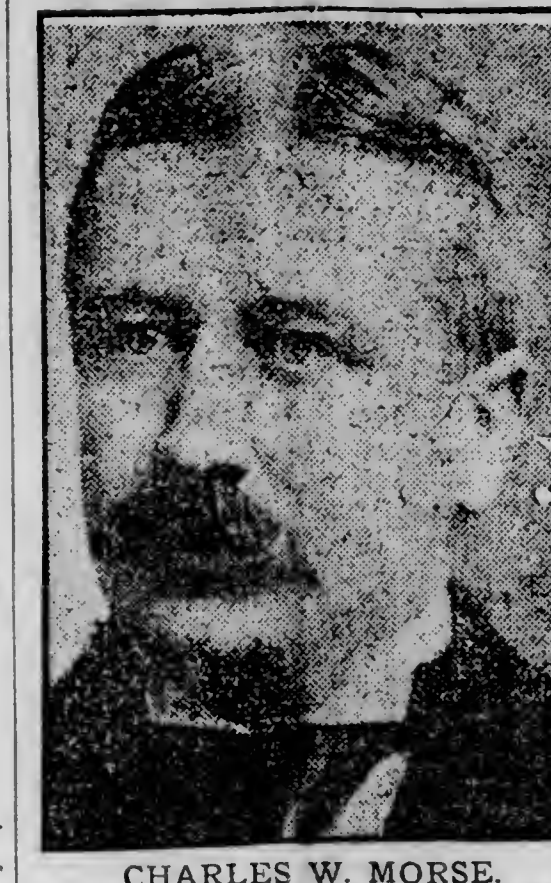

FORMER BANKER MORSE SUDDENLY DISAPPEARS FROM NEW YORK CITY

Cannot be Found at His Residence or Anywhere Else.

Not Known to Have Been in the City Since Monday.

May Have Gone to Europe for an Indefinite Stay.

New York, Feb. 6.—Search was continued today for Charles W. Morse, formerly of Bath, Me., the banker, promoter and organizer of the American Ice company, and the $120,000,000 Consolidated Steamship company. Mr. Morse was not at his handsome home at 725 Fifth avenue, this city, yesterday, and he is not known to have been in the city since Monday and may have left town earlier. With a judgment for $155,753 against him, a suit for $243,321 brought against him by the receiver of the National Bank of North America, his home mortgaged and in addition attached to cover the amount sued for; his accounts in several New York banks attached; his Consolidated Steamship company in the hands of receivers; his holdings of bank stock greatly depreciated and two grand juries investigating his relations with the banks, he faced a condition which might have appalled any man.

National Bank Examiner Charles A. Hanna, who is in charge of the National Bank of North America, has brought suit against Morse for $243,321, announced that he was informed that Mr. Morse had probably gone to Europe or had departed elsewhere for an indefinite stay.

STRONG FIGHT OVER CONTROL OF WATERS OF NIAGARA TO BE MADE

Opponents to Re-Enactment of Burton Law Claim It Gives Distinct Advantage to Canadians.

Washington, Feb. 6.—Persistent efforts are being made in congress to prevent the re-enactment of what is known as the Burton law, passed in 1866 governing the disposition of the waters of Niagara Falls. The object of that enactment was to conserve the waters of the falls against the encroachment of commercial enterprises. It was destined, as a purely temporary measure, to be supplanted by a general convention or treaty on this subject between the United States and Canada, and which is intended to cover also the disposition of other waters forming a boundary line between the two countries. The Burton law expires in less than a year and a half. Those opposing its re-enactment for ten years as is proposed in some quarters, declare this is a distinct advantage to the Canadians, who, because such a large portion of the falls are on the Canadian side of the river, are content to let existing conditions remain. In preference to agreeing to a treaty which will restrict the privileges they now enjoy. For this reason it is argued the law should not be re-enacted as there will be greater incentive to delay in the execution of a general treaty on the part of the Canadians.

Question of Treaty. The question of signing of a treaty covering the disposition of all the waters between the two countries has been pending between the United States and Great Britain for a long time. Some time this month Ambassador James Bryce of Great Britain is going to Ottawa for a consultation with the Canadian authorities, but whether or not this will develop into active steps towards the formation of a treaty on the general subject is not stated. The international waterways commission, which is made up of members from the United States and Canada, has turned in a mass of information on the whole question, which has been laid before the two governments for their consideration. The United States government is anxious that some disposition shall be reached in the whole matter, and that at an early date. It wants a treaty prepared and ratified at this session of congress if possible. At the same time it is desirable that this shall be accomplished so that the Canadian parliament may act in the matter. All this should be done before June of next year, when the present Burton law expires by limitation.

A failure to reach an understanding in the form of a treaty between the two countries at an early date will necessitate the passage of some form of legislation extending the present law until the treaty is reached. It is bitterly opposed by some New York interests.

GAYETIES CONTINUE

Brilliant Events Follow Each Other in Quick Succession.

Time of Departure of Fleet Delayed Until Friday Night.

Punta Arenas, Straits of Magellan, Feb. 6.—The social gayeties in connection with the presence here of the American fleet of battleships, under Admiral Evans, continues unabated. Dinners and dancing, excursions and receptions follow one another in quick succession. The Americans trying to repay the hospitality of their Chilean hosts, and the Chileans striving constantly to put their visitors further in their debt. It was originally planned to have the fleet leave here last evening, but this program was changed and the departure was delayed until tomorrow in order to give the Americans more time in which to relax the hospitality extended them by the residents and authorities of Punta Arenas.

The health of Rear Admiral Evans, who, at Rio Janeiro, was suffering from rheumatism, is improving steadily.

Fleet Will Leave Friday. The fleet will leave Friday night at 11 o'clock. The torpedo boat flotilla will accompany the battleships through the straits.

COULD NOT LEAD AN HONEST LIFE

New York Rug Merchant Picked Pockets on the Cars.

New York, Feb. 6.—Louis Wolf, a well-to-do Brooklyn manufacturer by day and a pickpocket by night, was arrested today by District Attorney Elder, and his revelations form one of the most astounding documents in the criminal history of Kings county.

Wolf declared that he made $7,000 a year by picking pockets on the cars during the rush hours of the evening, and that whenever he was suspected he was always able to escape arrest by flashing his business card on policemen and the victims.

Here is the story of Wolf's remarkable career as he told it to Assistant District Attorney Elder today in his cell in the Raymond street jail, where he was arrested on two charges of pocket-picking.

Brought by Past Master. "I was born 22 years ago on the East side of Manhattan. I was educated in the public schools, but by the time I was 18 I had mastered the art of picking pockets from beginning to end. I was taught by a past master in the art."

"This man was known on the East side as a 'Fagan,' and I seemed to take apt pupils to learning the thing. Indeed, I always believed, and still believe, that I was born a thief, and I simply could not help yielding to the temptation of stealing. But I got into a little trouble shortly after I started in to try what I had learned, and I went to West. I was West until I was 19, and I was arrested for picking pockets in Chicago and St. Louis."

Served in the West. "I served time in the West, but the sentences were short ones, and I finally came East again to New York and settled down again on the East side."

"But my folks tried to keep me away from the things I had learned before when I was in New York. They tried to make me lead an honest life, and I did try to do that for a while. I got together some money and put me in the textile business, establishing the factory at Wilson street and Fulton avenue, where I had my rug business."

Kills Daughter and Himself. "I tried to keep on as long as I could. But the old longing to practice what I had learned to do, what I had learned to do so much excitement in doing, came over me and I could not hold out against it. I went back to the old trade of picking pockets."

Whole Train Leaves the Rails, Shaking Up Passengers Badly.

Many Street Car Lines Are Entirely Out of Commission.

Situation in the Middle States Has Improved Greatly.

Pittsburg, Feb. 6.—Traffic during the past twelve hours has been delayed because of the sleet storm and services over several street car lines was abandoned. Train No. 11, the Pittsburg express on the Bessemer & Lake Erie railroad was wrecked last night near Greenville, Pa., on account of snow drifts. The whole train left the rails but it was moving slowly and no one was seriously injured, although a score or more passengers were bruised by being thrown from their seats.

A Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh train due at Bradford, Pa., early last evening spent the night between snow banks at Mount Jewett. A squad of snow shovellers and a work train from Bradford shoveled the train out today.

Worst Storm in Years. The worst snow storm in years is being experienced today at Titusville, Pa. Trains are from four to twelve hours late and trolley lines are out of commission at that place.

The rivers are rising rapidly, but colder weather, which is predicted for tonight will prevent a flood. Ice clogs continue to cause much damage. At Parkersburg, W. Va., today, a heavy gorge in the little Kanawha river broke loose, sweeping thousands of dollars worth of property into the Ohio river. The dry docks of the Parkersburg dock company, and 6,000 logs were carried away.

Improvement in Lower Michigan. Detroit, Mich., Feb. 6.—The snow and sleet storm which raised havoc yesterday with railway traffic and telegraph and telephone wires, through Lower Michigan has given way today to clear weather, and temperatures ranging from 20 to 30 below zero.

SERIOUS FIRE AT ST. IGNACE

Thirty Thousand Dollar Blaze During Raging of Blizzard.

Marquette, Mich., Feb. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—Fire at St. Ignace yesterday, caused a $30,000 loss. The Edgar hotel and Opera house, both large, two-story structures, were destroyed as they were dwelling. White's cigar factory and Wilson's barber shop were burned out. They were located in Opera house block. The fiercest blizzard in years was raging, and a general conflagration was narrowly averted.

NO ACTION WAS TAKEN

By Miners' Union Relative to Indorsing Candidates, Says Mitchell.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 6.—John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers, when asked today in regard to rumors to the effect that there had been an inauguration during the recent mine workers' convention a movement to endorse the candidacy of certain aspirants for the presidency of the United States and for other political offices, stated that so far as he knew there was no foundation for these rumors. He said, however, that the members of the miners' union, together with all trade unionists affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, were interested actively in the election to all legislative, judicial and administrative offices of men who were known to be sympathetic to the reasonable demands of the wage earners of the country. "It follows, therefore," said Mr. Mitchell, "that they would oppose the candidacy of aspirants for political honors who are known to be unsympathetic or antagonistic to the labor movement."

COLLEGE GIRLS OBJECT

To Male Students Representing Them in Play in Decollete Gowns.

Middletown, Conn., Feb. 6.—Students at Smith college have formed a protest to students at Wesleyan against the production of an opera, "The Girl and the Graduate," which is in preparation by the students of the latter institution. The protest is based on the fact that one of the characters is supposed to occur at Smith, an elite girls' cheer object to the fact that the parts of the Smith girls are to be played by male students "dressed in decollete gowns." The formal protest has been sent to the president of the student body at Wesleyan.

INSTRUCTED DELEGATION

Minnesota Would Support Governor Johnson Says S. B. Nelson.

Southern Minnesota is in a Most Prosperous Condition.

That Governor Johnson would have a solid and instructed delegation from Minnesota back of him, if he should announce himself for the presidential race, is the opinion of S. B. Nelson of Duluth, a member of the state board of equalization, and one of the most influential and respected citizens of the southern part of the state.

Mr. Nelson is in Duluth today, registered at the McKay hotel.

"A peculiar thing about a Bryan man is that he can never consider anybody but Bryan," said Mr. Nelson today. "There is no doubt but that Mr. Bryan has many staunch friends in this state, but if Governor Johnson should enter the field for the presidential nomination, I do not think there is any question but that Minnesota would give him an instructed delegation."

As far as state politics are concerned, Mr. Nelson admitted that the situation is very hazy as yet.

"Southern Minnesota has seldom been more prosperous than it is right now. During the recent panic the farmers would come into town, make inquiries among the merchants regarding the safety of the banks, but that is about as far as the panic went with us, and the farmers, for the most part, were not leaving their money on deposit."

Mr. Nelson stated that there was nothing new in the tax matters.

"St. Louis county certainly pays its share of the state taxes," he said. "About 15 per cent of the state's income is derived from St. Louis county. If I remember the figure correctly."

VETERAN GETS TERM.

Richard O'Connell Goes to Jail for Twenty Days.

Richard O'Connell, a gray-haired old juggler of bottles and glasses, was the principal figure in a light police court case this morning. Jan. 30, he was sent up for five days and yesterday he was taken in by the police just as drunk and broken down as though he had been on a spree for a month. This morning his knees were weak and his eyes bloodshot. His gait was slow, but he was a steady runner. He pleaded guilty to a second offense charge and went up on the hill for twenty days.

Eugene Holmes and John McDonald were plain drunks. They were let off with $1 and costs or three days, and took the short term.

THINK DEATH ACCIDENTAL.

Coroner of Opinion That Jewish Peddler Did Not Seek Destruction.

Coroner McCuen and the police are of the opinion that the death of Morris Markowski, who was killed by a street car election night, was accidental and that the old man did not seek destruction. He was so slow in crossing the car tracks, despite the shrill warnings of the car whistle and the clang of the bell, that it was thought by some that he sought death.

Friends say that an injured leg probably caused his tardiness in getting out of the car's way. The funeral will probably be held tomorrow at the Jewish synagogue, Third street and Third avenue east.

OLD RESIDENT DIES.

William Francis Claveaux Passes Away at Glen Avon.

William Francis Claveaux, for the past nineteen years a resident of this city, was stricken with apoplexy at his home in Glen Avon on Monday night and died yesterday afternoon. He was one of the oldest residents of that suburb, having lived there sixteen years. He was born in Rotterdam, Holland, Feb. 1, 1846. In 1870 Mr. Claveaux emigrated to London, Ont., where he was for three years superintendent of the receiving home of Dr. Barnard's orphanage, his wife holding the position of matron. During that time over 1000 children passed through their hands. They were then transferred to the branch home in Peterborough, Ont., but after three months left the service and went to Michipicoten, Ont., where he became housekeeper in the Hudson Bay company's trading post. In 1888 they came to Duluth, where he

GETS AWARD OF DAMAGES

Mrs. Alice Campbell Given Verdict of $2,000 for Injuries.

A verdict awarding Mrs. Alice Campbell of Superior a sum of $2,000 against the Duluth & Northeastern Railway company was returned in Judge Eschig's room this noon after the jury had been out about an hour.

Mrs. Campbell sued for $5,000 damages for injuries alleged to have been received while riding as a passenger on the company's train between Cloquet and Lake Umbagog some time ago.

According to the evidence, Mrs. Campbell was riding in the cupola of a caboose at the end of a logging train. A coupling broke and the train separated, the front end running ahead some distance and then stopping. The rear end of the train came up and crashed into the front end and Mrs. Campbell was shaken from her seat, and thrown to the floor of the caboose. John Jensen, Jr., represented Mrs. Campbell and H. C. Olenburg, and Davis & Hollister represented the railway company.

ORE TRADE WILL NOT SUFFER

E. Charbonneau Says Foreign Orders Will Help the Iron Industry.

"The ore trade will not suffer very heavily because of the retrenchment in industrial lines," said E. Charbonneau at the St. Louis today. Several large steel corporations have, he understood, been made with the government of Mexico for the furnishing of steel rails, so that the United States steel corporation will have a large amount of work on hand, should the industrial situation show a heavy curtailment in construction lines.

Mr. Charbonneau is the manager of a large iron foundry at Hurley, Wis. He says the outlook for early steel orders is better than it was a week ago. He believes that the iron and steel trade will not feel the business readjustment as much as other lines of industry. He also believes that foreign orders will compensate for any lack of demand for steel rails and other steel material in this country.

Mexico is doing an unusual amount of railroad building. Mr. Charbonneau says that several large orders for steel rails have been placed with the United States Steel corporation, and that the Mexican government is contemplating heavier buying in the future.

MARCHED ON CITY HALL

Winnipeg supporters of municipal ownership resorted to the practice of that old adage about there being strength in a large crowd, by marching 500 strong to the city hall and demanding that Cecil B. Smith, chief engineer of the city power plant, be kept in his position instead of being discharged, as the board of control had recommended.

A. H. Purford, who is in Duluth today, attending the baseball meeting, was telling this morning of the demonstration that was made in favor of the city power, for some people up there seemed to attempt to discharge Mr. Smith the eventual dropping of the project of municipal ownership of the power plant.

The event occurred the first part of the week. Fully 500 determined men marched to the council chamber of the city hall, and when the controllers took their accustomed places they looked awed and rather apprehensive of the tide of humanity that packed the room and overflowed into the hall. There could be no mistaking the meaning of the crowd. They intended to discharge Mr. Smith as chief engineer of the power plant, and they were not over delicate in hiding their sentiment on the matter.

Mr. Purford says that any attempt to cast discredit on the chief engineer or to urge his removal was greeted with jeers and cat calls. The crowd was in an ugly mood. It believed that the attempt to remove Smith was simply a device on the part of the McKenzie, Mann crowd, which owns the street railway system and a power plant, to prevent the city from taking the municipal ownership plant. To this end they came, saw, and conquered, for the board of control dared not defer any action looking to the discharge of Mr. Smith.

It is rather unusual to see a crowd gathered on the city hall. Mr. Purford says this crowd was in an ugly humor, and was ready to back its opinion with rather outspoken remarks and threats of what would occur should Mr. Smith be removed from his position. When the controllers beheld the mob, and learned that it would be unwise to attempt to depose the chief engineer, they deemed discretion the better part of valor and modestly declined to take any action in the matter. Five hundred jeering, jeering faces is not the most pleasant thing in this mundane sphere to look upon. This is especially true if you are arrayed against the opinions represented by these faces.

Mr. Purford says that power for manufacturers and other commercial purposes is the real problem in Winnipeg. They cannot get manufacturers until they can convince them the city has adequate power at reasonable rates. The administration seems rather lukewarm in its attitude toward the acquisition of greater power, and the city council is not in a hurry to take any action in the matter. This is especially true if you are arrayed against the opinions represented by these faces.

SUPERIOR NEWS

Shows Gain in Population.

The directory of the Catholic diocese of Superior shows a gain of 7,000 in the Catholic population of the diocese since the former directory was issued. It also shows a gain of 550 pupils in the various parochial schools. The diocese includes Douglas, Bayfield, Ashland, Iron, Vilas, Oneida, Lincoln, Price, Taylor, Sawyer, St. Croix, Polk, Washington, Sawyer, Rusk, Burnett, Washburn and Barron counties. The total Catholic population is about 44,000. There are fifty-nine churches and 4,568 pupils attending the schools.

School Children Save Money.

The report of Supt. Maddock of the city schools indicates that the savings bank system inaugurated last October, among the pupils is meeting with favorable results. Up to the first of the year the savings in all the schools amounted to $1,101.20. The depositors included 694 boys and 61 girls. The schools have a total of 4,190 pupils. The Nelson Dewey school at the East end has 165 depositors and $309.95 deposited.

Opposition to Ward Division.

Opposition is developing to the plan for the division of the Fifth ward at Winter street and there is a possibility that the matter will be permitted to go to the board. The talk of ward division has set the people in other wards talking about the advisability of cutting out some of the wards entirely. It is likely that another meeting of the people of the Fifth ward will be held in the near future to discuss further the proposition of dividing that ward.

"Doomed" Man Fights Officers.

Patrick Cummings, a dock laborer who has figured in various fist encounters in the city for several years, is being held at the police station for an examination as to his sanity. Cummings imagines that he is "doomed." When the officers went for him, Cummings made a break for liberty, and the least caught fought until overpowered. About a year ago he was injured in the head and this injury is supposed to be the cause of his mental trouble.

Tid-Bits of Spring Fashion

The Dames and Demoiselles of Duluth cannot but be infatuated with the clever lines and smart fabrics of our new arrivals. The tailor-mades are practically of two classes; first, the serviceable suits in the well-tried and faithful serges and worsteds, cut on the precise lines which simulate those of masculine attire, but by no means too mannish; with sleeves that follow the contour of the arm, and jaunty hanging skirts in ankle length.

Then again, are the beautiful tropical worsteds, in lighter shades, pastel stripes and new color tones. Sprinkled with touches of Persian, large novelty buttons, and piping. Some with vest effect and sleeves, in all manner of Japanese adaptations, which lend a highly effective air to the outline. Among the skirts, the newer candidates for popular favor are the multi-gore types, while the reliable plaited styles are still in prominent evidence.

New Princesse Developments

The demand for dresses of this type has grown very considerably in the past twelve months. Silk and Lingerie fabrics are well to the fore for the "nouveau" princesses, which shows a clever comingling of the two-piece styles, and the severe unbroken line of original princesse. Our showing in two-tone taffetas, trimmed with lace and mirage silk, and the dainty lingerie types are replete with pretty styles for dressy in-door, afternoon and Southern wear.

REGARDING THE NEW WAISTS.—They're all here. The trim tailor-mades with precise long link sleeves, and the dainty lingerie or nets, some much be-trimmed, with sleeves of three-quarter length to be pushed up to half-length comfort at the convenience of the wearer.

They are all here for your benefit and you are at liberty to "look them over" at your convenience.

Friday evening in the high school series the freshmen and sophomores will play. The freshmen have a strong lineup, and the game will be one of the best of the series. The game is called for 8 o'clock. At 9 o'clock the social committee will entertain with a Dutch lunch.

Saturday afternoon the outing committee will take a snowshoe tramp.

The Sunday club for older boys Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock will be addressed by Rev. R. J. Money, on the topic, "The Christian's Duty." Mrs. Florence Hyland and Ed Olson will render solos.

Frank Upham will be the speaker at the Knights of Sir Galahad Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The boys who are going to participate in the boys' department minstrel show meet Thursday night for practice. In addition to the minstrel show they will present a play entitled, "The King of the Cannibal Islands." It will be given some time in March.

Gidding Buyers in the East.

J. M. and Nathaniel Gidding are in New York completing spring and summer purchases for their Duluth and Cincinnati stores. Duluth patrons now reap the benefit of the firm's increased buying for the two big stores. The firm is in a position to give the finest merchandise the market affords, and promises a collection of exclusive merchandise for the coming seasons, never approached by any other showing ever made in the city, and the equal of the exhibits of the big stores in the largest cities in America.

COLUMBIA CLOTHING COMPANY,

AN OLD COUPLE DIE TOGETHER

Prayer Granted and Husband Expires Soon After Wife Dies.

New York, Feb. 6.—For forty years Adolphus Bennett and his wife, Mary Susan Bennett, lived together in their house at the foot of Seventy-ninth street, Brooklyn. Yesterday the prayer of their later years was granted and they died together.

No children ever came to bless them, but as property around the old farm rose in value relatives and friends gathered around them, and throughout that portion of the greatest city their love and companionship became almost proverbial.

The increase in value of their old farm which has gradually given way to business buildings and residences made them wealthy, but they seemed to care nothing for that, they were happy with each other, and scores of times relatives and friends have heard them say that all they wished was that they might pass into the great unknown together.

Monday Mr. Bennett came to New York to attend to some business and returned to his home at night to find his wife and had been suddenly stricken ill. Doctors called, but the illness, an attack of apoplexy, proved fatal.

When he was told that his wife was dead, Mr. Bennett retired to his own room and his last prayer was granted. When relatives went to his room and found his wife dead, they found that all they wished was that they might pass into the great unknown together.

LECTURES ON BIBLE.

Bishop James McGillicrick Interests

Large Audience at Trinity Hall.

"How We Got the Bible" was the subject of a lecture given last night by Bishop McGillicrick before a large audience in Trinity hall, Superior street and Twentieth avenue east. The lecture was the first of a series of lectures on the subject of the Bible, which the bishop will give during the next few weeks.

The bishop said that while many mistakes in the text of the Bible have been made, the transmission from ancient to modern times, the substance of the book has been maintained. He then read the history of the New Testament, and the history of the Old Testament.

Rev. John Walker Powell, Jr., will deliver the next lecture of the course at 6 o'clock Wednesday evening, Feb. 12, at Trinity hall. His subject will be "Literature and Life."

HOTELS HAVE RIGHT

To Refuse to Serve Women After 6 o'clock, Says Judge.

New York, Feb. 4.—That the hotel men of New York have the right to refuse food and entertainment to women after 6 o'clock at night when unaccompanied by a man was the verdict of a jury yesterday in a test case brought by Mrs. Margaret Kelly.

Blanch, a well-known suffragist, against the Hoffman House corporation in the Twelfth district court. Judge Fred Spiegelberg presiding. Mrs. Kelly brought suit for $500 against the hotel because on July 12, last, services were refused to her because the hour was past six and she was unaccompanied by a man.

TWO WOMEN FROZEN TO DEATH IN NEW YORK.

New York, Feb. 6.—Two women were found dead yesterday in the kitchen of a house at No. 251 West Seventy-first street, of which they were caretakers. They were Mrs. Margaret Kelly, aged 70 years, and Mrs. Margaret Kelly, aged 40 years old. For many years they had been friends. There was a little coal in a bin in the cupboard. The police think the women sat by a stove in front of which their bodies were found. They were found dead before the fire went out and were frozen to death.

Pawn tickets which show that during the last two months, Mrs. Kelly had pawned eighteen articles of dress and jewelry were found.

RAILROAD MEN HELD UP BY TWO WOMEN.

Billings, Mont., Feb. 6.—Two men, said to be railroad men who run between this city and Forsyth, were held up and robbed at a railroad crossing west of the Northern Pacific station yesterday. The robbery was committed by two women who were dressed as a man and a woman. The railroaders were walking up the street and were ordered to throw up their hands. As they did not comply readily they were surrounded by two men who with drawn revolvers repeated the command. The quartet then proceeded to go through their pockets and secured their watches but no money. No arrests have yet been made.

THE WHOLE YEAR ROUND.

Women Everywhere Use Pe-ru-na.

Mrs. Lydia H. Josselyn, 501 Westminster St., Providence, R. I., is Treasurer of the Editors League of Rhode Island, chartered in Providence. She writes:

"My experience with Pe-ru-na has been most gratifying. Last winter I contracted a severe cold, and for several days I coughed until my voice failed me. When other remedies did me no good, I decided to try Pe-ru-na, and within four days the cold was broken up, and the cough abated.

"Within another week an increase in my usual strength and vitality told me that Pe-ru-na was doing all that it promised, and more. I also consider it very superior for all colds, coughs, and have advised several to try it, and have seen most gratifying results from its use.

"I give it highest praise."

Bowel Trouble.

Mrs. Maggie Durbin, 1322 North St., Little Rock, Ark., writes:

"A friend of mine advised me to try Pe-ru-na, and I did so. After I had taken two bottles I found it was helping me, so I continued its use, and it has cured me sound and well.

"I can recommend Pe-ru-na to any one, and if any one wants to know what Pe-ru-na did for me, if they will write to me I will answer promptly."

Pe-ru-na is a household remedy of great merit, and is useful in many climatic ailments, such as coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchitis and catarrhal diseases generally. Thousands of families have learned the use of Pe-ru-na and its value in the treatment of these ailments.

A Grateful Patient.

Mrs. Ella Embree, Clark, Mo., writes: "I am feeling better than I have felt for years. I can truthfully say that Pe-ru-na is a woman's friend. I have no more terrible pains and am stronger than I have been. Your medicines have worked like a charm."

Pe-ru-na is a Woman's Friend.

Mrs. Lena R. Moudy, 556 Caywood St., Portland, Oregon, Sec'y Royal Tribe of Joseph, writes:

"For the past six years biliousness and pains in my back and limbs made life miserable to me. My skin was sallow and dry, and indigestion was added to my troubles. I was weak, faint feeling during the day so that I was not fitted to attend to my regular duties. This caused me serious annoyance and trouble, and I naturally tried many remedies, hoping to get relief.

"Pe-ru-na came as a friend in need. It toned up the system, relieved the blood of the poisons and induced a healthy action of the stomach, a fine appetite and restful sleep.

"Within three months I was a changed person, so I continued its use, and Pe-ru-na did for me, if they will write to me I will answer promptly."

Billous Headache.

Mrs. Emily Kellogg, 5648 St. Lawrence St., South Tacoma, Wash., member of Ladies of the Maccabees, writes:

"Three months ago I had an attack of biliousness which threatened to undermine my health and strength. Luckily for me, I tried Pe-ru-na at the suggestion of my friends before it was too late.

"I found in a few days time that I was troubled with cramps in the stomach for six years. I tried many kinds of medicine, also was treated by three doctors. They said that I had nervous dyspepsia. I was put on a liquid diet for three months. I improved under the treatment, but as soon as I stopped taking the medicine, I got bad again. I took the medicine for two years, then I got sick again and I have taken nineteen bottles and am entirely cured. Have gained in strength and flesh and the doctor says I am a new person."

"I believe Pe-ru-na is all that is claimed for it."

Pe-ru-na is a Woman's Friend.

Mrs. Lena R. Moudy, 556 Caywood St., Portland, Oregon, Sec'y Royal Tribe of Joseph, writes:

"For the past six years biliousness and pains in my back and limbs made life miserable to me. My skin was sallow and dry, and indigestion was added to my troubles. I was weak, faint feeling during the day so that I was not fitted to attend to my regular duties. This caused me serious annoyance and trouble, and I naturally tried many remedies, hoping to get relief.

MRS. JOSEPH VITTUR

St. Austin, Sta., Chicago, Ill., writes:

"Your medicine, Pe-ru-na, was of great benefit to me. I suffered with catarrh of the nose and head for many years. Three bottles of Pe-ru-na cured me. After I had considered it impossible to be cured again.

"I now always keep Pe-ru-na in the house, and recommend it to every one suffering from catarrh. As soon as one of my children complains of a cold, I give them Pe-ru-na, and their cough is soon gone.

"This medicine is surely a great boon to suffering humanity."

Mrs. M. E. Seymour, R. F. D. 2, Bowman, Ga., writes:

"I am ready to speak a few words in favor of Pe-ru-na and Manning. I have tried them for nearly every ill of life for myself and family, and find them to be all the doctor claims them to be. Pe-ru-na has cured me of internal trouble when my doctor could not.

The first meeting of the council for the new year was held this morning at the club room of the library, and matters of much interest were discussed.

The necessity of securing a greater protection for the young people of the city was presented to the council members by Miss Josephine Moody, chairman of the department of philanthropy and reform of the Twentieth Century club.

The conditions existing in parts of the city of young girls and boys being upon the street at untimely hours, and the evils that may and do result, were discussed, and the possibilities of a reform being achieved, it was voted by the body to request the mayor to provide for the strict enforcement of the curfew law, as it now exists on the statutes, as a temporary help.

The ultimate and most powerful aid, the matter was considered to be industrial schools or club rooms, provided with attractive and instructive occupations and amusements for the young people.

The committee on education was instructed to plan if possible for the opening of the school buildings of the city as social centers, and especially in the localities where the need is greatest, and for the committee to consult with the board of education for the opening of such schools.

It was decided to temporarily discontinue the work of the school gardens, as it was considered that the returns during the three years of the experiment have not justified the expenditure of the same amount of money another year. In place of the work of the gardens, vacation schools will be arranged for. One school will probably be first started, with a competent teacher, and classes in industrial training and other subjects. A committee was appointed to make the plans for the school.

The report of the arts and crafts committee was presented by the chairman, Mrs. H. C. Marshall. A detailed report was given in these columns at the time of the meeting of the committee. The report was accepted, and $20 voted to the committee for preliminary work. It is hoped to open a school in the spring.

ANNUAL BANQUET.

Fifth Yearly Affair Is Held at Y. W. C. A. Rooms.

A representative gathering of Duluth men and women interested in the work of the Young Women's Christian association of Duluth, gathered at the rooms last evening for the fifth annual banquet.

The affair has come to be known as the primrose banquet, and the February flower is used in the decorations. Pink primroses formed the centerpiece of the tables and pink candles in crystal holders added to the attractive setting. In the decoration of the menu cards a primrose design by Mrs. J. B. Weston was used. Covers were laid for 150 guests.

At the program of toasts which followed the banquet, E. P. Towne presided as toast master. He introduced the speakers in a happy manner. The first speaker was Rev. S. L. Mitchell of the First Baptist church, who spoke on "The Deed and the Doer." Mr. Mitchell gave an earnest talk on the importance of the small things of life.

"Physical courage," he said, may be a matter of instinct or it may be trained and it is not so important nor so great as moral courage. Physical courage is a quality and moral courage is a virtue, and it is the latter with which we should be most concerned in our lives.

"The power of an ideal," was the subject upon which Albert Baldwin spoke. He gave a most effective word picture of the force and power of the ideal in life as exemplified in the lives of Lord Byron and the Apostle Paul.

The speaker then spoke of the victim of a false conception of life, the victim of his own ideal. The influence of the high ideal of the other has reached through the centuries.

The last speaker of the evening was Mrs. J. B. Weston, who spoke on "The World's Work of the Y. W. C. A." Mrs. Weston spoke of the work of the association in detail, making the record interesting and comprehensive.

The needs of the local association were touched upon and the lines in which it was working were spoken of.

Presiding as hostesses at the various tables throughout the room were Mrs. A. W. Frick, Mrs. A. D. Goodman, Mrs. R. M. Hunter, Mrs. C. T. Fairbairn, Mrs. J. H. Dight, Mrs. W. H. Cole, Mrs. H. S. Mahon, Mrs. George Her, Mrs. S. E. Matter, Mrs. Lorin Jones, Mrs. E. C. Little and Mrs. W. M. Hubbard.

The association members who assisted at the serving were Misses: Marie Coska, Grace Scribner, Jessie Merritt, Margaret Tidball, Mrs. A. D. Goodman, Mrs. E. E. Tidball, Sadie Goodman, Della LaFave, Lottie Austin, Charlotte Robinson, Estelle Bradley, Gertrude Ellison, Ruth Sahlgren, Cecile Thomas, Ray Johns, Augusta Ehling, Grace Weston, Denham, Hazel Zeilits and Lottie Ader.

DEFENSE IS UNDER FIRE

A. B. Coates Called for Cross-Examination in Mining Case.

Claims No Analysis Was Made of the Ore Until 1906.

A. B. Coates, who with Athol Morton Miller of this city, has been made a defendant in an action for $100,000 damages, brought by John D. Lamont and several associates, with reference to a mining deal, was on the witness stand all the forenoon for cross-examination under the auspices.

Mr. Coates was first called to the stand yesterday afternoon.

The charges, in a general way, are that the defendants misrepresented the exploration work on a mine owned by Lamont and Coates in 1906, and that they might afterward lease the same after the original lessees had permitted their option.

Under cross-examination Mr. Coates was asked a number of preliminary questions leading up to the alleged deal between himself and Miller on one side and Lamont and Coates on the other.

The witness testified positively that he gave the plaintiffs all the information contained in the engineers' report on the exploration work.

He admitted that the exploration work of himself and Mr. Miller, begun in 1906, was based on the analysis of some of the ore taken out in 1906, and that the ore was stored in sacks in his woodshed.

Under the intervention of the court, he claimed that there were no analyses of the ore during the time he and Miller were working under the agreement with Lamont and Coates, and that the latter two parties to the deal knew it.

Mr. Coates claimed that the conditions which existed at the time the exploration work was carried on in 1906 were such that it was impossible to demand an analysis.

Mr. Coates claimed that the conditions which existed at the time the exploration work was carried on in 1906 were such that it was impossible to demand an analysis.

Just before the iron market was more depressed than it has been for some time, Mr. Coates was being cross-examined as to certain correspondence and alleged negotiations had between himself and the plaintiffs with a representative of the Pickands-Mather company.

James H. Filin, the only one of the plaintiffs who does not reside at Virginia, Mich., was called to the stand in Detroit, Mich.

LYCEUM—"Dream City," METROPOLITAN—Burlesque.

Dream City.

The announcement of a Weber production is always of interest to even the most blasé theater-goer.

"Dream City," the latest and most pretentious effort ever attempted by Mr. Weber, and which met with such success that it remained in the New York theater all of last season, playing to the capacity of the theater at every performance will be at the Lyceum tonight.

The music of the production by Victor Herbert, is of that high class, yet catchy and attractive nature that never fails to please, and make a lasting impression.

The Burlesques.

The military drill given by the Star Show Girls, under the leadership of Marie Coska, at the Metropolitan this week, is the feature of the vaudeville portion of the entertainment.

The young women carry guns of regulation weight and they are not slow in handling them. People in the audience are often heard to remark that the girls are light, imitation affairs, but they are mistaken. The guns used by the Star Show Girls were owned by the property of the United States government, having been purchased from the war department, where their disposition was made necessary by the advent of a new model.

UPPER MICHIGAN BLIZZARD RAGES

With Unabated Fury—Train Service Badly Demoralized.

Marquette, Mich., Feb. 6.—(Special to The Herald).—Still raging with unabated fury, the blizzard which set in yesterday has fairly paralyzed train service in Upper Michigan. Trains are barely moving. With two locomotives pulling them, some trains are as slow as eight hours late. Two and three feet of snow has fallen, and at some points huge drifts reach to the tops of passenger coaches. The weather is bitterly cold. It would not be surprising if deaths from exposure were reported.

TO ENFORCE ORDINANCE

Old Snow Cleaning Regulation Resurrected by the City.

Provisions Are Inadequate and New Ordinance is Necessary.

With the arrival of the heavy snowfall yesterday the old sidewalk clearing proposition came up again to stare the members of the board of public works in the face and annoy the feet of floundering pedestrians.

A complaint, which came in today, is but an illustration of the lack of civic pride and regard for the convenience of others in some people. A report was made that on West Third street, the sidewalks had nearly all been cleared for several blocks by industrious householders. But before one could reach the board of public works, which about six men five, not a shovel had been touched to the high banks. On either side, stretched out for hundreds of feet, were clear walks and people were forced to climb over the snow of the one lot.

Under an old ordinance, passed in 1882, people living and conducting places of business on the streets of the city are required to remove the snow and ice from their sidewalks. The ordinance has been dead letter for several years, but the board is now reviving it and prosecuting those who fail to observe it and the common sense of citizens.

For the most part, in the business portion of the city and on the streets most traveled, people keep their walks clean, but now and then some slovenly individual spouts out a word or two, leaving the banks on the walk than to yield the shovel himself or pay to have it done by somebody else.

The ordinance now on the books and almost disregarded, is inadequate to deal with the proposition. It was drawn when the city was not as crowded as it is now, and the board of public works, which are not as free as they are at present. Streets, which should be cleared are not, and the public suffers much inconvenience.

For several years, efforts have been made to have the council pass an adequate ordinance, covering the entire city, but they have failed thus far.

The matter will probably be brought to the attention of the council again in the near future, and the board of public works, with the co-operation of the police, will try to enforce the old ordinance. It gives the board the right to remove snow from walks, where the property-holder fails to do so, and assess the cost against the lot. Notices will be given to the neglectful ones and if they fail to live up to the ordinance, the board will take the necessary action.

STATE GRAIN INSPECTION

Interesting Features of Annual Report by the Commission.

St. Paul, Feb. 6.—The annual report of the state grain inspection department which is now finished, shows that the crop yield of the state during the past year was the department went beyond state lines and into North Dakota in the pursuit of its work. Besides inspecting new incoming and outgoing plants at New Ulm, Kasota, Fairbault and Sleepy Eye, the Minnesota department now operates also at Valley City, N. D.

Some Total Figures.

The total amount of grain inspected at the principal terminal points—Minneapolis, Duluth, St. Paul, St. Cloud, New Prague, Sleepy Eye and Montgomery amounted to 223,873 cars, divided as follows: Spring and winter wheat, 143,303 cars; corn, 5,687 cars; oats, 16,683; rye, 3,136; barley, 19,529; flaxseed, 29,555.

There was inspected "out of store" for the same period: Spring and winter wheat, 38,942 cars and 51,075,572 bushels into vessels; coarse grain (corn, oats, rye and barley), 11,331 cars; and 13,904,373 bushels into vessels; flaxseed, 3,058 cars and 29,575,549 bushels into vessels; a total "out inspection" of all kinds of grain of 53,071 cars and 59,639,490 bushels into vessels.

The department received last year $249,895.55 gross, and expended $256,644.38, leaving a deficit of $6,748.83. There was, however, a surplus of $49,300.36 from the previous year so that the department was amply able to meet all expenses and still carry over a balance of $42,246.52, all of which, except a few hundred dollars available for immediate small expenses, is in the state treasury.

Expenses May Be Increased.

It has been the aim of the department to make the charges for the work only high enough for actual expenses and reductions have from time to time been announced. The closing of the year with a slight deficit precludes any further reduction of charges for the present, and suggests the possible eventuality of a return to somewhat higher rates.

The result of the inspection during the year are most gratifying, as out of a total of 99,510 cars of spring wheat received at the terminals 174 per cent graded No. 1 hard, 22 1-2 per cent No. 1 northern, 21 1-2 per cent No. 2 northern, 14 3-5 per cent No. 3, 6 3-10 per cent No. 4, 2 3-5 per cent rejected and 54 per cent no grade. Of the 33,923 carloads of durum wheat received, 31 1-5 per cent graded No. 1, 40 1-5 per cent No. 2, 21 3-5 per cent No. 3, 3 1-5 per cent No. 4, and 3 1-5 per cent "no grade."

It has been the aim of the department to make the charges for the work only high enough for actual expenses and reductions have from time to time been announced. The closing of the year with a slight deficit precludes any further reduction of charges for the present, and suggests the possible eventuality of a return to somewhat higher rates.

The result of the inspection during the year are most gratifying, as out of a total of 99,510 cars of spring wheat received at the terminals 174 per cent graded No. 1 hard, 22 1-2 per cent No. 1 northern, 21 1-2 per cent No. 2 northern, 14 3-5 per cent No. 3, 6 3-10 per cent No. 4, 2 3-5 per cent rejected and 54 per cent no grade. Of the 33,923 carloads of durum wheat received, 31 1-5 per cent graded No. 1, 40 1-5 per cent No. 2, 21 3-5 per cent No. 3, 3 1-5 per cent No. 4, and 3 1-5 per cent "no grade."

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

TO RECLAIM
MANY ACRESOf Swamp Land in Koo-chiching County by Two Ditches.Preliminary Steps Are Taken in District Court at Bemidji.

Bemidji, Minn., Feb. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—One of the matters of wide importance taken up in the district court by Judge McManahan, was hearing the petitions for the establishment of two state ditches in Koochiching county. The judge granted the petitions.

One of the proposed ditches will be located south of the falls toward Northome, and will be about twelve miles in length. It is estimated that this ditch will be the means of draining some 5,000 acres of swamp land that, when reclaimed, will be as fertile as any in the entire state.

A second ditch will be between Little Fork and International Falls, and will be about sixteen miles long. Twenty-five thousand acres of swampy land will be reclaimed indirectly by this ditch, it is claimed.

The final hearing on these ditch applications will be held at International Falls on Feb. 18, at the term of court to be held at that place. There has been appropriated by the state some $500 for the construction of drainage ditches in Koochiching county, and this amount will be assessed against the valuation of the state lands benefited by the construction of the ditches. Koochiching county will also contribute toward the cost of the construction of the ditches.

In connection with the construction of the ditches it is proposed to follow the suggestions of George Ralph in that regard will also be considered at the same time that the ditches are dug. This can be done, according to these estimates, for the sum of $500 per mile.

EX-JUDGE KEELEY DEAD.

Old Waseca Citizen Who Held Many Public Positions.

Waseca, Minn., Feb. 6.—Former Judge M. B. Keeley died Wednesday at his home in this city. He was one of Waseca's oldest citizens, having lived here all his life. He conducted a grocery store here for many years and was also a farmer. He was elected clerk of court for two terms, and served as justice of the peace. He was elected municipal judge, which office he held for sixteen years. At the time of his death he was a member of the water and light board.

EDITOR MUMBY IS AMONG INDICTEDPostmaster and Pencil
Pusher Charged With Malicious Mischief.

Williston, N. D., Feb. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The grand jury of Williams county, which has been probing various matters presented to it, will probably conclude and adjourn today. Several indictments have already been returned. The most important of the indictments returned is one against W. F. Mumby, editor of the Buford Tribune of Buford, and also postmaster of that city. The jury has charged him with malicious mischief, the indictment coming as a result of action taken some time since in the destruction of part of a certain business store.

Mumby was brought before Judge E. J. Goss, who has fixed his trial at $500 in open court. A hard fight will be made in this case. Attorney T. S. S. Wilton, having been employed to assist the prosecuting attorney, Van A. Brown, while Attorney Greenleaf and Pisk and A. C. Knapp will defend.

Besides returning a number of indictments against parties in various sections of the county who are charged with land pilging.

SOUTH AFRICAN MINING Man is Looking Over Properties of the Copper Country.

Calumet, Mich., Feb. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—Wager Bradford, manager of the Langlaate Deep of Johannesburg, South Africa, a gold mining proposition, is in the Copper country, on a short tour of inspection. Yesterday morning he went underground at the Calumet branch of the Calumet & Hecla mine, and in the afternoon inspected the Tamarack mine. He went of Houghton to visit the Michigan College of Mines.

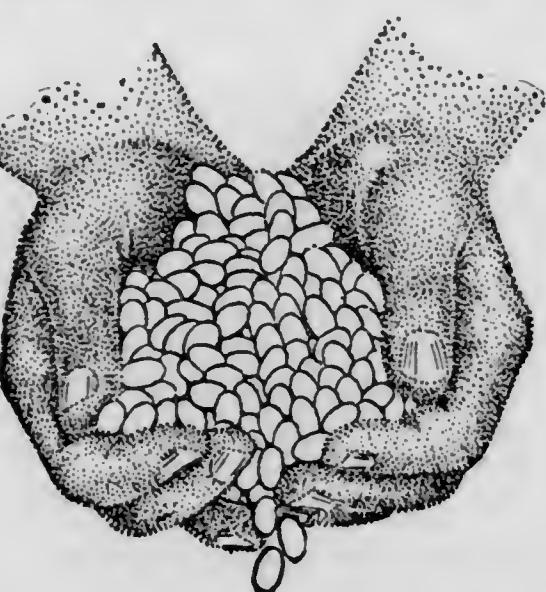

Mr. Bradford stated that he is a Californian by birth. After graduating from a university in this country, he took up a literary course and eventually entered the newspaper business, securing a position on the New York Sun. He later decided to take a mining course, and after graduating from one of the western colleges sailed to South Africa.

He served through the Boer war, proudly showing a medal and clasp earned while volunteering to protect his company's property from the Boers.

We could buy beans as low as 30 cents per bushel, yet we pay $2.10 for ours

We use Michigan beans picked over by hand.
We buy only the whitest, the plumpest, the fullest-grown.
They are baked in live steam—not in dry heat. Thus the skins are not broken, the beans are not scorched.
The result is, all the beans are baked until they are mealy.
Yet they are nutty, not mushy.

We could buy tomato sauce ready made for one-fifth of our cost to make it

Tomato sauce is often made from tomatoes picked green, and ripened in shipment. Such sauce is flat. Some sauce is made from scraps of a canning factory, but such sauce is not rich.

Ours is made only from whole vine-ripened tomatoes.
That is why you get a sparkling zest in Van Camp's, a piquant tang which never is found in others.

Van Camp's pork and beans baked with tomato sauce

Beans, above all foods, should be factory cooked.
It requires a fierce heat to break down the fibre—to make beans digestible—and no home can supply it.
Our ovens are heated to 245 degrees.
Then you miss, in home cooking, the delicious blend that we get by baking the sauce and the beans together.

Put the can in hot water, and your meal can be served in ten minutes

Beans are Nature's choicest food—23% nitrogenous, 84% nutrient. Even wheat falls below them in nutrient.
No food is liked better; no food is cheaper.
Then why not serve the most delicious beans that you know? Make your people want them daily. And why not keep a dozen cans in the house—a dozen meals always ready?

10, 15 and 20¢ per can.

deliberately froze his hand and ears. It is said in order to secure a "soft berth" at St. Elizabeth hospital. After accomplishing his purpose by wallowing in a snow drift for some hours, Jones proceeded to the home of Father Casey of St. Mary's church, where he told a pitiful story. Father Casey provided for a room and physician for Jones, who for several days has been enjoying the best the hospital could afford. Saturday he was released, and had been out only a few hours when, it is claimed, under the influence of many drinks as he could not tell how he duped the good father.

EX-GOVERNOR'S FUNERAL
Brings Many People to His Home at Devils Lake.

Devils Lake, N. D., Feb. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—Many men prominent in the affairs of North Dakota were here today to attend the funeral of former Governor Ell C. D. Shortridge, who died Tuesday at the age of 73. The funeral was held at 2 p. m., under the auspices of the Masonic lodge of which he was a member. The deceased was taken to Mason, Mo., the former home of the deceased, for interment.

Ex-Governor Shortridge came to North Dakota in 1881 from Macomb, Mo., where he was born and reared, being the son of pioneer residents of that state. He took up his abode at Devils Lake, where he resided continually until eight years ago, when he came to Devils Lake, since making this city his home.

Originally a Democrat, Mr. Shortridge was elected governor of the state in 1888 with a combination of Populists and Democrats, holding the office two years, when he again returned to his farm home. Since his arrival at Devils Lake, he has been in the United States land office, and held that position up to the time that his illness rendered it so severe that he was unable to continue his duties.

The deceased was 73 years of age at the time of death, and up to the time of his fatal illness had been in the very best of health. A wife and four children were left to mourn his death, three of the children being at home, while the fourth, Mrs. David Stewart, resides in the state of Washington.

WILL SEEK FRANCHISE
For Trolley Line From Houghton to South Range.

Houghton, Mich., Feb. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—James T. Healy, a local real estate dealer, will apply to the city council at the meeting tonight for a franchise for the construction of a trolley line from Houghton to South Range. The proposed line would run from Houghton, Mich., to South Range, Mich., a distance of about 10 miles. The line would be operated by the Houghton & South Range Trolley Company, which is being organized by Mr. Healy. JUDGE CAROTHERS DEAD.
Well-Known Grand Forks Attorney and Prominent Mason.

Grand Forks, N. D., Feb. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—Few deaths that have occurred here of late have aroused such genuine sorrow as that of Judge R. M. Carothers, who died at St. Mary's hospital, following an operation for prostaticitis. He was 49, a native of Allegheny county, Pa., educated at the schools of Ohio, Iowa, and the Western Pennsylvania university, and came to Grand Forks in 1885. He was elected to the bench in 1890, and held that position for ten years, since which time he practiced law. He was a past grand master of the Masons and a member of the Grand Lodge of the city. A wife and two sons survive.

SUE EAGLES' TREASURER.
Jamestown Man Alleged to be Short in His Accounts.

Jamestown, N. D., Feb. 6.—Preliminary steps in what promises to become an interesting matter of litigation have been taken in the case of the state of North Dakota against C. L. Mitchell, on complaint of William H. Huggins, as president of and agent of the Stutsman County acre 690, E. O. E. The object of the proceedings, in effect, is to secure the collection of the sum of $2,143.44, claimed to be due to the order of Eagles from Mr. Mitchell as treasurer. On Jan. 27, a complaint was made to the state's attorney by the president of the Eagles, and the matter was officially brought before Justice Campbell for a hearing, which was postponed until Feb. 8. Bond for the appearance of the defendant was fixed in the sum of $5,000, which was furnished by Andrew Haas, J. H. Severn and H. C. Flint, as sureties.

NO TAFT MOUTHPIECE.
Frank B. Kellogg Will Not Announce Secretary's Candidacy.

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—Frank B. Kellogg, who has returned from the East, denies the report that at the Lincoln club banquet next Tuesday evening he will deliver a message from Secretary Taft regarding the latter's candidacy for the presidency.

"I am to speak at the banquet," said Mr. Kellogg, "but I have nothing to announce in behalf of Mr. Taft."

CASS LAKE MAN WINS.
Bemidji, Minn., Feb. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The board of county commissioners of Cass county awarded the contract for the installing of a heating plant in the county jail at Walker to C. E. Battles of Cass Lake.

There were five bids collected for the work, as follows: Battles of Cass Lake, $560; Battles of Cass Lake, $575; Trumstead, Minneapolis, $584; Heath, Long Prairie, $1,015.

SNOW HELPS BUSINESS

Sales of Winter Supplies Have Increased Since the Storm.

Duluth wholesale and retail merchants report that the first heavy sale on winter goods occurred after the snow of yesterday. Up until yesterday, according to the report of a number of merchants, the sales on furs, fashions, snowshoes and the usual winter sporting goods supply was very small. The snow of yesterday has already brought renewed trade in this line. The sale on heavy top boots was apparent yesterday. New boots were quite the fashion, and you could see many a pedestrian trudging along unmindful of the knee-deep snow, as he was protected by a new pair of high shoes. The sale in snowshoes also showed a heavy increase with the arrival of the beautiful. Dealers in lines of winter goods have suffered from the lack of regular winter weather. While other people have been enjoying the even temperature and balmy air, they have, with the cold man, been fervently wishing for snow and the blasts that chill.

Temple Roller Rink

Second avenue east and Superior street. Open every afternoon and evening except Sundays, Mondays, Tuesday and Saturday. La Brosse's band. Children's day every Saturday from 10 to 12.

The snow of yesterday was really the first encouragement they have had this winter. It is really the first good snow—showing weather. The sale on snowshoes, moccasins, skis and other winter goods will now make up for the time lost waiting for snow. They are dusting off the winter goods, taking them down from their places on the shelf and are putting them in the show windows.

Sales on women's supplies, which have been dull, are also showing an increase since the snow.

MAY NEED A NURSERY

County Should Have One in Connection With County Jail.

Another woman with a baby in arms appeared at the courthouse from the range this morning to plead to the charge of running a blind pig. Mrs. Margaret Gregorich, against whom there are two indictments, and who is one of the party from Virginia who, it is expected, will enter pleas of guilty, came down on the morning train and her case will probably be disposed of in Judge Cant's room this afternoon. Mrs. Gregorich's baby appears to be about the size of that carried to the courtroom yesterday by Mrs. Philomena Bin of Missabe Mountain.

Both women, it is said, run boarding houses, while their husbands are employed about the mines. Each woman is said to have several children at home. Mrs. Gregorich is likely to be given a stiff fine for her two offenses, in case she pleads guilty, instead of being sent to jail.

The next criminal case for trial is that of the state against Dorech of Virginia, charged with selling liquor without a license. Jack Shoppeta of Virginia and Frank Schuster of Biwabik, who are charged with the same offense, will also stand trial. Schuster is out on cash bail in the amount of $150.

Jack Chopp of Virginia, an alleged blind-pigger, pleaded guilty and was fined $30, together with a jail sentence of thirty days. He paid the fine and is now boarding with Sheriff Bates.

Mike Jakimon pleaded guilty to hind-pigging, paid a fine of $50 and is also spending thirty days in seclusion at the county jail.

Matt Vukalich of Virginia, who has a license to sell liquor at his saloon, admitted that he sold booze from his house. For this offense he was fined $10 and sentenced to a term of thirty days in jail. In view of the fact that he has a license the court was inclined to be a little more lenient, in his case, and suspended the jail sentence.

Mrs. Bin paid her fine of $50 and her jail sentence was suspended.

SNOW IS BLESSING
To Farmers and Small Loggers Around Akeley.

Akeley, Minn., Feb. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—Farmers and small loggers are rejoicing at the good prospects made possible by the falling of eight to ten inches of snow. Thousands of cord wood was left in the woods and much timber cut was left in the woods waiting for the snow. Some of the farmers had practically decided that they must wait until next year, but the snow fall yesterday will give them a rich harvest.

The Red River Lumber company has issued notices saying that it is ready to buy all logs from the farmers at a good market price.

Jack pine, spruce, poplar and other logs are being bought. This company also buys the lath bolts and ties from the farmers, who have plenty in the woods and they will now haul them to town.

More men are being put to work as the saw mills and in the yards here and this month's pay list promises to be very much larger than last month. All married men are now at work and single men are being put to work as rapidly as possible.

Special Announcement Regarding the National Pure Food and Drug Law.
We are pleased to announce that Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung troubles is not affected by the National Pure Food and Drug law as it contains no opiates or other harmful drugs, and we recommend it as a safe remedy for children and adults. Sold by all druggists.

Eat and Get Thin
Usually if you want to get thin the injunction is—stop eating and exercise—but this is unnecessary punishment for the fat folks. One teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime of this mixture: 1/2 oz. Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatic, 3/4 oz. Syrup Simplex, will reduce the flesh rapidly and safely without causing wrinkles or interfering with the diet.

FREE FOOD IN DEMAND

Eighty-One Men Are at Bethel's Free Breakfast.

All Are Anxious to Get Some Kind of Work.

Eighty-one unemployed men took advantage of the Bethel's free breakfast at 6:30 this morning. Coffee and sandwiches were served to all the hungry men who applied at that hour.

Sixty-eight men were given free lodging at the Bethel last night. "These men are not hoboes, but industrious fellows who are really anxious to get work, but who have been unable to do so," said Rev. J. T. Moody, superintendent of the Bethel, to a reporter for The Herald, this morning.

"Of the men who have been fed here since we started the free breakfast plan, I dare say there have been a few professional bums, but not a great many. Many of those who have been out of work and have taken advantage of the help the Bethel has offered are workmen, while others are sailors and dock workers, who have been unable to land jobs for the winter.

"Out of the eighty-one we fed this morning, probably twenty-five had not been here before. Some of those who were here yesterday and the day before have since secured work. All of them are anxious to get it, if only they could. A few hours' work would be acceptable to many of these men. We are trying to get all we can for them. It would be a help if the general public would communicate with the Bethel if they had any work to offer, or knew where men were needed.

The number fed at the Bethel's breakfast table this morning was not as large as on the first day the plan was instituted, at the beginning of the week, which indicates an improvement in labor conditions.

Those who would make good in the "bread line" have to be on time. After 6:30 there are no free sandwiches and coffee. The Bethel authorities feel that if men are really looking for work, they can get their breakfasts at 6:30 and start out in search of it.

The free breakfast at the Bethel Sunday morning will be served at 9 o'clock, and will be followed by a gospel meeting.

COMMITTEE HAS HEARING

On Bills Dealing With Shipment of Liquor in "Dry" Districts.

Large Representation of Temperance Interests Urge Their Passage.

Washington, Feb. 6.—Representatives of the prohibition party, the Anti-Saloon League of America, the Woman's Christian Temperance union, the Presbyterian church, the United Presbyterian church and other Christian organizations appeared today before the house committee on the judiciary to urge a favorable report on one or more of the bills introduced to protect "dry" local option districts from receipt of interstate as well as intrastate shipments of liquor that is, to bestow the right of border-line confederation of liquor districts, questioned some of the prohibitionists. Representative Barthold of Missouri, chairman of the committee on public buildings and grounds, made an argument against the proposed measures in behalf of the National German alliance.

To Close Hearing Feb. 12. Representative Clayton of Alabama, a member of the committee, whose attitude supports federal protection of prohibition districts, questioned some of the prohibition speakers as to the legal right of the state to invoke federal or extrastate jurisdiction to the government of the very matter that is the subject of the bills. It was agreed that bills should be submitted to the committee by Feb. 12 in order to give further opportunity to the government of the very matter that is the subject of the bills. It was agreed that no further hearings would be held other than on tomorrow, Tuesday, Monday and Tuesday mornings.

How Law Will Work.

"Barthold, in complete failure of prohibition law, in Maine, Kansas and Iowa. Mr. Barthold, in complete failure of prohibition law, in Maine, Kansas and Iowa. Mr. Barthold, in complete failure of prohibition law, in Maine, Kansas and Iowa.

Representatives Clayton of Alabama and Barthold of Georgia, laughingly protested that this was not so.

"Surely, Mr. Clayton, your friend did not speak that way of Alabama," questioned Mr. Clayton.

"I'm quite positive he was not referring to Georgia," replied Mr. Barthold.

"He said Alabama, and he said Georgia," replied Mr. Barthold.

Some of the prohibition representatives joined in the laughter that followed.

WILSON NOT A CANDIDATE

Says That He Does Not Want the City Attorneyship.

Coryate S. Wilson is not a candidate for the office of city attorney, according to a statement made by him this afternoon.

Mr. Wilson withdrew from the council in order to take care of his private legal practice, and he stated today that he was not a candidate for the office of city attorney.

C. E. Adams, Mr. Wilson's campaign manager, is the next most probable candidate. Mr. Adams is considered eminently fitted for the position from a legal standpoint, and the energetic manner in which he conducted Mr. Wilson's campaign won the admiration of Mr. Wilson's supporters and opponents alike.

WHEREABOUTS OF PREMIER FRANCO

Unknown to the Lisbon People—Said to be in Spain.

Lisbon, Feb. 6.—Nothing can be learned here about the exact whereabouts of ex-Premier Franco. Some say that he has fled the country and gone to Madrid, but in other quarters it is alleged that he is still in hiding in Lisbon, and that if he does get free of the country he will make his way to Switzerland. It is evident that he is in fear of his life.

A Republican newspaper of Lisbon says that Franco has transferred his entire fortune to French or Swiss banks, and that his ultimate destination is Switzerland, where he purposes to live with his family. This paper points out that the desecrated by Franco, banished agitators from Portugal, have been voided, and that Franco himself is the only man who has really been forced to flee the country.

It is reported in court circles that Queen Amelle and King Manuel are considering a visit to Spain or England, when the home situation improves sufficient, and the people of Lisbon are resuming their normal occupations. There are very few emblems of mourning to be seen, and the fact that neither the officers nor the soldiers of the local garrisons wear crepe on their arms is commented upon by the foreigners in Lisbon.

London, Feb. 6.—A dispatch received here from Madrid says that Senor Franco, the former premier, has arrived there from Lisbon.

UNEMPLOYED WANT TO LIVE IN ROYAL PARK.

London, Feb. 6.—A little band of unemployed men who have marched all the way from Manchester, started on the last lap of their journey this afternoon. Their destination is Windsor, where they propose to take possession of a portion of the great royal park. It is their purpose to build cottages and farm the lands which surround the castle of the king. The demonstrators hope to obtain their desires peacefully, and on arriving before the castle they propose to send in a petition to King Edward asking him to give an example to the land owners of the country by granting them the use of fifty acres of the park for experimental purposes. Unless the police interfere the travelers hope to reach Windsor tomorrow.

ATTORNEYS GENERALS GET RAISE IN SALARY.

St. Paul, Feb. 6.—(Special to The Herald).—Congratulations are in order at the state legal department, as the result of handsome additions to the salaries of the assistant attorneys generals employed there. Each has had his annual stipend of $3,600 increased to $3,650, and in the case of C. S. Jolly, an extra $600 has been added, making $4,250 in all for him for the year. An extra $300 has also been placed to the credit of Mr. Weeks, the fourth assistant, whose legal salary is $1,500.

ON THE IRON RANGES

LA BELLE IRON WORKS RUNNING

This Means Increased Demand for Ore From Big Mines.

Aurora, Minn., Feb. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—Word has been received by Supt. Sedwick of the Miller mine that the La Belle iron works has been put in operation again at Steubenville, Ohio. This company is the same one that has control of the Miller mine at Aurora, the Wacoah at Mountain Iron and the Belle at McKinley, and to which the ore from these mines are shipped. The company has started the monster furnaces and rolling mills, and this fact will insure increased activity at the mines mentioned. The ore shipped last season to the Steubenville plant has been untouched, being allowed to accumulate into a huge stockpile.

Last season the Miller shipped some 300,000 tons, the Wacoah 100,000 tons, and the Belle between 50,000 and 100,000 tons. The Miller has a stockpile at the mine of about 40,000 tons. The Miller is being worked by the Pitt Mining company, on a twenty-year lease, four of which have expired. It is estimated that the mine contains about 900,000 tons of ore, and with six years to mine it in the company will have to mine twice as heavy per year as heretofore, or about one-half a million tons a year.

The Miller is a model mine, having the most complete system of underground workings of any mine on the range.

Word was received by the officials, on Feb. 1, to cut the wages of the common laborers 30 per cent. Wages were also cut at the Meadow and Mohawk. This will be temporary only, for with the big furnaces grinding out iron again, more men will have to be employed at these mines.

WOUNDED MAN IS NEAR TO DEATH

One of Victims of Eveleth Shooting Affray May Die.

Eveleth, Minn., Feb. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The shooting of the three Robrovich brothers, charged with doing the shooting Sunday night near the Adams mine, will be held this afternoon before Judge Pease.

One of the wounded men is not expected to live. A large attendance is expected tonight at the adjourned meeting of the Business Men's association, as an important report from the committee on the shooting will be made. The committee will also be taken on the home rule charter. The committee will also be taken on the home rule charter. The committee will also be taken on the home rule charter.

BOXING AND WRESTLING

Stunts May Be Pulled Off in Eveleth Soon.

Eveleth, Minn., Feb. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—There is to be something doing in Eveleth shortly in the line of boxing and wrestling. It plans now under way do not fall through. The Independent Athletic club is trying to arrange a match between Andrew Danielson, the light heavyweight wrestler of Duluth, and Gummor Gronlund of this city. A hall has already been secured for the match. The match will either be a mixed style or a straight wrestling. It will draw a good-sized crowd, as the city is full of wrestling enthusiasts. Gronlund is ready to put up forfeit money at any bank in town to make sure of a fight on the range.

The same parties are trying to get Cad Letho, a heavyweight wrestler from Chicago, together. The former is an experienced wrestler from Europe and is the partner of Gronlund.

A boxing match will be put on shortly at the Valley opera house between Nicky the Superior and his opponent. Preliminary have been secured so as to make a good attraction. Considerable interest is being shown in the contest of Duluth for a fight on the range.

SNOW ON RANGE.

Large Amount of "Beautiful" Covers Ground Around Iron Mines.

Virginia, Minn., Feb. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—Nearly two feet of snow covers the ground here as a result of the storm which began yesterday morning and prevailed all day with few lulls. The loggers are pleased over the fall of snow, which will greatly facilitate logging operations.

Eveleth, Minn., Feb. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—Yesterday saw the first big snowfall of the season, nearly two feet of the "beautiful" whirling down, to the great delight of loggers and the people generally.

Hibbing, Minn., Feb. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The heaviest snowstorm of the season prevailed here all day yesterday, the fall being in the neighborhood of two feet.

Tower, Minn., Feb. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The first heavy snow for the season fell here yesterday, an average fall of a foot being reported. The snow was a welcome one, as lack of snow in this section and to business in general. A light fall continued today.

ELY CLUB FLOURISHES.

Annual Election Shows Its Affairs Are in Good Shape.

Ely, Minn., Feb. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The annual election of the Ely club resulted in the election of the following: President, W. T. James; vice president, M. E. Gleason; treasurer, P. T. Brownell; secretary, E. L. Brownell. The board of directors, P. T. Brownell, Charles Grabowsky, B. Stra-

TWO HARBORS FIRM

Among Bidders on Minot Water Plant Work.

Minot, N. D., Feb. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—Bids for the construction of a water system for Minot, at an estimated cost of $14,000, were opened by the city council Monday evening, but as the figures are somewhat complex, action was deferred until the next morning, next Monday night. The matter was referred to the water committee with instructions to investigate the bids thoroughly and decide which is the lowest.

The bidders were as follows: Hlatrop & Olson, Minneapolis; James Kennedy, Fargo; Des Moines Bridge & Iron works, Des Moines, Iowa; Pasorelli & Lunz, Two Harbors, Minn.

DAY CURRENT WORKING.

The Business Men of Virginia Are Pleased Over It.

Virginia, Feb. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Virginia Light & Water company has begun furnishing patrons with the day electric current, which has been greatly desired. The current was turned on Tuesday and gives eminent satisfaction.

The company has practically remodelled its plant, expending $15,000 in machinery and other equipment in order to furnish the current. Those who desire electric power in running machinery are especially pleased over the improvement.

FORMER VIRGINIANS WED.

Virginia, Minn., Feb. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—P. H. Hamilton, formerly a resident of Virginia, who is connected with the Mutual Life insurance company in Duluth, and Miss Zelma Baum, formerly a teacher in the local school, have just been married. The couple were recently married in Minneapolis.

IN WRONG LIST.

Tower, Minn., Feb. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The name of John H. Hickey, who was listed as a resident of Tower, was found in the wrong list. The man is now a resident of Duluth.

MRS. ROSSITER DEAD.

Eveleth, Minn., Feb. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mrs. Richard Rossiter of Eveleth, who was 70 years old, and is survived by her husband, two sons and a daughter. The funeral will take place this afternoon.

INTEREST TO FARMERS.

Grand Rapids, Minn., Feb. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The annual meeting of the Itasca County Agricultural society will be held at the court house here, Feb. 15. Many matters of vital importance to the society and to the farmers in this section are anticipated.

Honor Their Colonel.

Members of Company C held a smoker last evening, which their former captain, Lieut. Col. Rosche was the guest of honor. The members of the company presented him with a pair of leather gloves and a pair of gauntlets as a token of their esteem.

DEER RIVER TO ARISE FROM RUINS OF FIRE.

Deer River, Minn., Feb. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The enterprising business men of this town have not been deterred by the recent disastrous fire which destroyed a large amount of property. The ashes had hardly cooled before arrangements were on foot to rebuild.

A. D. & P. Brooks have commenced the erection of a 2,000 building on the lot just west of their old site. The Itasca Clothing company is also putting up a store building.

The M. J. Baker company has moved into the old Tuller building where the business will be carried on for the present.

C. H. Marr, who owned the buildings occupied by Baker and the Itasca Clothing company, is inclined to postpone rebuilding until spring opens, when he may put up a brick structure.

BRING BODY FROM IDAHO.

Brainerd, Minn., Feb. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—A telegram has been received stating that the body of Miss Ella M. Parker of this city, who died in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, Monday, will be brought here for burial. Miss Parker was born and raised in Brainerd and has a large circle of friends here.

PANTON & WHITE CO.

financial district this week, but a close friend is authority for the statement that he saw him on Monday, and that Mr. Morse told him that he intended to go to Europe. No steamer sailed for Europe on Monday, and Morse is not on the list of any steamer sailing yesterday or today.

Troubles Come Thick and Fast. Mr. Morse had been piling thick and fast on Morse ever since last October. He was involved in the unsuccessful corner in United Copper stock, engineered by F. Augustus Helms, which marked the beginning of the panic. When the corner went to pieces, and United Copper stock came crashing down, it was reported that Mr. Morse had sold out the other members of the pool, and had caused the slump. All the stock and bonds of the Consolidated Steamship company, the greatest of the Morse transactions played in the affair. It is a question just what part the Morse transactions played in the affair. The failures of Otto Helms & Co. and of Green & Kleberg were soon announced. Then the corner in quick succession the resignation of Morse from all the banking institutions with which he was connected, the failure of the Knickerbocker Trust company, the closing of the Hamilton bank, and half a score of smaller banks and Harlem bank, which were forced to withdraw of Edward H. Thomas and Orlando F. Thomas from the banking field, the suicide of Charles L. Barney, and the spread of the panic over the United States and the civilized world. On Oct. 30, at the beginning of the panic, Morse mortgaged his Fifth avenue house for $350,000 to John F. Berwind. The property carried a prior mortgage of $150,000.

With the subsidence of the panic, the weakness of the so-called Morse banks became apparent, and this corner initiated recently in the suspension of the National Bank of North America and the New Amsterdam National bank, which were looked upon as the two most important Morse institutions. Then followed the reorganization of the Consolidated Steamship company and several of its subsidiaries.

Mr. Morse and the late Charles L. Barney organized the American National bank ten years ago, and Mr. Morse first came into prominence in connection with this company.

FORMER STREET LABORER AT KANSAS CITY IS NOW A BARONET OF ENGLAND

Genille Cave-Brown-Cave Goes to England After Estate.

Says He Will Return to Live in the United States.

The Story of His Life is a Most Romantic
One.

New York, Feb. 7.—Genille Cave-Brown-Cave sailed for England yesterday to secure the title and estate waiting there for him. He is the only surviving son of Sir Mylles Cave-Brown-Cave, who died a year ago, at the age of 84 years. Ever since the elder baronet's death, his solicitors have been searching for his son and heir, who was only recently found in America. The baronetcy is a very old one, dating from 1641, when it was created by Charles I. Sir Genille's life has been a romantic one. When a boy his father sent him to sea to cure him of his wildness, and on his return home he enlisted in a Highland regiment, and was then transferred to a cavalry regiment, just leaving for the war in Egypt.

Fought Under Wolsey.
He fought in the battle of Tel-El-Kebir, under Lord Wolsey, and later went to Afghanistan, where he was captured by the Hill tribes, but escaped after being held a prisoner for some time. Returning to England, he quarreled with his father, and came to America with a small allowance. He then went to Burma with an expedition sent out to kill big game for a museum, and afterwards served in the South African war. He lived for a time in Hongkong and Yokohama, worked as a member of the "White Wings" in Kansas City, was a cowboy in the Southwest and in Wyoming, where he was killed through inquiries sent on foot by the British ambassador at Washington. He says that he will return to America as soon as he settles his business in England, and will take up his residence in one of the Western states.

Lived at Kansas City.
Kansas City, Feb. 7.—Genille Cave-Brown-Cave lived in Kansas City two or three years ago, working at side-walk building and similar jobs. He engaged a lawyer here, and attempted to reconcile his father, the late Sir Mylles Cave-Brown-Cave, with whom he had quarreled. Failing in this, he left Kansas City and lived in Clements, Kas., for a time. Since his departure from Clements nothing definite had been known in Kansas City as to his whereabouts. It was thought that he went to Colorado, and then to Utah, where he worked as a section hand on a railroad. Cave said when he left Kansas City he was going partly because he was disgusted with the proposals of marriage that followed the publication of his story.

GOLD HUNTERS DISAPPOINTED

Another Attempt to Secure the Golden Gate
Treasure Fails.

San Francisco, Feb. 7.—Another attempt has failed to wrest from the sands of the Mexican shore line the treasure supposed to be lying with the bones of the steamer Golden Gate, which was buried off Manzanillo in 1862. The Golden Gate, bound from here for New York, carried a great shipment of newly dug California gold. The steamer took fire and to save the lives of the passengers was run ashore. At frequent intervals since then attempts have been made to recover the treasure. The most persistent of the treasure hunters has been C. W. Johnstone of Boston, who makes an annual effort to recover the Golden Gate's gold. Last year a storm swept away the pier on which he had installed his wrecking gear. He fitted another expedition, but returned yesterday on a report of another failure. Johnstone said yesterday that the pumps upon which he depended to suck the golden harvest had proved failures. He is disappointed, but not discouraged, and he and the eastern capitalists interested with him will fit out another expedition and late in the fall will be at Manzanillo ready to have one more try.

VACATION FOR NORTHROP.
President of University of Minnesota Is in Poor Health.

Minneapolis, Feb. 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—President Cyrus Northrop of the State university has been granted leave of absence for a month, and has been advised by physicians to spend it in the South, but he may not leave Minneapolis, because he fears he is not strong enough to stand the trip. He has been in poor health, suffering from throat trouble. He is unable to talk above a whisper. Members of the medical faculty of the university consider his condition serious.

HOT TIME IN CONVENTION

Knock Downs and Fist Fights Characterize Florida Meeting.

Taft and Anti-Taft Delegates Chosen by the Republicans.

St. Augustine, Fla., Feb. 7.—Florida Republicans stand promiscuously in the lime-light today as being the first to hold their convention to select delegates to the national convention. The convention was remarkable. It was really two conventions held at the same time in the same hall yesterday. The progress of business was frequently interrupted by knock downs and fist fights.

The office holders' faction was called to order by the chairman of the state committee and they proclaimed themselves the regular party, but they did not succeed in carrying out the program. The Taft sentiment was too strong for the leaders to hold in check and resolutions were adopted endorsing William H. Taft for the presidency. On the other side of the hall the contesting convention took conservative action and chose delegates unimpaired by instructions, positive assurance being by Joseph N. Stripling, that despite the fact that they were branded as bolters, the delegates they named would be seated in the national convention. The anti-Taft convention adopted resolutions approving the policies of the Roosevelt regime and instructed the delegates elected to support the candidate who is in sympathy with and who will carry out these policies, and then named W. H. Taft as such candidate. The anti-Taft convention adopted resolutions condemning in strong terms the attempts to influence and control by use of federal patronage, the selection of delegates to the national convention in the interest of the Taft presidential candidate. Nineteen of both conventions were negroes.

HANGMAN'S DAY IN LOUISIANA

Four Men Will Pay Extreme Penalty of Their Crimes.

New Orleans, Feb. 7.—This is hangman's day in Louisiana, where four men will this afternoon pay with their lives the penalty of their crimes. It is the largest number of hangings to take place on one day in the state for many years. Albert West and Edward Williams, both negroes, will be hanged at the parish jail at Lake Charles, La. West was recently convicted of the murder of John Chaney, a white man. Williams was also convicted of murder. He had a quarrel with Alice Charles, a negro, whom he knocked down and threw in a river while she was unconscious. She drowned before assistance arrived. The other condemned men are John Cuipepper of East Carroll parish, who, on July 13 last, killed C. W. Frost and Cal Thomas of East Feliciana parish, who, on Sept. 24 last, killed James Chaney.

VESSELS IN READINESS

To Proceed Through Strait of Magellan at Given Signal.

Will Raise Their Anchors
at 11 o'Clock Friday Night.

Punta Arenas, Straits of Magellan, Feb. 7.—Preparations aboard the battleships and the torpedo boat destroyers of the American Atlantic fleet for their voyage through the western section of the Straits of Magellan into the Pacific have been completed, and all the vessels are in readiness to raise their anchors when the signal to proceed is given from the flagship Connecticut, at 1 o'clock tonight. When day breaks Saturday they will have rounded Cape Horn, the extreme southern point of the South American mainland, and turned their bows northward for the run of 100 miles to the Pacific end of the straits.

Officers and men are today paying farewell calls to their friends on shore. The official farewells will be made this afternoon. The best of health prevails among the personnel of the fleet and everybody has enjoyed the stay at Punta Arenas.

CHARGES WILL BE MODERATE

No Extortion Will be Allowed at Denver During Convention.

Denver, Feb. 7.—The local committee of the Democratic national committee, having in charge the details for quartering and entertaining delegates and visitors during the national Democratic convention in July, announces that there will be no excessive charges permitted for hotel and other accommodations. The committee wishes to assure the public that Denver is able to furnish comfortable quarters for an enormous crowd, and at reasonable prices. The committee points to the manner of handling the Grand Army convention, several years ago, when upwards of 100,000 people were guests of the city, as proof of this assertion. Nine sub-committees were appointed yesterday, and the work of preparing the city for the visitors parceled out to them. Delegations from each state will be received and looked after by residents of Denver, selected and placed on special committees by reason of their previous residence in the state, from which comes the particular delegation they will care for. The entertainment of visitors will be carried out on an elaborate scale, and a fund is to be collected for this purpose.

Washington, Feb. 7.—Chairman Harry S. New, Secretary Elmer Dower and other members of the sub-committee of the Republican national committee practically have completed the hall arrangements for the national convention, which is to be held in Chicago next June. The convention will assemble in the Coliseum—the scene of many historic gatherings—which was designed and erected with special reference to the needs of a political convention. It is admirably located, being only about twelve minutes' walk from the business center of Chicago, and reached by electric surface lines. In the opinion of Secretary Dower, (Continued on page 4, third column.)

STARVING WOMAN DIES SUDDENLY

Just Receives Order for Aid When She Expires.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Feb. 7.—Mrs. Moses Tucker of this city, who died yesterday in the office of Poor Director Charles Westfield as he handed her an order for food, was a woman who had been starving for several weeks to support. Sickness, however, for the past several days prevented her from earning any money, and for a day the family had not had any food. She resolved to apply for aid. After the poor director had given her an order for clothing and food and she was murmuring a prayer of thankfulness, she fell forward into a chair and was dead in a few seconds.

Food and clothing were taken to the family before the body was carried home.

ASKED SPAIN'S AID.

Premier Franco Wrote That Government Telling of Tragedy.

Paris, Feb. 7.—The Gaulois today declares that immediately after the assassinations of the king and the crown prince of Portugal, on Saturday, Premier Franco rushed to the ministry and sent a cipher telegram to the premier of Spain. He announced a revolution in Portugal as imminent and unavoidable, and said it was bound to have a direct reaction in Spain. He asked the Spanish premier if he would consent to intervene in Portugal in case the lives of the king and queen were threatened. Premier Maura immediately communicated with King Alfonso, and summoned a cabinet meeting for 8 o'clock the next morning. The next day there was much activity in the military centers of Spain.

WOMEN OUGHT TO GO EARLIER

Crusade to Drive Shoppers Home Before Closing Hours.

Chicago, Feb. 7.—One man in Chicago has taken upon his shoulders a huge task. He is involved in this proposition: Women shoppers should buy early and get out of the shopping district before 5 p. m. Then the working girl and the tolling man could get seats in the street cars.

The brave man who proposes this idea is S. B. Mills, a member of the real estate board. At the board's meeting yesterday he broached the matter. "I have made a study of this situation for many years," said Mr. Mills. "Night after night I have watched these lazy women with their sprawling bundles march into the cars and take up half the seats. If a poor working girl who has been worn to a thread by waiting on them all day, manages to get a seat it is a miracle."

"Let us try moral suasion and coax them to see if we can't move their selfish hearts and solve one of the great features of the transportation problem. The ministers ought to preach on the subject."

PASSES SUGAR CONVENTION.
Berlin, Feb. 7.—The rehashing today passed the Brussels sugar convention, adopted also a resolution to reduce the existing duty on sugar from 14 to 10 marks per metric, per hundred weight, beginning in April 1909.

POISONED BY PENNIES.
Dubuque, Iowa, Feb. 7.—Karl Demuth, the infant son of George Demuth, rubbed pennies on his lips when they were clapped and soon blood poisoning set in and the babe died yesterday.

WORE HUSBAND'S CLOTHING.
Chicago, Feb. 7.—Mrs. Rudolph Cobb, 25 years old, put on some of her husband's clothing and with him was on the way to the Lake Shore railroad station to steal a ride on a freight train to Detroit, when she was arrested. They had $1.75. Cobb recently lost his position. He has relatives in Detroit.

United States District At-Return.

New York, Feb. 7.—The whereabouts of Charles W. Morse was still a mystery today, notwithstanding the rumors that he was in this city as late as Wednesday night. United States District Attorney Stimson, who has charge of the federal grand jury investigation of Morse's relations with some of the closed national banks, gave a greater impetus to the search for him by requesting his counsel, Albert B. Boardman, to ascertain where Morse had gone and induce him to return to New York. Mr. Boardman promptly cabled to Liverpool to intercept Morse if he should arrive at Liverpool on the steamer Campania tomorrow. The Campania is due at Queens town about 10 o'clock tonight.

Considerable doubt as to whether Mr. Morse is on board the steamer has been aroused by a report that Mr. Morse was seen in his box at the Metropolitan Opera house Wednesday evening, and the Spanish premier if he would consent to intervene in Portugal in case the lives of the king and queen were threatened. Premier Maura immediately communicated with King Alfonso, and summoned a cabinet meeting for 8 o'clock the next morning. The next day there was much activity in the military centers of Spain.

Madrid, Feb. 7.—Ex-Premier Franco and the members of his party, who left here last night on the "South Express," accompanied by his wife and son and one of his intimate friends, Senator Novas.

The former premier displayed great nervousness at the railroad station. He arrived there accompanied by several policemen and entered by a side door. While paying for the tickets for his party his hands trembled so that the money fell from them to the floor.

HEARTRENDING SCENES AS RELATIVES OF KING CARLOS VIEW REMAINS

Monarch's Hands, Repeatedly Kissing Them.

Remains of King and Son Taken to Chapel at Midnight.

Entire Fortune of Late Ruler Will Not Exceed $30,000.

Lisbon, Feb. 7.—The body of King Carlos was placed in its coffin yesterday, after which the queen mother, Maria Pia, Queen Amelie, his wife, and Manuel, his son, were admitted to view the remains. There was then a painful and heart-rending scene, for the two queens and the young king broke down and wept bitterly. Maria Pia had been kneeling in prayer beside the body of the king. Suddenly, a victim to uncontrollable emotion, she grasped the dead man's hands in hers and kissed them repeatedly. Her face was streaming with tears. Inwardly weeping, she removed her gently though forcibly from the side of the bier. When the wife and son of the dead monarch were admitted to the mortuary chamber they knelt in prayer, tears flowing from their eyes and their voices choked with emotion.

Body Taken to Chapel.
It was midnight when the body, in its coffin, was solemnly transported to the royal chapel. All the doctors and high officials of the palace were in attendance. The head of the procession to the palace led the procession, carrying the palace cross. He was followed by the palace major-domo, and then came a group of courtiers and other officials. Behind the coffin marched the duke of Oporto, the king's brother, and Vice Admiral Capello, the latter bearing the king's plumed helmet and sword. The troops presented arms as the cortege passed. On the breast of the dead king were various insignias and orders, and his hands were encased in white gloves. His fingers were a mass of beads and black pearls. As the procession moved slowly along, priests recited the prayers for the dead, while from afar could be heard the boom of cannon on board the warships. When the final prayers were said the palace church bells broke out in a rhythmic and cadenced dirge. A similar ceremony marked the transfer of the

PASSENGERS ALL RESCUED

No Lives Were Lost in Wreck of the Steamer
Anselm.

New Orleans, Feb. 7.—Further advices received in this city, early today, regarding the wreck of the United Fruit company's mail steamer Anselm, state that the vessel is on Sergeant's Key, a coral formation, fifty miles southeast of Belize, British Honduras. All of the passengers and crew are safe, but the cargo will probably be almost a total loss, and the chances for saving the steamer appear small. The Anselm was valued at $100,000, and was fully insured. The cargo, which was a general one, represents a loss of about $25,000, partly covered by insurance.

Later dispatches also state that assistance was rendered by the United States gunboat Marietta, which went to the assistance of the Anselm as soon as the news of the wreck reached Puerto Cortez.

BOY DIES FROM BROKEN HEART

Lad Drops Dead Because He Could Not Study
Music.

New York, Feb. 7.—Heartbroken because his musical ambition was thwarted, 14-year-old Ernest Roth dropped dead today in Broadway on his way to a manual training school.

The boy had remarkable talent and begged to be allowed to study as a musician, but his father decided that he must learn engineering. He was a frail child, and was bitterly disappointed when sent to the Stuyvesant school for manual training.

While in a Broadway car at Fifty-ninth street, on his way down to the school, the boy went bitterly and when he tried to get off he staggered and fell dead on the sidewalk.

"Why the boy is dead," said the doctor at Roosevelt hospital, where he was taken. "His heart failed—a very remarkable case."

In the right pocket of the boy's jacket was found this note, dated this morning: Hayward: Please transfer my son from the high school of commerce to the Stuyvesant school, as I want him to learn a trade. Yours very truly, CHARLES E. ROTH.

The transfer has been granted by Principal Hayward of the school of commerce.

Fire Threatens to Destroy West End Business Block.

S. W. Hill Suffers a Loss—Building is Saved.

Fire threatened to destroy the Sloan block, Twenty-third avenue west and Superior street, one of the most important in the West end, about 9:30 last evening, when the fire department was called to put out a stubborn blaze in that section of the structure occupied by S. W. Hill, clothing.

The fire was largely confined to the Hill establishment but the loss on the clothing stock and damage to the building will probably amount to $10,000, fully covered by insurance.

The ground floor of the Sloan building is occupied by several stores, while on the second there are only two stores—there are offices and halls used by lodges and other organizations. Two meetings were in progress at the time the fire broke out but when the small of smoke began to fill the halls, the alarm was sounded and all those present got out of the building without injury.

The fire was discovered by a passer-by, who turned in an alarm at once. Most of the damage to the Hill stock was caused by water. A. E. Leimola's music store, adjoining, was somewhat damaged. The other tenants of the building suffered practically no loss whatever.

REPUBLICANS MAKE MERRY. Members of West End Club Celebrate Victories at Polls.

Members of the West End Republican club met last evening to talk over their victory at the polls Tuesday. Mayor-elect Roland D. Haven, Alderman-elect J. J. Moa of the Seventh ward, and Alderman-elect E. E. Olson of the Sixth ward, were present and were given an ovation. All three candidates were supported by the club during the recent campaign.

Mr. Haven gave a short address, thanking his friends of the club for their assistance. Mr. Haven, as is well known, is himself a candidate for West end and he always has the interest of that section of the city at heart. He did not mention who his appointees would be.

Messrs. Moa and Olson also spoke, thanking the members of the club for their good work. Others who spoke were President George W. Jensen, George Miller, J. W. Cummings, Andrew Horn, Capt. D. E. Stevens and Alderman Kennedy.

The meeting was held in a West end restaurant.

MEN WILL BAKE CAKES. Will Show Ladies How to Conduct Church Supper.

The men of the First Norwegian-Danish Methodist church are going to show the ladies of that congregation a thing or two about conducting supper and socials. They are going to give one next week and propose to do all their own work, from baking of the cakes to waiting on the tables. Nor will they brook any interference from the members of the fair sex.

All next week the men will be busy cooking tasty dishes to go on the festive board Friday. Some of the ladies are intimating that an epidemic of indigestion is liable to follow the festivities, but the leaders in the supper project are paying no attention to such fibs.

After the supper there will be a program. The proceeds of the entertainment will be turned into the fund for the new church, now nearing completion.

MINISTER STILL MISSING. Echo, Minn., Feb. 7.—The disappearance of Rev. E. L. Honyeweg from his home in Wood Lake remains as much of a mystery, at the end of two weeks, as ever. The report that he was at the home of his mother, at Waton, Iowa, appears to have been a hoax. Letters have been received from the mother to the effect that she has not seen him.

LADIES' AID IS HOAXED

One Member Dons Disguise and Fools Her Friends.

Church Funds From Them.

Many ladies of Grace M. E. church found out at the meeting of the Aid society this week that the money they had expended during the week buying pop-corn from a feeble old lady, who called after night-fall, bearing evidences of having an awful struggle to make a living, had been really turned into the church coffers.

Miss Mayme Kennedy is the one responsible for the hoax, and she is now laughing at the expense of the other members of the ladies' aid. One way of raising church funds is to have every member of the society earn a dollar by some method, and turn it into the organization with an explanation of how it was obtained. It was Miss Kennedy's explanation that surprised the Grace church ladies this week.

She was very careful to have her costume and make-up as effective as possible. She called at the homes of her friends and disguising her voice, tried to persuade them to buy her goods. Most of them bought and some of them anxiously inquired as to her health and ability to make around the city selling pop-corn. But none of them suspected who she was.

So complete was her disguise that at one house, where the lady happened to be absent, the children of the house held wanted to dump pennies for their toy kites to give to the old saleswoman.

The meeting of the Aid society this week was held at the home of Mrs. Dice, on Fourth street and Twenty-seventh avenue west.

BRILLIANT WEDDING.

Two Prominent Young People of West End Are Married.

Miss Jennie Brendle and Ralph Iverson were married last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Brendle, 295 West Fifth street.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Hortholm, formerly pastor of Zion Lutheran church, Twenty-fifth avenue west and Third street. Rev. Mr. Stenlund, pastor of the Grace church, officiated at the wedding.

Many guests were at the wedding, which was one of the prettiest ever held in the West end. Both Mr. and Mrs. Iverson have a large host of friends.

They will make their home in this city.

West End Shortfalls.

Rev. J. A. Anderson, pastor of the First Swedish M. E. church, returned yesterday from two hours, where he has been conducting meetings.

Miss Marie Anderson leaves tomorrow morning for Bayfield, Wis., where she will visit her sister, Mrs. W. E. Close, for several weeks. Miss Anderson will take her place in Dr. Greeley's office.

The Swedish Christian Sick Benefit society will hold its regular meeting this evening at Sloan's hall.

At a meeting to be held Monday evening at the home of Miss Thera Peterson, 181 West Second street, the Altar guild of St. Luke's Episcopal church will be reorganized. The altar guild is the misnomer of the parish. The pastor, Rev. R. J. Montoye, has appointed Mrs. Grove mission and who will be assisted by Mrs. Lee.

It's worth while to see our hats, none better being worn at night—we'll make it new. Pearson's, 1814 Piedmont avenue west.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shimonek, whose marriage took place a short time ago, have come to Portland, Or. and Los Angeles, Cal., where they will remain for two months. Upon their return from the West they will make their home at Jamestown, N. D.

Get the hard hat—Go to the Star theater tonight. New show every Sunday and Thursday. Matinee Saturday at 2:30.

Rev. R. J. Mooney will preach the first of a series of three sermons, "The Three Temptations of Christ," at St. Luke's Episcopal church Sunday evening. The service will begin at 7:45. The other sermons of the series will also be given at St. Luke's.

Take no chances, have your prescriptions filled at the Lion Drug Store. Axel Paulson of Stockholm, Sweden, rescued Duane yesterday. He will make his home in the West end.

F. H. Bracke of Chicago transacted business in the West end yesterday. Members of the Gopher and Allentown Social clubs are planning sleigh rides for the near future.

For work lungs, use the Norwegian Cod Liver Oil, sold at the Lion Drug Store.

The youngsters of the West end have prepared a ski slide on Nineteenth avenue west between Second and Third streets, that is probably as well patronized as the professional place in Chester Park. Every afternoon, after school hours, sees a host of boys and girls sliding there.

Bert Barber of Elton, Wis., says: "I have only taken four doses and they have done for me more than any other medicine has ever done. Mr. Barber refers to Doctor's Kidney and Bladder Pills, sold by all druggists."

Plans for Coliseum

while arrangements for previous conventions in the Coliseum have been excellent, they will be better this year than ever before. As planned now, the Coliseum in June will be the most complete convention hall in the United States, although one or two other halls are larger.

Experience Valuable.

To Chairman New and Secretary Dover past experiences in effecting arrangements for national conventions has proved valuable. They have perfected plans which will make the Coliseum almost an ideal convention hall. Every improvement they have suggested to the architect tends to the comfort and convenience of those who attend the convention. The most radical of these improvements is an entire change in the seating arrangements. The platform, instead of being at the center of one side of the Coliseum will be at one end. This will not decrease the number of seats, but will permit all who occupy seats both to see and hear all the proceedings.

The total number of seats, according to present plans, is 11,011, which includes the seats provided in the balcony that extends around the hall. On a raised platform above the floor of the auditorium will be provided seats for the chairman and secretaries of the convention, and fifty-six seats for members of the national committee. The section immediately in the rear of the platform was provided for specially invited guests, and will contain 1,826 seats. Directly in front of the platform, and extending on both sides of it, are the sections provided for working members of the press. These sections will give desk room for 416 writers, nearly 100 more than were provided for at the last convention. In the body of the hall 1,000 seats are provided for the delegates, and immediately back of them 1,000 more have been set aside for the alternates. On each side of these two sections, and in the rear of them are 3,615 seats for the twelve, exclusive of the several orators and guests' sections. In the balcony sections contain 3,098 seats for the general public, most of them being very desirable.

Twelve Entrances.

Entrances to the hall are provided on all sides, the total number being twelve, exclusive of the several entrances from the basement to the platform and guests' sections. In the basement admirable arrangements have been made for the convenience of the delegates, alternates and the members of the press. Telegraph and telephone offices will be established, and typewriting rooms will be provided for newspaper men.

The decorations of the Coliseum, both inside and outside, will be elaborate and beautiful.

FRANCO EN ROUTE

These arrangements finally completed, the travelers quickly entered a sleeping car which had been switched to a side track and which later was attached to the regular Paris train. Policemen surrounded the car to keep back the curious crowd. The Spanish government detailed a detective to accompany Franco to the frontier.

No Remorse for Conduct.

Senor Franco was approached for an interview. He explained that under the circumstances he preferred to say nothing, but he authorized a member of his party to converse with a representative of the Associated Press and say for him that he suffered no remorse for his conduct as a statesman. On the contrary, he was firmly convinced that the policy he had pursued was the wisest one possible. "Portugal was in a state of demoralization," said the spokesman for Senor Franco, "and every excess of liberty today while having an apparent effect of tranquility, will in reality only add to the violent passions of the people which later will explode with greater violence."

Murders, the Acts of Madmen.

Senor Franco does not seem to be at the members of the king and the crown prince resulted from an elaborate political plot; they were the acts of madmen instigated by a passion for the money they received for their crime. The best proof of this is found in the fact that after the assassinations, when the monarchy was passing through its critical hours and the nation was without a government no serious attempt was made to proclaim a republic.

Senor Franco is now leaving Portugal, but he does not take the step because he is trying to forget his acts and policies, but because he desires to avoid the occasion for further political discussion which would only inflame the passions of the people."

In conclusion the spokesman for the ex-premier said he thought it probable that Senor Franco eventually would go to Switzerland.

CONTRACT FOR VESSEL

The Northern Navigation Company's New Boat Ready in 1909.

Will Run With Huronic Between Duluth and Sarnia.

Harry T. Huron, Duluth agent for the Northern Navigation company, returned yesterday from Toronto, where he attended the annual meeting of representatives of the steamship company. While in Canada Mr. Huron had an opportunity of examining plans for the new steamer which is to be built and placed on the Duluth run by the Northern Navigation company, and to learn particulars in regard to the details of construction.

A contract for building the vessel already has been let, and it will not be ready to be placed in operation before the season of 1909. It is claimed the boat will easily be the finest on the upper lakes. It will measure nearly 400 feet in length, being longer by sixteen feet than either the Tonesta or Junia, the big Anchor line boats that ply between Duluth and Buffalo. The new steamer will be run in connection with the Huronic, between Sarnia and Duluth, and will be placed regularly in the service at the opening of navigation next year.

The boat, which is to be built at Collingwood, will carry 425 first-class passengers, and will have accommodations for seventy-five second-class passengers. No expense will be spared in the matter of finishing or furnishings, and the state rooms will be well up to the standard of the big Atlantic liners. They will be finished in hardwoods, and the furnishing will be the best obtainable.

A contract has been made by the Northern Steamship company and the Grand Trunk railway.

Steamship business between Duluth and the Canadian cities along the lakes has been increasing in recent years, and officials of the Northern Navigation company say there will be plenty for both the Huronic and the other boat on the Duluth run next year.

RAISULI GIVES UP CAID M'LEAN

Commander of Sultan's Body Guard Freed After Seven Months.

Tangier, Feb. 7.—Caid Sir Harry MacLean, commander of the sultan's body guard, and next to the sultan the most influential man in Morocco, has arrived here under an escort from the hands of Raisuli, who has held him under bondage for the last seven months. He was brought here in accordance with the agreement which the British government finally succeeded in making with Raisuli for his release in return for which Great Britain will pay $100,000 to Raisuli and guarantee him protection and immunity from harm.

The capture of Caid MacLean was carefully planned. He went out to meet Raisuli alone in order to persuade the bandit chief to resume a peaceful mode of life. Raisuli sent a message to the sultan announcing the capture of the commander of his body guard, and informing his majesty that he would hold the general a prisoner until the demands he submitted were granted. These terms included the payment of a large indemnity and the reappointment of Raisuli to the governorship of Tangier.

Subsequently the British government took the negotiations upon its shoulders, finally succeeding in bringing Raisuli to terms.

SERMON LECTURES.
Rev. J. W. Powell Will Give Series of Talks on Literature.

Rev. John Walker Powell will begin tonight a series of Friday evening sermon lectures at the Epworth Methodist Episcopal church. These will hereafter be a regular feature of the church services, in a measure taking the place of the Sunday evening sermon. At the same time they will afford a wider range in the choice of subjects and the scope of discussion than would be the case in a Sunday service.

The subject of the initial series will be "The Masterpieces of Fiction," and the February topics will be "The Science of Conscience," Feb. 21, Victor Hugo, "Les Misérables," "The Making of a Christian," Feb. 28, Cervantes, "Don Quixote," "The Friendless People's Friend."

The service will begin promptly at 7:45. Mrs. Holmer Collins will sing to night. No admission is charged, but an offering will be taken.

POSTAGE REDUCED ON PAPERS TO CANADA.
Ottawa, Ont., Feb. 7.—The following was given out by the postoffice department yesterday:

"An amendment has been made to the convention between Canada and the United States regarding the postage on daily papers. Daily newspapers, now charged 4 cents a pound, will in future be 1 cent a pound. Weekly newspapers and periodicals remain the same, 4 cents a pound."

YOUNG BOY BITTEN
By African Baboon Which Escaped From Its Cage.

Ocean Park, Cal., Feb. 7.—Mark Howlette, 13 years old, and a pupil in the Ocean Park school, was bitten in the face, the back of the neck and leg yesterday by a large African baboon, which escaped from its cage at the home of George B. McClelland and broke into the lunch room of the school, causing panic and confusion.

Another baboon which escaped at the same time raced around the school yards and chased and frightened children, who took refuge in the schoolhouse and other buildings.

Young Howlette's wounds are regarded as serious. The animals were attracted to the building by the lunches of the children, upon which they feasted before being recaptured by McClelland and others who came to assist him.

OSCEOLA CANNOT HOLD MEETINGS.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Feb. 7.—Judge Knappen, in the United States court here, yesterday, granted the petition of Albert S. Elgelow to enlarge the preliminary injunction granted last April against the Osceola Mining company.

The enlarged injunction prohibits the company from holding its annual meeting, or any special meeting, of stockholders until the further order of the court. This will prevent the Calumet & Hecla company from voting stock which it holds in the Osceola company, and the injunction will remain in effect until the whole copper controversy is settled. It is claimed by Elgelow that Calumet & Hecla owns 20,000 shares of Osceola stock—enough to place the management of that company under Calumet & Hecla rule.

A single trial will prove that for purity and wholesomeness Hunt's Perfect Baking Powder and Extracts cannot be equaled.

MICHIGAN GRAND JURY

Charged by Judge to Thoroughly Investigate Three State Matters.

Mason, Mich., Feb. 7.—Judge West yesterday afternoon charged the Ingham county grand jury, which he had called several days ago, while in Lansing, to investigate three state matters.

The first matter was the resignation of late state treasurer, who resigned while under charges made by Governor Warner of misfeasance in office; the reports that certain senators solicited bribes to defeat, at the last session of the legislature, the bill establishing a binder twine plant at the state prison in Jackson, and the charge made by Governor Warner, while the election of

The Upholstery Goods

A Sale of Importers' Samples

THE LOT CONSISTS of about 100 pieces—all practically 1½ yds square. Attached to some of the large pieces are sample swatches of nearly ½ yd, showing the different colors of the patterns—some with one swatch attached, some with two and some with three. When the large piece is bought the swatches go along FREE.

Without doubt this is the finest line of upholstery coverings ever shown in the city—by far the finest we have ever been privileged to present. Included are Silk Brocade Velvets with gold tinsel, Silk Antique Tapestries, Bengal Tapestries, Silk Damasks, Silk Repps, Silk Velvets, Cotton Velours, English, French and Scotch Tapestries, hand-made Russian Linen Crash (printed), and no two pieces alike.

This sale will begin at 8:30 prompt, Saturday morning, in the Drapery Department, 3rd floor. Remember—only about 100 pieces—and a wonderful bargain in this line of goods.

THE WALL VERY THIN

That Separates Us From Future Life, Says Noted Scientist.

Society Beginning to Hear Comrades on the Other Side.

London, Feb. 7.—Serious statements by Sir Oliver Lodge command respectful attention, even when he abandons science for mysticism. It therefore was with something like eerie amazement rather than skepticism that a meeting of the Psychological Research society listened to the distinguished scientist practically affirm that communications had been received from the dead during secret experiments, tests recently conducted by members of that society through spiritualistic mediums, or automatists, as Sir Oliver called them.

Several automatists were concerned in the tests, the most notable being Mrs. Piper and Mrs. Verrall. Sir Oliver described the former as one whose fame has spread to all lands and who had been under strict supervision and competent management for the greater part of her psychological life. Mrs. Verrall he designated as "one of our sanest and acutest investigators." Referring to what happened at the stances, Sir Oliver said:

"The most important set of phenomena are those of automatic writing and talking. What do we find? We find the late Edward Gurney, late Richard Hodgson, and the late F. W. H. Myers, with others less known, constantly endeavoring to communicate with us, with the express purpose of patently proving their identity by giving us cross correspondences between different mediums. We also find them answering specific questions in a manner characteristic of their known personalities, giving evidence of knowledge appropriate to them."

"Not easily or rarely do we make this admission. In spite of long conversation with what purports to be the surviving intelligence of these friends and investigators, we were by no means convinced of their identity by mere general conversation, even when it was of a friendly character, such as in an ordinary case would be considered amply sufficient identification of friends speaking, say, through a telephone or typewriter."

Sought Criminal Proof. "We required definite and crucial proof—proof difficult even to imagine, as well as difficult to supply. Ostensible communications resulting from the need of such proof as fully as we do and have done their best to satisfy rational demand. Some of us think they succeeded. Others are still doubtful.

"Cross correspondences, that is the reception of part of the message through one medium, part through another, neither portion separately being understood by either, is good evidence of one intelligence dominating both automatists. In the message is characteristic of some particular dead person, and is received as such by people to whom he was not intimately known, then it is fair proof of the continued intellectual activity of that person."

It further, we get from his piece of literary criticism which was eminently his own, which has not occurred to ordinary people, then I say the proof, already striking, tends to become crucial. The phenomenon, as if in direct line of the evolutionary advance, it seems like the beginning of a new human faculty. First of all, the evidence led us to realize the truth of telepathy, that first chapter of the new volume we set ourselves to explore."

Like Boring a Tunnel. Sir Oliver, in the course of his conversation, said:

Take Off 10, 20 or 30 Lbs. How much thinner would you like to be, ten, twenty, thirty or fifty pounds? You can take off superfluous flesh without dieting, exercise or spoiling the outline of beauty at a trifling expense by asking your druggist for ½ oz. Marmola, ½ oz. Fluid Extract Cassia Aromatic, and 3½ oz. Syrup Simplex. Take a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime. This is a safe and simple but highly recommended home recipe.

SERVICES ABANDONED

East End People Will Not Attend Church at Night.

Friday Evening Lecture Course Substituted in Endion Church.

That East end people will not attend church services on Sunday evenings is the claim of Rev. J. W. Powell of the Endion Methodist church, and the Sunday evening service in that church has been discontinued in favor of a Friday evening lecture course on the moral lessons to be drawn from great works of literature.

The Endion Methodist church has for the past three or four years been one of the most popular churches in the city for Sunday morning service, and the building is generally crowded, but during that time the Sunday evening service has been attended by from ten to thirty people.

"The people who attend Sunday evening service invariably pick out a large, centrally located church," said Mr. Powell this morning. "They select a church where they can expect good music and the big central churches are the only ones east of the Point of Rocks which get a good attendance Sunday evenings. The regular members of the churches in the East end prefer to stay at home Sunday evenings. This is the reason why I have abandoned the Sunday evening service. I propose to substitute the Friday evening lectures for the Sunday night service."

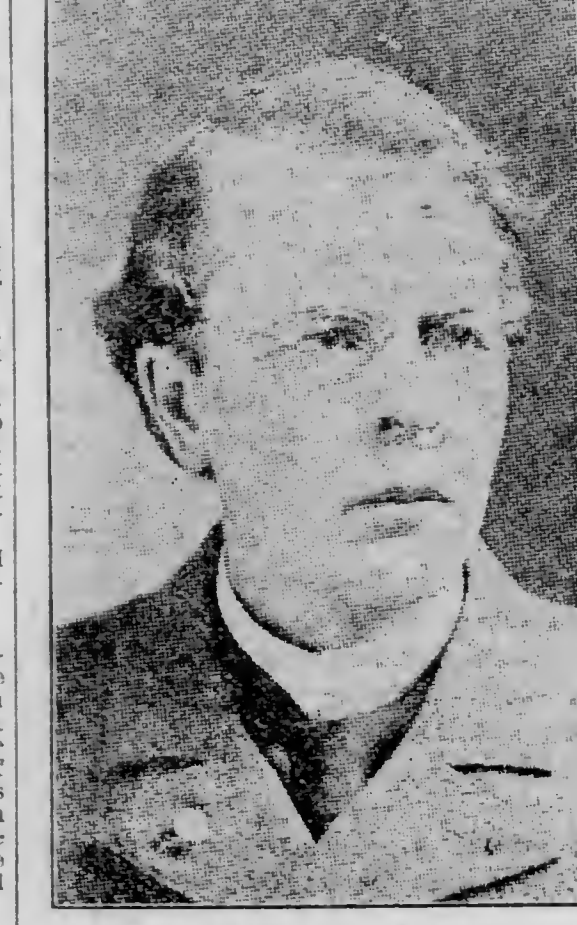

MACHINE IS DISRUPTED

Frank M. Eddy Claims Republican Party is Badly Split.

"John A. Johnson is a Wonderful Man," He Says.

There isn't much left of the state Republican machine, according to ex-Congressman Frank M. Eddy, who is at the Lenox today. Mr. Eddy believes that harmony and peace and effective progress can only come when the leaders of the party come to a unanimous agreement over some course of procedure that will insure victory at the polls.

Mr. Eddy believes that the Republican organization has been split by internal dissension. On the other hand, the former congressman believes that the Democrats have a fairly good working force for the head of the ticket. They don't expect to elect much more than that, says Mr. Eddy. They have centered their hopes on the governorship and will

City Will Force Collections.

City Treasurer Hunter announces that unless the delinquent real and personal property taxes are paid by a certain date the city will take steps to levy on the real estate and seize the personal property for the amount of the taxes. The law provides for the levy and seizure, but hitherto the city authorities have been lenient in the matter. This year the treasurer will endeavor to follow the letter of the law to see if the collections cannot be forced where the taxpayers are delinquents.

Discuss Avenue Improvement.

A meeting of the property owners interested in the improvement of Hammond avenue, between Belknap and Twenty-first streets, was held at the Commercial club last evening. There was considerable discussion relative to the method and the material that should be used in the proposed improvement. The majority of those present favored the boulevarding of the center of the thoroughfare, and paving the sides with plain macadam. The minority favored the boulevarding of the sides with a substantial pavement in the center. A committee was appointed to visit or correspond with all the property owners along the avenue and get their opinion as to the best plan to be followed.

SECRETARY TAFT

Wants a New Law on Mileage for Army Officers.

Washington, Feb. 7.—Secretary Taft has decided to aid officers suffering from a certain injustice, by recommending an amendment to the provisions of the mileage law as embodied in the army appropriation bill which is now being considered by the house committee on military affairs.

The justice which he points out indicates that an officer traveling from St. Michael to Nome, in Alaska, a distance of 110 miles, is entitled to reimbursement at the rate of four cents per mile, amounting to $4.40, while the actual expense of his trip (including consumable nine days) estimating meals and lodging at $1 each, would be $9; expenses of a helper $22.50, and extra dog feed for seven dogs, $31.50, making a total of $90, or a net loss to the officer of $85.60.

Commenting upon this, Secretary Taft says: "I have had brought to my attention an instance of a lieutenant who was under orders to make this trip four times a year, at a personal sacrifice of about $88.20, and his duties also required him to make a trip to Safety Harbor and Kaituma at like personal sacrifice. Other instances could be cited of the pecuniary hardships with which officers are confronted in Alaska."

Secretary Taft recommends that hereafter, actual expenses shall be paid to officers when traveling under current orders within the limits of the territory of Alaska.

MAY BE BRIDE OF ABRUZZI.

Report That Senator Elkins' Daughter is Engaged to Explorer.

Washington, Feb. 7.—Miss Katherine Elkins, daughter of Senator Elkins, of West Virginia, and a granddaughter of Henry Gassaway Davis, is reported to be engaged to the Duke of Abruzzi, noted Arctic explorer and mountain climber. Close friends of Miss Elkins are responsible for circulation of the report, although she said yesterday there was nothing in it. She denied the rumor. She denied knowing whether the duke contemplates another visit to America soon.

In his recent visit here, the duke was entertained by the Elkins family, and openly expressed his admiration of Miss Elkins.

DELIGHTFUL DINING

Good Food, Good Company, Good Service at Hotel St. Regis, New York.

A FAMOUS RESTAURANT.

It is stated on reliable authority that more than half a million dollars is nightly paid at the cash desks of New York City restaurants by people who dine. At many of the great dining establishments, for which that city is famous, it is often necessary to engage tables in advance if one would avoid waiting for the danger of going hungry.

One of the most inviting of New York restaurants is that in the Hotel St. Regis, at Fifth avenue and Fifty-fifth street. Here one is assured good company, good food and good service amid unsurpassed surroundings. A visit to this sumptuous dining-room of an evening, with its crystal chandeliers all aglow, with its faultlessly set, flower-centered tables, surrounded by beautiful women and well-groomed men, and the sparkling jewels and wines mingled with the irresistible sparkle of wit and good-fellowship, is a pleasure which no visitor to New York should miss. In the grand dining hall of the St. Regis, easily the most beautiful room of its kind in the world, or for that matter, in any city, are numerous smaller dining-rooms here provided, you will realize the fact that St. Regis cookery tempts and satisfies, while St. Regis prices bring the most within reach of those who must consider the cost. The restaurant charges being no higher than at other hotels of the first class.

But the St. Regis restaurant, superior as it is, is only one of the numerous attractions offered by this leader among the great hotels of the world. In every detail that makes for comfort, safety and healthfulness, this perfectly built and equipped hotel is pre-eminent. A beautifully furnished room for $4 a day, or the same with bath for $5 a day, or a parlor, bedroom and bath for $12.

BUTTER IS VERY HIGH

The Scarcity of Cream Sends the Market Soaring.

Eggs Are Weaker—The Cheese Market Holds Firm.

Cream is rather a scarce article at this time of the year, which is largely an explanation of the bulge in butter prices which has taken place in the produce market during the past week.

The range of creamery prints on Michigan street is 34 to 35 cents, and this high level will be maintained for another month, at least so the commission says.

Butter prices have been steadily climbing for a long time. Every day did not see a change in prices, perhaps, nor every week, but every two weeks has witnessed a slight bulge. At the end of the thirty days the trade anticipates a decline, quite as gradual as the advance has been.

Eggs, on the other hand, are a little easier, although quotations remain practically unchanged. The easier undertone to the egg market is due to larger receipts of fresh eggs. The storage stocks are being rapidly cleaned up. Every day this week has seen more fresh eggs and fewer storage eggs.

Fresh eggs are quoted at from 24 to 25 cents a dozen. Storage eggs are 18 to 19 cents.

The demand for both butter and eggs—popular staples—is very firm.

Cheese holds firm at unchanged prices.

The past week has seen a slight decline in oranges and apples. These fruits were never received in larger quantities, or in better quality, than now. Receipts of oranges and apples have been very generous during the past few days. The demand has been good.

On the whole the trade is well pleased with the business in oranges and apples that has been done. The season for either is not over, though, by any means. California naval oranges are selling at $2.25 to $2.25. New York apples are $4 to $4.50. Idaho apples, which are easier, are $2 to $2.25 a box.

The season for imported Malaga grapes is about over. Importations have stopped, and the stocks are now entirely in the hands of the jobbers. There are still some to be had in the local market, but supplies are light and when they are exhausted no more will be bought.

Havana pineapples are coming in in quantities ample for the demand. They are quoted at $2.25 a dozen.

The demand for grape fruit continues firm. Florida grape fruit, extra fancy, is quoted at $5.50 a box.

Receipts of strawberries are keeping up at about the same rate as when they were first seen in the local market this year. They are light, and the demand varying. Prices are still too high to make the strawberry popular from a general short-cake point of view.

Sweet potato stocks are running rather low when they are exhausted Duluth will have seen the last of them for this season. The demand is not very large, although prices remained unchanged, owing to the diminishing supplies.

The white potato market is strong. Choice reds are quoted at 62 cents a bushel, and choice whites at 65 cents.

The poultry and fish market had experienced no fluctuations during the past seven days. The market has been rather quiet with receipts ample for present needs.

Pork loins are a shade higher, a circumstance which has been the only feature of the meat market during the week.

DEATH RATHER THAN OLD AGE

Pathetic Suicide of Romanian Baroness, Rich and a Beauty.

Bucharest, Feb. 7.—Cold in death lies Baroness von Schwitser, the famous Romanian beauty and millionaire. Despite her wealth her position, her fame, her funeral will be at midnight by the light of flaring torches, and her body will lie in unconsecrated ground. For she is dead by her own hand—a suicide.

Fear of old age and the loss of her beauty drove her to death. There is no mystery about the tragedy which has caused so intense a sensation throughout Romania. The baroness left a letter in which she stated the plain facts—that she could not bear to survive her good looks.

Romania indeed was her life. She was the daughter of humble parents. Her father kept a little village store. His daughter's beauty developed early. It was extraordinary. A wealthy Russian, Count Hallowitch, traveling through that section, came face to face with the peasant girl in her native village. He was captivated immediately, sought out her parents and then there, although she was only 16, married her.

As the Countess Hallowitch her beauty blossomed out and dazzled the capitals of Europe. In St. Petersburg, in Vienna, in Bucharest, Budapest, she was soon famous. After nearly a quarter of a century of brilliant life, she counted down, leaving her entire fortune, over $5,000,000, to the countess.

As a widow, barely 40 years old, her ripened beauty still reigned supreme. To her charms was now added her wealth, and suitors for her hand were many. The baroness was an Austrian nobleman, Baron von Schwitser.

The baron and baroness lived for the most part in the latter's castle at Craiova. Little by little the baroness began to feel the ravages of time. She spent large sums on aids to beauty, on hair dyes, on face washes, and employed skilled maids and masseuses. But no beauty doctors could banish her 40 or more years. The baroness sorrowed over the loss of her dazzling

THE GREAT LITIGATION AND MONEY-RAISING SALE

BETWEEN FIRST AND SECOND AVENUES EAST.

NEW YORK STORE

109 EAST SUPERIOR STREET.

BETWEEN FIRST AND SECOND AVENUES EAST.

WILL CONTINUE BUT FOR A FEW DAYS

Just long enough to pay off every dollar indebtedness of The New York Store Company. While it would never do to have pending law suits by a stockholder against a corporation for partnership, where the corporation has to satisfy not only the public, but every one who enters a public trading place, and to have obligations to meet besides, therefore, let corporation money only be spent in courts and with the lawyers. But under no consideration shall creditors suffer to the value of anything. LAW SUITS ARE CHEAP TO GET INTO! BUT VERY, VERY COSTLY TO GET OUT OF THEM. This is our view from a business standpoint, which you will doubtless agree with us, and we are duty bound to pay off all indebtedness and NOT TO REPLENISH ANYTHING WHILE THE NEW YORK STORE COMPANY is still indebted. By this you can judge for yourself that it is a bona fide Money-Raising Sale—where style, quality, value and cost has to be sidetracked. A sale where nothing is to be taken into consideration except the converting of high-class Women's Outer Garments into cash at very short notice. Each and every garment or Fur in The New York Store is marked at and Below Cost—nothing is being reserved. Skirts, Suits, Coats, Waists, Furs, Fur Coats and Fur-lined Coats have the Litigation Cut-Price Yellow String Ticket, showing the difference from their former regular prices. Look for the price on the Yellow Ticket and you will buy your attire for about one-half, one-third, and garments as cheap as one-fourth of what they are actually worth.

CONCERNING WOMAN.

The last of a series of six lectures on Browning was presented at the library this morning by Rev. J. W. Powell, when "Browning's Place in Literature" was discussed. "The matter and manner of his art must be taken into consideration in determining the place in literature of any writer," said the speaker. "And it is too soon, undoubtedly, to attempt to declare with any degree of finality the place Browning will occupy in the literature of the world. Some critics declare that fifty years hence there is no Browning will be restricted to the antiquary and the antiquarian, but I think that the students of life, those interested in the spiritual world, and those who are studying Browning as never before.

All art must conform to certain laws of art, which are partly psychological and partly objective. The mind finds the highest satisfaction when there exists a complete correspondence between the ideal, which appears almost spontaneously in the mind, and the reality, which is found within. A thing is beautiful in the degree in which it realizes its own ideal, and although questions of personal taste and ways figure largely, there is an ultimate standard to which art must be measured. The closest art comes closest to life, or as some one else has phrased it, "Art at its highest, and nature at its truest, are one." His truth to life is what makes the artist's worth to the world. In poetry is found the expression of the beautiful for the intellectual world, and the artist cannot be a great poet unless he knows the laws of this art and conforms to them. If Browning's poetry lives it will not be by virtue of his theories, or his theology, but by the degree that his poetry expresses life, by how much he has grasped the truth and revealed it to us. By this test much of his writings will fail. Perhaps two-thirds of his writings might be dropped out of the world without a material loss being suffered. But it is with the remaining third that we have to do. In that third there can be no question but that he has gathered the fragrance and aroma of life, and sent it on. He is charged with being old and revealed it to us. By this test much of his writings will fail. Perhaps two-thirds of his writings might be dropped out of the world without a material loss being suffered. But it is with the remaining third that we have to do. In that third there can be no question but that he has gathered the fragrance and aroma of life, and sent it on. He is charged with being old and revealed it to us.

Next Friday morning Mr. Powell will lecture at the library on the American poet, Sydney Lanier.

To View Picture.

An invitation has been extended by the Arts and Crafts committee of the Women's Council to the club women of Duluth and to the English-speaking pastors of the city and others interested to meet at the Swedish Lutheran church at the corner of Sixth avenue east and Third street, Monday morning of next week to view the altar picture "The Ascension," by David Ericson. Mr. Ericson will be at the church at 10 o'clock and will speak informally of the work.

Hosts at Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Mather entertained a dinner last evening at their home, 201 South Twenty-first avenue east. Covers were laid for eight.

To Attend Tournament.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kreitzer will entertain a number of guests at the ski tournament at Coleraine Sunday. The party will go up on the range tomorrow afternoon in the private car Mesaba, and will attend the ball to be given tomorrow evening. Their guests will be Mrs. J. T. Jones of Marquette, Miss Cotter of Two Harbors, Miss Olive Kreitzer and Messrs. P. J. Welch of Two Harbors and the delicate pink they will return Sunday night.

Bridge Party.

Mrs. E. F. Burg was hostess at cards yesterday afternoon at her home, 213 West Third street, one of a series of affairs to be given during the month. Bridge was played and the favors were won by Mrs. J. W. Comstock and Miss Coventry.

Concert.

A concert will be given Tuesday evening of next week at Flaten's hall by Rolf Hammer, Norwegian tenor, who was soloist with the Norwegian Student Singers during the tour of 1906. The concert will be given under the auspices of the Normann Male Chorus. The committee in charge of the affair consists of Haakon Haugen, B. Sande, A. Mobergen, J. C. Wesenberg and C. J. Halling.

Saturday Club.

The regular meeting of the Saturday club will be held tomorrow afternoon at the club room of the library. "Pure Foods" will be discussed by Mrs. J. C. Swan during the half hour devoted to current events and the outline of study for the afternoon with Mrs. Rebecca Penco Boyington, as leader, is as follows:

- I. Fra Bartolommeo—1475-1517.
 - a. Monastic Painter—Dominican Monk.
 - b. Influence of Savonarola.
 - c. Study: The Risen Christ, Portrait of Savonarola, St. Sebastian, and the Last Judgment.
- Miss Kathleen Nicholson.
- II. Andrea del Sarto, 1486-1530.
 - a. Influenced by Raphael and Bartolommeo.
 - b. Birth of the Virgin.
 - c. Convent of San Paolo, The Camera Frescoes in Parina.
- III. Correggio, 1494-1534.
 - a. Influenced by Mantegna.
 - b. Convent of San Paolo, The Camera Frescoes in Parina.
 - c. Marriage of St. Catharine, the Louvre.
 - d. The Nativity in Dresden.
- Mrs. Harbison.

Bradbury Recital.

Pupils from the Bradbury School of Music will appear in a recital this evening at Steinway hall. An interesting program of piano, violin and vocal numbers and readings has been arranged.

Simple Wedding.

The wedding of Miss Gertrude Sanderson and Henry W. Beaton of Hibbing took place Wednesday evening at the parsonage of the First Methodist church. The service was read by Rev. M. S. Rice. Mr. and Mrs. Beaton will be at home at Jacksonville, Fla., and Nassau.

Personal Mention.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Colbrath of 21 East Third street are visiting their daughter, Miss Olive Colbrath, at Hibbing for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Abraham of 1831 Jefferson street are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. Heller of Minneapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Albenberg of 129 Tenth avenue east will leave soon for an Eastern trip. Before their return they will visit at Jacksonville, Fla., and Nassau.

Miss Ruth Caldwell of East Superior street is the guest of Miss Marian Berry at Covey for a few days.

WHERE TO GO TONIGHT.

LYCEUM—"Dream City."

METROPOLITAN—Burlesque.

"DREAM CITY."

Little Chip and Mary Marble Are Stars of the Piece.

If last night's audience at the Lyceum theater had any fault to find with "Dream City," it certainly was not with the stars of the piece, Little Chip and Mary Marble.

Most of the time Chip was on the stage, the audience was in an uproar of mirth, and while Miss Marble is a clever comedienne, also, it was not her only accomplishment. Without these two, "Dream City" would be as dull as a Saturday afternoon in Superior. With them, the piece makes two hours and a half pass very pleasantly. It has been quite a spell since a musical comedy has been given at the Lyceum and last night's audience gave joyous welcome to the Chip-Marble combination.

What Retail Markets Offer.

Sweet peas, 50 cents a bunch. Green peppers, 3 for 25 cents. Sweet potatoes, 3 pounds for 25 cents.

Wax beans, 15 cents a pound. Turkeys, 25 cents a pound. Roast lamb, 20 cents a pound. The Duluth grown sweet peas are the nicest things in the market. They are shown in all the delicate pink flush of the variety which usually blooms in July and the lovely winged things are the most attractive bit of beauty in the market. For feeding the soul they are a perfect success, but to stay the hunger which the weather induces, roast turkey, and cranberry sauce, and sweet potatoes and spinach, and pork and beans, and buckwheat cakes with plenty of butter and syrup, and hot soup and two or three pieces of pie, and some rich fruit cake and nice preserves, and a plate or two of salad, are to be commended.

GRAND OPERA.

San Carlos Company Will Give Two Performances in Duluth.

The San Carlos Grand Opera company, a high class organization which has met with great success in the course of an engagement which has lasted several weeks at the Auditorium in Chicago, was billed to visit the Twin Cities during the week of Feb. 11, but, as it happens, they will get here tomorrow night, Feb. 10, and the last half of the week it will be in Minneapolis at the Auditorium in that city.

The intention was to secure the Auditorium in St. Paul for three nights and a matinee, but the question of terms proved a stumbling block. The Auditorium board's price of $50 for night performances and $20 for the matinee made a total of expense for the three days of $150, to which would have to be added $250, which the Symphony orchestra is said to have asked to transfer the date of its concert scheduled for Feb. 13.

The Minneapolis Auditorium has been secured, it is said, for $20 for four performances. The San Carlos company includes such stars as Nordica, Alice Nielsen, Mme. Niprie, Mme. DeSena, and among his name artists are Oppizo, Sossi, Fornari and DeSogorola.

The Duluth dates are Feb. 13 and 19.

"Strongheart."

Ralph Stuart will be seen here the coming season under the direction of Henry B. Harrie in "Strongheart," a comedy drama by William C. de Mille with its scenes laid at Columbia university. Stuart will get his company for the first time in the role of a college bred Indian and in his portrayal a popular star has added to his already well known reputation and has found a worthy successor which has made him well and favorably known to theatergoers here. A football game furnishes an exciting and dramatic episode in this comedy drama, which is certain to rank

"SHOE DAY" ON THE BOWERY

New York, Feb. 7.—Yesterday was "shoe day" on the Bowery and today 5,000 men are tramping the Bowery sidewalks wearing new shoes and woolen socks.

"Shoe day" is an institution and was established by Congressman Timothy D. Sullivan, known to his constituents and New York generally as "Big Tim." Every year Sullivan gives away shoes to very poor of his district who need them, and yesterday more than 5,000 were in line long before the doors of the club rooms were opened for the distribution. The annual distribution of shoes is Sullivan's per charity for he says a man can march to glory in a pair of new shoes and dry socks.

BRIDGE BILL THROUGH HOUSE

Measure Authorizing the St. Louis River Crossing is Passed.

Washington, Feb. 7.—(Special to The Herald).—Representative Bede today secured the passage through the house of the bill authorizing the construction of the inter-city bridge across the St. Louis river between Duluth and Superior.

Mr. Bede today recommended Lemuel S. Briggs for postmaster at Princeton, in place of William Gardiner. Senator Nelson left Washington today for Colorado Springs, where he was summoned because of the serious illness of his son, a former member of the Minnesota legislature, and later a resident of Everett, Wash. Mrs. Nelson and her daughter reached Colorado Springs yesterday and telegraphed the senator last night that the son had expressed a wish to see his father. The young man is suffering from tuberculosis, and the doctors attending him say he will hardly live more than a few days.

when they made a report to the probate court, some time ago.

Based on the report of P. A. Cosgrove, a special agent, who has been investigating the matter, the state has asked for a rehearing in the probate court in the matter of the inheritance tax, which the estate will have to pay under chapter 288 of the laws of 1905.

Based on the report of the trustees, which fixed the valuation of the property in St. Louis county to be worth $308,000, the court directed an inheritance tax of $14,948.46. The state contends that the property comprises iron ore holdings and is worth in the case of several millions of dollars. It is probable that the inheritance tax will be increased by a very substantial amount.

Another strong argument in favor of cash buying. You never buy what you don't need, as you invariably will if it's charged. This is the only grocery and meat market in Duluth, buying and selling strictly for cash. No credit store can afford to offer the values we give our patrons every day in the year. The following prices are for cash only," says the credit merchant when he advertises some unusual values. Those of his customers who have it charged, pay more. Every day is bargain day here, and our low cash prices are the same for all.

Jealousy Causes Insanity.

John Johank of Virginia was found to be insane at an examination held in the probate court yesterday afternoon and was committed to the state asylum. Jealousy of his wife is said to be the cause of his mental trouble.

John Johank insists that his wife is false to the cause of the board of examining physicians yesterday.

Jury Excused While Attorneys Argue.

Shortly after C. T. Fairbank, general manager of the Republic Iron & Steel company, was called to the witness stand by the plaintiffs in the action started by Lamont, Flynn and others against Miller, Coates and the Marquette Iron company, to recover on an alleged breach of contract in a mining deal, the jury was dismissed this morning over some law points that it took to the court.

Recipe No. 2 Universal Rolls THE BEST.

One quart DULUTH UNIVERSAL FLOUR, 1 pint new milk, 1 tablespoon each butter and salt, 2 tablespoons sugar, 1 half a tablespoon each butter and salt, 1 egg, 1 cup cold water. Scald milk, add shortening and sugar and let cool. Stir in flour to make thick batter; beat till smooth. Let rise over night; in the morning knead thirty minutes, using as little flour as possible. Let rise, and when light, roll out one-half inch thick, spread with melted butter, cut out with small sized cookie cutter and lap over. Put close together in pans, brush over with melted butter and when light, bake in moderately hot oven.

You would not drink muddy water—don't eat muddy bread. The best is none too good for the American woman. DULUTH UNIVERSAL IS THE BEST.
